A special election for Congressman to fill out the unexpired term of the late Congressman George W. Kipp, of the Fourteenth district, was ordered last Wednesday by Governor Tener. The district comprises Susquehanna, Wayne, Bradford and Wyoming counties and the congressman will be chosen at the regular November election.

We will not now attempt to say who the Republican nominees for Congress will be, but one thing is certain—if he is a man who can unite the Republican vote he will be elected by an overwhelming majority. Next year will be a "presidential" year, and the Fourteenth Pennsylvania district will send to Congress a Republican, and only a Republican. —Reporter-Journal, Towanda.

It is reported that there are a number of good things in store for Honesdale. One of these is promised in better railroad facilities—that is connections between the Erie and Delaware & Hudson railroads.

"As to the time it is not certain, but it is sure to come, according to statements made by those in authority. The Erie and Delaware & Hudson railroads have been at loggerheads for some time, but the time is near at hand, it is stated, when an interchange will be established between these roads at Honesdale with a terminal for the Erie at this place. This is indeed encouraging news to receive and there is no reason to doubt but what it is true, because by coming this way the Erie would cut off several miles on its direct line between New York City and Chicago.

Wilcox, Pleasant Mount; Samuel Found, Promont.

It has been suggested that Honesdale have a street fair some time in October. The merchants in a block could trim in front of their respective places of business and retail from stands outside. One could be designated as coach day, when people living in the rural districts would be expected to decorate their wagons in competition for premiums that might be offered for same. The event could be made a two-day affair and a general invitation extended to all townspersons and others living outside to participate in the doings.

The Hawley Times, owned and published by F. J. F. Warg, at Hawley, has outgrown its present size, owing to an increased amount of advertising. Editor Warg has been compelled to insert supplements to his paper for several weeks. Next issue the Times will be a six column folio. A new dress has been purchased and the paper has a neat appearance. Since Mr. Warg took the Times he has made a number of improvements in the paper and plant and to-day edits one of the newest exchanges that comes into The Citizen office. Continued success, Brother Warg.

Wayne county has five candidates for President Judge. On the Republican ticket A. T. Searle the incumbent and E. C. Mumford are making a contest, on the Democratic ticket Frank P. Kimble and C. A. McCarty and Hon. W. H. Dimmick, well known to the older generation here, is on the Keystone ticket. The contest before the primary will be spirited and no matter who wins out the strife will no doubt be warmly carried on until November. Wayne has a number of independent voters who can not be classed with either of the old parties and their inclination may add uncertainty to the result.—Pike County Press.

A large barn belonging to William J. Cole, who lives about three miles above Promont, was struck by lightning and burned during last Friday afternoon's storm. Mr. Cole was unable to save any of the contents and barely escaped with his life in freeing a horse and colt. The fire was very hot which prevented the saving of the farm implements, etc. Mr. Cole had placed 150 bushels of oats in the barn Friday morning, which together with a large quantity of other grain and hay, was consumed. He carried $1,200 in contents and $500 on the barn. Mr. Cole places his loss at $2,500.
