FRIDAY, JULY 7, 1911.

NOBODY HURT.

It is with intense gratification that we place the above caption over this short editorial on the aftermath of the Fourth. Honesdale and the rest of the country celebrated quietly, without danger and with just as much patriotism and sincerity as previous Fourth's attended by much noise and many injuries. It would seem that the country was at last awakening to the fact that lockjaw is not a proof of love for the Stars and Stripes and that a boy in the home is worth two in the hospital.

KEEPING COOL.

Think of the Massachusetts coast being as hot as Yuma, Arizona, and that there were more deaths on the Fourth due to heat than to firecrackers and toy pistols and you will readily agree that it is some hot even if your wilted collar does not advise you of the fact without any invidious comparisons.

To those who want to keep cool these days, we offer the following. We do not guarantee its efficacy but we are confident that our "don'ts" may bring some small relief if conscientiously tried.

- Don't drink much ice water.
- Don't overeat.
- Don't eat much meat.
- Don't worry.
- Don't drink alcoholic beverages.
- Don't avoid bathing.
- Don't exercise any more than you have to.
- Don't read so-called summer literature.

Get a book about the North Pole and revel in snow storms, ice bergs, glaciers, etc., and you'll be surprised to find out how much cooler you feel.

THE I. C. S. AND THE EXPRESS COMPANIES.

The Interstate Commerce Commission has at last decided to investigate the workings of the express companies. This is good news. They ought to be looked into by an official investigation that should be thorough, impartial and exhaustive with a view to recommending a parcels post such as foreign countries enjoy and the establishment of which has hitherto been prevented by the influence of the express companies. In the matter of the parcels post, for instance, we note that it costs 48 cents to send a four-pound parcel from Philadelphia to Pekin and 64 cents to send the same parcel from Philadelphia to Camden; and that the parcel to Pekin may weigh 13 pounds but the parcel to Camden if it is to go through the mails—must not weigh more than four. Such a condition of affairs is not only unfair but preposterous and it ought to be changed as soon as possible. In Germany a package weighing as much as 110 pounds goes through the mail at a very low postal rate. Is not the United States as well able to have parcels post as our German brethren? We think it is and hope that the investigation about to take place will go a long way towards bringing such a desirable condition of affairs from dreams into actualities.

A NITROGEN DISCOVERY FOR FARMERS.

Two gentlemen of the Cornell University Agricultural Experiment Station have made many researches into the nitrification of crops. It has long been known that alfalfa, peas, beans, clovers and vetches make their own fertilizing nitrates by means of bacteria attached to their roots which extract the nitrogen from the air. Grain, potatoes and other plants, which are not leguminous are limited by the amount of nitrates in the soil. Now it is shown that the growth of legumes may also furnish nitrogenous food to other plants growing with them and also aid in the nitrification of the soil for future crops of grain, potatoes, etc.

So hereafter farmers will do well to mix with their sowings of timothy and oats, some alfalfa, red clover and peas for these gentlemen at Cornell have discovered that the percentage of protein in timothy is increased from 12.75 to 15.56 by sowing it with alfalfa and from 17.19 to 24.56 by mixing with red clover. In the same way protein increases were obtained by mixing oats with peas and it was found the number of pounds of hay per acre when sown with oats alone were 3,700 and 2,900 compared with 4,850 and 3,900 when peas were mixed with the oats.

This is a valuable discovery and seems certain to prove of great benefit to farmers throughout the country.

LUTHER LEAGUE CONVENTION.

The Young People's Societies of Easton are making preparations to entertain the state convention of the Luther League of Pennsylvania July 11, 12, 13. About 150 or more delegates and visitors are expected.

As the local leagues are furnishing free entertainment, and Easton being so favorably located and so easily reached from all parts of the state, the expectations are that this will be the largest convention in the league's history.

The convention theme will be the "King's Business," and some of the most prominent laymen and pastors in the Lutheran church will speak on various divisions of the general theme.

Death Of H. J. Quinney.

Herbert J. Quinney, Ridge street, passed peacefully away at 5:15 Thursday morning after a prolonged illness. The deceased was a son of Mrs. Ann Quinney, of this place. He was born in Honesdale March 7, 1876, his father, Thomas Quinney, having died several years ago.

Herbert spent his entire life in Honesdale, with the exception of a few months in Arizona, where he went in hopes of recovering his health. He was a shoemaker by trade. Later in life he was a drayman, securing outside employment with the hopes of benefiting his health. During the past four years he had been unable to do any kind of work, having lived most of the time out of doors. Herbert was a patient sufferer. The members of his family and relatives have the sympathy of the community in their bereavement.

The deceased was a member of the Central Methodist Episcopal church and also of Freedom Lodge of Odd Fellows, No. 88. Several months prior to his death he made all arrangements for his funeral, selecting his pall-bearers and choosing the ministers whom he wanted to conduct the services, the clergy being Rev. Will H. Hiller, his pastor, and Rev. A. L. Whittaker of Grace Episcopal church. The bearers: William G. Ball, N. J. Spencer, Eugene Dunning, Charles Cade, W. H. Varcoe and George W. Penwarden.

The obsequies will be held from Mr. Quinney's late home Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock and 2:30 from the Methodist church.

Herbert J. Quinney and Julia Meyers were married in Honesdale May 18, 1897. Two children, Chas. and Marion, have blessed their union. Besides his wife and children, the deceased is survived by the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. William Holland, Mrs. W. H. Pearce, Mrs. W. H. Bullock, and Thomas H. Quinney, all of Honesdale; William A. Quinney, Hawley.

Mr. Quinney was quiet and unassuming in his manners and leaves a large number of friends who are sorry to learn of his death.

FOURTH AT INDIAN ORCHARD

proud of her people, and proud of our flag.

