A-CENT-A-WORD

FOR SALE.

A STANDARD SEWING MACHINE $8.00; a Demorest Sewing Machine, $7.00. Either one a bargain. McIntyre.

FOR SALE—Six-room cottage with small orchard, located in village.

Edw. O. Bang, So. Canaan, Pa. 23tf BILLINGS CORN PLANTERS AND corn fertilizers. Blg stock at Murray Co., Honesdale, Pa. 43t2

FOR SALE-KELLY & STEINMAN orick factory building, including engine, boiler and shafting. Inquire of J. B. Robinson

FOR RENT.

FOR RENT - AN APARTMENT for a small family. Inquire of Philip Krantz, 300 14th St. 41tf

TO RENT-7-room cement house on East Extension street. Hot and cold water, bath and closet. Gas furnace. Inquire of Graham

FOR RENT-Six rooms with bath on second floor, also 3 rooms down-stairs. 1231 Spring street. 34tf.

FCR RENT-A modern house and improvements with garden West street. Inquire Joshua

MISCELLANEOUS.

B. GOLDEN, OPTOMETRIST, EYE sight specialist, who conducts op-tical parlors on North Main stree; Carbondale, will be at the Allen House, Honesdale, all day Friday. 43t2

THREE experienced workmen at the bench daily. All repairs finished at the shortest notice. Sommer, Jeweler and Optician. 30tf PYROX, THE ONE BEST SPRAY for all leaf eating insects. Send for book. Murray Co., Honesdale.

ALL REPAIR WORK finished up-todate in all our different branches. Sommer, Jeweler and Optician, 30tf

BARGAINS IN WAGONS-SLIGHTly used but in good condition: Canopy Top Surrey, $40; Rubber Tired Runabout, $25; Concord Open Buggy, $30; One-Seated Buckboard, $35; Milk Buckboard, heavy, $35. All of above extremely good values. Murray Co., Honesdale, Pa. 43t2

INVENTORY of our repair depart-ment shows 236 finished jobs wait-Titus, New York City. ing to be called for. Sommer, Jewe-ler and Optician. 30tf. ler and Optician.

TWELVE CLOTH TRESPASS notices printed for $1, at The Citizen office, six for 75 cents. Name of owners, township wherein land is situated and law pertaining to trespassing, printed thereon.

WANTED—ONE BOB TAILED TOM cat, unmarried, with whiskers like the Kalser's. Must be able to conduct himself like a perfect gentleman about the house, which is No. 1704 West street. Plenty of cute little mice furnished for his

P. S. 1 .- Must have full complement of nine lives and must stay at home nights.

P. S. 2.—Ability to dodge books Memorial Day.

OCAL NEWS

Rev. A. L. Whittaker will hold service at the Indian Orchard school house on Sunday, June 4, at 2:30 p.

-The commencement exercises of the Honesdale High school will be held Tuesday evening, June 13, when a class of twenty-two will be

-The monthly meeting of the town council will be held in City Hall this (Thursday) evening, when the subject of paving the streets will be taken up and discuss-—Grace Episcopal church, Whit Sanday, June 4: Holy communion and sermon, 10:30 a.m.; Sunday school at 12 M.; evening prayer and sermon, at 7:30 p. m.

-List of unclaimed letters remaining in Honesdale postoffice, week ending May 29, 1911; William Carter, Mrs. C. E. Denham, Sam Miller, Charles Tribe. M. B. Allen, children, St. Marys, Pa., are visiting George Hergott, Beach Swamp is nursing a wounded left eye, the injury being inflicted by a stone thrown by some unknown person. He came to Honesdale, Thursday morning, where Dr. R. W. Brady dressed the bruised optic.

—A degree team from right of the lodge, Hawley, will visit Oslek Tribe Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Dunning left for Wilkes-Barre, Tuesday morning, where they will be the guests of Mr. W. Burrows, and Mr. candidates.

A men's supper will be held Thursday evening, June 8, in the parlors of Grace Protestant Episcopal in Honesdale where he attended the church. Bishop Ethelbert Talbot, funeral of his old schoolmate, Miss outh Bethlehem, will attend and deliver an address.

—In the matter of Memorial Day oratory, the G. A. R. had "the real goods," delivered by some of the men who had helped make them; and it is the consensus of opinion.

