Bull, New York city, manager, spent Wednesday in the Maple City. —The Allenville Alerts will play against the German Catholic base ball club, Saturday afternoon on the local grounds. —The Wayne County Fair association is figuring on a large attraction in the line of a roller coaster to add to the amusements at the fair next August. —June 24 the strong Phoebe Snows, the representative team of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad, will cross bats with Honesdale. —Licenses to marry have been granted to August Kelch and Lena Fey, both of White Mills, and to Otto Schmidt, Hawley, and Martha Ermisch, Tafton. —The Cuban Giants, the strongest colored team playing base ball today, will play two games in Honesdale July 4. A big day is being planned in general athletics and field day at the ball grounds. —Some idea of the size of the crowd that filled to overflowing the Honesdale Roller Rink, to witness the inter-county race, Tuesday night, may be gathered from the fact that 480 pairs of skates were loaned out. —Hancock, N. Y., is to celebrate the ever-glorious Fourth in a patriotic manner. The town expects to have a more elaborate program than was rendered last year, when the largest concourse of people ever known assembled in that Delaware valley town. —The remains of Howard Ross, Middletown, N. Y., who died last week at a hospital in Newburg, N. Y., from the effects of an operation for appendicitis performed in that institution, were brought to Damascus last Monday for burial. Mr. Ross was a son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Ross, Galilee, and leaves a wife and two children to mourn his death. —The annual commencement of the Preston township High school will be held in the Methodist church, Winwood, Monday evening, June 19 at 8 o'clock. Judge Searle, Honesdale, will deliver the commencement address. Music will be furnished by Ferth's orchestra of Carbondale. Miss Helen Buckley, Scranton, will sing. —Farmers claim that they have never seen so much rain in June as has fallen during the past few days. Every river, stream and tributary of same are well filled and in some cases are above high water mark. They also claim that thunder storms of the nature recently experienced are unprecedented for June, more often occurring in August. —William Netherton, station man, Fred Wise, inspector for the Bell Phone Co. at Honesdale, and William H. Kauffelt will attend an illustrated stereopticon lecture entitled "The Wonderland of the Telephone," to be read to the Northern Pennsylvania Telephone society and its guests by G. E. Gable, copy manager, on the occasion of its last meeting of the season in Loannard Hall, Scranton, Friday, June 16 at 8 p. m. —There has been no change made by the legislature in the season of fishing. The season for bass and most of the game fish opened on Thursday, June 15, and will continue until November 30, the pickerel season running until December 31. The trout season will close July 31. Although said to be the best in several years throughout the State, such has not been the case in Wayne county, owing to the cold weather.

—Bass fishing opens Friday. —Flag day was generally observed in Honesdale on Wednesday. —The Lutheran Y. P. S. meets to-night (Thursday) at 8 o'clock. —The Emery reunion will be held at Nay Aug Park, Saturday, June 17. —The Buckingham family will hold a reunion at Lake Ariel, June 20. —The Seelyville Fire Company will hold a dance at the Fire Hall, June 15. —The Honesdale public schools closed Wednesday afternoon for the summer vacation. —Titus Mission Band of the Presbyterian church held a picnic at the golf links Thursday afternoon. —Company E, Thirteenth Infantry, will conduct a dance in the Park Place Armory on the evening of June 30. —The Honesdale High school public library will be open through the summer months every Thursday from 2 to 4 and from 7-9 p. m. —Children's Day exercises will be held in the Methodist church next Sunday morning. A very interesting program has been prepared. —An important meeting of Osek Tribe, No. 318, Imp'd O. R. M., will be held Thursday evening. All the members are urged to be present. —The four daughters and two sons of Mr. and Mrs. F. X. Soete are numbered among the alumni of the Honesdale High school. —After the close of the summer school, Prof. and Mrs. H. A. Oday will spend the remainder of their vacation in Cortland and the Thousand Islands. —There will be a picnic at Bellevue Park Thursday afternoon, June 15, for the purpose of completing the monumental fund for the late Rev. William Dassell. —The Home Missionary quarterly meeting of the Methodist church will be held at the home of Mrs. James Bush, instead of Mrs. T. A. Crossley, Thursday evening. —The Honesdale school board reorganized Tuesday night, by the election of these officers: President, Judge A. T. Searle; vice-president, F. C. Shoell; secretary, A. M. Leine; treasurer, W. J. Ward. —Dr. W. T. McConville and Joseph Murtha, the latter having recently fractured his collarbone, went to Scranton Thursday morning for the purpose of having a support fitted to the broken bone. They went to Dr. Thompson's