

LIVELY FIGHTER FROM MEXICO

Jose Rivers Looks Like Featherweight Champion.

HE WHIPPED COSTER EASILY.

This Puts Him in Line For a Go With Abe Attell, and Such a Scrap Would Be Worth While—Mexican Has Hard Punch and Is Good Ring General.

By TOMMY CLARK.

A new featherweight champion possibility has loomed up on the pugilistic horizon in the person of Jose Rivers, the strong little Mexican who has been cleaning up everything in sight in California.

It takes a mighty good man to stop Coster, who, in addition to possessing a very long reach and no small degree of boxing skill, is looked upon as one of the toughest boys milling in the feather ranks.

Rivers is the hardest hitter and best natural ring general that the 122 pound division has produced in a decade.

Now that Champion Abe Attell declares himself rounding into trim again it would make a card well worth boosting to bring him and this new wonder into conflict.

Rivers' friends are already contemplating just such a match, and since the Mexican's knockout of Coster the promoters are after him hotfoot.

Although many Mexicans have taken to the prize ring, the only one besides Rivers who ever amounted to anything was Aurelio Herrera.

Herrera also came near putting out Terry McGovern, when the latter was in his prime. Terry had been warned of the Mexican's great right, but after a few rounds seemed to have forgotten all about it.

Herrera might have been a champion if he had only behaved himself, but he refused to be good, and the gay life he led put a finish to his ring career.

George Dietrich, secretary of the grand harness racing circuit, says Joe Jackson is faster getting to first base than Ty Cobb or Wilbur Good.

Bob Harmon, the St. Louis National's young pitcher, whose future was looked upon with so much doubt by many followers of the Cardinals last year, has really been the mainstay of the team this season.

He Was Cured. A chap once consulted a famous physician about his dyspepsia. The patient was very deaf. The dialogue between the physician and he ran like this:

"What do you usually breakfast on?" "Oh, no! At least two miles in the morning and a motor ride after lunch."

"How many hours do you sleep?" "Well, doctor, I was fifty-nine my last birthday."

"Are you married?" "Thirst."

With a gesture of impatience, the physician turned and wrote out a simple remedy for dyspepsia. The patient, as he departed, shouted in the loud, harsh tones of the very deaf:

"Doctor, can you cure deafness?" The other shook his head in the negative.

"Well," said the patient, "you've been very kind, and therefore I'm going to make you a present of this prescription." He took a folded paper from his pocket. "It cured me."—New York Tribune.

Proposed Amendments to the Constitution Submitted to the Citizens of This Commonwealth for Their Approval or Rejection, by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and Published by Order of the Secretary of the Commonwealth, in Pursuance of Article XVIII of the Constitution.

Number One. A JOINT RESOLUTION. Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, so as to consolidate the courts of common pleas of Allegheny County.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, that the following amendment to the Constitution of Pennsylvania be, and the same is hereby, proposed, in accordance with the eighteenth article thereof:—

That section six of article five be amended, by striking out the said section, and inserting in place thereof the following:

Section 6. In the county of Philadelphia all the jurisdiction and powers now vested in the district courts and courts of common pleas, subject to such changes as may be made by this Constitution or by law, shall be in Philadelphia vested in five distinct and separate courts of equal and co-ordinate jurisdiction, composed of three judges each. The said courts in Philadelphia shall be designated respectively as the court of common pleas number one, number two, number three, number four, and number five, but the number of said courts may be by law increased, from time to time, and shall be in like manner designated by successive numbers. The number of judges in any of said courts, or in any county where the establishment of an additional court may be authorized by law, may be increased, from time to time, and whenever such increase shall amount in the whole to three, such three judges shall compose distinct and separate courts as aforesaid, which shall be numbered as aforesaid.

In the county of Allegheny all the jurisdiction and powers now vested in the several numbered courts of common pleas shall be vested in one court of common pleas, composed of all the judges in commission in said courts. Such jurisdiction and powers shall extend to all proceedings at law and in equity which shall have been instituted in the several numbered courts, and shall be subject to such changes as may be made by law, and subject to change of venue as provided by law. The president judge of said court shall be selected as provided by law. The number of judges in said court may be by law increased from time to time. This amendment shall take effect on the first day of January succeeding its adoption.

Number Two. A JOINT RESOLUTION. Proposing an amendment to section eight, article nine, of the Constitution of Pennsylvania.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, that the following is proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in accordance with the provisions of the eighteenth article thereof:—

Section 2. Amend section eight, article nine, of the Constitution of Pennsylvania, which reads as follows:—"Section 8. The debt of any county, city, borough, township, school district, or other municipality or incorporated district, except as herein provided, shall never exceed seven per centum upon the assessed value of the taxable property therein, nor shall any such municipality or district incur any new debt, or increase its indebtedness to an amount exceeding two per centum upon such assessed valuation of property, without the assent of the electors thereof at a public election in such manner as shall be provided by law; but any city, the debt of which now exceeds seven per centum of such assessed valuation, may be authorized by law to increase the same three per centum, in the aggregate, at any one time, upon such valuation," so as to read as follows:—

Section 8. The debt of any county, city, borough, township, school district, or other municipality or incorporated district, except as herein provided, shall never exceed seven per centum upon the assessed value of the taxable property therein, nor shall any such municipality or district incur any new debt, or increase its indebtedness to an amount exceeding two per centum upon such assessed valuation of property, without the assent of the electors thereof at a public election in such manner as shall be provided by law; but any city, the debt of which now exceeds seven per centum of such assessed valuation, may be authorized by law to increase the same three per centum, in the aggregate, at any one time, upon such valuation, except that any debt or debts hereinafter incurred by the city and county of Philadelphia for the construction and development of subways for transit purposes, or for the construction of wharves and docks, or the reclamation of land to be used in the construction of a system of wharves and docks, as public improvements, owned or to be owned by said city and county of Philadelphia, and which shall yield to the city and county of Philadelphia current net revenue in excess of the interest on said debt or debts of the annual installments necessary for the cancellation of said debt or debts, may be excluded in ascertaining the power of the city and county of Philadelphia to become otherwise indebted; Provided, That a sinking fund for their cancellation shall be established and maintained.
