

THE COUNTY

HAWLEY.

(Special to The Citizen.)
HAWLEY, Pa., April 11.—A reunion service of all those now living in town who were confirmed in the German Lutheran church, was conducted Sunday evening by Rev. Rudolf Lucas...

Passion week will be observed in the various churches. The Methodist will have an afternoon and evening service each day. It is said the difficulty was a war of words not wages. No doubt an amicable settlement will soon be made.

Samuel James has been confined to the house during the week from a dangerous case of blood poisoning produced by a sore on his leg. Dr. Catterall has been in daily attendance.

Miss Frances Robinson is suffering with a nervous attack and unable to attend to her duties as night operator in the telephone exchange and sales lady in E. L. Schlager's store.

Carl Blossom, of the Wesleyan University, is home for his Easter vacation.

Rev. Mr. Smalley, of the Baptist church, owing to illness, was unable to occupy his pulpit Sunday.

George Pelton on Sunday attended the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Lillian Halley, Newark. She died at her home in that city on Thursday, April 6, aged 40 years.

Charles Wheeler, Wilsonville, is recovering from a severe tussle with tonsillitis.

Carl Schlager, Scranton, passed Sunday in town.

Raymond Williams attended the Baptist association held in Honesdale last week.

Mrs. Woodward, Honesdale, spent Friday with her aunt, Mrs. A. Bell. Postmaster D. James Colgate and Conrad Reineke were business visitors in the metropolians from Thursday until Saturday.

Mrs. Ford is spending some time with Mrs. Marcus Killam at Patzack. Estelle Williams left on Saturday for the county seat where she has secured a position.

Pearl Crane, Uswick, was a Sunday guest of Frances Guinn.

Benjamin Killam, Paupack, was transacting business here Saturday.

Ed. Lynn shipped a valuable horse to a New York purchaser last Friday.

Miss Anna Taft returned Saturday from an extended visit with Harrisburg and Philadelphia relatives.

A broken rail derailed seven loaded coal cars at Rock Cut, on the Erie railroad, between this place and Lackawaxen Friday night.

"Paid in Full," which is a very interesting subject, was played at the Standard Opera House on Tuesday evening. A better troupe never visited town but the play was not patronized as it should have been.

The managers of the opera house are trying to have them return at a later date.

A card party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Warg, Penn avenue, on Tuesday evening. Refreshments were served.

Frank Pennell, Uswick, was in town on Saturday.

Peter Unger is spending the week in New York city.

Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Wall and son Arthur, start on Wednesday for New York city, where they will meet and accompany home their son, Dr. Russell Wall, who has been for some time at Vienna, receiving special instruction under the tutorage of some of the best doctors of that country.

Mr. and Mrs. Correll have been entertaining their son who resides at Honesdale.

Mrs. Conrad Reineke, Uswick, spent Tuesday and Wednesday with her husband at the Reader House.

Mrs. Swingle, Keystone street, is confined to the house by illness.

Richard Reichart, who has sold his hotel property at Tafton to the Paupack Power company for $9,000, has purchased the Gains property on the East side, one of the finest locations in town.

A. T. Fobbs, foreman in the Atkinson box factory, has purchased the Taft property on the corner of Keystone street and Main avenue. This is a very old stand and centrally located. The transfer of the property has been made and Mr. Fobbs took possession on Saturday of last week.

The lot is 60x120 on which is a store building containing apartments for three families. Miss Mary Bishop, who occupied a portion of the building has moved across the street in rooms over Joseph Klier's store.

Walter Vetterlein has been appointed a director of the Hawley Bank to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Michael J. Lynn.

C. S. Hardenbergh, Scranton, assisted by a force of men, have been surveying for the Paupack Power company. This company has already cleared the roadway of brush and are now engaged leveling for the track for their tramway which will be run some distance above Wilsonville.

Ray Olmsted, Uswick, is now a student of the High school.

William Rouse has leased of Mrs. Davey, proprietor of the Cottage Hotel, the bar part of the business of that house.

Burton L. Lockwood, the silver-toned orator from Philadelphia, will lecture in the Baptist church on Wednesday evening, April 12. A silver offering will be taken.