hospital. —The Governor has affixed his signature to the bill authorizing the trustees of the State Hospital for the Criminal Insane to receive patients as soon as they can be accommodated before the completion of the entire building at Farview. —The Citizen invites your attention to two new departments in today's issue, namely, "The Amateur Photographer" and "Our Boys." The market report is also something that every farmer will be interested in. Keep on the watch for additional improvements in this paper. —In order to accommodate applicants and save them possible expense and trouble, United States Internal Revenue Deputy Collector, William D. Evans of the twelfth Pennsylvania district with headquarters in Scranton will be at the Allen House, Friday, June 16, from 9 a. m. to 3:30 p. m. —The prizes offered annually by the County W. C. T. U. to the members of the Physiology class of the High school who shall write the best essays on the effects of alcohol on the system, were awarded Wednesday to Miss Blanche Oliver, Beachlake, first prize, a copy of Lowell's poems, and to Miss Jennie Van Wert, Beachlake, second prize, a copy of Whittier's poems. —The baseball team will play against the Hawley nine on Saturday. It is claimed that Hawley has a strong team, some of the players being well known ball tossers. McClosky, their pitcher, who was tried out on the Tri-State League last season, will be in the box Saturday. An effort is being made on the part of Hawley to obtain the pennant of Wayne county this season, but Honesdale, Aldenville and White Mills will have something to say about it. —The Sparks show, which come to Honesdale on Friday, have improved and grown remarkably during the last few years, and to those of us who remember its former visits comes the thought that it was always a clean, moral and entertaining show, and one we never hesitated in having our families visit. It is said that the show still retains these features that made it such a welcome visitor in the years gone by, and that its methods of doing business with the public are still of that same high order. The big parade starts at noon to-morrow. —The Class of 1911, Honesdale High school, banqueted at the home of Mrs. William F. Briggs, 103 Tenth street, after the graduation exercises Tuesday night. The participants were: Misses Ethel Schlessler, Gertrude Krantz, Marie Bracey, Anna Doherty, Helen Caudfield, Agnes Carr, Bessie Kimble, Florence Shuman, Julia Storms, Sarah Menner, Minnie Schoell, Anna Klroo, Florence Smith, Dorothy Dein, Margaret Rickert, Messrs. Ray Dibble, Leo Osborne, Merion Canfield, Joseph Jacobs, Roy Leinbach, Leon Hagaman, Arthur Saunders, Charles Markle. —Joseph Clemo, one of Honesdale's local milk dealers, suffered quite a severe loss Wednesday evening by having 200 quarts of milk and 20 quarts of cream "watered." Mr. Clemo has his creamery or milk cooling station located over a small creek, which passes through his property, and Wednesday night's downpour increased the tiny stream to such proportions that it carried the shed and contents off its foundation, causing a great loss to the owner. Mr. Clemo, who usually starts on his route about 4:30 in the morning, was detained several hours by the accident. He, however, served his customers Wednesday morning, though a little late.

—Lewis Decker is employed at his trade, that of a carpenter, at Farview. —Be at the Erie train 7:20 Saturday morning instead of 8:25. The new timetable goes into effect upon that day. —G. William Sell attended the Keystone convention, accepted Scottish Rite Masons reunion at Scranton Wednesday evening. William Katz also was in attendance. —Miss Alice Duff entertained a number of her friends Wednesday evening at her home on Forest street. Dainty refreshments were afterwards served. —Tony Crane, Green Ridge, a former Maple City ball player, who until recently has been covering first base for the Wheeling club of the Central League, has been traded to the Waterloo club of the Three-Eye League. —The Erie passenger train will leave at 7:20 Saturday morning, June 17, it being the change of schedule on the summer time table. The afternoon train will arrive about ten minutes later, getting here at 1:45, while the evening train will be about the same, 6:56. —Charles F. Jones and Miss Ethel A. Myers, both of Slocum, were married Wednesday morning at 7 o'clock by the Rev. Will H. Hiller at the parsonage of the Central Methodist Episcopal church, Honesdale. The couple were unattended. They left the same morning on a wedding trip to Niagara Falls, N. Y. —James Lawrence Ware, a son of Rev. James P. Ware, a former rector of Grace P. E. church, Honesdale, now located at Drifton, graduates from the Mining and Mechanical Institute at Freeland, Friday evening, June 16, with high honors. Mr. Ware is the president of his class. —W. H. Mitchell has been awarded the contract to remodel the home of W. H. Pearce, Ridge street. In addition to general repairs the roof will be raised, thus making a two-story house. Contractor Mitchell will also build a two-story wagon shed 24x30 feet for John Driscoll. F. J. Varcoe is working on