

A-CENT-A-WORD

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—Six-room cottage with small orchard, located in village. Edw. O. Bang, So. Canaan, Pa. 231f

FOR SALE—KELLY & STEINMAN brick factory building, including engine, boiler and shafting. Inquire of J. B. Robinson. 50tf

FOR RENT.

FOR RENT—SIX ROOMS, SECOND floor, Eleventh street. Inquire 1107 Church street. 462f

FURNISHED ROOMS TO RENT—Apply Mrs. Isaac Forman, 157 Cottage street. 4502f

FOR RENT—AN APARTMENT for a small family. Inquire of Philip Krantz, 300 14th St. 41tf

TO RENT—7-room cement house on East Extension street. Hot and cold water, bath and closet. Gas and furnace. Inquire of Graham Watts. 3102tf

FOR RENT—Six rooms with bath on second floor, also 3 rooms downstairs. 1231 Spring street. 34tf

FOR RENT—A modern house and improvements with garden on West street. Inquire Joshua A. Brown. 29tf

MISCELLANEOUS.

WANTED: ISSUES OF THE CITIZEN for April 21 and May 5, to complete our files. Address: The Citizen Publishing Co., 803 Main street, Honesdale, Pa.

THREE experienced workmen at the bench daily. All repairs finished at the shortest notice. Sommer, Jeweler and Optician. 30tf

ALL REPAIR WORK finished up-to-date in all our different branches. Sommer, Jeweler and Optician. 30tf

INVENTORY of our repair department shows 236 finished jobs waiting to be called for. Sommer, Jeweler and Optician. 30tf

LOCAL NEWS

—The Emery reunion will be held at Nay Aug Park, Saturday, June 17.

—Freeman Bros. hung a large electric sign in front of their store on Tuesday.

—Company E, Thirtieth Infantry, will conduct a dance in the Park Place Armory on the evening of June 30.

—The parochial school children of St. Mary Magdalene's R. C. church will picnic at Bellevue Park, Tuesday, June 20.

—The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist church cleared $91 from their annual strawberry festival, held last Thursday evening.

—"Pet," the $200 horse belonging to Hull Brothers of 513 Main street, died early this morning. Death was caused by colic.

—Dorin's Kid Orchestra went to Damascus Thursday night where they took part in the High school graduation exercises at that place.

—Owing to an increase of freight business the Delaware & Hudson platform is being lengthened, additions having been built to both the north and south ends.

—The Home Missionary quarterly meeting of the Methodist church will be held at the home of Mrs. James Bush, instead of Mrs. T. A. Crossley, Thursday evening.

—W. H. Seegar, Lakeville, has received the sad news of the death of his only son, Floyd S. Seegar at the home of his mother, Mrs. Leo Herzog at Schenectady, N. Y., June 8, 1911.

—It is rumored that a large glass cutting shop, now located in New York City, will remove to Honesdale in the near future, where they will give employment to several hundred men.

—Mr. and Mrs. Davis A. Locklin, Lakeville, announce the marriage of their daughter, Maude Elizabeth, to Mr. Starbert Rockwell Tresslar, of Ariel, by the Rev. Van Selver, on Monday, June 5, 1911.

—Charles Jacobi, Scranton, and Miss Catherine Billard, Honesdale, will be married in St. Mary Magdalene's R. C. church, Wednesday morning, June 21, at 9 o'clock, with a nuptial High Mass celebrated by Father J. W. Baltz.

—John Murray, for seventeen years a conductor on the Delaware division of the Erie railroad, and Joseph Martin, a farmer, both residents of Matamoras, were brought to Honesdale last Friday, enroute for the Danville sanitarium. Ambrose Vandewort and Harry Rosenkrans were in charge of Mr. Murray, while Mr. Martin was in the custody of Milton Shay and Fred Krouse.

