Governor Cuts Appropriation Bills $98,000.

HE VETOES FOUR MEASURES.

Compliance of Legislature in Fixing Expenses of State Charitable Institutions Makes Necessary Only Few Reductions.

Harrisburg, Pa., June 15.—Bills just signed by Governor Tener appropriate $18,376,853.97 to charitable and penal institutions for the next two years. The number of measures disposed of was approximately 325. Only four were vetoed and the appropriations to less than a dozen others reduced.

The vetoes are two tuberculosis leagues, which the governor cut off because the state is engaged in the same humanitarian work. One of these concerns is the Berks county and the other the Northwestern, in Crawford county. The other two are the Mercy hospital of Johnstown and the Mercy of Altoona.

Because of the fairly accurate compliance of the legislature with the request of the governor that the appropriations be kept within the estimated revenues the total is within $98,000 of the amount voted by the senate and house.

The total of $18,376,853 includes the following items:

State institutions, $8,520,253.97, including $3,443,906.73 for the indigent insane; no reductions made.

Semistate institutions, including the house of refuge and various institutions for blind, deaf and dumb, $1,305,100; no reductions made.

Hospitals, $4,986,000; reduced from $5,042,800.

Homes, educational institutions, asylums and sanitariums, $3,582,700; reduced from $3,606,700.

Of the $98,000 cut off $74,000 was taken from hospitals and $24,000 from homes, etc.

WIRELESS LEADS BOY ASTRAY.

Youth of Thirteen Missing From Home; Probably Shipped on Collier.

Philadelphia, June 15.—Where is thirteen-year-old George McIlvaine? He left his home at 419 Richmond street last Thursday to make purchases for his wireless outfit. He has not been seen or heard from since. He had only 30 cents with him at the time.

The boy is a pupil at the Trades' school, Twelfth and Locust streets, and was enthusiastic over the study of wireless. He had rigged up a little station at his home in the hope of being able to communicate with his father, who is captain of the Reading Railway company's collier Prudence, plying between this port and Boston. Captain McIlvaine left Philadelphia last Thursday and as yet knows nothing of the boy's disappearance. His mother fears that overstudy may have unbalanced her son's mind. She believes also that he might have shipped on one of the colliers in order to gain practical experience in operating a wireless machine at sea.

DEMOCRATIC LEADERS MEET.

Guthrie May Not Retire From State Committee.

Harrisburg, Pa., June 15.—The Democratic chiefs who will attend the meeting today to form a state league of Democratic clubs arrived last night.

George W. Guthrie, the reorganizers' state chairman, is regarded as not at all likely to retire. In fact the reorganizers will ask his re-election and that of Congressman A. M. Palmer by the state committee on July 19, as approval of their work. Whether the old organization will make any fight or not will be settled at a conference in July.

The reorganizers declare they are gaining strength every day and predict the re-election of the officers chosen at the March meeting of the reorganization committee.

Mr. Guthrie is expected to hold a conference with Congressman Palmer, Vance C. McCormick, James L. Blaislee and others prominent in the "new Democracy" tonight. Many of the club delegates will be here at that time.

REYBURN FOR SENATOR.

Philadelphia's Mayor May Seek Penrose's Seat.

Philadelphia, June 15.—Mayor Reburn confesses that he might "be goose enough" to consent to go to the United States senate four years hence, when the term of Senator Penrose expires. There is a magic melody in the suggestion for the mayor, and he flushed perceptibly when asked if he cherished such an ambition. That the thought was not a new one was manifested in the mayor's mannerism. He denied that he is looking so far ahead, but indicated that the suggestion was alluring.

"Oh, I might be goose enough to take it when the time comes," said the mayor, "but that is a long way ahead."

Scouts Plan Hike to Gettysburg. Harrisburg, Pa., June 15.—The Boy Scouts of this city are arranging for a hike to Gettysburg. It is the plan to take several days for the trip and to pitch tents at historic points along the road.

JUDGE GROSSCUP.

Who Suggests Dividend Regulation to Curb the Trusts.

Iowa City, Ia., June 15.—Declaring the Sherman act "even as now interpreted an ineffective remedy in the just complaint of the ordinary man against monopolies," Judge Peter S. Grosscup of the United States circuit court of appeals proposed in an address before the University of Iowa a new method of dealing with trusts.

"To recognize combination and monopoly as something necessarily here—square the law to the fact—and then as a condition to granting corporate power at all reserve the right to regulate dividends" is the remedy he suggests.

Judge Grosscup expressed doubt whether despite the supreme court decisions in the Standard Oil and American Tobacco cases other big business enterprises would not take their chances along the same or other lines.

HEIKE A POOR WITNESS.

Former Sugar Company Secretary Keeps Things to Himself.

Washington, June 15.—Charles N. Heike, former secretary of the American Sugar Refining company during the Havemeyer regime, was on the stand before the Hardwick investigating committee and for more than five hours he was examined in regard to the inside workings of the sugar company from the time of its organization in 1891 until last July, when he resigned.