Mrs. George Spencer and sons, I was a suffering from a severe attack of acute indigestion. Dr. Fred Powell and two trained nurses are in attendance.

Mrs. George Spencer and sons, I was a suffering from a severe attack of acute indigestion. among our people, that the "plain James and William, who have been unvarnished narratives" of these spending the past week with Mrs. which brought the scenes of battle vividly before the audience, were more deeply interesting and home at Honesdale Saturday, accomimpressive than the most polished panied by her mother.—Scranton oratory would have been.

-The Business Men's Association will picnic at Lake Lodore, August

On Memorial Day, seventy-six soldiers' graves in Glen Dyberry and fifteen in Riverdale were decorated.

The law requiring fire drills in Pennsylvania public schools has been signed by Governor Tener.

-Rev. Moses Breeze, Lincoln,

Major General C. B. Dougherire of ty, Wilkes-Barre, will come to 50tf. Honesdale Friday night in the interests of the local armory board.

> -Richard B. McIlvaine, 27 years old, one of Pittsburg's most promi-nent young lawyers and a son of the Rev. Dr. S. J. McIlvaine, rector of Calvary Episcopal church, met death while walking in his sleep at o'clock Thursday morning.

> -A Western paper printing the ews of a divorce suit says, "The evidence showed that the husand struck his wife in the kitchen, slapped her in the dining room and kicked her between the doors." She must have had a good foundation to stand all

Fletcher Coon, who was arrested by deputy constable P. J. Moran charged by Frank J. Mang, Texas township, with being disorderly in the public highway of said township, on May 28, 1911, and wanting to fight with deponent, and using vulgar and vile threats against depon-ent and his family, and with being very disorderly, was given a hearing Wednesday morning before 'Squire Robert A. Smith, P. H. Hoff appear-ing for the plaintiff and hte defendant's interests being looked after by Frank P. Kimble. The date of the final hearing was set for Friday moning at 10 o'clock.

DAILY MISSION.

Commencing Sunday morning, June 4, at 8:30 o'clock, and continuing throughout the week, at o'clock every evening, a mission for men and women simultaneously will be conducted in St. Mary's, by Fath-er Franciscus Haase and Father

Shoemaker Suffers Stroke.

John Ort, the well-known shoe-maker, 519 Church street, suffered a stroke of apoplexy, Thursday. Dr. P. F. Griffin Is in attendance.

PERSONAL

Wm. McKenna is the guest of his parents on Court street. Miss Hattie Brown, Scranton, pent Tuesday in Honesdale.

Joseph Katz is spending a few days with friends in Wilkes-Barre. Frank G. Farnham, the inventor, on a business trip to New York

Charles P. Searle witnessed the eroplane meet at Wilkes-Barre on Benj. Gardner, Factoryville, spending the week with friends in this place.

Peter Kahl and Otto Weaver took in the aviation meet at Wilkes-Barre, Tuesday.

Miss Tessie Tompkins is the guest of Miss Harriett Emmett, Clark aveine, Carbondale Leon and Edward Katz attended the aviation meet in Wilkes-Barre on Memorial Day, Mrs. S. A. McMullen, Jr., returned Thursday from a few days' visit with Carbondale relatives. Mrs. George S. Spettigue, East street, is visiting relatives in Wilkes-Barre and Peckville.

Dr. and Mrs. P. B. Peterson and Miss Queenle Cooley, motored

Mr. and Mrs. H. Z. Russell and family, and Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Lindsay motored to Liberty, N. Y., on children, St. Marys, Pa., are visiting at the home of his father-in-law, Charles Spettigue, East street. Edward Creedon, a former em ploye of the Wayne County Herald. left on a visit to his parents in New York City, the first of the week.

Mayor John Kuhbach returned rom Cadosia, N. Y., Thursday, from Cadosia, N. Y., Thursday, where he sold his valuable Hotel Midland to Ralph Desiro, of that from Cadosia, and Mrs. H. W. Burrows, and Mr. and Mrs. G. Reims.

Architect E. L. Walter, superintendent of the Bureau of Building Inspection, Scranton, spent Thursday Agnes M. Plumb.

Mrs. A. G. Loomis is seriously ill at the Hotel Wayne where she is suffering from a severe attack of Spencer's mother, Mrs. Shaffer, of Hickory street, returned to her Truth.