—The annual meeting of the stockholders and directors of the Herald Press Association was held Saturday afternoon in the Herald office. Hon. P. A. Clark, who has held the presidency of the association for ten years, was unanimously re-elected to that office; Hon. John Kubbach, vice-president; Hon. C. A. McCarty, secretary, and Hon. F. P. Kimble, treasurer. The resignation of E. B. Callaway, business manager, was accepted. He was given a vote of thanks, as also was R. M. Stocker, editor, for the manner in which the paper was conducted during Mr. Callaway's administration. Charles E. Sandercock, New York, who recently secured the controlling interest in the Herald, was elected general manager of the paper. R. M. Stocker is retained as editor. The following directors were elected: P. A. Clark, John Kubbach, C. A. McCarty, F. P. Kimble, R. M. Stocker, Joel G. Hill, and C. E. Sandercock. $99.57

—A number of men are being laid off at T. B. Clark's cutting shop.

—The Business Men's Association meets Wednesday at 8 p. m. in City Hall.

—A marriage license was issued June 12, to William Rouse and Miss Clara C. Ekbeck, both of Hawley.

—Reginaid Wolfram was the successful contestant in the hobble skirt barrel race last Friday evening at the rink.

—The Allenville Alerts will play against the German Catholic base ball club, Saturday afternoon on the local grounds.

—The nuptials of Adam Flederbach, Honesdale, and Miss Clara May Snyder, Scranton, will be solemnized in Scranton shortly.

—Byron Warner and Miss Bertha Williams, both of Hawley, were married on June 10 by Justice W. B. Ammerman of that place.

—Jesse Carey, the champion Canadian roller skater, will race Chet Smith, Scranton, at the rink on Thursday evening of this week.

—Mrs. E. W. Gregory and family have moved from the Bowden farm, near Seelyville, to the Chas. Ahren's property, near Swamp Brook.

—Three patients were discharged from one of the private hospitals in Scranton on Saturday last, two of whom being H. E. Bassett and Adam Falls.

—There will be a picnic at Bellevue Park Thursday afternoon, June 15, for the purpose of completing the monumental fund for the late Rev. William Dassel.

—Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Harry G. Egelston, 129 N. 58th street, Philadelphia, a 9 1/2 pound boy. Mother, father, nurse and Dr. Grace La Barr are all doing well.

—Revs. James Rainey, Aldenville, R. D. Minch, Damascus, and G. S. Wendell, Honesdale, are attending the Baptist National Convention in Philadelphia, this week.

—The twenty-eight constables who made their returns to June term of Court, Monday, received $144.60 as compensation for their services and railroad expenses.

—The trustees of St. John's Lutheran church have awarded Harry Deck the contract to cover the interior of the edifice with metal, replacing the present finish.

—Herman Harmes, Esq., Dr. G. F. Rodman, and Fred Rosa, Hawley, were appointed a commission, Thursday, June 8, by Judge A. T. Searle to inquire into the alleged lunacy of George Reiffer, Hawley.

—Among the bills signed by Governor Tener is one prohibiting damages to shade or fruit trees along the highway under penalty of $10 fine or five days in jail. Every means will be taken to enforce this law in Honesdale.

—List of advertised letters remaining in Honesdale postoffice week ending June 12: M. Garfinkel, Warwick Greene, Mrs. Samantha Henshaw, Lumbermen's Exchange, Wm. A. Sherwood, J. K. Young, Sutton S. Wilson, Jr. M. B. Allen, postmaster.

—Rev. and Mrs. S. B. Murray, Waverly, formerly of Ariel and Moscow, were both injured in a runaway accident on Sunday last. Mr. Murray was returning from the Fleetville charge and when near home the horse became frightened at an automobile. The carriage was overturned and Rev. Murray suffered a fractured arm, while Mrs. Murray was injured internally.

—H. S. Salmon, cashier of the Wayne County Savings Bank, and chairman of Group 3 of the Pennsylvania Bankers' association, left Monday morning via Erie for Philadelphia, where a meeting of the organization is being held this week. President H. Z. Russell of the Honesdale National Bank, R. T. Menger, J. C. Birdsall and Milton Russell left Honesdale Monday afternoon and motored to Philadelphia in Mr. Russell's car.

—More than twelve hundred members of St. Mary's approached the sacrament last week as the result of the mission held there by the Franciscan missionaries of New York, Father Titus and Father Haase. Father Titus left Monday morning for Milwaukee, Wis., where he will conduct a retreat for the priests of that diocese and Father Haase left the same afternoon for Michigan, where he will have charge of a retreat.