The committee's vigorous questioning did not net them very valuable information and the members were plainly disappointed, for they had hoped to obtain from Mr. Heike a good deal of light on Henry O. Havemeyer's management of the corporation. The next witness will be Lowell M. Palmer of Brooklyn, a former director of the sugar company.

NOISY TRYING TO DIE.

Would Be Suicide Saved by Fiancee's Brother.

Buffalo, June 15.—Frank Marshall, nineteen years old, is under arrest here on a charge of attempted suicide. He called on his fiancee, Miss Nellie Fryer, and left downhearted after a quarrel. He decided to kill himself and, flinging a clothesline, proceeded to carry out his plan. He fastened the rope to one of the porch posts and climbed into the noose from a box, which he planned to kick out from under his feet when all was ready.

The box caught on a board and would not budge. Meanwhile Marshall made such a racket the girl's brother was aroused and cut the young man down.

FACE A NEW ENEMY

General Viljoen Ordered to Suppress the Magonistas.

FEAR SOCIALIST MOVEMENT.

Madero Advises Quick Action Against Mexican Uprising in Lower California—Many Resent Former Boer General as Commander.

El Paso, Tex., June 15.—The Magonista socialistic movement is gaining headway, and there is no further delay in sending troops to lower California to suppress the Magonistas now opposing the government there. General Ben Viljoen of Boer war fame has received the following message from Francisco I. Madero, dated Iguain, Guerrero:

"Don Abram Gonzales has wired you to order whatever may be necessary for the troops. I advised Mexico regarding the canton, but by all means it would be advisable for you to march now with the troops you have there and those of Cabral, and the others will join you later."

As a result of this message 100 or 150 volunteers will leave Juarez in a day or two for lower California. They will have some small pieces of artillery and will be commanded by Viljoen. Only volunteers are to be taken, as it is desired to have an army of willing fighters. Some objection to Viljoen's leadership was made by Mexicans residing in El Paso, who declared that there were plenty of Mexicans fully as capable to lead the command.

The Magonistas are not confining their activities entirely to lower California. Last week arms and ammunition were seized here and four of their men arrested.

Madero officers in El Paso have been notified of an attack made on the town of San Antonio, seventy-five miles southwest of El Paso, on the Rio Grande. The Liberal force, about thirty in number, attacked the ranch of Lamar Davis of El Paso and demanded all the horses, arms and ammunition that were there. Francisco and Dairo Sanchez, who was in charge of the ranch, refused to surrender and were taken prisoners, the Liberals taking two horses, two mules, a number of rifles and ammunition and all the provisions on the place. Word was sent to Jose de la Luz Sanchez, in command of the Maderistas troops at Ojlnaga, and he sent seventy men. They were joined by thirty residents of San Antonio, and the Liberals retreated to the hills.

SEAMEN'S STRIKE SPREADS.

English Shipping Federation, However, Does Not Take It Seriously.

London, June 15.—The seamen's strike has spread to Middlesbrough, Belfast, Bristol, Cardiff, Swansea, Manchester and Newcastle. Several hundreds have handed in their notices, but hitherto there has been an absence of unity and enthusiasm. Whether the strike will become serious cannot yet be told. The leaders have ordered the men not to break existing engagements; hence the strike if it continues will not reach a maximum for some time. The demands include a general betterment of conditions, with a fixed minimum wage and a conciliation board.

The secretary of the shipping federation, representing 13,000,000 of Great Britain's 15,000,000 tons of shipping, says that the federation does not take the strike seriously. The vast majority of sailors, he says, are satisfied and do not wish to strike. The Seamen's union represents only a small fraction and possesses no funds.

JAMES A. PATTEN.

Who Says Business Suffers Because of Too Many Investigations.

New York, June 15.—Those who didn't catch the Mauretania can't see the coronation. The giant Cunarder sailed with 509 first cabin passengers, the most she has ever carried on either an eastward or a westward trip. Once she brought 807 over from the other side.

James A. Patten, the former Chicago wheat operator, one of the passengers, was not optimistic about business.

"Business at present is unquestionably not good," he said. "There is a lack of confidence, caused by too many investigations and the disposition of the government to tax every man who has over 15 cents. Money is plentiful because people are not using it."

"Crop conditions are very good, but there is a great lack of moisture west of Buffalo. If this should develop into a drought during July and August the corn crop would be badly affected."

DROUGHT IN WEST BROKEN.

But Rain in Missouri Came Too Late to Save Pastures.

St. Louis, June 15.—Scattered showers are reported in Missouri, Nebraska, Illinois and the northwest, but it remains generally dry in most other sections. Rain fell on both sides of the Mississippi river here, which somewhat relieves the extremely droughty conditions in the Missouri and Illinois corn belt. Meadows were, however, already burned up, and live stock is being forced to market for lack of grass.

Weather Probabilities. Generally fair today and tomorrow; moderate temperature; light to moderate northwest to north winds.

KNOX'S SIDE OF IT

Secretary of State Is Witness in Day Portrait Case.