(Continued From Page One)

It was half-past eleven o'clock war opened and this country was when Glen Dyberry was reached, brought face to face with a situation where the memorial services of the Post was held. Commander Judge was a question whether the loyal Henry Wilson presiding.

The long roll was beaten, the as-Nebraska, is lecturing at several of the Presbyterian churches in the county this week.

sembly called, and the opening in-vocation given by Rev. C. C. Miller, who "thanked the Almighty for be-The W. C. T. U. will hold a meeting at Mrs. George Ross', Dyberry Place, Thursday evening, June 1, subject, "Sabbath Observance."

The W. C. T. U. will hold a meeting at Mrs. George Ross', Dyberry Place, Thursday evening, June 1, subject, "Sabbath Observance."

The W. C. T. U. will hold a meeting at Mrs. George Ross', Dyberry Place, Thursday evening, June 1, subject, "Sabbath Observance."

The W. C. T. U. will hold a meeting at least the noble deeds of the veterans may teach to generations yet unborn the benign pinciples of Post the Post the subject of the property of yet unborn the benign pinciples of patriotism and unity."

Opening Address. Commander Wilson made a brief opening address, in which he said:
"The duty of this day is one of impressive significance. We are assembled to honor our dead; to emphasize patriotism; to recall their services and sacrifices in the cause of their country; to renew our pledge of love to our country and flag; and to cement the bond of loyalty among those who remain. We en-ter upon this duty with the reverent spirit which its character inspires." While the band played "The Star Spangled Banner" Mrs. Wm. Clark raised the flag. M ss Jennie M. Ball draped Captain Ham's grave, the drum corps playing "Glory Hallelujah."

ed into the cannon's mouth, listened to the whistle of flying bullets, and the shriek of bursting shell, and waited in prison pens for the day-dawn of peace with horror; men who longed for the hour to strike, when the cruel war should end; men who faced loneliness, and fever, and death, till, at last "Home, Sweet Home" fell upon their ears out yonder on the "far flung battle line," stirred their hearts and made the stirred their hearts and made in pany up to Camp Curtin. We don't ramp, tramp, tramp' of marching want to let them go!" son, feet the sweetest music to which want to let them go!" want to let them go!" A fices made that our flag, cleansed career at Appomatox, having marchine blood of our soldier dead, ed 3,800 miles on foot." might float over our country without one star missing. We speak of the lonely sentinel, of the firing line, of the men who fell and the "unknown dead" lying in graves far away in the Sunny South land—graves, over which the silent stars keep their unwaried vigil; and 'tis well that we do so—cheers for the living boys in blue! Flowers for the

we do so—cheers for the living boys in blue! Flowers for the dead! Tears for those who sleep in unknown graves!

"I have stood by the tombs of Washington and Grant; by the grass-covered mounds beneath which lie all that is mortal of the gallant Phil Sheridan, and the heroic Admiral Porter. I have stood with uncovered head in a cemetery, in which were lying 20. Goes With Them.

"Company C," he said, "started out of the body, never lost his head," endorsed what Mr. Ball said, "whead," endorsed what Mr. Ball said, head," endorsed what Mr. Ball said, and added further interesting details. He said among other things:

"We suffered four years for you make you suffer four hours for us. I am going to quit when I stop taking. Dinner will be ready at 4. The train leaves at 4:40.

"Company C," he said, "endorsed what Mr. Ball said, head," endorsed what Mr. Ball said, "endorsed what Mr. standing by that sarcopnagus in Arilington cemetery, just west of the Temple of Fame, beneath which lie in one common grave 2111 unknown dead, with this close themselves in a G. A. R. universelves in a G. A. R. simple inscription above them: 'Here lie the bones of 2111 unknown soldiers. could not be identified, but their ago, and I was one of them. names and deaths are recorded in the archives of their country, and its grateful citizens honor them as their noble army of martyrs. May they rest in peace!

"Silently we stand with bowed heads, while soft gentle hands lay sweet spring flowers on this grave in loving memory of our unknown dead. One word more!"

The first blood was spilt in Baltimore, Md. One of the boys stubbed his toe and fell down, his rifle going off and hitting a fellow in the thigh hands heads, while soft gentle hands lay sweet spring flowers on this grave in loving memory of our unknown dead. One word more!