—The Honesdale Improvement association is the recipient of a quantity of flowers, including cannas, scarlet sage, lobelia and other bedding plants. They will be transplanted in beds on Seventh, Eighth, Ninth and Fourteenth streets. The association is indebted to the management of the Maple City green house for the generous contribution. The crescent-shaped flower bed in Riverside Park is also a donation of Mr. Marvin.

—Of course Honesdale expects to organize a camera club. There are upwards of five hundred kodaks and cameras owned by as many Maple City amateur photographer enthusiasts. Many more would become interested and the knowledge gained would be invaluable if a society were organized. There are a number of first-class amateurs in Honesdale who would be qualified to compete for prize pictures that might be offered at the proposed county convention of amateur photographers in December. Let Honesdale be the first to organize.

The ladies who so kindly acted as a committee to disperse the Manan fund which was collected among the members of the Exchange Club and others last December report the following expenditures: J. Samuel Brown $30.00, W. A. Gaylord 12.50, Manner & Co., supplies 25.35, Katz Bros., supplies 18.90, H. K. B. Store, supplies 95, Edward Deltzer, supplies 3.10, H. F. Bishop, supplies 4.64, W. L. Herrman, supplies 2.63, E. L. Faatz, supplies 1.00, Dolls .50, $99.57

—The Seelyville Fire Company will hold a dance at the Fire Hall, June 15.

—Reif's place of business was adorned Tuesday with a costly electric sign.

—There are $9,306 paid out during the school year to Honesdale teachers.

—Luna Park's manager, Thomas Gibbons and wife, Scranton, spent Thursday in town.

—Oslek Tribe, No. 318, I. O. R. M., is contemplating an excursion to Luna Park, Scranton, July 19.

—A marriage license was issued June 13 to Otto Schmidt, Hawley, and Miss Martha Ermisch, Tafton.

—An important meeting of Oslek Tribe, No. 318, Imp'd O. R. M., will be held Thursday evening. All the members are urged to be present.

—Mrs. A. G. Loomis, who had been dangerously ill for several weeks in her apartments at the Hotel Wayne, was taken to the State Hospital, Scranton, last Thursday, where on Friday morning she underwent a successful operation at the hands of Dr. Fred W. Powell, Honesdale, assisted by Dr. A. Smith, Scranton. She rallied splendidly from the effects of the operation, and is convalescing rapidly, much to the delight of her many friends.

THAT CLASS NIGHT DANCE.

Two hundred people attended the jolly class night dance in Lytle Hall, Friday night, given under the auspices of the Class of 1911. Music was furnished by an orchestra consisting of Miss Helen Beck, pianist, J. Freeman and Leon Katz, violinists, A. M. Leine, bass viol.

Among the invited guests were Misses Ruth Conrad, Mary Tager, Lucille Rowland, and Harry Ulrich, Scranton; Misses Helen Shannon, Clara Fisher, Messrs. John Beach, John Stockman, Frank Wynn, Jas. Fitzsimmons, John Reardon, Leslie Evans, Thos. Farley, Carbondale; Leon Ames, Hawley; Homer Bartrac, Homer Sandercock, Lake Ariel, Frank Johnson, White Mills.

PERSONAL

George Wolf, Ridge street, spent Sunday in Scranton.

Martin Caulfield was in Carbondale on business, Tuesday.

Rev. and Mrs. N. J. Hawley, Noxen, spent Friday in Honesdale.

Miss Anna Brown is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Loring, Elmira, N. Y.

Bernard F. Rifkin, Wilkes-Barre, was a Friday business caller in Honesdale.

George Fox, Elizabeth, N. J., returned Monday after spending a few days in Honesdale.

Robert Lees, Scranton, was the guest of Howard Hartung a few days last week.

Bert Bassett, the popular "star" of the Independent, is back in town again. Glad to see you, Mr. Bassett.

Mrs. E. L. McAllister and daughter, Ruth, Lancaster, are the guests of Mrs. Wesley W. McCown, Church street.

Mrs. William Huyett and daughter, Audell, Montclair, N. J., are the guest of Judge and Mrs. A. T. Searle.

