THE AUTOMOBILE PARADE.

A great deal of credit is due to the originators of the designs of the two cars which won the prizes as well as to those who so carefully and laboriously decorated them. It was a fine parade, and every one enjoyed it. We take pleasure in reproducing here the thanks of the Executive Committee of the Red Men who desire to express their heartiest appreciation to all those who contributed towards making the Red Men's Auto Parade on Tuesday evening such a grand success. The committee knows the time and labor necessary for dressing a car for parade, and thank every car owner, who participated.

The award of the prizes seemed to meet with the popular approval they deserved. The winners are to be congratulated and the losers complimented on the fine showing they all made.

THE DEMOCRATIC SITUATION AT HARRISBURG.

Democrats are peculiar creatures. They like lots of everything, lots of trouble, lots of confusion, lots of bickering, lots of talk without any action, lots of pretty nearly everything except progress. The Democratic State Committee—or committees, which is it?—at Harrisburg seem to have their hands full this year and harmony among the members is as noticeable as Mr. Bryan's chances for the Presidency.

Present indications are that two separate meetings will be held, each purporting to be the only reliable but which are necessarily confusing to the lay mind. After the smoke of the Harrisburg battle clears away it may be possible to know "who's who" among the Democrats. But as long as the inherent characteristics of that party remain the same, it will never be possible to learn "what's what" except with the assistance of an official interpreter.

THE HOME TEAM.

Some one in speaking of a way to make his town become famous says that all it needs is a good left handed pitcher. The gentleman evidently was speaking in a facetious vein, but it is a fact that a bangup base ball team will bring a deal of publicity and not a little honor to its home town. In these days a town needs to advertise as much as a merchant does and anything which contributes to that end should be supported as much as possible. Honesdale has a good team this year; it won two games last week in succession and has high hopes of winning the rest on its schedule.

We hope it does. Gaining baseball victories is like getting wisdom, you can't get too much of either. And The Citizen hereby extends its congratulations to the home team for their good work thus far and trusts that the double win of last week may be but a hint of future victories.

THE COMMON FLY.

It has been calculated that the progeny of a single female fly might be 14,067,792,000,000,000 individuals at the end of the twelfth generation, providing, of course, they all should live.

Until recent years it was the current belief that the house fly was solely a beneficent insect, but at the present time it is known to be a dangerous enemy and every effort should be made to destroy it. This insect conveys causes of disease in a purely mechanical way by carrying germs on its feet, hairy legs, sucking proboscis or mouth parts. It has the habit of alighting on all kinds of substances, particularly food and excrementitious matter and in this way is a medium for the direct transmission of the germs of disease from the latter to the former.

They are a great source of milk contamination and thereby a factor in the causation of Intestinal Diseases of Children. The latest belief of science is that it is not the heat alone that causes the frightful Summer mortality among infants and children but to a large measure the fly and the criminal carelessness of man in failing to prevent a fly's birth.

House flies have long been suspected of being factors in the dissemination of Cholera. The worst cholera months are those in which these insects are most abundant.

Various methods have been devised for the destruction of flies, such as paper and wire traps, poison papers and various powders and solutions.

A piece of fine wire gauze eight inches long and five inches wide, tacked to a wooden handle fourteen inches long, makes an effective beater for striking and killing the fly.

A solution made by adding two teaspoonfuls of formaldehyde to a pint of water sweetened with sugar and placed in saucers throughout the house will destroy many flies.

The house fly problem demands the awakening of the people to the exigencies of the case and to the necessity of the adoption of vigorous preventive measures. The expense incurred to prevent disease from these sources would be vastly more than justified by the results obtained.

ORSON.

[Special to The Citizen.]

ORSON, Pa., July 20.—Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Sheldon visited at Winwood recently.

Miss Alice Ward and Dorothy Clemo, Bethany, visited the former's grandmother, Mrs. Mary Ward, and other relatives at Independent Lake the week of the Fourth.

D. J. Hine made a business trip to Honesdale on Thursday last.

Charles Lewis, Thompson, has been doing some surveying for D. J. Hine.

