Statement By Mr. Wm. H. Kain.

There was on the list of cases for trial at the March Term of the United States Circuit Court, sitting at Scranton, the case of William H. Kain vs. Benjamin F. Haines, an action for libel, for the publication by the defendant in his paper, the Wayne Independent, published at Honesdale, an article which the plaintiff (the undersigned) complained was libelous and defamatory. Acknowledging his error in the matter of the publication, Mr. Haines, on March 1, 1911, before the calling of the case for trial, saw fit to make an amicable adjustment of it, and terms of settlement were agreed upon between the parties and their attorneys, the terms and conditions of which were that certain financial amounts were to be allowed plaintiff, and the publication of a statement in the nature of a retraction, in the Independent. The financial ends of the settlement were fully complied with, and a statement was drawn by the attorneys, agreed upon by them and approved by the parties, and which was to be published according to the agreement of settlement. The statement agreed upon was as follows: "The Independent announces an amicable adjustment of the suit instituted against it by William H. Kain, and regrets the annoyance caused Mr. Kain by reason of the publication of an article on September 16, 1908, copied from the Brooklyn Citizen of September 9, 1908, and states that the publication of such article was due to a lack of knowledge of all the facts of the case. "We agree to see the above is published in the Wayne Independent. H. W. MUMFORD."

The above, signed by Mr. Mumford, who was one of the attorneys of the plaintiff, was given to plaintiff in presence of the defendant, at the conclusion of the settlement. To this date Mr. Haines has failed to fulfill his part of the agreement, so far as the publication of the statement is concerned, and refuses to do so. Therefore, I ask to make public the inside facts relating to the settlement of this case. WM. H. KAIN.

—The glass cutters union of this place and a representation from Hawley met in a lengthy session on Friday night. From what can be ascertained, it is said, in order for Hawley cutters to gain their point they ask that the cutters in Honesdale go out. It is understood that Organizer Luckock advised the Honesdale cutters not to strike.

—Invitations have been issued announcing the approaching marriage of Miss Carrie Mae, daughter of Mrs. Lydia H. Dickins, to Rev. Edward William Morrison, Wednesday afternoon, April 19, at 4 o'clock at Maplewood. Rev. Morrison is the popular pastor of the Methodist Episcopal churches at Gravity, South Canaan and Cherry Ridge.

—General Organizer, Mr. Luckock, of the American Flint Glass Workers Union, at a meeting of the local glass workers union held last Friday evening, advised the men not to strike at present. There is considerable unrest among the glass cutters, and has been ever since the strike of the thirteenth of April last year. Since that time several of the glass concerns have left the city and located elsewhere, and many of the shops are only making seven and eight hours a day, five days in the week.

—Four young ladies of Honesdale visited the "printer's devil" at his home last Sunday. The "devil" says he is going to organize a branch of the World's Health Organization, or W. H. O. for short, a national society with headquarters at Cincinnati, O., whose motto is "Kiss Not," and members in which take the pledge "to discourage the custom of kissing whenever it is in my power."

—It is said that unless the Seelyville basketball five consents to play a third and deciding game on a neutral floor, Manager A. E. Gilpin, of the Hawley scholastic team, announces that he will claim the basketball championship of Wayne county for the local school.

Each team to date has won a game. Hawley captured the first, score 19 to 18. Seelyville won the second, score 22 to 21. Manager Gilpin proposes that the deciding game be played March 29 at White Mills.

—Some two weeks ago we mentioned that J. Boyd Case and family, Carbondale, were to make their future home at Glendise, Montana, where the former had purchased a ranch. Previous to their departure last Wednesday, a committee of the local branch of the Order of Railway Conductors—his run being on the Delaware and Hudson—presented Mr. Case with a solid gold watch, chain and charm. Neatly engraved on the chain were the dates May 30, 1883, and May 30, 1911, which represent the number of years Mr. Case has been a member of the order. He is a native of Waymart.

—When two box cars in an Erie freight train jumped the track near Lake Ariel Saturday morning two brakemen, George Brink and Jacob Craft, were seriously injured. Brink was taken to a private hospital in Scranton. His injuries may prove fatal. His left thigh and both arms are broken and he is otherwise painfully injured. Craft, who was not injured so seriously, was taken to his home in Dunmore. The accident happened on a switch near the Lake Ariel station a little after ten o'clock. Two loaded cars were being shunted toward the station when the head car left the track and pulled the other with it. Brink and Craft were on the decks of the cars and when they toppled over, the men were caught under them. Aside from disarranging the contents of the cars and slight damage to the cars themselves, the wreck was not serious.

—Can you imagine "The Girl of the Golden West" set to music? If you can, you have some idea what Joseph E. Howard's fascinating Western musical comedy, "The Flower of the Ranch," which captivated audiences through the larger cities in the United States is like. This most interesting musical comedy was written by Mr. Howard three summers ago and proved a real drawing card from the first performance, remaining in the cities of New York and Chicago nearly two years. Howard chose for his settings the Southerly slope of the California hills, and during the entire play the characters are drawn true to life, so much out of the ordinary run of the musical plays. It is overflowing with Howard music, and ever so many song hits. There are some forty people, including the chic little comedienne, Miss Nellie Watters, John E. Frank, Jess Harris, J. D. Jaxone, Robert Saburn, Chester Gates and Fred Van Ricken. At the Lyric next Thursday evening, March 30.