Miss Mayme Welch has returned to her home in Carbondale after a visit with the Misses Mangan, East Honesdale.

H. Z. Russell, accompanied by H. T. Menger and J. C. Birdsall left for Philadelphia on Monday in Mr. Russell's auto.

R. A. Lowry, Scranton, deputy superintendent of the Prudential insurance company, is spending a week in town.

Miss Elizabeth Matthews, Scranton, is staying for a few weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Clark, Dyberry Place.

Prof. W. D. Watkins, principal of Waymart public schools, is spending his summer vacation at Elysburg, Northumberland county.

Mrs. George Lambrecht was called to Bloomville, N. Y., Monday morning by the critical illness of her father, M. W. Barker.

Edward Warwick, porter at the Allen House, resigned his position last week to enter the employ of John Heumann as bartender.

Bernard Rehbein left Monday for Effingham, Illinois, where he will take a three months' course at Bissel's College of Photography.

Rev. H. G. Harned, Scranton, Superintendent of the Northeastern Pennsylvania district of the Bible society, spent Friday in town.

Claud D. Merritt, Honesdale branch manager for the Scranton Truth, spent the week-end and Sunday with his parents in Mayfield.

Mr. and Mrs. William Kenworthy returned Monday night from a month's visit with their daughter's family, Mr. and Mrs. N. Moon, Jr., Carbondale.

John Welch, Rock Island, Ill., arrived Saturday for a visit with his sister, Mrs. H. Simpson, and brothers, Joseph N. and Thos. S. Welch, at this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Ulysses Beers, Fifteenth street, visited their son, Attorney Fred Beers, in Scranton, over Sunday and on Monday they started for Utica, N. Y.

Dr. Louis B. Nielsen returned on Monday afternoon from Philadelphia, where he took a six weeks' post-graduate course in the Poly-clinic Hospital of that city.

Miss Florence Rieffer, who has been attending Wilson college, Chambersburg, this state, returned Friday evening to spend the summer vacation with her parents here.

Homer Greene, Esq., left Monday morning for Schenectady, N. Y., where he will attend the commencement exercises of Union College, from which institution he was graduated in 1876.

Louis A. Loomis spent Sunday at the bedside of his mother, Mrs. A. G. Loomis, who is convalescing slowly from the effects of an operation performed last Friday at the State Hospital, Scranton.

Miss Anna Brown, Pittston, is visiting friends here.

J. G. Bone, Danmore, spent Saturday with his daughter, Mrs. E. B. Callaway.

Constable Jesse L. Sherwood, Jr., and son, Nelson, Preston, are spending several days in town.

Miss Clara Fisher, Carbondale, spent several days last week as the guest of Miss Helen Jacobs.

Mrs. W. F. Heft and son, William, Jr., Deposit, N. Y., are visiting at the home of W. T. Heft, West street.

Mrs. H. Harris, of New York city, is visiting at the home of Hon. Leopold Fuerth.

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Swinton, Port Jervis, were guests over Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Z. Russell.

Dr. and Mrs. Mead, I. S. Schenck and son, Mead, Jr., of Pittston, are expected to spend Sunday at the former's home here.

Dr. and Mrs. A. F. Davis and children, Wesley, Annette, Grace, of St. Mary's, Elk county, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Spettigue.

John Welch, of Rock Island, Ill., a former Honesdale boy, is in town as the guest of his brother, Joseph N. Welch, and will be here for some days.

Arch Knecht, Gouldsboro, and Mrs. Lillian L. Osborn, East Stroudsburg, were married at Gouldsboro, June 9, by Justice of the Peace W. L. Harvey.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Sandercock, late of New York City, have rented a suite of rooms in the north apartment of Graham Watts' new tenement house.

Clarence Knapp, formerly in the employ of Menger & Co., and now holding a responsible position with the New York Central, is in town almost every week.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Van Keuren left Sunday for State College, where they will attend the graduation exercises of that school their son, Harold, being a member of the graduating class.

Miss Jennie S. Lee, who has been spending the week-end with her sister, Mrs. Mary Payne, at Orson, returned Sunday evening. Mrs. Payne is convalescing from a severe illness.

