LOCAL NEWS

—Cooler now, isn't it?
—The Wayne county fair opens August 14, one month from today.

—It is said that the petroleum used in oiling the streets of the Maple City contains about six per cent asphalt.

—Everything is in readiness for the great Red Men's Automobile Parade Tuesday evening, July 19. It is hinted that Hawley will make a strong effort to capture first prize.

—Thursday noon a large delegation of Honesdale rooters accompanied the ball team to Lake Lodore where the County Seater will try conclusions with the Forest City miners.

—Dr. Franklin, who has been spending several months in Honesdale, at the Allen House, relieving the corn-suffering public, leaves next Wednesday for a well-earned vacation at Atlantic City, N. J.

—Six carloads of Lake Lodore ice pass through Honesdale daily over the Delaware and Hudson and are then transferred to the Erie. From Honesdale the ice is consigned to New York and Jersey City.

—Howard Bodie is remodeling his home on Maple Avenue. An addition is being built to the east side and an outside stairway has been placed thereto, preparatory for another family on the second floor.

—Good news is heralded from industrial sources in that a number of Honesdale's factories, after their usual summer vacation, have started up on full time, where as before shorter hours constituted a day's work. On Thursday morning the T. B. Clark Cut Glass Co. resumed work with a full force operating ten hours per day.

—Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Estella Knox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Knox, Brooklyn, to Herbert Murphy, of the same city. Miss Knox is well and favorably known in Honesdale, having spent her summers here for several years. She is a niece of Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Seward of East Street Extension.

—W. B. Gunnip and Artemus Branning, Damascus, accompanied by their attorneys, C. A. McCarty and M. E. Simons, appeared before the county commissioners in the interest of the polling place of Damascus No. 4. The booth is now located in W. H. Allen's house and an effort is being made to have it removed to Gunnip's hall, Atco, which, it is claimed, would accommodate the majority of voters in that voting district. The commissioners took no action in the matter, claiming that it was their opinion that if a change is desired a special election would necessarily have to be held in the district.

—Constant advertising pays. Try it.

—Huckleberries are unusually plentiful this year.

—A marriage license was issued Thursday to Clyde A. Whipple, Orson, and Miss Edna A. Robinson, Winterville.

—The second issue of the "Red Men's Prophet" will be out Saturday afternoon. It will be a "screamer." Watch for it!

—The County Medical society meets Thursday, July 20, at Waymart. They will dine at Mrs. Baker's boarding house.

—Miss Kate McKenna, through her attorney, Chas. P. Searle, has appealed her case with Miss Emma Conley to a higher court.

—Raymond Dibble is assisting at the Oliphant Delaware & Hudson station during the absence of one of the clerks who is on his vacation.

—Through the courtesy of Dr. Fitzsimmons, the boy scouts were given permission to go through the Criminal Insane Hospital at Farview on Tuesday.

—Rumor is ripe that parties are anxious to secure the W. P. Suydam house and property, corner of Court and Ninth streets, for a private hospital.

—After a vacation of two weeks Miss Keen's school will begin Monday, July 17. Special attention given to Penmanship, Bookkeeping, Commercial Correspondence, etc.

—The many Hawley friends of Miss Jennie Edwards and Harry Lobb were agreeably surprised the first of the week by the announcement of their marriage. It occurred June 28 and was performed by Rev. B. P. Ripley.

—Ice cream socials held by the Gravity Improvement association, Wednesday evening, and by the young people on Mrs. John Bader's lawn, Tuesday night, were largely sustained and neat sums realized by both organizations.

—Up at Hallstead on last Sunday morning there was joy in the home of Henry Demer over the arrival of a 10-pound baby girl. Mrs. Demer was formerly Miss Mary Rickert, daughter of George Rickert, of Court street, Honesdale.

—Don't miss Wayne County Day at Luna Park, Scranton, on July 19. The excursion train will leave Honesdale at 8:45 a. m., stopping at all stations between here and Scranton. Prominent speakers will deliver addresses. See the big auto parade in Honesdale on the evening of the 18th.

—The Fourth of July put up a new heat record, according to John E. Richmond, the well-known Church street music teacher, who informed a Citizen man that last Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock the thermometer on his front porch registered 100 degrees, a temperature unequalled in the past forty-five years.

—The Wayne Concrete, Supply and Construction company, whose plant is at East Honesdale, has been awarded the contract to furnish the concrete blocks for the construction of the large livery barn which Cortright & Hempstead are about to erect on their lot on Main street. The barn will require 4,500 blocks in the construction of the building. Each block represents a cubic foot.