Mrs. Ira W. Hine has moved her household goods from Lesterhire, N. Y., to rooms formerly occupied by Mr. Hine at this place.

Mrs. Hoehline, Brooklyn, N. Y., has returned to her home after a two weeks' visit with her daughter, Mrs. E. P. Harlow.

Mrs. Laura Moules, Honesdale, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Mary Ward, for a few days.

Elmer Knapp and Miss Smith were married by Rev. W. B. Signor on the evening of July 3.

Chester Hine returned to Lester-shire, N. Y., after a week's visit with his parents here.

The whereabouts of our pastor, Rev. W. B. Signor, who disappeared so mysteriously in Scranton recently is still a great mystery to the people at this place. Not the first clue of any kind has been obtained. Mrs. Signor, her son, Duane, aged 13, and her two sisters are at the parsonage now, having returned from Scranton on Thursday, July 13. Mrs. Signor is prostrate and heartbroken with grief over the strange disappearance of her husband. She still believes that he will come back to her soon if he is alive. Mrs. Signor is very frail and delicate in health and the sad circumstances is a great shock to her. The community at large are offering assistance and extending sympathy, but no one is able to bear her grief and burden.

Mrs. Lottie Mantle and daughter, Gladys, Honesdale, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Hine at Independent Lake.

J. Winfield Hine is assisting E. W. Hine with his haying.

DREHER.

[Special to The Citizen.]

DREHER, Pa., July 20.—Robert Boyce has finished his haying for this season and the reason is, he had two "Good Charlies" to do the job.

The hot weather has matured the grass and grain crops and as a consequence the harvest will not be a long one, unless we have unfavorable weather. The crop of potato bugs is something to get a move on the man that has an acre or more planted in potatoes. Some overwise prophets are already predicting short potato crop and big prices.

Newfoundland Creamery paid its patrons 18 cents per pound for butter churned from milk delivered at the creamery in the month of June.

The Union Sunday school will hold a picnic on July 26. The Moravian Sunday school will picnic on Aug. 10th, and East Sterling Sunday school on August 3.

Walter Voeste has returned from Chicago where he had gone to seek employment.

Charles Carr, Oswego, N. Y., spent a two weeks' vacation in Dreher and Sterling and was the guest of Ella Nevin and family.

Miss Minnie Tonsor, Belleville, N. J., an employee of the Singer Sewing Machine company, will spend her vacation in Dreher, the guest of Alice Cross.

Luther Posten, Scranton, is on a vacation at his home in Dreher and on Sunday, July 23, he automobilized to Gouldsboro, taking his mother, Mrs. Susan Posten and Mrs. Lucinda Kerr to visit Dilworth Cross and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Heber Cross and daughters, Genevieve and Leslie, Denver, Colorado, have been visiting relatives and friends in this locality and are arranging to start for Denver on July 19 or 20.

Hugh Fitz, Sterling, Pa., died on July 14, after a lingering illness from kidney trouble, aged 60 years. He was a prominent citizen and farmer, a member of the I. O. O. F. and is survived by his wife, two daughters and four sons. Funeral services was held on Monday.

William Carlin, Greentown, Pike county, and employed in that town, and turning mill of John R. Gilpin, near the Greentown Postoffice, died on July 16, from injuries caused by being struck with a bolt of wood while at work at a circular saw on Friday last. He is about 60 years of age, and was a member of the Masonic fraternity. He is survived by his wife, two daughters, three sons and one granddaughter.

CLINTON.

CLINTON, Pa., July 20.—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gardner and sons, Robert and Buel, Carbondale, are guests at C. H. Varcoe's.

Mrs. Effie Pritchett, Philadelphia, is a guest at her father's, James Dawn.

E. B. Haddon has summer boarders.

Mrs. H. M. Bunting spent the past week with her daughters who reside in Waymart and Carbondale.

Harold and Fred Oliver, Carbondale, are at their grandfather's, John Griswold.