Michael Lawlor has purchased the house in which he has lived for the past fifteen years. It is located on Keystone street.

Edward J. Sheridan, a highly respected young man of the East Side, died at the home of his brother on March 24, aged 29 years. He was a glass cutter by trade and for some time worked in the Honesdale shops.

Two years ago while engaged in gathering laurels for shipment to the city he slipped and fell from the cart which he was loading breaking his knee pan, also receiving some other quite serious injuries from which it is said he never quite fully recovered.

Decensed was a graduate of the Hawley High school, a member of Hawley Council, Knights of Columbus. He is survived by one brother, Michael, and two sisters, Jennie and Mrs. Martin Barrett, all of Hawley.

Mrs. Ina Chubb, Carbondale, was a recent visitor of relatives here.

Lester Christiana, our station agent, is confined to his home with sore eyes and Jacob Hoge, Hawley, is working in his place.

Walter Walker, the new Methodist minister, is moving into the house vacated by Laban Clark.

The Fire Company's meeting on Thursday evening was well attended.

A party was held at Mrs. Peter Wagner's on Sunday in honor of her birthday. The following from out of town were present: Mrs. Pitt, Scranton, and some of her lady friends. Quite a number from town were present and a jolly good time was reported.

INDIAN ORCHARD.

(Special to The Citizen.)
INDIAN ORCHARD, Pa., April 8.—We hear a great many finding fault with the cold weather and the backward spring. We wonder how many will have everything done that can be done in the cold, dreary days that they may be prepared to till the soil as soon as the weather will permit.

The new telephone line is being talked up again and no doubt the patrons will soon be talking over it.

Messrs. Kimble, Honesdale, and Wood, Beach Lake, favored the grangers with excellent addresses at their last meeting.

Ray Bayly and family, E. Honesdale, were the guests of E. C. Ham and wife on Sunday.

Marshall Smith is handling the reins over a fine pair of young black horses.

Everybody should attend the orchard inspection at W. J. P. Warwick's on Friday, April 14. Those who are interested in the raising of fruit will be able to glean much useful information.

STARRUCCA.

(Special to The Citizen.)
STARRUCCA, Pa., April 11.—Already six months have passed since our annual convention. While Starrucca union has been patiently waiting the coming of the state organizer to our county, and has scanned the columns of the county papers for reports of the local institutes that were planned for at the convention, we have not been wholly idle.

Our union furnished dinner and supper on election day, a report of which has already been given. On January 31 they served a ten cent supper in their rooms, which netted them a neat sum.

Sunday evening, February 5, they held, at the request of the pastor, Rev. L. E. Sanford, a special meeting to show their relation to the church, the W. C. T. U. quartette furnishing appropriate music.

Mrs. Huyck, in an excellent paper, explained that the W. C. T. U. was an own daughter to the church with the Sunday school, the missionary society and the aid society, each doing its particular work in the uplift of humanity.

Mrs. Skellett told briefly but plainly the part the flower mission department took in church and soul rescue work.

Mrs. Waterman, in her paper on evangelistic work gave statistics that show what a wonderful work was being done in that department, not only in Wayne county, but around the world.

Revs. F. B. Larrabee and L. E. Sanford gave short addresses and all in all the meeting was most instructive. On February 10 a Francis Willard memorial service was held in our rooms. A number of excellent articles were read and the new members gained information as to what the memorial fund supported.

Wednesday, March 29, being our state day of prayer, the president called a special meeting at 2:30 o'clock. A goodly number attended and each member quoted a passage of scripture. Prayer was offered by our evangelistic superintendent, Mrs. Emma Smith; also by Mrs. Skellett and Mrs. Laura Mumford.

A beautiful feature of the meeting was the presenting of a Bible by the sub-union to the mother organization. Mrs. Waterman sent to be used as a book mark, the ribbon badge, with the words "doubled membership" which she had the honor to wear at state convention in Scranton, Starrucca union having gained the most members of any in this county during the year.

In the business meeting that followed plans were made for a parlor social to be held in the near future.

DREHER.

(Special to The Citizen.)