—Rowland, the jeweler, has a clever and unique window display at his store on Main street. In the center of the window space is a traveling bag filled with jewelry, suitable for vacation time. Other articles of jewelry are also displayed conspicuously in the window. Railroad time-tables, representing the different roads form a continuous track and divide the various articles on display. To the right is a train of cars. On the engine is "Stourbridge Lion, Luna Park, July 19." A large diamond serves as a headlight. The three cars bear placards supposed to be loaded with jewelry for Rowland. On the opposite side of the window is a sail boat with the following inscription upon its sails: "Rowland's Vacation Sail" and "This boat sails August 2 for Lake Lodore—Merchant's Day."

HAWLEY.

[Special to The Citizen.]
HAWLEY, Pa., July 13.—Our town was again cast in gloom Monday afternoon by the death of Margaret Weiss, wife of A. H. Frank, proprietor of the well-known Wayne County House. Her death was due to pneumonia with which she was stricken on Thursday last. Mrs. Frank was born and has always lived at Hawley and by her gentle and unassuming manners was closely endeared to the people in her home town who extend heartfelt sympathy to her mourning survivors who are a husband, one daughter, Elizabeth, about 11 years of age, three sisters, Mrs. Lighthizer, Honesdale; Mrs. Wm. Ames, of this place; Mrs. Arthur Secor, Jersey City; two brothers, Fred of Trenton, and August of Scranton. The deceased was about 38 years of age, was a member of the Young People's society of the German Lutheran church and a member of the order of Pocomtosis. These societies had charge of her funeral which was held from her late home yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. R. Lucas, pastor of her church, had charge. Interment was made in the Walnut Grove cemetery at the Eldy.

St. Philomena's R. C. congregation are observing forty hours devotion services in their church this week. F. L. Tuttle was notified by telegram that his son, Thomas, was seriously injured in an airship accident at Mineola, Long Island, Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Tuttle left on the morning train. A later message from the hospital stated he was rapidly recovering from injuries, not being as serious as at first thought. Young Tuttle is an aviation pupil and press agent for Glenn Curtiss. He was in the airship which was being put in readiness for a flight and was skimming along close to the ground when he lost control of it and it dashed to the ground with such force as to hurl him fifty feet. He was unconscious for an hour afterward.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Kimble arrived on Saturday from Massillon, Ohio, for a week's visit with relatives and friends here. Mrs. Kimble was a former teacher of Wayne county and is a daughter of J. P. Woodward, the representative of the Tribune-Republican, Honesdale.

An infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Royal Kimble, Scranton, was brought here for burial on Tuesday. Mr. Kimble formerly lived at Hawley.

Mrs. Unger, daughter Grace, and son, Theodore, spent a week on their farm at Bone Ridge.

Guo Vandermart, New York city, is passing the hot days with his brother, Norman Vandermart on Spring street.

William Runyon was taken sick at the home of his father, Joseph Runyon, consequently did not return to his home in Scranton.

F. W. Schalm is improving nicely from his recent accident and expects to be able to use his disabled limb in a few days. A trio of his musical friends, Adolf Oschman, Louis Geisler, and a gentleman from Newark with violin, bass viol, and bandonia surprised him with a fine serenade Monday evening.

Mrs. R. F. Warg and son, Reinhard, returned Monday from a six weeks' sojourn in Pittsburg and other western cities.

Richard Teeter and family have gone to their summer cottage at Lake Teedenskneg, in Pike county.

Mrs. Lawrence Keesler and little son of Brooklyn arrived at the home of her sister, Mrs. Alfred Oschman, Tuesday evening for a visit of several weeks.

(Communicated.)

GOULDSBORO, Pa., July 13.—The third Sunday after Trinity, July 2, was a red letter day for Grace Lutheran congregation. On this day it held its "Children's Day" service and used for the first time its newly installed lighting system. The congregation for a long time felt the need of a new lighting system but did not feel itself able to raise the amount needed to install the same. The pastor, Rev. R. E. Kern, offered to collect the necessary amount with the consent of the Church Council. The Council voted unanimously to accept the offer and in three days the pastor had collected $121.50 as a result of the generous response of the members and friends of the congregation. This amount was $6.50 more than was needed and the Council at once ordered the new system installed. This is exceptionally good for this congregation considering that the pastor had only 21 families to canvass from.

The new system is one of the Scranton P. P. Gas machines, which is one of the best and safest individual lighting systems on the market to-day.

The Children's Day service was very interesting and well attended in spite of the hot weather. The church was handsomely decorated with cut flowers appropriate to the occasion. The pastor gave a short address in which he directed his remarks chiefly to the children. The following program was rendered:

Processional: "We Are Coming to Our King."
Versicle, Psalm No. 1, Gloria. Scripture reading and prayer. Carol: "Hear Ye the Call."

Recitation: "Welcome."
Recitation: "Children's Hosannas."
Carol: "Jesus Loves Me."

