The policy of the The Citizen is to print the local news in an interesting manner, to summarize the news of the world at large, to fight for the right as this paper sees the right, without fear or favor to the end that it may serve the best interests of its readers and the welfare of the county.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 14, 1911.

A man wrote on a card that New York was a "City of Hell" and then committed suicide. And yet some people hate to be more than 45 minutes from Broadway!

The President of the University of Maine says that the "Three G's" for success are: "Gace, Grit and Gumption." Lots of people seem to think however, that they are "Gruff, Graft and Grovel."

The Springfield, Ohio, Mayor who cut his salary $1,000 a year in order to have the city proceed with planned public improvements, must be a revelation to Ohio—or any other state, for that matter.

HOWDY!

To Mr. C. W. Sandercock, the new manager and largest stockholder of the Herald Press Association the Citizen extends a hearty welcome to Honesdale and sincerely wishes him every success in his work.

SAFE AND SANE FOURTH.

By the next issue of this paper, we hope to be able to print a picture which first appeared in "Life" some four years ago entitled "The Morning After."

It tells its own story of the criminal foolishness of the fearful toll of life which the celebration of each Fourth of July has taken in the past, better than three columns of warning.

The day of the toy pistol is nearly over. The thought that there are better ways for youngsters to show patriotism than by shooting themselves—and others—to pieces is becoming more and more prevalent. Parades, games, patriotic meetings and concerts can be made to take the place of the cannon cracker and the dynamite bomb and still provide amusement for young America on the glorious Fourth.

Through the courtesy of Mr. C. C. Jadin, we published a table of statistics in a recent issue of The Citizen showing that 1,119 soldiers were killed or wounded in seven battles of the Revolution against 34,692 killed or wounded on Fourth of July in the years 1903-1909.

Everybody will admit—even the manufacturers of the fire crackers themselves—that this needless and terrible loss of life should be stopped.

We hope and trust that it will be. There is no time like the present. Let us see to it that this Fourth of July be "safe and sane" and thus solve a problem which is more dangerous than difficult.

AN IMPROVEMENT AND A BLESSING.

A Wayne County Library Association, whose object is to provide the residents of the county seat and suburban towns with an up-to-date Public Library, second to none in the State, is being formed by a committee consisting of Hon. W. H. Dimmock, Esq., H. Scott Salmon, Cashier Wayne County Savings Bank, Prothonotary M. J. Hanlan, Attorney Chester A. Garratt, Joseph A. Fisch, Cashier Honesdale Dime Bank, George J. Mueller, book-keeper Honesdale National Bank, Charles A. Emery, cashier Farmers and Mechanics Bank, Henry R. Menner, of Menner & Co., William Katz, of Katz Brothers.

The advantages a library would afford the people of Honesdale are numerous. For one thing, it will furnish a centrally-located place where the people of the Maple City as well as of the county may come and borrow books.

A large commodious building is included in the plans of the committee, who intend that it shall be the mecca of country shoppers, a station where they may leave their parcels, and where a central office for the delivery of packages from the merchants of the city may be maintained.

The establishment of such an institution will supply a long-felt want. Honesdale is equipped with large and costly places of worship. Her High school building, erected some years ago, at a cost of $60,000, is a monument of civic pride. Several clubs minister to the social instincts of her people. Everything that is needed to accommodate the community and the rising generation is provided, with the exception of a thriving public library. And it is to supply this need that this committee has been named.

A meeting for the purpose of organization will be held shortly, when definite plans will be made, suitable sites canvassed, and ways and means for financing the proposition be discussed.

The Citizen extends its heartiest sympathy to the movement and pledges its warm support.

Under the guidance of such a committee consisting of such names as we have mentioned above, the movement cannot but be a success which will remain a lasting memorial to its organizers.

To every man on that committee, the town and the county will owe its thanks and should exert every effort to help the public-spirited members in this good work.

