The policy of the The Citizen is to print the local news in an interesting manner, to summarize the news of the world at large, to fight for the right as this paper sees the right, without fear or favor to the end that it may serve the best interests of its readers and the welfare of the county.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 31, 1911.

It seems as if Bankers Morse and Walsh could not get accustomed to cutting rocks instead of coupons.

Someone proposes to ventilate the New York Subway. Suppose it's an effort to clear up the guard's language.

The girl who committed suicide because she was so terribly ugly probably thought she'd be beautiful in death, as they say in the best sellers.

SENATORIAL EXERCISE.

Says Jeff Davis, "I'm not feeling right to-day. I think I'll make a speech and get up a sweat." Well, Jeff's not the only Senator who takes his exercise by talking.

We puzzled over those three letters F. F. V. for a long time before it dawned on us that it meant "first families of Virginia" instead of "fine fresh vegetables."

Governor Wilson of New Jersey has been docked $800 for absence during his western trip. Probably next time he's absent or late to the office in the morning he'll lose his job like the rest of us.

Judging from the number of Americans who have been, are being and will be presented at the English Court, it would simplify matters considerably it seems to us, if the coronation was held at Newport or Atlantic City.

Rear Admiral Badger, at a naval supper in honor of the officers of the Second Division of the United States Atlantic Fleet at Copenhagen, proposed a toast to the German navy by mistake. We think the admiral will be as popular with the Danes as Old Doctor Cookerino.

"No man," says Senator Bailey, "should hesitate to vote for the election of Lorimer from the Senate if proof can be obtained that the election was the result of corruption and that the Illinois Senator had guilty knowledge." And yet, as we recall it, the Texan Stereotyped Senator not only hesitated but actually stumbled.

"It may be strange to hear it, but you know I am in favor of celibacy among legislators as I am among Christian ministers. If you want men to be independent let them become bachelors."—Woodrow Wilson. That last sentence settles his chances for the Presidency, and take it from us, all women who have been, are, or hope to be wives, will see to it that Hubby shows his dependence by voting against such a heretical doctrine.

IT MIGHT HAVE BEEN FOOLISH QUESTION NO. 7,854,301.

On my (W. J. Bryan speaking as usual) return from South America I called upon President Taft. He said: "So you're just back from South America." I said: "No, I'm way down in Jungle Town talking with a bald headed chimpanzee, with a touch of lumbago and a wooden leg."

A MIX UP IN SMITHS.

Some confusion resulted aboard the steamer Saxonia which recently arrived in port because W. George Smith, of Philadelphia, and W. George Smith, of Atwater, had been assigned berths in the same stateroom. The Philadelphia Smith got to the cabin first and found a pile of letters waiting for him. All were addressed to W. George Smith, but the first letter opened was from "Helen, of Buffalo."

The Atwater Smith entered the stateroom soon after, and was a little excited when he found that all his mail had been opened. Bitter words were followed by apologies and then a hearty handshake, and the two Smiths swore to be good companions during the trip.—News Item.

This would have been a bully little story and we'd have believed every word of it except for one thing. It says the Philadelphia Smith got to the cabin FIRST.

PITTSBURG—A CITY OF COWARDS.

A case of leprosy has been found in Pittsburg, and isolated in a tent at the Municipal Hospital. That city, frightened, it would seem, out of its very wits, and certainly out of any semblance of humanitarian conduct, is circulating a petition asking the Director of Public Health TO DEVISE A PAINLESS METHOD OF PUTTING THE UNFORTUNATE VICTIM TO DEATH!

This petition is being signed by many responsible citizens. They are placing their signatures—the same signatures as they write on the bottom of their checks—on the bottom of a piece of paper "respectfully requesting" a fellow being's death. It is true the victim is a Chinaman, but what difference does that make? We doubt if even China would, or could, exhibit such cold blooded cruelty as Pittsburg is now exhibiting, in spite of the fact that China is supposed to be a heathen and uncivilized nation.

Pittsburg has proved itself a Smoky City indeed. The glass of its moral lenses must be as dirty as the blackened atmosphere hanging over the town when it can sink to formulating and circulating such a document. Hall Pittsburg—a city of Cowards, each one branded as shameless by his very autograph. Leprosy is a shocking and terrible disease, we admit, but the moral leprosy which fastens on every person who puts his name to that inhuman petition is revolting to a far greater degree.

