GINSENG BOOM NOW UNDER WAY

Unusual Demand for Commodity Supply of Which is Very Low

CHINESE DEALERS ARE LARGE-LY IN CONTROL OF THE TRADE.

Wayne county ginseng growers, of whom there are many, one of the largest ginseng farms in the coun-try being located in the shire, will be interested in the consular reports which say that another ginseng boom is under way.

United States Consul Anderson at unusual demand for ginseng on the Chinese market at the present time, and the supply is lower now than at any period for several years. The imports into Hong Kong during 1910 were less than they have been during any year since 1906. The imports of ginseng into Hong Kong from the United States of recent years have constituted practically the whole imports of ginseng into Saturday, July 1.