Rev. and Mrs. A. C. Oliver and niece, Mrs. Jessie Searles, leave Thursday for Hagersville, Ont., where they will be guests for a month at the home of the former's daughter.

Miss Irene Coolous, New York city, a trained nurse, is the guest of Miss Ruth Ruppert, Honesdale. She will also spend some time as the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Coolous, Cherry Ridge.

Mrs. Christian Erk, Seelyville, is a guest at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Fred Hahn, in Providence, R. I. The Misses Kate and Lizzie Erk, Fifteenth street, are living at the former's home during her absence.

Mrs. Jasper Faatz and son, Harold, who have been visiting at the home of Mrs. M. E. Bolckom, Fifteenth street, returned home Monday morning. Mr. Faatz spent Sunday with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bryant will accompany E. D. Penwarden in the latter's machine, to New York on Thursday. From the metropolis they will go to Northampton, Mass., where their daughter, Olive, graduates from that institution.

Prothonotary M. J. Hanlan, Hon. Joel G. Hill and Isaac Sandercock attended to their duties as arbitrators in deciding as to the proper location of the dividing line between the properties of Edward Henderson and Miss Libbie Tomlinson at Rileyville, last Wednesday.

Dr. Elwin S. Norton, son of Hon. W. C. Norton, Clinton, will graduate from the veterinary department of the University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, June 21. Mr. Norton expects to attend the exercises. After graduation, Dr. Norton will locate in Meadville.

C. L. Dunning, the popular Main street merchant, left Monday morning for Shamokin, where he will attend the annual sessions of the Great Council of Pennsylvania, as the delegate from Oslek Tribe, Improved Order Red Men, No. 318.

Miss Ethel Lee is a guest at the home of her uncle, James Wentz. She will remain a week and while in that city will attend the graduation exercises, her cousin, Lee Wentz, being one of a large class which will be graduated from the High school in Wilkes-Barre, Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. William Katz, Miss Etta Fuerth and Miss Mildred Morris, all of this place, attended the wedding of Miss Guitel Harris and Lewis Frank in Scranton, Monday. The nuptial knot was tied by Rabbi Anspacher, Scranton, and Rabbi Falsman, Wilkes-Barre. A reception was afterwards held at Hotel Casey.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Wagner, Mr. and Mrs. Foster, son and daughter, and George Beers, all of Hancock, N. Y., motored to Honesdale last Saturday afternoon. Mr. Wagner is the enterprising editor of the Hancock Herald. The party registered at Hotel Wayne. It was one of three that left Hancock Saturday for Honesdale.

Mr. and Mrs. William R. Johnson, Scranton, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Bassett and Miss Emma Johnson, Maple Avenue. Mrs. Johnson intends to spend a few days, while her husband returned Monday to his duties at the International Correspondence School, Scranton, where he holds the position of railway instructor.

The funeral was held from his late home Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Doctor W. H. Swift officiating. W. B. Holmes was in charge of the ceremonies. The services at the grave were conducted by the Free and Accepted Masons, of which the deceased was one of the oldest members. Hon. A. T. Searle was master of ceremonies, and was assisted by D. C. Osborne, H. T. Menger, R. Jonas Katz, I. J. Ward, W. H. Lee and Dr. C. R. Brady.

Fred Osborne, Towanda, is visiting his brother here.

R. T. Whitney, Scranton, spent Sunday with Honesdale relatives.

Charles Searle and R. M. Salmon spent Sunday with friends in Dalton.

Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Brown, Berwick, are spending a few days in town.

Dr. A. M. Cook, South Canaan, was a Tuesday business caller in town.

Charles McKenna left Saturday last for New York after spending some time in Honesdale.

Miss Maude Colwell, Wilkes-Barre, passed several days last week as the guest of Miss Kate Eldred.

Edward Schuerholz, Egglewood, N. J., passed Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schuerholz, of this place.

Mrs. John Thomas, Spring street, left Thursday afternoon on a visit to her son, George, at Carbondale, and her daughter, Mrs. A. W. Bishop, at Scranton.

Mrs. Ray Bunnell left Monday morning for New York to join her husband who has a lucrative position with an automobile company, with headquarters in the metropolis.