We hope that our old college chum Andy Carnegie doesn't hear of our proposed library. It might make him a little peevish, dinna ye ken? to know there was one town at least which had the audacity to erect a library without consulting his Scottish wallet. Hoot mon! Hoot!

The afternoon session was opened at 2 o'clock with devotional services conducted by the Rev. A. L. Whittaker, rector of Grace Protestant Episcopal church, Honesdale. 47c04.

A letter of regret from Rev. C. G. Miller, pastor St. John's Evangelical Lutheran church, Honesdale, who stated: "That owing to an abundance of work he was unable to attend the convention," was read, and ordered spread on the minutes.

Dr. Otto Appley, Damascus, president of the Wayne County Sunday school Association, spoke on the "Home Department." He said among other things: "The Home Department is a branch of the Sunday School which may not be inside the Sunday school at all, and yet is a Sunday school in every sense of the word. There are 26 Home Departments in Wayne county. We need thirty before we can get a 'front line' position.

"How shall we organize a Home Department? Let the officers and teachers get together and select some suitable earnest person, best of all a lady.

"There have been conversions and accessions to the church in Damascus through the influence of the Home Department in my church."

Dr. Appley, whose name was included in the list of speakers for the evening session, stated that he would be unable to remain, and hence would talk briefly on the topic "How May Wayne Become A Front Line County."

In answering the question "How May Wayne County become a 'front line' county?" Dr. Appley said:

A county must qualify on ten points to become one. She has already qualified on five points, viz: An organization; one convention each year; an organization divided into districts; each district must hold one convention a year; statistics must be sent in to the State organization.

"The remaining five points on which she must qualify to become a 'front line' county are, viz: to pledge and pay into the state treasury some money; to send one delegate to the State convention; to have home departments in 30% of the schools, Cradle Rolls in 50%, and 20% of all the Sunday schools must have a Teacher Training class."

Dr. Appley further explained that instead of having the required 50 Cradle Rolls, the county had only 37; instead of the needed 30 Home Departments, she had only 26; and that she had only 13 out of the twenty Teacher Training classes requisite.

Wayne county is divided into five districts, he explained. The following table will give some idea of the grading of the Sunday schools in the various districts, which are equipped with these up-to-date departments:

District	Cradle Home Teac. Roll. Dept. Train
Damascus	10 9 9
Orson	7 6 1
Hawley	1 2 1
Honesdale	17 8 2
Sterling	2 1 0
Totals	37 26 13

Miss Carrie Clark, Damascus, delivered an excellent address on "Cradle Roll and Elementary Work." Miss Clark's name is familiar to all the readers of the Citizen to whose columns she has contributed a number of informing and extremely interesting articles on the subject so dear to her heart.

She spoke of the founding of the Cradle Roll at Elizabeth, N. J., by a certain Mrs. Dudley, and of the widespread adoption of the movement, so that at the present day, a Sunday school is considered complete anywhere without a cradle roll.

"The object of the cradle roll is to enroll everybody who cannot get to Sunday school below 3. Leave a child on the Cradle Roll until it is old enough to come to the Sunday school."

Miss Jones, Cradle Roll Superintendent of the Central M. E. church, Honesdale, spoke in the open conference, following Miss Clark's address, saying that she found the work to be "perfect delight and a great pleasure."

"I hold the children on the Cradle Roll even to five and six years if need be." Miss Alice Birdsall, Seelyville Union Sunday school, said that she found it worked like a charm in her school.

Rev. R. Clayton Burch, Waymart, delivered a strong address on "Intentives to Bible Study." "The Bible," he said, "is a power in national and individual life. It reveals to us the sin which has brought us to want and brings to us the cure for this spiritual poverty. Four rules to observe in the study of the Bible are: Admit, Submit, Commit, Transmit."

The afternoon session was brought to a close with a blackboard demonstration of the "Organized Adult Bible Class; Why and How," by Rev. Geo. G. Dowey, Scranton, which was very well received.

