—The following complimentary notice is clipped from Friday's Tribune-Republican under the caption of "Stroller's Note Book": "I note that Hon. A. T. Searle, Honedale, is presiding on the Lackawanna county bench this week. Judge Searle has been called many times heretofore to sit at the courts of this county and has always given entire satisfaction in rendering opinions upon the intricate law points that are constantly coming up in the courts of Lackawanna. This able jurist from Wayne county is not only respected as a court magistrate, but has hosts of friends about the city who have been won by his hearty geniality and sociability. I saw him come out of court yesterday and besides looking cool I was impressed with the fact that he is also a mighty good-looking judge. I hope Wayne folks properly appreciate this fact."

—The Honedale Roller Rink closed its first season Saturday night in a blaze of glory, and with a record-breaking attendance. The building formerly occupied by the Herbeck-Demer glass cutting shop was fitted up for amusement purposes last Spring and opened on the night of April 12, with a spectacular performance by the El Rey sisters.

—It was a great night, and marked the close of a successful season. Hon. A. T. Searle, Honedale, who presided in criminal court here during the week, is very well known to many Scrantonians. They are very much interested in the outcome of Judge Searle's campaign for a full term of ten years, to be decided this fall. The Wayne county jurist has been on the bench less than three years, being appointed to fill the vacancy created by the death of Judge Purdy.

In that short space of time he has held court in many counties of the State, presiding in a number of important cases and enjoying the distinction of never having one of his cases appealed. This is indeed a remarkable record. Judge Searle is very popular in his home county, in fact throughout the northeastern tier where he is well and favorably known. He has been a successful lawyer at the Wayne county bar for a number of years and is esteemed by the members of the bar and laymen generally. His host of local friends will await with interest the result of his fight for the Republican nomination in September. —The Scranton Truth.

Lieutenant of Erie Police G. R. Ralph last Friday morning arrested at Wangaup two knights of the road who were enjoying a free ride to Scranton at the expense of the railroad company.

When bought before "Squire Robt. A. Smith that same afternoon, they both pleaded guilty to the charge of trespass, by riding on an Erie train, and were given ten days in the county jail.

According to the younger man's story his parents live at 888 Northampton street, Buffalo, N. Y. He was last employed by the Armstrong Co. at Paterson, N. J. He seemed to feel his arrest more keenly than his older companion, who is a seasoned traveller.

"I don't care," said Hill at the hearing, "if you let my father know, but not my mother. She is sickly. I was only guilty of stealing a ride." When searched at the jail a miscellaneous collection of articles was found in the older man's pockets, consisting of a bottle of headache tablets, a little knife, two putty knives, pocket rule, chisel, maps, coffee, black patches, etc. Young Hill only carried half a box of matches.

NOMINATES GOV. MARSHALL.

Tomato Grower Points to Taft and Roosevelt Successes.

Indianapolis, Ind., July 11.—Harvey M. Cook of Avondale, Pa., has nominated Governor Marshall for the presidency in 1912 by means of two tomatoes which have been sent to the governor. That such a nomination is effective, Mr. Cook asserts, is proved by the fact that he nominated Taft and Roosevelt in a similar manner.

Each tomato bore on its ruddy surface the inscription "Thomas R. Marshall, 1912." The manner of its coming there was obvious. The grower had stitched some sort of fiber to the skins of the fruit while it was green, and the subsequent growth had made the letters appear as part of the skin.

Mr. Wise said that between 1905 and 1908 the Rosenbergs imported on undervalued notions merchandise valued at more than $1,400,000 and had charged their customers full duty on everything. Hugo Rosenberg is said by his lawyer to be on his way to this country from Europe for the purpose of giving himself up.

The following minute was presented at a stated meeting of the Board of Directors of the Honedale National Bank held June 26, 1911, approved and ordered spread upon the minutes and a copy was directed to be sent to E. F. Torrey:

The resignation of Mr. E. F. Torrey as Cashier of this Bank, having this day been presented and accepted, the Board of Directors desire to make this expression of their appreciation of the services rendered to the Bank by Mr. Torrey as its Cashier. He was appointed acting Cashier of the bank October 1, 1874, and was appointed Cashier pro tem. November 26, 1874, and was elected Cashier July 6, 1876. During his service of thirty-seven years he has given to the bank his undivided time and effort and has been zealous in the work of building up and maintaining at a high standard the business of this institution. His personal integrity and high character, as well as his keen business instinct, have been stamped on the affairs of the bank and have gone far toward giving it the high standing it has maintained in this community and elsewhere. And while the Board regrets that advancing years make him feel the necessity of relinquishing his work, we desire to congratulate him on his long and successful career, and we wish him much comfort and content in his declining years.

Certified from the record, HOMER GREENE, Secretary pro tem.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the nomination of Prothonotary on the Republican ticket.

J. A. SHARPSTEEN.

Every man elected to public office should expect to be a servant of the people and not the people's servants, and should be courteous and obliging. Your vote at the primaries will be appreciated. 1t