The first blood was spilt in Baltimore, Md. One of the boys stubbed his toe and fell down, his rifle going off and hitting a fellow in the thigh hands as the criminal breaches of trust as this be severely punished. However, we was a spilt in Baltimore, Md. One of the boys stubbed his toe and fell down, his rifle going of trust as this be severely punished. When the punishment because the misuse of the funds results successfully.

"The Pennsylvania Reserves was assigned to a position on the extreme right of the Army of the Potomac."

"The first blood was spilt in Baltimore, Md. One of the boys stubbed his toe and fell down, his rifle going of trust as this be severely punished. When the punishment because the misuse of the funds results successfully.

"In such cases the dishonest or reckless bank officer makes the profit and the bank is made whole and no one is the wiser. Then the officer where the punishment because the misuse of the funds results successfully.

"In such cases the dishonest or reckless bank officer makes the profit and the bank is made whole and no one is the wiser. Then the officer where the punishment because the misuse of the funds results successfully.

"The pennsylvania Reserves was assigned to a position on the extreme right of the Army of the Potomac."

"The pennsylvania Reserves was assigned to a position on the extreme right of the Army of the Potomac."

"The pennsylvania Reserves was and the funds results successfully.

"The pennsylvania Re woman which lays these blossoms on this grave, and fittingly, we ever hear the orator, in impassioned plea, speak of matchless sacrifice made by the silent mothers and wives of the unknown dead; the silent mothers and wives, who kept a lonlier vigil; who day and night were on the firing line; who suffered the agonies of a thousand deaths; who have listened for years for the footfalls of those who come not, but sleep in far-off graves! The mothers and wives of the Who will breathe for prison. us a fitting tribute, or weave for us garlands rich enough fair enough, bright enough to place upon their brows! Not till the curtain lifts and we read in the clearer light of the undimmed future the story once more, when motives will be written out so that all can see them—not till then will we read the unwritten history carved on hearts-women's hearts-hearts that suffered. and wept, and prayed, and waited, and bled, suffered in silence; vept and prayed and waited, and bled, till the voiceless agony snapped the silver chord, helped to make national history sacred history. When standing by these graves, above which floats the flag—the flag that stands for all that is dearest and best and hollest in national life, let us rededicate ourselves to ideal citizenship—the realization of Civic Righteousness!" Decorate Captain's Grave. Following Doctor Swift's address, rive at 7.02.

Mrs. D. B. Mautle decorated the grave of Captain Ham. The band played a dirge.

Judge Wilson in introducing the speakers of the day, said:

"Now fifty years ago, just a half a century ago, in April '61, the Civil was a question whether the loyal men of the North would stand still and let the slave holders South destroy the Nation founded by Washington. We have omitted our

Isaac H. Ball, a member of the Post, then gave a vivid account of his personal history, how he enlisted and when and where he marched. He said among other things:

"I enlisted in the three-months company formed here April 23, 1861, after Fort Sumter was fired on, April 14. The company was formed here and drilled by John S. Lioyd, an old militia officer. We boarded at different hotels. The company was filled to minimum standard, 55, and stayed here three weeks. Word was sent that they wanted us to enlist for three years. The word came on Saturday. Before Monday morning the company, for three years, was fully reorganized, with John S. Reiter, captain; Robert Torrey, first lieutenant, and Wm. Tamblyn, second lieutenant, and Wm. Tamblyn, second lieutenant, and Wm. Tamblyn, second lieutenant, "On May 22, we were ordered to make the solution of the well known women of society in their latactic like a some of the well known women of society in their latactic like as of society in their latactic like as the vivid colors, used only in delicate touches.

Empire frocks of slik are the rule. They have such an air of sweet simplicity! But aias! they are anything but simple as the amateur dressmaker knows to her sorrow. The one-piece princess frock has lines, and those lines must be right. The tunic skirt, the curve of the tunic ski the Civil war told by men who were a part of that they tell; men who fought for the flag, look-benches over night. benches over night.

Move to Green Castle.

"The next morning we took care Penniman called out Governor Curtin and said: "I've got a company here from Honesdale, Wayne county. I want you to look at them."