At the morning and afternoon sessions, Miss Blanche Pearce presided at the organ most acceptably. Luncheon was served in the basement of the church by a committee from the Sunday school, with Mrs. James Bush as chairman. About 75 were entertained at dinner, and a like number remained for supper.

The attendance at the morning session was unusually large, fully one hundred people being present. Several hundred were present at the afternoon session, and the church was comfortably filled at the opening of the evening session at 7:30 o'clock, Doctor W. H. Swift conducting the praise service.

Rev. Geo. G. Dowey spoke at length on "The Qualified Teacher," and held the closest attention of a large and critical audience. The Rev. Will H. Hiller made a few remarks. The delegates extended a rising vote of thanks to Central M. E. church for their lavish hospitality and adjournment was taken, the benediction being pronounced by the Rev. W. J. Seymour.

It was the general consensus of opinion that this was the largest and most enthusiastic convention in the history of the district.

Funeral Of Mrs. Mary E. Barns.

Funeral services for the late Mrs. Mary E. Barns were held last Thursday afternoon at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles E. Dodge, 1327 Main street, Rev. A. L. Whittaker officiating. Interment was made at Glen Dyberry cemetery. The bearers were: E. A. Penniman, Chas. J. Smith, J. A. Brown, Henry Schwemley, J. N. Welch, Wm. H. Krantz.

Death of Mrs. Andrew Wicks.

Mrs. Andrew Wicks, a life-long resident of Seelyville, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Ripple, Blandin, Friday, aged 81 years. The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon, Rev. Mr. Lucas, Hawley, officiating. Burial in the German Lutheran cemetery. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Wm. Ripple and Mrs. Edward Ordnung, Seelyville, and two sons, Conrad, Newark, N. J., and George, Scranton.

Death of Charles F. Rockwell.

Charles F. Rockwell, a representative Honesdale business man, died at his home, 1416 Main street, Friday evening, June 9, at 10:40 o'clock in the eighty-sixth year of his age.

He was born in Milford, Pike county, October 14, 1825. As a young man he clerked for awhile at Lackawaxen and New York city, going to Equinunk in 1851, where he entered the employ of the Scudder Brothers, who conducted a store and large tanneries at that place. In 1855 he was married to Miss Harriet A. Scudder, the daughter of one of his employers. In 1861 he was appointed postmaster at Equinunk. He came to Honesdale in 1866. From 1869 to 1885 he acted as agent for one of the express companies. He was elected county treasurer in 1872 and also filled a number of prominent county offices.

He is survived by his wife, and by one son, Charles Harry Rockwell, and by a daughter, Miss Harriet E. Rockwell.

TEAM COULDN'T HIT

Mangan were out on easy grounders, Brader Hatler and Sandercock made three base hits in rapid succession, Brader tallying. That ended the run-getting however.

"That pitcher certainly must have something," remarked one of the spectators. And "Mike" Farrell shored did, repeating his performance here on Memorial Day with ease.

In the first inning, Captain Morris put D. Evans up to lead off. He struck out. Lwellyn was out on an easy fly to first. T. Evans ended the seance by going out on grounder to second.

Mangan, first man up, was hit by pitcher Brader followed with a sacrifice hit, sending Polt who ran for Mangan, to second. Hatler was out on a grounder to first, advancing "Jacob who ran for Polt who ran for Mangan" to third. Sandercock was hit by pitcher. Polt was next man up. On the throw in, Sandercock stole second. Jacobs run in on the throw down to second, and was an easy out. No runs.

In the second inning, Captain T. Morris drew a pass to first. White, second man up was hit by pitcher, advancing Morris to second. Norton was hit by pitcher on the back of head, and the bases were filled. Henley was out on a grounder to first. Roche made a nice little hit, that scored Morris and White. Male was substituted for Helstern. Roche hit to right for one base, Norton scoring. Score 3-0.

