Fred Wise, who for three years has been chief lineman for the Bell Telephone Co., here, has resigned. Mr. Wise will spend a short vacation at his former home in Lebanon before assuming his new duties at Carbondale with the Consolidated Telephone company. Mr. Wise has made a number of friends while in Honesdale who wish his success in the Pioneer City.

The Wayne County Day at Luna Park, Scranton, on July 19, bids fair to be the largest gathering of Wayne county people ever held in Scranton. Prominent speakers will make addresses in the afternoon at the park. Don't forget the date, July 19. Train leaves at 8:45 a. m. Tickets $1.00. The big auto parade on the evening of the 18th will surpass anything ever seen in Honesdale. Don't miss it.

The borough ordinance forbidding lighting and setting off fire crackers, rockets, etc., has been generally observed this year. There have been heard a few snaps and reports now and then, but on the whole there has been little disturbance along this line. It is to be hoped that this will be a safe and sane Fourth. We feel that the picture that has been running in the Citizen has had some influence on our boys.

The Governor has named the following men to comprise the first State Educational board: Dr. M. G. Brumbaugh, Philadelphia, 6 years; David B. Oliver, Pittsburgh, 5 years; Dr. G. M. Phillips, West Chester, 4 years; John S. Rilling, Erie, 3 years; William Lauder, Riddisburg, two years; James M. Coughlin, Wilkes-Barre, one year. Dr. N. C. Scheffer, State Superintendent of Instruction, is to be ex-officio president of the board.

Three blocks on Upper Main street are being rebuilt by Commissioner Weldner. The blocks between Thirteenth and Fifteenth streets have been completed. The street is certainly in much better condition and what has been accomplished is a demonstration of what the ten-ton roller can do. Before being rolled down the road was plowed or dug up by means of an attachment placed on the head of the roller. It is then worked over and rolled down. The question is, "How long will it last?"

Don't fail to see Prince Nemo, Where? At the Carnival. 1f