Mr. Ball concluded his interesting account of the history of his comtun-that "who though wounded in many ving parts of the body, never lost his head," endorsed what Mr. Ball said, cemetery, in which were tying 20,000 soldlers dead. I have restricted best out with 77 men, and found when they prison, communing with the brave spirits who there sealed their despirits who there votion with death for the cause of freedom. But never have my feelings been so stirred as when standing by that sarcophagus in started out making Co. C 101 men.

The rompton remeters, the death of the cause they didn't take with them. They came to Beech Pond and I went. July 13, 1861, twenty-five of us started out making Co. C 101 men. Fred J. Keene, Sr.

> The best part of Wayne county Their remains emigrated to Scranton, a few years

"The first blood was spilt in Bal-

"Dan Darling, Prompton, was the first one of Company C to fall. He

Following the addresses which were very well received, Company E fired a musketry salute to the dead, Rev. W. H. Hiller pronounced the benediction, taps were sounded, and the line was reformed for the return march to post headquarters where dinner was served to the members of the military tions, who participated in the parade, the speakers and invited guests, by the Ladies' Circle of the G. A. R.

Advertise in The Citizen and get

ERIE TRAINS.

Trains Teave Union depot at 8.26 a. m. and 2.48 p. m., week days. Trains arrive Union depot at 1.70 and 8.05 p. m. week days. Saturday only, Erie and Wyoming arrives at 3.45 p. m. and leaves at 5.50 p. m.

Sunday trains leave 2.48 and ar-

FRILLS AND FASHIONS

+++++++++++++++++++++++++++++++++++

For Women by a Woman

SETTES-ONE PIECE FROCKS effective. OF SILK-MANNISH MO-TOR COATS.

after the theatre, or better still for dark grey with lighter grey, and the "Fashion Editor" is the five brown with yellow. The prevalence I. He said among other things:

Ball's Reminiscences.

"I enlisted in the three-months' may chance to see some of the well known women of society in their lat-that a good foundation to stand all that.

The Bev. W. H. Swift, D. D., delivered an eloquent address in memory of the Unknown Dead. He spoke as follows:

Doctor Swift's Address.

"The service I render to-day, though it comes from my heart, must seem poor indeed, after listening to the thrilling story of in order to maintain harmony in the party?"

The drum corps playing "Glory Halleujah."

The drum corps playing "Glory Halleujah."

The Rev. W. H. Swift, D. D., delivered an eloquent address in memory of the Unknown Dead. He spoke as follows:

Doctor Swift's Address.

"The service I render to-day, though it comes from my heart, must seem poor indeed, after listening to the thrilling story of in order to maintain harmony in the party?"

The drum corps playing "Glory Halleujah."

The Rev. W. H. Swift, D. D., delivered an eloquent address in memory of the Unknown Dead. He spoke as follows:

Doctor Swift's Address.

"The service I render to-day, though it comes from my heart, must seem poor indeed, after listening to the thrilling story of the Civil war told by men who ward and the discovery of five access in a poker deck what percentage of the complimentary vote for the war to day, the party?"

The Rev. W. H. Swift, D. D., delivered an eloquent address in memory of the Unknown Dead. He ilvered an eloquent address in memory of the Unknown Dead. He ilvered an eloquent address in memory of the Unknown Dead. He ilvered an eloquent address in memory of the Unknown Dead. He ilvered an eloquent address in memory of the Unknown Dead. He ilvered an eloquent address in memory of the Unknown Dead. He ilvered an eloquent address in memory of the Unknown Dead. He ilvered an eloquent address in memory of the Unknown Dead. He ilvered an eloquent address in memory of the Unknown Dead. He ilvered an eloquent address in memory of the Unknown Dead. He ilvered an eloquent address in memory of the Unknown Dead. He ilvered an eloquent address in memory of the Unknown Dead. He ilvered an eloquent address in memory of the Unknown Dead. He ke a baby's slip.