THE PRESIDENT AND THE PARDONS.

A whole lot of sympathy has been raised for the two convicted bankers, Charles W. Morse and John R. Walsh, especially in the case of the former. This is so principally because of the amazing energy and hard work which Mrs. Morse has put into her repeated attempts to gain her husband's release. Not a little of this sympathy is due to the fact that her each successive courageous effort has met with bitter failure.

Morse was convicted of making false entries in the books of National Bank of North America. Walsh was convicted of misapplying funds of the Chicago National Bank. In each case there was proven a deliberate betrayal of trust and a violation of the banking laws of the nation.

The two men, despite their standing in the communities in which they lived, were criminals in the eyes of the law and their punishment was fitting and deserved.

In refusing their petitions for pardons, Mr. Taft has but done his duty. It would have been deplorable indeed, had he yielded to certain currents of public opinion and granted a pardon to either of the two men who took "other people's money for his own use."

Let them serve their respective terms of five and fifteen years in Leavenworth and Atlanta as examples that the United States Government is powerful enough to punish those who break its laws, no matter how influential and prominent those law-breakers may be.

MEASURES THAT WENT THROUGH LEGISLATURE

Making appropriations aggregating over $54,000,000 for various purposes, including $15,000,000 directly to the public schools.

A comprehensive School Code covering the entire State and giving Philadelphia a Board of fifteen members empowered to levy taxes for school purposes and to have complete control of school funds.

Sproul Good Roads bill, appropriating $400,000 to begin the work upon a comprehensive system of road building and road maintaining and mapping out 294 routes covering every county in the State and planning for about 7000 miles of fine roads.

A Constitutional amendment authorizing the floating of loans aggregating $50,000,000 for the completion of the work of road building provided for in the Sproul bill. This amendment must be approved by the next Legislature and ratified by a popular vote before it shall become effective.

Jones "Dirt" Road bill, providing for $1,000,000 to be spent upon so-called "dirt" roads in accordance with the demands of certain farming sections.

Reorganization of the Insurance Department by providing for a modern and more effective system of examination of State insurance companies.

Abolition of the system of appointments of lawyers and others to wind up the affairs of bankrupt banks and trust companies by providing that this work shall be done hereafter by the State Banking Department.

Provision for supervision of private banking firms and institutions which are now exempt from inspection and are frequently the cause of much loss to depositors and others doing business with them.

Changing registration boards in first and second class cities from four to three and making the vote at the presidential election instead of at "the last preceding election" the basis of appointment.

Abolishing the present system of road juries and creating permanent boards of viewers of nine members each in Philadelphia and Pittsburg, who shall be paid $5,000 a year each, and for a board in each county to consist of nine men, who shall be paid upon a per diem basis.

Providing a new code for the National Guard.

Concurrence in the action of the last Legislature in the adoption of an amendment to the Constitution permitting Philadelphia to borrow money for the construction of subways for railway purposes, wharves and docks and the reclamation of lands for port improvements.

Appropriation of $500,000 for the improvement of the Philadelphia harbor.

Increasing the salaries of 130 Judges throughout the State, calling for an additional annual expenditure of $221,500.

Providing for the retirement of Judges who shall become incapacitated by reason of physical disability on full pay for the balance of their term and half pay thereafter during life.

Bituminous mine code, providing for greater protection for workers in the mines.

Full crew bill for railroad men.

Semi-monthly pay bill.

Reform Councilmanic plan for Pittsburg and Scranton, reducing the number of Councilmen and making the position a salaried one. Governor to appoint immediately the first Councilmen, who shall serve until January 1, their successors to be chosen by the people in November. Pittsburg to have nine Councilmen at $6500 a year each and Scranton five at $2000 a year each.

Reorganization of the State Police and increasing the pay of all enlisted men and officers with the exception of the superintendent.

Creation of a Board of Recreation for Philadelphia.

Legislation against so-called loan sharks.

The One Board Medical bill, for which members of the medical profession have been fighting for twenty years. It covers the allopathic, homeopathic and eclectic schools.

Companion bill for registration of medical students.

Commission to inquire into the causes and to suggest remedies in cases of industrial accidents.

A commission to revise and codify the anthracite mining laws.

Appropriations to complete the State hospitals for the insane at Rittersville and Farview.