the foundation, which is of concrete. —The trout fishing season, which will close July 31, is declared by State Fish Commissioner Meahan to have been one of the best in years; the prolonged cold weather, not having interfered with the fish. The State's hatcheries planted more trout than ever before this year, and preparations have been made for a large output next season. —Miss Jennie S. Lee, a teacher in the Honesdale public school, accompanied by Mrs. W. H. Lee, leave Friday morning for Wilkes-Barre. After a short visit with relatives in that city they will go to Philadelphia for a week. Mrs. Lee will then return home, while Miss Jennie will continue her trip to Lakewood, N. J., where she will remain for an indefinite stay with her sister, Mrs. Hattie Hurlbut. Before returning to Honesdale, Miss Lee will visit a cousin in Barre, Vt. —H. B. Colvin, Wilkes-Barre, architect of the proposed new warehouse for the Honesdale Milling company, was in town on Thursday. The company has been waiting on the D. & H. system for a switch, which has held them back in operations. The switch will be on a direct line with the main track, leaving same at a point near their grist mill and runs to the rear of the proposed new building. The warehouse will be two stories with basement, 40x70 feet, and will be built of brick. —Fast driving of gasoline bugles in Honesdale by reckless chauffeurs and intoxicated owners will be a perilous pastime in the Maple City if the efforts of a committee consisting of John Erk and C. E. Bates who were appointed at the regular meeting of the Business Men's Association Wednesday evening in city hall, to wait on the Mayor and Town Council about this daily infringement of the borough ordinance are successful. There is nothing which so arouses feeling as the daredevil performances of the owners of motor cars who run their machines with no regard at all for the rights of pedestrians. A new member was received at this meeting of the Association and it was decided to boom the Business Men's excursion to Lake Ladore August 30, for all it was worth.

FRILLS AND FASHIONS For Women by a Woman

HAVE it made with a V neck front and back, and let her wear a muslin fichu, crossed in front. If she possesses an old cameo brooch, or an amethyst in an old-fashioned setting, then the picture is complete. If the brooch is an amethyst choose an organdie with lavender ribbon and have a lavender messaline foundation. A word about these foundations for lingerie gowns. They should be princess slips and made as elegantly as the outside gown. Few care to make them at home, as they can be found very reasonable in the best department stores. The Citizen Fashion Editor looked at some lately, which were hand embroidered and lace trimmed. They ranged from $4.75 to $32.00. Less expensive were some very neat designs for $1.85, $2.25 up to $3.95. Bolored lawn, lace trimmed, lavender, pink and blue can be found for $1.85. Princess slips of messaline and India silk, some lace trimmed and with plaited flounce, can be had for $4.95 up to $8.95. Hand-made waists are of course the most exclusive. Many young women embroider and make these for themselves. A real bargain in this line is noted at a Fifth Avenue shop, making a specialty of fine gowns and waists. The waist is hand embroidered and trimmed with real lace, former price $35.00, now $15.00. Dotted swiss is always cool looking. A pretty touch is a real Irish lace collar, which can also be worn with other waists. No matter how small the bit of lace, especially Irish, let it be real, other than imitation. "Dewdrop Ribbons," so said the sign. The Fashion Editor found these to be real novelties—ribbons in dainty colors, studded with crystals beads "that suggest dewdrops on the soft filmy materials." These are used for evening caps, hair bands, sashes, hair ornaments, and are not very expensive, a nine and a half inch width retailing for 27 cents a yard. Byron collars are not new but rather pliquant always. These noted had a scalloped edge with eyelet and polka dot designs. Two for a quarter, instead of a quarter each. Stenciled buttons are noted on tub suits of linen. The fabric is stenciled before mounting on the wooden moulds. Very large buttons of tortoise shell are in use, also of horn dyed to match cloth of suit. Cretonne covered buttons match cretonne trimmings. Little velvet buttons in green add a French touch to a blouse of changeable green and black silk. Coat sets consisting of collar and cuffs are of many styles. Embroidered linen wears well. Batiste sets embroidered with springs in blue or pink are button hole stitched at edge. Water-proof ribbon is firm and lustrous. Can be used to advantage on Panam outing hats. WEDDING ANNOUNCEMENT. Mrs. Sylvia J. Travis, Lester-shire, N. Y., has announced the coming marriage of her daughter, Miss Lois M. Bunting, to Wellington Pine, Orson, Pa., Thursday, June 15. Mr. and Mrs. Pine will reside at Orson. Mrs. Travis resided at Tri-States for a time following the death of her husband, who was killed in a railroad accident in the Erie's Port Jervis yard ten years or more ago.—[Port Jervis Union.]
