Germantown Man Asks Police to Inter cept Party Believed to Se on Way to Los Angeles-Hope to Catch Them In Chicago

Philadelphia, Aug. 8.—The police of this city are trying to locate Mrs. t.iz zie Middleton, wife of Affred Middle ton, a conductor employed by the Phil adelphia Rapid Transit company. whose home until Saturday last was at 319 Armat street, Germantown, and James Mahoney, an iceman, who is sald to have left the city with her for Los Angeles, Cal.

Accompanying the alleged runaway couple are said to be Mrs. Alexander Wark, the mother of Mrs Middleton, and Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Work, the latter's son and daughter-in-law, and their two small children. Mrs. Middle ton also took her eighteen-months-old son, Joseph, with her.

That the party is on its way to the Pacific coast is the theory of Middle ton and the police, as on Saturday five adults answering to their description purchased tickets for Los Angeles at the Chelten avenue station of the Pennsylvania raliroad.

James Mahoney, who is eighteen years old, has, according to the neigh bors, been attentive to Mrs. Middleton for some time, and Mrs. Mahoney stat ed that she also believed her son had eloped with the woman. Middleton himself was aware of the couple's alleged infatuation for each other, and one night when he met them returning from a moving picture show thrashed Mahoney soundly. It is the hope of the local authorities that the couple may be intercepted at Chicago and re turned to this city.

Middleton learned that his wife had left him when he returned to his home at 4 o'clock Saturday morning from his run and found the house vacant with the exception of a trunk which contained his clothes. Lying on the trunk was a note signed by his wife and which read as follows: "Don't believe all you hear from the neighbors. I am going away never to re turn. I am through with all men." He inquired from the neighbors and learned that shortly after he departed for work at 3 o'clock Friday after noon several vans arrived at the house and all the furniture was removed.

When Middleton reported for duty on Friday his wife accompanied him and rode around the Willow Grove route with him several times. He gave her $15 when she left him to return home. The Middletons came originally from Los Angeles several years ago.

STATESMEN PLAY BALL.

House Democrats Defeat Republican Team, 12 to 9.

Washington, Aug. 8 .- About the weirdest thing in the way of a baseball game ever seen in Washington place on Georgetown University field between teams representing the Republican and Democratic sides of the house. The Democrats won, 12 to 9, in four innings. They made eight hits and so many errors that Uncle Joe Cannon, the scorekeeper, got writers' cramp trying to tally them.

The Republicans swatted the ball safely twelve times, but were nearly all butter fingers when it came to fielding. The contest might have lasted awhile longer if most of the players had not been winded, for several of the 500 spectators who paid $1 each to see the game, which was for the benefit of the Washington playgrounds, were still left in the grand stand at the finish. But there were no protests when Representative Wilson of Illinois, the Republican umpire, and Representative Byrnes of Tennessee, the Democratic arbiter, agreed to call Rome, Ang. S.-Pope Plus has experienced a relapse. The attack came suddenly, aggravating the cold with which he has suffered and being accompanied with gouty pains. Dr. Giuseppi Petacel, private paysician to his holiness, and Dr. Ettore Marchiafava, consulting physician at the Vatican, being notified of the unexpected change in the postiff's condition, visited him immediately and directed that he remain to his room.

One report is that the pope had fainting spell which alarmed his attendants considerably. Secretary of State Merry del Val was hurriedly summoned to the pontiff's beds,de. Although his holiness quickly revived, I is said that not a little anxiety is felt regarding the pope's condition,

His holiness had appeared to be recovering normally from his recent indisposition, although the extreme heat had weakened him and prevented bidaily celebration of mass. In the coel er hours of the day he has visited the gardens. He was determined to par ticipate in the celebration of the eighth anniversary of the coronation tomor It had been planned that the pentiff should wear only the ordinary mitre and a light vestment instead of the triple crown and papal mantle in order that be might be less oppressed

The doctors decided that in view or the increasing high temperature they would oppose the participation of the pope in the function. Accordingly it was arranged that the service should be conducted by Cardinal Merry del Val, the papal secretary of state.

It was some hours later that the pontiff's condition showed an unexpected change for the worse.

TAFT'S PLEA FOR TREATIES.

President Carries International Peace Plans to the People.

Mountain Lake Park, Md., Aug. 8. President Taft is carrying his international arbitration policy to the people, obviously with the intention of forestalling opposition in the senate to the convention which Great Britain and France is now pending for ratification.

To have these treaties not retified by the senate of the United States," said he, "or to have any hesitation or discussion of a serious character in ment for spies or for persons who atrespect to them would halt the movement toward general peace."

The president also appealed for public consideration and support for the treatles with Honduras and Nicaragua. which provide for the refunding of the debts of those countries. These latter treaties, he said, were from the standpoint of American interest of greater immediate importance even than the arbitration conventions.

The president's address was delivered before the Methodist Chautauqua society here.

MAY BE A SPY

Fiancee of Private Peters Starts an Investigation.

SAID TO BE AUSTRIAN GOUNT

Kentucky Woman Is Alleged to Have Confessed That Her Lover Sought Secret of High Explosive Shells Used by Army and Navy.

Washington, Aug. 8.-Upon receipt of a telegraphic dispatch from Captain James Watson, army recruiting officer et Indianapolis, Ind., the war depart ment has notified the commandant of the coast artillery post at Fort Totten. N. Y., to hold Private James Peters of the One Hundred and Thirty-fifth company, coast artillery, at that post. under surveillance until further orders. Peters is suspected of being a spy for Austria. Captain Watson said he had come into possession of important papers which, backed up by affidavits, tended to prove that Peters is serving a period of three years' enlistment in the United States army in disguise for the purpose of obtaining important military secrets. This is the informaton. apparently, that was reported as having been placed in the hands of Captain Watson by Miss Clara Dyer, a young Kentucky woman, who is said to have been engaged to marry Peters and also to have aroused suspicion through her manner in which she endeavored to gain the assistance of Captain Watson in purchasing the discharge of the soldier.

Miss Dyer is said to have confessed that Peters had told her he was an Austrian count and had come to the United States for the purpose of learn ing the secret of a powerful explosive used by the arm;. This, it is thought is "dunnite," which has come to be used largely in the big shells in both the army and navy. It is stated at the war department that the story con cerning Peters will be investigated.

It is doubted that he has any connection with the Austrian government, although it is not impossible that he may have elected to make some investigations on his own ac count or for some other government. Even though this be his object, the army has little to fear concerning either "dunnite" or the fortifications at Fort Totten. Everything at the post is open, and any one could obtain all the military strategic information there without the trouble of enlisting in the army.

According to the report from Indian apolis, Miss Dyer met Peters while on a boat returning home from Europe last September. The records of the war department, however, show that Peters has been in the service several years. He served his first three years in the cavalry and re-enlisted about eighteen months ago to the coast ar tillery. Once in that branch of the service, he could not choose his own post or station.

The military explosives are manufac its secrets. Peters has had a good. clean record.

The case of Private Peters is the first to be laid before the war department under the new law providing punishtempt to gain any military information improperly. The punishment for such an offense is $1,000 fine or imprisonment for one year, or both.