Appropriation of $250,000 toward the construction of a House Hospital for the Feeble-Minded in Philadelphia, the city to bear part of the expense.

Appropriation of $100,000 for a memorial and observance of celebration of anniversary of Perry's victory on Lake Erie.

Appropriation of $50,000 toward cele-

MEMORIAL SERVICE

"The cross and the flag! How we should love them! Both show death. Both show sacrifice. Both brought blessings eternal to the human race. Patriotism is love of country, love for its real development, love as tender and soft as a mother for the babe on its breast; it's a duty of gratitude."

The church was beautifully decorated, with cut flowers and palms. Flags and red, white and blue bunting were everywhere in evidence.

Large delegations from the various military organizations of the city were escorted to the church from their meeting places by the Maple City Fire and Drum Corps. An elaborate musical program was rendered as follows:

PART I. Prelude..... Orchestra "Star Spangled Banner"..... School Children "Honored Dead"..... Dirge "Golden Scepter"..... Orchestra "O Columbia"..... School Children Selection..... Thomas Finnerty

PART II. "O Salutaris Hostia"..... St. Mary Magdalena's Choir Invocation. "Tantum Ergo"..... St. Mary Magdalena's Choir Benediction. "America"..... School Children Postlude.

Orchestra: A. W. Cowles, J. A. Bussa, H. Wagner, J. W. Sonner, P. W. Sonner. Organ: Mrs. L. B. Richtmyer, Sisters of Christian Charity. Ushers: Lawrence C. Weniger, Jos. Crockenberg, George Stahl, Walter Hock, William Kelsch, Joseph Polt.

The members of the Post are: H. Wilson, Commander; J. E. Cook, Senior vice commander; S. O. Lincoln, junior vice commander; W. W. Wood, officer of the day; Graham Watts, quartermaster; Benj. Gardner, adjutant; Dr. R. W. Brady, surgeon; P. R. Collum, chaplain; Michael Wever, officer of the guard; H. Pariseh, guard; Isaac H. Ball, Richard Parish, Wm. E. Justin, D. M. Kimble, M. E. COMING IN ALL ITS ENTIRETY. John H. Sparks' World's Famous Shows to Visit Honesdale for One Day Only.

Four hundred people employed and carrying over two hundred foreign and domestic animals, is the statement made by Mr. C. S. Clark, agent for the Sparks shows, who was in town last Thursday making arrangements for the appearance of this big circus here on Friday, June 16.

The strange colony of people, handsome horses, rare wild animals and the golden caravans are scheduled to arrive here during the early hours of the morning of the above date in their own special trains of specially built railway cars from Tunkhannock, where they will exhibit the day before.

Circus day will begin with a big street parade at 12 o'clock noon, and two performances will be given, the first starting at 2 o'clock and the other at 8 o'clock. It is said that the Sparks Shows have $75,000 tied up in chariots, tableaux, floats, musical vehicles, fanciful and historic costumes, and expensive and odd things of distinctive parade use.

The Sparks shows have improved and grown remarkably during the last few years, and to those of us who remember its former visits comes the thought that it was always a clean, moral and entertaining show, and one we never hesitated in having our families visit. It is said that the show still retains these features that made it such a welcome visitor in the years gone by, and that its methods of doing business with the public are still of that same high order.

Catarrh is Surely a Dangerous Disease

Thousands of people allow catarrh to slowly undermine the whole system until a serious disease develops—sometimes consumption. People who have catarrh should use every effort to get rid of it, but should above all adopt a sensible method. Stomach dosing, sprays and douches won't cure catarrh because it is a germ disease, and the germs must be destroyed before the disease can be conquered.

HYOMEI is the one sensible cure for catarrh because it reaches every fold, crevice and nook in the mucous membrane and gets where the germs are. You breathe HYOMEI and as it passes over the inflamed membrane its soothing influence heals the soreness and destroys the germs. A complete HYOMEI outfit costs $1.00. This consists of a bottle of HYOMEI and a hard rubber inhaler. Pour a few drops of HYOMEI into the inhaler and breathe it a few minutes each day, that's all you have to do. It is guaranteed by G. W. Pell and druggists everywhere to cure catarrh, coughs, colds and sore throat or money back. Extra bottle of HYOMEI costs 50 cents. Free trial sample on request, from Booth's Hyomei Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

$100 REWARD, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by all Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.