Recitation: "Jesus and the Children."
Recitation: "A Wreath of Flowers."
Carol: "Tis Children's Day."

Recitation and song: "Lillies and Roses."
Recitation: "The World's Bouquet."
Carol: "Praise Him."

Carol: "The Flowers Are Nodding."
Recitation: "Voices From the Flower World."
Chorus: "Ring Sweet Bells."

Recitation: "The Master."
Anthem: "The Feast of Flowers."
Address by the pastor.

Offertory: "Praise Ye The Lord."
Announcements.
Hymn No. 530, by congregation. Benediction; doxology. Recessional.

The Sunday school has an enrollment of eighty-eight with an average attendance of seventy-four and perfect attendance of forty-seven members in the month of June. Beginning with July 1, 1910, the school raised during the year the sum of $133.45.

The Ladies' Union which is the most aggressive and helpful organization of the congregation raised in the same period of time the sum of $407.88 which was expended as follows:

Church debt $275.00
Three years' insurance 60.00
Interest on debt 60.00
Miscellaneous 12.00

There is still a debt of $800 on the church which the Ladies' Union aims to pay.

The church received through the envelopes, collections, etc., the sum of $527.79 which was used for pastor's salary, lights and current expenses. This makes a total of $1069.42 for the year.

Owing to the fact that the congregation is without a regular pastor, Holy Communion has not been administered since September 25, 1910, by Rev. Geo. H. Rhodes at which time 42 communed. The congregation expect to receive communion in the near future. R. E. KERN.

Many of our citizens are getting ready to joy the Red Men on their big excursion to Luna Park next Wednesday. Look out for the Indian!

PETER POLT GOES

"No, I'll not do it," he declared. "Not this chicken."

"Give me one more chance," young Peter begged of his mother.

Lawyer Salmon who happened to be present at the hearing, said that since his mother brought the charge, and was willing to go his bail, $300 ought to be enough.

"No, sir; I'll go no bail," insisted the irate father.

"Give him one more chance," implored his wife. He'll be all right this time."

But to all her pleadings Mr. Polt, Sr., turned a deaf ear.

"There's two sides to this story," vouchsafed the prisoner. "My father is picking on me and mother all the time."

Since his father refused to go his son's bail "in no shape and manner," declaring that "he didn't work for fun," Squire Ham was forced to commit him, in default of $300 bail.

The Second Hearing.
Leaving "Squire Ham's" improvised office in Sheriff Braman's headquarters, Peter Polt was taken diagonally across the Court House corridor to Squire Smith's office, where he faced a second hearing on a far more serious charge, that of resisting officers of the law.

The complaint was made by County Detective N. B. Spencer, and was to the effect that on Thursday night, July 6, Polt resisted and opposed officers Spencer and Canivan in serving a warrant for his arrest, and that he assaulted and beat Spencer in the service of the warrant.

The defendant pleaded "Not guilty" to the charge.

County Detective N. B. Spencer testified that the prisoner tried to get away from him.

"He tackled me low," said Spencer, "and said he was a foot ball player. We started this way, and came along all right until we got to Rickert's Livery when he made an attempt to get away. He struck me across the eye. We finally got him to jail."

"You didn't read me a warrant," broke in the prisoner.

"That wasn't necessary. Canivan and Kubbach were with me. Canivan is the chief of police and was sent by the Mayor to assist in making the arrest."

Chief of Police J. J. Canivan then testified that he went with Detective Spencer at the latter's request to serve the warrant, and that at Rickert's livery the prisoner tried to get away, so that he was forced to hit him over the head a couple of times to get him to jail. The Mayor was present.

Mayor John Kubbach swore that he was present and saw Polt's actions. Polt resisted the officers and attempted to get away. "I had several telephone messages," said the Mayor, "that there was disorder at the lower end of town, and I telephoned to Spencer and Canivan. Spencer got a warrant for Polt and asked Canivan to accompany him."

After hearing the evidence "Squire Smith said to the prisoner: 'You got yourself in a bad box. It is a great crime to resist an officer. I shall have to hold you under $500 bail for Court.'"

The prisoner was taken back to the jail. Mayor Kubbach intimated that he might press another charge against him under the borough ordinances.

Peter Polt, it is claimed, has a bad record, and this is not the first time he has felt the strong arm of the law. He is a stocky, well-built young Hercules and is more than a match for any two average men.

Trial in Wayne County.

M. F. Martin, giving his residence as New York, who was arrested on the charge of passing a $25 check forged on the Goldsmith Bros' account in the First National bank, was taken to Lake Ariel Tuesday. He was committed to the Wayne county jail.

Martin will be tried in Wayne county as he there passed the check on Mrs. Charles Schadt, whose Summer home is at Ariel. The accused man was arrested at Lake Winola.