HAS COMPLIMENT FOR HAMLIN

Little Light is Shed on Recent Recovery of Long Lost Voucher—Office Boy Knew Exact Time It Was Found and Tella Why.

Washington, June 15.—"You've played this up in first class style. If you ever get out of congress you ought to manage a theatrical company," was Secretary of State Knox's greeting to Chairman Hamlin as he seated himself in the witness chair before the house committee on expenditures in the state department.

Secretary Knox was referring principally to the chairman's conduct of the inquiry into the so called Day portrait case. Secretary Knox thereupon laid before the committee the long lost voucher for $2,450 and other documents in the case that have reappeared after having been missing for five years.

The documents submitted by Secretary Knox threw no definite light upon the final disposition of the $1,600 that was paid out by the treasury on the voucher over and beyond the $850 charged by Albert Rosenthal, the Philadelphia artist, for painting the portrait of William Day, then secretary of state and now associate justice of the supreme court.

A letter from William H. Michael, who was chief clerk of the state department at the time and who in the first instance received the $2,450, says that the difference of $1,600 was turned over to Secretary of State Hay to pay confidential accounts of the state department, as he recalls it, in connection with Chinese affairs. The entire $2,450 was drawn from a fund authorized by congress for expenditures of a confidential character and for which the secretary of state is required to make no public accounting. Mr. Michael adds that signing of the voucher by Rosenthal must have been an inadvertence, as it was to have been signed by Michael himself. Mr. Michael is now consul at Calcutta. Secretary Knox acknowledged that the only information that the department had as to what had become of the $1,600 was in Mr. Michael's own statement.

As to the mysterious finding of the voucher on the floor of the disbursing clerk's room in the state department after it had been missing for years, Mr. Knox could give no explanation. On this point he could throw no more light than the office boy who found the document at 5:30 o'clock on a recent afternoon and who testified when asked how he knew the exact time that he "was always looking at the clock when he had to work late."

"Do you think that the voucher has been in the state department all this time," asked Chairman Hamlin.

"Yes, there is no doubt of it," said Mr. Knox.

The voucher was withdrawn from the department's file about five years ago, when Elihu Root, then secretary of state, undertook an investigation of the Day portrait case. The present state department authorities do not know whether it had been in its regular place in the files since that time. As soon as Secretary Knox heard of the questionable character of the voucher through the house committee's activities he instituted an investigation and could get no trace of it. That was two weeks or more ago.

"I directed," said Secretary Knox, "that a most thorough search should be made in the state department, and I personally inquired from day to day as to the progress that was made. Every place in the department was hunted, even the old safe in the basement."

BAKERS IN BIG COMBINE.

But Incorporators Declare They Are Not Forming Trust.

New York, June 15.—The General Baking company, just incorporated here, is a combination of twenty-one concerns engaged in bread and the general baking business. The merger is the first since the decisions in the Standard Oil and Tobacco cases, and the incorporators took pains to disclaim any intention of violating the law as construed. They say:

"There is no purpose or thought of the establishment of a monopoly in the manufacture and sale of breads. Such a monopoly would be impossible, as in most localities, with few exceptions, only one baking company has been acquired, leaving competition open to hundreds of others."

Temperance Legion Report.

The Wayne County Loyal Temperance Legion held their fourth annual convention in the Grange Hall at Dyberry, June 7. All but one legion was represented, making about sixty delegates in all. Dinner and supper were served in the hall. Pleasant Valley L. T. L. and W. C. T. U. Very little business was done in the morning; in the afternoon the following were elected: President, Freeman Egan; vice-president, Esther Stephens; recording secretary, Elma Peet; corresponding secretary, Dorothy Rieffer; treasurer, Lewis Brill; superintendents of Flower Mission, Tina Sampson; Sabbath Observance, Hazel Hopkins; social, Mrs. Otto Douglas; Contest Work, John Rieffer; Literature, Stephen Douglas; Anti-Narcotic, Arthur Oliver.

The junior half hour, consisting of recitations and songs by the children, was greatly enjoyed by everyone present. A memorial service was held by Lewis Brill during which he gave a brief sketch of the lives of Mrs. Hiller and Walter Skinner, two legionaries who departed this year. Mr. Kline, a Granger from Ariel, who addressed the legionaries, urged them to establish legions every place possible and keep the young people from public dances.

During the evening a double gold medal contest was held. The medals were awarded to Miss Ruth Kennedy, of Pleasant Mount, and Louise Kline of Ariel. The judges were Dr. Corson, Rev. Chas. White and Mrs. Gager.

The report of the resolution committee will be printed in the following edition of this paper.

Although there was a large number of young people at this convention who are fighting the drink habit in Wayne county, not one of this number reported from Honesdale.

Do all the young people from here favor drinking, smoking and swearing which this organization is fighting? It is true that the L. T. L. does not have much effect on the older drinkers, but they do a great deal for the rising generation and it is through them that this terrible foe should be and the only way it can be fought.

We hope that there will be some one from Honesdale interested enough in this work to spend at least one day at the state convention which will be held at Carbondale from June 26 to June 30. Everyone is welcome.