—Reports from Harrisburg indicate that the American Patriots do not intend to willingly relinquish the money received by them from the officers of the Keystone Guard. In a lengthy answer filed by them in the Dauphin county court they allege that they have received only $17,000. If this be true it only deepens the mystery as to what has become of the balance of the $300,000 assets of the Guard. The officers who sold out received $50,000, which they claim did not come from the funds of the Guard. What has become of the balance of the $300,000? Thursday, March 30, has been fixed for a continuation of the hearing in the Dauphin county court at Harrisburg and subpoenas have been issued for Dr. E. M. Cowell, L. T. Hoyt, J. W. Beaman, G. F. Stanton and A. S. Maurice, to appear at that date. Stanton and Maurice are outside of the jurisdiction of the court and it is not thought that they will appear voluntarily to tell what they know about it. It is intimated by those who are in position to know that disclosures, more startling than at the previous hearing will be made next Thursday. [People's Daily Advocate, Towanda.]

—There are now four bodies in the vault at Glen Dyberry awaiting burial.

—United States District Attorney A. B. Dunsmore was a business caller here last week.

—The Ladies' Aid society of the First Baptist church met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. George P. Ross.

—Among the Scrantonians who spent Sunday in Honesdale were Louis Andres, Harry H. Farren, J. J. Walker.

—Take pride in keeping your back yard as neat and clean as the lawn and roadway in front of your dwelling, and thus add to the beauty and healthfulness of your premises and Honesdale in general.

—The State Highway department has posted signs along the different pieces of road instructing drivers not to drive in a single track. The request, however, is not being lived up to on the Dyberry road.

—Mrs. Isaac Forman, whose husband served in Company C, Sixth Reserves, and who died last Fall, has been granted a widow's pension of $12 a month. She received the certificate for her first installment of pension money, Monday morning.

Eugene A. Dorflinger, White Mills, has delivered to Miss Nellie J. Dorflinger of that place a 30 h. p. "Jackson" runabout and expects to make the following deliveries on Saturday next: John E. Krantz, Honesdale, 30 h. p. 5 passenger touring car; Harry J. Atkinson, Hawley, a 5 passenger Ford touring car; delivered next week: Louis J. Dorflinger, Honesdale, 7 passenger, 50 h. p. "Jackson"; Teeter Bros., Hawley, 2 passenger 30 h. p. "Jackson"; Homer Cross, Hawley, 2 passenger, 30 h. p. "Jackson."

The Roosevelt dam in Arizona, which was dedicated last week, deservedly ranks as one of the tremendous engineering triumphs of this hemisphere. The dam at its highest point is 238 feet from bottom to top, and the lake formed by it will irrigate an area twice as large as the state of Rhode Island. Salt River valley, worthless from time beyond memory of man, will now bloom like the rose wherever the main canals 100 miles in length and their branches extending laterally 200 miles away penetrate the parched desert.—Springfield Republican.

—The Hawley Times in commenting upon the Elite Banquet says: Judge A. T. Searle, whose address at last year's banquet could not well be forgotten, and whose personality is a grace to any place or occasion, was guest of the clubmen for the evening. He was called upon for a speech. He protested his want of preparation and that he was present simply for the good companionship of the hour and to hear his distinguished conferee. He, however, was not without subject-matter, chimed in most felicitously with the sentiments of Mr. Greene, pointed what he had to say with a humorous tale or two, and then distributed gifts of office around among the young men when Hawley should become a municipality. Judge Searle is a prime favorite with the young men here and is sure never to be left out of a company like this.

Largely attended memorial services for the late Mrs. Gertrude O. Hiller, a former local president of the W. C. T. U., who died a few weeks ago, were held by the County W. C. T. U. in the Presbyterian Chapel, Friday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock, and were presided over by the Rev. Albert C. Olver, Honesdale. Miss Jennie Ball gave some personal recollections of Miss Frances E. Willard, for many years national president of the W. C. T. U. Mrs. Brown, Elmira, N. Y., read a paper on Miss Willard. Mrs. J. M. Coleman, Damascus, sent a paper which was read by Mrs. George P. Ross on the "Life of Mrs. Hiller." Mrs. Wallace Barnes, Beach Lake, gave some personal recollections of the early life of Mrs. Hiller, who was born in Beach Lake. The Rev. W. H. Swift, D. D., spoke on her church and religious life. Miss Elsa Jacobs rendered two piano selections. Mrs. Alice Rockwell and Miss Martha Kimble sang solos, in their usual finished and accomplished style. The visiting delegates from the country districts were dinner guests of the Honesdale W. C. T. U. in the church parlors.

The seventh annual session of the Laymen's Association of Wyoming Conference will meet in the First Baptist church, of Owego, N. Y., Friday, March 31. The officers are: Madison F. Larkin, president, Scranton; vice presidents, J. G. Pemberton, Owego, J. O. Rowe, Oneonta; Thomas Henwood, Dunmore, and C. W. Laycock, Kingston; recording secretary, W. P. Airfey, Wilkes-Barre; treasurer, H. B. Tilbury, Owego. The main purpose of the organization is to help devise plans and carry into effect means by which a better pastoral support may be given the ministry in the weaker churches of the conference.

The laymen's program is as follows: MORNING SESSION. Devotions by Thomas Henwood, vice-president, Scranton. Reports of president, vice-president, treasurer. "The duplex financial system," by Dr. Kantz, D. D. New York. Address, "Our educational standard and how to obtain it," by Prof. M. L. Harding, M. A., Kingston. Appointment of committees. Adjournment.
