DAMASCUS

DAMASCUS, Pa., May 9.—Church people were called upon to fight fire in the woods belonging to G. C. Abraham on Sunday, April 30. The fire broke out about ten o'clock in the woods just above the home of Corwin Valentine and raged until one o'clock when the gang of fire fighters succeeded in getting it under control. About three acres of timber were burned over.

The High School team opened up their baseball season with a game with the married men on their new diamond on Hungry Hill Wednesday, May 3. Reilly and Boyd constituted the High school battery, and Abraham and Fromer played in that capacity for the married men. The line-up follows: High School—Boyd, c.; Reilly, p.; Pethick, 1b.; H. Pethick, 2b.; R. Pethick, 3b.; Dexter, ss.; Hocker, rf.; Brigham, cf.; S. Noble, lf. Married Men—Fromer, c.; Abraham, p.; R. Pethick, 1b.; Gregg, 2b.; Bush, 3b.; Boucher, ss.; Whitmore, rf.; C. Noble, cf.; L. Pethick, lf. At the end of the ninth inning the score was even, but at the end of the tenth inning it stood 9 to 8 in favor of the Married Men. Glen Tyler umpired the game.

The last number of the High school lecture course, the oratorical contest, was held on Tuesday evening in the Baptist church, and was well attended. Miss Elizabeth Kane, Cochection, and the Misses Faye and Mary Abraham played selections on the piano which were enjoyed by all. The contestants were: Alma Canfield, Helene Yerkes, Florence Sheard, Nina Smith, Eva Skillhorn, Miriam Minch, Mary Vail, Arthur Brigham, Spencer Noble and Merle Bogert. The prizes, five dollar gold pieces to the winners among the boys and the girls, were given by George C. Abraham and C. M. Pethick. The judges were people who knew none of the contestants. They awarded the girls' prize to Miss Alma Canfield and the boys' prize to Merle Bogert and Spencer Noble.

After the contest, Mr. Pethick, the principal of the High school, invited the contestants and those who had helped make the evening a success, to an informal reception in the basement of the church.

The High School Athletic Association took up a collection for the base ball team after chapel on Thursday morning which amounted to $7.

Rev. A. C. Oliver, Honesdale, one of the most popular ministers that has ever been on the Damascus charge, is filling the pulpit of the M. E. church here during the absence of Rev. F. E. Moser, who is finishing his schooling at Dickinson College.

George Hittinger, who was thrown from his wagon in a runaway accident and taken to a hospital in Scranton, was brought to the home of his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Ella Hittinger, on Saturday afternoon. The physicians found internal injuries of a fatal nature from which he is not likely to recover. He is not able to be taken to his home on Long Ridge.

As the M. E. church needed one or more coats of paint, to help meet this expense, the ladies of the congregation decided recently to each earn $1.00, and tell how they earned it in poetry or prose at an "Experience social" which was held in the church Tuesday evening, May 2. Admission fee only ten cents. It would be difficult to decide which one of the ladies was the poet laureate of the occasion as each composition seemed the best of its kind in originality and bright witcisms. The musical end of the affair was ably taken care of by a burlesque orchestra composed of eighteen ladies who timidly made their first bow before the public. How well they were received could be judged by the hearty applause which followed each selection. There were other musical numbers equally pleasing.

The entertainment throughout was very amusing and provoked as much laughter as our editor's smile club. A specialty of the evening was produced by Hawley's five dollar kickers, winners of The Citizen's prize kicks. One of the number composed the spicy poetry recited by them. The admission fee, with $73 earned by the ladies and some given by the men, netted the sum of $102.40.

Four of our Sterling school directors, W. B. Lesher, R. B. Simons, R. R. Stevens and F. L. Hartford attended the election of the county superintendent at Honesdale last week.

We notice that twelve of the Sterling pupils received common school diplomas at the recent examination which is just twice as many as any other township received. Good for Sterling!

The High school had their closing exercises on the 3rd, and everything passed off without a jar and was appreciated by a full house. Prof. J. M. Coughlin's address was excellent and all enjoyed the Newfoundland Glee Club which is composed of the following members: F. D. Waltz, H. B. and D. B. Smith, Arthur Cramer, Will Rohrbacker, Alfred Walters and Charles Sieg.