During last Saturday's severe storm lightning struck and killed a cow for Fred Griswold; it also struck the large maple tree in front of Will Kler's house and a few rods north of the house it struck another tree beside the road.

The Ladies' Aid cleared, above expenses, $80.50 at their Fourth of July dinner and evening entertainment.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. George Curtis, a son.

Lois Sanders, Carbondale, is at her sister's, Mrs. Milton Lilley, Jr. Bennie and Willie Gil, Dunelien, N. J., were recent guests at E. E. Haddon's.

Mrs. George B. Perham entertained the South Clinton Thimble club at tea yesterday.

Strawberry growers of this section report half a crop and ready sales.

SOUTH STERLING.

[Special to The Citizen.]

SOUTH STERLING, Pa., July 20. The weather is cooler; the crops are growing fine; the boarding houses nearly all full to the garret; haying nearly done—so goes South Sterling. James M. Gilpin has purchased the South Sterling hotel property of Mrs. W. J. Heesler of Tafton.

Mr. and A. E. Barnes and son, Robert, spent Sunday with Mrs. William MacAree of Scranton.

Mrs. Geo. H. Lancaster is spending a few days in Atlantic City attending the Elks' parade.

Mrs. William Parker, who has been in the State Hospital in Scranton, died Wednesday morning. Funeral services were held in the South Sterling M. E. church. Mr. Schwarz of the Moravian church, officiated. Interment in the Pine Grove cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Barnes accompanied their son, Russell, as far as Scranton, on his journey to Pittsburg, to visit his sister, Mrs. Roy F. Marthews.

Everett Lancaster, Washington, D. C., is visiting his father, Geo. H. Lancaster.

Gassy Stomach.

QUICK RELIEF AND COMFORT.

MI-O-NA is a prescription of a noted specialist, and for quick relief and permanent cure of all stomach ailments, no better prescription was ever written.

MI-O-NA not only builds up and puts strength and elasticity into the stomach, but it is a splendid tonic that puts rich, red blood into the veins, and vim, vigor and energy into the whole body.

If you suffer from headaches, dizziness, biliousness, constipation, inactive liver, nervousness, sleeplessness, foul breath, heartburn, shortness of breath, sour stomach or dependency, try MI-O-NA stomach tablets.

If they don't do you the world of good G. W. Pell will give your money back.

A fifty cent box will put the stomach of the ordinary dyspeptic in fine shape. For chronic cases more may be required.

Miss Freida Beehin is visiting her aunt, Mrs. T. G. Barnes. Capt. Geary, Easton, is visiting his sister, Mrs. C. W. Coleman. Lloyd Smith and wife, Scranton, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James R. Smith.

MAPLEWOOD.

MAPLEWOOD, Pa., July 20.—The funeral of William Henry Sharpe was held from the Grace church Saturday at 11 o'clock a. m. Rev. L. H. Yergie read the scripture lesson; Rev. Edward Morrison, South Canaan, offered the prayer and Rev. W. F. Schoffer gave a sermon from the text, "For me to live is Christ, but to die is gain." The church was filled to overflowing with friends and relatives. Mr. Sharpe was stricken with cancer early in February and suffered untold agonies very patiently. He is survived by his wife, Katherine Benjamin, two children, Mrs. G. M. Black and O. P. Sharpe, also one sister, Mrs. W. S. Gibbs, who is the last of the family of Solomon Sharpe, of five children. Interment was made in the family plot at the Methodist cemetery.

Mrs. Frances Silkman, Scranton, was a visitor here Saturday.

Laurice Bell, Scranton, spent Sunday among relatives here.

T. A. Ruddy and family of Scranton, are spending six weeks in the Wildwood cottage.

A reckless golf player had just hit one of the ladies.

"Why didn't you warn her you were going to shoot?" somebody asked.

"I did," he protested. "I cried Fore two or three times."

"Fore nothing!" the other man exclaimed. "To attract a woman's attention you should have yelled three ninety-eight."—Argonaut.

THE AMATEUR PHOTOGRAPHER.