THE COUNTY

HAWLEY.

[Special to The Citizen.]

HAWLEY, Pa., June 13.—Many of our town people and especially those from neighboring cities speak in glowing terms of the great John H. Sparks show which is billed to exhibit at Honesdale on Friday, June 15. It is quite likely a large delegation will attend from this vicinity.

A wedding of much interest to Hawleyites was that of one of our most popular citizens, Thomas F. Mangan, who was united in marriage with Miss Celia Winters, Scranton, at St. Paul's church, Green Ridge, Tuesday morning, June 6. The groom is president of the Hawley bank and conducts a successful mercantile business on River street. After a fortnight's wedding trip the couple will be at home to their friends at the Mangan homestead.

Nicholas Merdener, Nellie Merdener and Julia and Mary Mayer were at Honesdale on Friday.

Miss Barbara Unger and Mrs. Peter Unger are spending a week in the metropolis. They went to attend a wedding at that place.

The Avoca base ball team again failed to reach Hawley on Saturday. Next Saturday they will play the Aldenville team on the home grounds.

District Organizer Robert Luckock will give a lecture at the Standard opera house on Thursday evening under the auspices of the A. F. G. W. A. Several of the unemployed glass cutters have gone to Wheeling, W. Va., where they have secured work in the C. J. Goodnough cutting shop.

The trustees of the Baptist church held a business meeting on Monday night.

Maud Locklin, Lakeville, and Starbert Tressler, Ariel, were married on June 5, 1911, at the latter place. The bride is well and favorably known at Hawley. Congratulations.

At the Baptist church on Sunday evening Mrs. C. T. Smalley gave an address on India. She was well qualified to speak on the subject, having spent nearly four years in that country. She said the worst evil among the Hindu is child marriage. Of the 300,000,000 people of India there were 270 thousand widows and of these 14,000 were under 14 years of age. That the most of the women were kept in separate parts of the buildings from the sight of man and did not have the comforts of life. They were allowed but one piece of furniture and when she called on them she sat with them on the floor with the room filled with smoke; there she told them the story of Christ.

Edith Bring went to Scranton on Friday to attend the funeral of his relative, Mr. Phillips.

Mrs. M. H. Ely is spending some time with her parents at Laceyville. Hiram Goodrich, George Gillett and wife, Hamlin, and Mr. and Mrs. Weir, Scranton, comprised an auto party who motored from Hamlin here on Saturday passing the day with their relatives, Mrs. Angeline Bell and Miss Martha Goodrich.

Rev. A. R. Pennell, Washingtonville, N. Y., was a visitor at the home of his brother Joseph, on Barker street, between trains Wednesday afternoon. He was on his way to attend the reunion of his class at Wyoming Seminary from which he graduated twenty years ago.

Dr. Russell Wall, Scranton, was in town over Sunday.
Rev. C. F. Smalley is enjoying a short vacation. While absent he will attend the Northern Baptist convention in Philadelphia and the commencement exercises of Crozer Theological Seminary, Chester, Pa., and will visit his former home in Wilmington, Delaware.

Clare Vivienne, youngest daughter of Dr. and Mrs. L. P. Cooke, aged five years, died of intestinal trouble followed by pneumonia, Thursday morning, after an illness of much suffering. The little one was an attractive and lovable child and her early demise is deeply lamented by the sorrowing family and their friends. Her survivors are, beside the parents, one sister and two brothers, Florence, Earl and Edward, at home. The funeral which was private was held Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Rev. W. S. Peterson, of the Presbyterian church, officiating. Interment in the Walnut Grove cemetery at the Eddy.

District Deputy Lena Osborne, of Lakeville, installed the following officers in Rose Rebekah Lodge Saturday night: Noble Grand, Mrs. P. R. Cross; vice grand, Mrs. Sarah Decker. At the close delicious refreshments were served.