"'Tis the Star Spangled Banner Ob, long may it wave O'er the land of the free

And the home of the brave." At half-past two o'clock in the afternoon Former Representative Fuert introduced Rev. Father who said among other things:

"Though I am not thoroughly acquainted with the purpose and object of your organization, still I am pleasingly convinced that some very good work must have been accomplished in the Grange since its beginning. Your very meeting here on this day speaks to me of your loyalty to the flag and your eminently solid American heart and spirit. To-day we are celebrating the land over our peculiarly own American day, not only the birthday of a new God-blessed nation, but also that natal day, on which a new sun of human equality and liberty arose in the political skies of the world. We fully understand the mighty significance of the Fourth of July. We know, it is a day not only for mere joyous festivities, but a commemoration of the greatest event in political human history. We know that one hundred and thirty-five years ago, when the old Liberty Bell in Philadelphia sang out the first joyous peals of a new Western Republic, our forefathers adopted a new political program, that all men are born free and equal. And to-day we bless God and the flag, that the old spirit is still with us; that we are the sons of the pioneers, not only of a new country, but also of newly vindicated principles. To-day, under the flag, we proclaim again, that taxation without representation is tyranny, that we shall not be governed against our will.

"The time since July 4, 1776, has witnessed many changes, solved many problems. The republic has outlived a century, new conditions confront us; new perils menace us. But I have marvelous faith in the providence of God and the progress of humanity. I have faith in the powerful and national loyal heart of America which clings fast to liberty and sooner or later rights wrongs and settles all those difficult world-problems. I have faith in the farmers—boys, who from the time of Lincoln down to the present day, have become the leaders of the nation and saved the Republic. May God bless the grangers; may the Grange be free from political bossism, and may your boys and girls be a bulwark of American principles and protection of the flag."

STERLING COUPLE, MARRIED FIFTY YEARS, CELEBRATED.
Mr. and Mrs. Elisha Butler Observed Golden Wedding Anniversary in Fitting Manner.

Mr. and Mrs. Elisha Butler, of Sterling, this county, celebrated their golden wedding at their home, which was beautifully decorated for the occasion. Mr. and Mrs. Butler are well known and highly esteemed by their country friends.

Rev. Mikesell was present and when asked to renew the marriage he said in a joking way that he never refused a duty or declined refreshments.

The knot was again tied in the parlor of the old home before a bank of flowers and evergreens. The arched entrance was adorned with quantities of roses and rhododendrons.

The center piece of the bride's table at dinner which followed was a huge bowl of carnations. Louis T. Butler, a son, was toastmaster, and they were presented with many valuable gifts of gold.

Later the attendants listened to piano selections and as a special favor an oration by Len Butler. The aged people were then taken for a fine spin in their son William's automobile.

The attendants were: Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Butler and family, Howard and Russell; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Butler, Gerald and Glenn; Mr. and Mrs. William A. Butler and family; Fred Roland, William and Eva; Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Butler and family, Earl, Clarence and Ella; Mr. and Mrs. James Butler and family, Lea, Harry, Ellis and Dorothy; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Frey and family, Stanley and Gladis; Mr. Charles Butler, Rev. Mikesell, Rev. Long, Mary Gilpin, Margaret Gilpin, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Leber, Fannie Simmons. The affair was delightful and the aged people enjoyed the affair to the utmost.

THE SUMMER BOARDER

The beauties and charms of Wayne county as a summer resort are being published far and wide and the county is fast becoming the mecca for city guests. Northern Wayne is very attractive.

Poyntelle on the pinnacle of the Moosic highlands and the region roundabout it that sparkles with the mirroring of scores of beautiful lakes, has for many years been a favorite resort for the people of the Lackawanna valley, despite the fact that they have been sorely handicapped in not having a convenient train service thereto. Here the high peaks and plateaus are twenty-three hundred feet above tide, and delightful refreshing breezes keep cool the long months of summer, bringing comfort to sojourners and healthful glow to palling cheeks, and a litheness to the body that means for physical recreation and a regeneration of the mind.

Many New York, Brooklyn and Philadelphia persons love the Poyntelle highlands and the region, and these are discriminating people whose means have permitted them to seek far for the idealistic in nature, and who having found it here, come regularly year after year to enjoy it.

PAYING THE RENT.
Yesterday was the anniversary of the battle of Waterloo, and a representative of the Duke of Wellington travelled to Windsor Castle to present a small banner in accordance with the terms on which the Duke holds the estate voted by Parliament. The banner was hung in the guard room over the bust of the Duke of Wellington and that presented last year was taken down.—London Times.

OUR BOYS ONE OF THEM

KING REVIEWS BOY SCOUTS.

35,000 Gathered at Windsor—Many Had Camped in the Park.

King George, accompanied by Queen Mary and other members of the royal family, surrounded by a brilliant staff of distinguished officers of the navy, distinguished in Windsor Great Park on the Fourth an army of 35,000 boy scouts gathered from all parts of the United Kingdom and from some of the colonies. The weather was beautiful.

Drawn up in a huge semicircle in front of the royal inclosure the boys, dressed in the universally adopted scouts' uniform of blue, khaki, or gray, with flat-brimmed khaki hats, and brilliant handkerchiefs of various hues, formed a picturesque spectacle. They formed in eight divisions, the place of honor being occupied by 2,000 King's scouts, who were selected from the various troops as the most efficient, and made a guard of honor for the King. Just behind these were posted 120 life savers, all of whom have been decorated for life saving.

As the King came on the parade ground the band of one of the Guards regiments struck up the national anthem, and the scouts stood at the salute with their staves while they sang the first verse of "God Save the King."

Then the King rode along the lines, closely inspecting the boys.