Scotch Homespun coats are light
The coat accompanying this frock in weight though of wool, and where was a mixed spun in tan, white and one must be economical, are to be old blue. The deep cavalier cuffs recommended for general wear. A and long reveres were faced with brown moire, edged with chamois. for Harrisburg. When we got to Harrisburg we marched up to camp on Capitol Hill. Mr. Miner and F. B. Penniman were with us. Mr. Immense brown velvet bow at the Changes Boulght for $18 up. Outing hats are now being a wind change of the harrisburg we marched up to camp on Capitol Hill. Mr. Miner and F. Welvet. The only trimming was an at reduced rates. Panamas are without doubt the Foulards, satins, and taffetas are chiefs are the only trimming needall made up into these afternoon ed. dresses. Striped silks are much cost Governor Curtin came out, and said more fashionable than figured. Mer-to one of his aides: "Take that com-pany up to Camp Curtin. We don't glaze, spot easily, and for this reason, satins or taffetas are more dur-they ever listened, as they turned their faces toward the loved ones waiting for them in the loyal North, to receive from the country they fought to save a welcome that will yet echo when "the earth grows old, and the stars grow cold."

"This day stands for much in our national history. Our lips tell once more the story of sacrifices made that our flag, cleansed in the blood of our soldier dead."

"We moved to Green Castle. At Lincoln's call we voted to a man to go into the U.S. service. Our division was known as the "Bucktail Reserves," The third brigade, of the Pennsylvania Reserves, under General G. B. McClellan to which we belonged, unaided and alone won the first decided victory for the Union at Galnesville.

"On April 9, 1865, we closed our carrier at Appomatox, having marching the blood of our soldier dead."

"We moved to Green Castle. At Lincoln's call we voted to a man to go into the U.S. service. Our division was known as the "Bucktail Reserves," The third brigade, of the Pennsylvania Reserves, under General G. B. McClellan to which we belonged, unaided and alone won the first decided victory for the Union at Galnesville.

"On April 9, 1865, we closed our carrier at Appomatox, having marching that a skirt of green silk is that white male with lower part of corsage of the silk, while the upper was of tucked blue chiffon over much in evidence, as were also those of several other guests, indicating that a skirt of green silk is that was of tucked blue chiffon over much in evidence, as were also those of several other guests, indicating that a skirt of green silk is that while male with lower part of corsage of the silk, while the upper marked $5 are now marked $5 are now white. Her green silk petiticaat was much in evidence, as were also those of several other guests, indicating that a skirt of green silk is that white male with lower part of corsage of the silk, while the upper white male with lower part of corsage of the silk, while the upper white male with lower part of corsage of the silk, while the Death of Miss Agnes M. Plumb.

Miss Agnes M. Plumb, daughter of Simon Plumb and his wife Abbie (Greeley) Plumb, died Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of her cousin, William Jenkins, Eleventh and Court streets, where she has been living for the past eight years, from cancer, in the 68th year of her age, being born in Promp-ton October 7, 1843.

Miss Plumb, who for more than twenty-five years taught in the shire public schools and at the County Normal school, Prompton, was the last surviving member of the Plumb family in the county. was confined to her room since last lorace Carr. Dunmore; Miss Louise tearnes. Wilkes-Barre.

"Many influential and prominent cons. They do not fully appreciate, seems to me, the high importance loans on call upon two or more names.

"Bus from Banks and Trust Co's, not reserve agents.

Bills discounted.

$250,672 54
Time loans with collateral loans on call upon one name.

Loans on call upon two or more names.

Loans on call upon two or more names.

Loans on call upon two or more names.

Loans or carred by hourd. persons have petitioned for his par-don. They do not fully appreciate, one is the wiser. Then the officer comes to regard himself as a shrewd

We carried him thirteen miles. He is buried at Camp Pierrepont. It is likely that his grave will be covered with a flag to-day.

"We left two of our company at Second Bull Run, viz Henry Borcher and Jack Karslake, both of Prompton. We lost five at South Mountain. Dan Avery, Dyberry, and Earl Freeman were among those killed. I spent seven months in prison."

Sex Solution

"The truth is that in the mad rush to weed the that in the mad rush to weed the thing that in the mad rush in the state of the decades the lines between profit from legitimate business and taxes paid 120,120,18-530,123 is between profit from undured and improper gain from undured and property and money have sometimes been dimmed, and the interest of society requires that, whenever opportunity offers, those charged with the enforcement of the law should emphasize the distinction."

Sex Solution

Liabilities

Capital Stock, paid m... $ 100,000 00 Undivided Profits, less expenses and taxes paid 120,123,18-530,123 is because of trust control over other posit.

Capital Stock, paid m... $ 100,000 00 Undivided Profits, less expenses and taxes paid 120,123,18-530,123 is because of trust control over other posit.