The electric storm on Sunday morning was keenly felt here. Lightning struck the house of George Blossom at the Eddy, partly demolishing the chimney and tearing off shingles. On the Maennerchor picnic ground and C. Lehman's property nearby trees were splintered; considerable damage was also done to the electric power house.

During the storm on Saturday afternoon lightning killed a horse at Cherry Ridge owned by Christian Eppel; one of his children was shocked by the same bolt.

The past week workmen have been engaged laying new plank in the bridge that spans the Lackawaxen river at the Eddy.
Children's Day services were conducted in the Baptist and M. E.

INDIGESTION GOES

G. W. Pell Sells Best Prescription on the Money Back Plan.

Almost everybody knows that sick headache, nervousness and dizziness, are caused by a disordered stomach.
Upset stomach and indigestion happen just because the food you eat does not digest—but lies in the stomach and ferments or turns sour. You can stop fermentation and stomach distress in five minutes by using MI-ONA stomach tablets, a prescription that has done more to cure indigestion and put the stomach in fine condition than all the specialists on earth.

A large 50 cent box of MI-ONA stomach tablets is all you need to get quick and lasting relief. G. W. Pell guarantees them.

churches Sunday morning. Spring time blossoms with potted plants and ferns made pretty interior decorations. The former rendered a pleasing program consisting of recitations, vocal and instrumental selections. The Methodist school instead of the usual program for the day had a musical service of choruses and duets with piano, organ and violin going with each number excepting the songs by the primary department, who were led by Miss Anna Taft at the piano. Rev. B. P. Ripley baptised two infants, Grace Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Seelye, and Theodore Charles, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Miller.

Friends here of Mrs. George Kohlman were remembered by post cards from Albany where she was a visitor the past week.

William Guinn is passing a week with his daughter, Miss Margery, at Saranac Lake.

The German Lutheran Sunday school will observe Children's Day next Sunday morning. An interesting program has been arranged. During the summer this church will discontinue their Sunday morning service.

The L. A. S. of the M. E. church will meet with the president of their society, Mrs. D. J. Colgate, Wednesday afternoon.

SOUTH CLINTON.

SOUTH CLINTON, Pa., June 13.—Rev. Thomas Baker, Kingsley, will occupy the pulpit at this place at 7:30 p. m. next Friday evening and will also preach at Maple Grove in the morning at 11 a. m.

The ice cream social held at J. W. Stanton's was a grand success.

It is rumored that Miss Irene Curtis, Curtis Valley, will teach our school next term.

The Children's Day exercises held on Sunday evening was among the best ever given in this place. In spite of the severe storm that was raging outside the program held the attention of everybody. Great credit is due to the pastor's wife who took special interest in the children.

Pastor Baker goes to Philadelphia this week to attend the Baptist Northern convention.

John Nede is having a well drilled on his place.
Frank Burdick, Carbondale, has moved on the old homestead. We are glad to see him back in our community.

WHITES VALLEY.

WHITES VALLEY, Pa., June 13.—Mrs. William Glover and daughter, Jennie, have returned home after spending several days in Carbondale with Mrs. Nelson Hutchins. Mrs. D. E. Hacker entertained her Sunday school class at dinner on Sunday.

Mrs. S. Phillips, Wilkes-Barre, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Martha Stark. Mr. Phillips spent the week here.

Miss Anna Hauser will spend a week with Forest City relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. William Kennedy and daughter spent Wednesday at Chas. Bonham's.

Mr. and Mrs. Bates F. White, Lestershire, New York, are visiting relatives here.

Fred W. White spent Saturday in Scranton.

John Matthews, Aldenville, called on friends Sunday.

Several of the young people are planning to spend Friday in Honesdale and attend the circus. It will be a natural history education for the children.

Mrs. S. P. Crossman and Mrs. William Turner are visiting friends in Scranton.

Mrs. H. P. Mead spent several days at Creamton last week.