FRATERNITY NOTES.

Freedom Lodge of Odd Fellows, No. 88, held a memorial service in their hall, Monday evening, which was of unusual interest. Addresses were made by Rev. W. H. Hiller, M. E. Simons and A. C. Lindsay. The musical part of the program was in charge of J. A. Bodie, Jr. Light refreshments were served after the services. During the evening the third degree was exemplified upon three candidates.

At their regular monthly meeting to be held on Thursday evening of this week, Oslek Tribe of Red Men will decide upon the date of their picnic, which is scheduled for Wednesday, July 19, at Luna Park, Scranton. The affair will be a reunion of the tribes of the county. Maplewood, Sherman and Hawley orders have been invited to participate in the war dance at Luna Park.

COUNTRY MARKET.

Corrected Semi-Weekly by Henry Freund.

Wholesale Price.

Eggs, per doz.17c
Butter, per pound....22 to 24
Lard, per lb.11
Cheese, per lb.11 to 12
Potatoes, per bu.60

RETAIL.

Eggs, per doz.18 to 20
Butter, per lb.25 to 28
Lard, per lb.12 1/2 to 14
Cheese, per lb.15
Potatoes, per bu.75

GRAIN MARKET.

Corrected Semi-Weekly by Honesdale Milling Co.

RETAIL PRICES.

Pastry Flour, per bbl.$5.00
Spring Wheat Fl., per bbl. $6 to $7
Roller Rye Flour, per bbl.$5.00
Dark Rye Flour, per bbl.$4.50
Corn Chop per 100 lbs.1.20
Feed, per 100 lbs.1.35
Wheat Bran, per 100 lbs.1.20
Cracked Corn, per 100 lbs.1.20
Corn Meal, per 100 lbs.1.20
Oats, per bu.46

FLIRT AND REST YOUR MIND.

Boston, June 12.—"A little harmless flirting with nice people with whom you are acquainted will do much to rest the tired mind after the arduous duties of the school-room."

This was one of the suggestions to young women school teachers made today by Miss Ann Newell on relinquishing her position as teacher in the Boston public schools after forty-nine years' service.

"Be a live wire every minute and don't eat too much," was another bit of advice.

FARMER

BANK WITH US

THE BANK FOR ALL CLASSES

M. E. SIMONS, PRESIDENT C. A. EMERY, CASHIER

The Farmers and Mechanics Bank

COR. MAIN AND 10TH ST., HONESDALE

LABORER

DOCTOR

$1 starts you with an account

Open a savings account in your name and when see that you deposit some of your spending money in the bank at intervals. Once establish the saving habit and gratifying results are certain.

With the latest improved vault safe with time lock, fire proof vaults, modern methods, and assured courteous treatment

We Solicit a Share of Your Trade

Bring your deposit in person, send money order, express order, draft or send it with a friend.

HAND PROPERTY BOUGHT.

An important real estate deal was consummated in Honesdale Monday afternoon, when Henry Freund purchased the Hand property, located at the corner of Chasen and Eleventh streets. Consideration, $4,000.

GAME CANCELLED.

Word was received Monday evening by Manager Leon Ross that the game scheduled to be played at Taylor next Saturday afternoon between the Athletics of that city and the Honesdale team was cancelled.

POSITION STILL OPEN.

No applications having been received for the examination announced for June 10, for the position of fourth-class postmaster at Tanners Falls, the Civil Service Commission has announced another examination to be held on June 24. All necessary instructions and copies of the regulations may be obtained from the postmaster at Tanners Falls or the secretary of the board of civil service examiners at Honesdale.

GUESS! GUESS WHAT?

We will place in our window on Wednesday, June 14, an Elgin Watch, cased in 20-year gold filled case. The person guessing nearest the number stamped on movement will be presented with same free of charge.

RULES OF CONTEST—With each twenty-five cent purchase you will receive a ticket entitling you to one guess. In the event of a lady being the winner she may have choice of Ladies Elgin Watch. Date of drawing to be announced later.

ROWLAND JEWELER

SEE WATCH IN WINDOW

—FOR— REGISTER and RECORDER

Solicits your support at the coming primaries Sept. 30.