Capital Stock, paid m... $ 100,000 00 Undivided Profits, less expenses and taxes paid 120,123,18-530,123 is because of trust control over other posit.

Capital Stock, paid m... $ 100,000 00 Undivided Profits, less expenses and taxes paid 120,123,18-530,123 is because of trust control over other posit.

Capital Stock, paid m... $ 100,000 00 Undivided Profits, less expenses and taxes paid 120,123,18-530,123 is because of trust control over other posit.

Capital Stock, paid m... $ 100,000 00 Undivided Profits, less expenses and taxes paid 120,123,18-530,123 is because of trust control over other posit.

Capital Stock, paid m... $ 100,000 00 Undivided Profits, less expenses and taxes paid 120,123,18-530,123 is because of trust control over other posits.

Capital Stock, paid m... $ 100,000 00 Undivided Profits, less expe tween honest business and dishonest

> NO REFERENCE TO USUAL BUSINESS METHODS, NO SUGGES-TION OF GREAT BUSINESS ENTERPRISES, NO EXCUSE OF BUILDING UP USEFUL INDUSTRIES AND NO SUBSEQUENT AT-TEMPT TO MAKE GOOD THE LOSSES WHICH HIS ACTS HAVE BROUGHT UPON INNOCENT PER-SONS WHO TRUSTED HIM CAN GLOSS OVER THE FACT THAT SUCH A MAN IS TAKING OTHER PEOPLE'S MONEY FOR HIS OWN USE.—From President Taft's state-ment refusing John R. Walsh's petition for pardon.

breaches of trust.

A. O. BLAKE AUCTIONEER & CATTLE DEALER YOU WILL MAKE MONEY BY HAVING ME Bell Phone 9-U BETHANY, PA

EMPIRE GOWNS WITH CHEMI- and inserts are much used, and most

Empire gowns with little empire jackets are very recent. These are quaint and charming on the right figures. Some of the new tailor-made silks The real place to see real fashions from Paris show changeable com-one of the very exclusive hotels binations, like blue shot with green, good design well tallored can be bought for $18 up. Outling hats are now being . wn

Panamas are without doubt the neatest. Silk scarfs and handkerernoon ed. A good quality Panama will much cost $10.00.

Lingerie hats of all kinds, and Lingerie bonnets are charming. Prices range from $1.95 to $195,00.

Green trimmings, pipings, bands these fancy concoctions.

We print programs, We print envelopes, We print legal blanks,

CHICHESTERS PILLS THE DIAMOND HRAND, Laditos! Ask your Druggist for Calcebo-ster's Plannond Brund Pills in Red and Gold metallic books, sailed with Blue Ribbon, Takls in other, Buy of nonBrungets, Ask for CHI CHES, TER & PLANONE BRAND PHALS, for RE Syrics known as Bust Sefant Always Reliable Take no other. Buy of your Paragrates. Ask for CHLCHES, TER S PLASSON BERAND PHILES, for RE-SOLD BY DRUGGISTS EVERYWHERE

REPORT OF THE CONDITION

WAYNE COUNTY SAVINGS BANK

HONESDALE, WAYNE CO., PA.,

RESOURCES Cash, specie and notes, $17,941.75

Cash, specie and notes, $17,941.75

Due from approved reserve agents, 150,423.29

Logal securities at par., 45,000.00—233,405.04

Cickels, cents and fractional currence. 203.66 6.197 46

State of Pennsylvania, County of Wayne, ss:
I, H, Scott Salmon, Cashier of the above named Company, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true, to the best of my knowledge and bellef.
(Signed) H, S, SALMON, Cashier.
Subscribed and sworn to before me this 4th day of May 1911.

(Signed) ROBERT A. SMITH, N. P. [Notarial Scall Correct-Attest:

W. B. HOLMES, H. J. CONGER. Directors.

LEGAL NOTICE.

The United States Circuit Court for the Middle District of Pennsylvania, has appointed The Scranton Company Receiver, for the Honesdale Shoe Company. Notice is hereby given to all those who have claims given to all those who have challes against said Company that they should file itemized sworn statements with the Receiver. Those indebted to said Company should make immediate payment to THE SCRANTON TRUST COMPANY, Receiver, 516 Spruce street, Scranton, Pa. 38eoi6