As announced last week we would publish a series of articles from the pen of Frederick Haskins, we take pleasure in reproducing the second chapter:

"These starch grains are divided into three lots, and each lot is dyed, one orange, another green and the third violet. These colored grains are then distributed at random over a plate covered with a sticky transparent preparation. The spaces between the grains of starch are filled with finely powdered charcoal. Another plate is then placed over this mass and pressed against the first one. This process crushes every grain of starch, and the result is a sort of tri-colored mosaic made up of powdered starch. When the plate is exposed, green rays of light pass through the green starch, violet rays through the violet starch, and orange rays through the orange starch. In this way all colors but green are filtered out of the picture at the place where the green ought to appear, and likewise in the case of the violet and the orange.

"As stated before, the photographs made by this color process do not reproduce all of the colors possessed by any many-colored object which they represent. Only the principle colors may be transferred. In the eye, nature still possesses the only photographic plate which is able correctly to register the value of all light rays.

"The aim of the man who is experimenting in color photography is to produce a photographic plate which will duplicate the work of the painter without involving the long and tedious processes he must employ. The main value of the present sort of color photography is to furnish a key to correct coloring for the printer. Formerly when a seed establishment, for instance, wanted to portray its fruits and vegetables in their natural colors, it was necessary to engage an artist to paint the picture of each vegetable and fruit to be illustrated, his work to be followed by that of the engraver or lithographer. To-day he may make a picture upon a color plate, and rid himself of the major portion of the expense of preparing his seed catalogue."

SOUTH CANAAN.

SOUTH CANAAN, Pa., July 20.—The Rev. D. W. DeForest, White Plains, N. Y., a former pastor of the Methodist church, will preach in the M. P. church Sunday morning at 10:45; at Kizers at 2:45, and Varden at 8.

Rev. D. W. DeForest is visiting among his old friends in South Canaan.

The W. C. T. U. held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Sadler.

The refreshing rains were welcomed at this place.

What might have been a serious accident occurred on Friday last when the horse of John Edwards ran away, throwing out Mrs. Edwards and daughter. The buggy was demolished. Mrs. Edward and daughter were badly bruised and shaken up.

OUR BOYS ONE OF THEM

EDITED BY

Every boy ought to be acquainted with the historical facts of his home town or township. There are many interesting features that he can obtain from old residents in the place who would be pleased to talk and tell him things that happened in days gone by. Damascus township is one of the many townships in Wayne county where the Red Man traveled. It is in this township that the first blockhouse was built over 100 years ago. Mt. Pleasant township bears historical settings. There reposes the remains of Samuel Meredith, the first treasurer of the United States under the constitution. Bethany is also an old town. It was here that the first newspaper in Wayne county was published. Honesdale, the county seat of Wayne, is named for Philip Hone, one of the first mayors of New York City. Irving Cliff, that beautiful majestic sentinel that guards Honesdale, was named for Washington Irving, the celebrated writer. It was in Honesdale that the first locomotive in this land first turned a wheel, a historical fact that no other town can claim. Honesdale, for many years, was also the largest coal storing market in the world. Study your local surroundings, boys.

Boards are being entertained at numerous places in the county and from now on the guests will continue to come and go. At George H. Knapp's country home, Aldenville, the following Brooklyn guests are being royally entertained: Joseph Yauch, son Joseph, mother, Mrs. Biggers and sister, Miss Louise Biggers, Mr. and Mrs. Schwender and little daughter, Alice, Mr. Whigmore, and E. P. Burns. On Saturday Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bateman, of Carbondale, will spend two weeks at the Knapp home.

THE SUMMER BOARDER

Among the many advantages afforded in Wayne county is that of taking summer boarders. The opportunities offered are far better than they are in places where larger numbers gather annually and go home enraptured with the beauties of Nature's garden. Wayne county is an exceptionally beautiful place and Honesdale is the ideal town for capitalists to entertain propositions for the erection of large summer hotels on the hills surrounding the place where the first locomotive first turned a wheel on the American continent. Honesdale is a historical town which is all the more reason why city guests should come here and get acquainted with the historical setting, etc.
