The piano softly played the familiar strains and the blushing bride in white. 'Squire Ham began the the track and it gave way. "We are gathered together in the sight of God and in the face of this assembly." The light was poor, and the print in the little black book rather fine, and the 'Squire advanced nearer the light. What he said after the opening words could hardly be heard on account of the jeers, hisses and yells of disapproval from the spectators. The reporter even could barely catch the important question, "If any one can show just cause why these two people shall not be joined together let him now speak, or else forever hold his peace."

Lillian promised to love and obey Frank to the accompaniment of "Ahs" and "Hip, Hips" from the audience. After the wedding was over the Squire shook hands with Frank and Lillian, disregarding the vociferous shouts of "Kiss her! kiss her!"

As the disgusted crowd filed out of the rink they were treated to a sight of the legal documents attest-ing a previous legal marriage in Columbus, Ohio, February a year ago, neatly framed and hung up in the lobby of the building. Since the event, the people Honesdale are divided into hostile camps over the answers to questions "Was it a legal marriage?" "Can a couple who are already mar-ried once, be married again?" etc. Lavo, Betbany.

MANAGEMENT CONGRATU LATED.

The Honesdale base ball team won the championship of Wayne county at Hawley last Saturday afternoon, when they defeated Captain Gibbons' men by the close score of 4 to 3.

More than five hundred men, women and children watched the County Seaters trounce their old-time rivals in a well-played game, which was about the control of the fatal wreck last Friday near Manchester, N. Y., on the Lehigh Valley Railroad, in which thirty people were killed and scores injured, which have filled columns in the daily papers, were not exaggerated in the least, according to J. Edward Cook, a veteran of the Civil war, of Honesdale, who, with his daughter, Miss Nellie Cook, were on the ill-fated train.

Mr. Cook and his daughter boarded the express train at Rochester Junction and secured seats in the first of the three day coaches that remaining on the track, and safesolutely free from any demonstration of any sort whatsoever.

Save at critical moments the silence was so intense, that some of the spectators remarked that the game reminded them of a Sunday school picnic, and the management of the Hawley team is to be congratulated upon the splendid order maintained throughout the afternoon.

Ben. Hessling, who is still twirling for Honesdale, pitched in his old-time form, allowing only four hits, and handing out but three passes to first, while Sheridan was touched up for a total of thirteen hits. The result was never in doubt because Hessling had the goods, and Sheridan didn't.

The County Seaters made a getaway start of three runs in the first inning, and they added another one in the sixth. Hawley threatened in the seventh, when they made their three runs, and again in the first inning, fanned. Captain Leslie Brader doubled to right field. Ross bounced the ball to Shortstop Wilson, who tried to put out Brader at third, and as a result the bases were filled. With the bases crowded "Duffer" Weaver clouted the ball to centre, scoring Brader and Ross, and stopped at midway. Jacobs lined the ball to cut off a run. BRIDGE WILL JOIN FOREST CITY FINED $25; TRIED TO STRIKE AND BROWNTOWN; CON-TRACTS TO BE LET SOON.

After hanging fire for more than twenty years, the proposition to build a $10,000 bridge across the Lackawanna River from Forest City, Lackawanna River from Forest City, Susquehanna county, to Browntown, Wayne county, was signed, sealed and delivered at an inter-county meeting, Friday morning at 10 o'clock in the Grand Jury room of the Wayne county court house, when the Susquehanna County Commissioners, the Wayne County Commissioners and the supervisors of Clinton township, Wayne county, decided; on the advice of legal counsel, to go ahead and take the measurements of the proposed structure mart. He said:

"We go South from Browntown half a mile into a hole in the river and there at present we are fording the river with our loads. When we cross the river we come to the foot of a hill. We got to go up a high, steep embankment, to cross the Railroad tracks, and there are four of them. Another reason for a bridge is, we have no public road from the river to the city. The road is never river to the city. The road is never worked from the river to the county line, a distance of half a mile. Two-thirds of the year it's almost impossible to get over the high embankment to the railroad tracks."

Browntown boasts of one hotel, restaurant, several stores and a restaurant, several stores and business places, and is located one and one-half miles from Forest City, across the tracks of two rail-roads and the Lackawanna River. MANAGER DITTRICH; PAINTER BY TRADE.

John Hanley was given a hearing before Mayor Kuhbach Monday af-ternoon at 4 o'clock on a charge of disorderly conduct, being intoxicated, begging, intimidating persons, vagrancy and also with being a suspicious character.

Hanley said he was born in Albany and for the past year had been in Wilkes-Barre, being employed at his trade, that of a painter. During the past six weeks he said he has been working in Honesdale.

And Whereas by reason of her population, her Republican vote, and the ability of the candidates whom she has presented for nomination, she has presented for nomination, she has been entitled to a vastly greater share than she has received of such political honors, it is now the feeling and the determination of Wayne county Republicans, and the conferees this day elected are so instructed, to present the claim of Wayne county for the forthcoming nomination with such force and effect that her right shall at this time be recognized by the District, and she shall receive the justice which has been so long delayed.

Mr. Greene was called before the committee and he expressed his heavy a proposed structure of the supervisors of Clinton township, Wayne county, decided; on the advice of legal counsel, the supervisors of Clinton township, Wayne county, decided; on the advice of legal counsel, the supervisors of Clinton township, Wayne county, decided; on the advice of legal counsel, the supervisors of Clinton township, Wayne county, decided; on the advice of legal counsel, the supervisors of Clinton township, Wayne county, decided; on the advice of legal counsel, the supervisors of Clinton township, Wayne county, decided; on the advice of legal counsel, the supervisors of Clinton township, Wayne county, decided; on the advice of legal counsel, the supervisors of Clinton township, Wayne county, decided; on the advice of legal counsel, the supervisors of Clinton township, Wayne county, decided; on the advice of legal counsel, the supervisors of Clinton the superviso Carroll, who was near, caught Han-ley's arm and prevented it. The cl-gar, however, struck Manager Dit-trich in the face. Mr. Dittrich or-dered the man out of the theatre and called Mayor Kuhbach, who was in the house. He turned Han-ley over to Chief of Police Canivan who arrested him and took the pris-oner to fail. Mr. Dittrich told the oner to jail. Mr. Dittrich told the court that Hanley made threats, claiming that he would get even with him before he left the town and he has every reason to believe the prisoner is a bad actor. Mayor told the prisoner that he could not do anything different but follow the law in the matter and under the existing conditions would have to fine him $25, which if Han-ley paid he would be released, if the district attorney did not want him, otherwise he would undergo hard labor on the streets of the town. Hanley said he would take the punishment and was at once taken back to jan, where he will await the pleas-ure of District Attorney Simons.

There is no doubt but that in the arrest of Hanley the police have the proper man behind the bars; the one who attempted to enter the home of Mrs. Herbert Quinney a few nights ago; also the night prowler who asked for matches at 12:30 one night recently from Mrs. tablished there, and a postmaster appointed. At present the town is supplied with mail pouches from the Erie and the Ontario and Western Railroads.

Mayor Kuhbach gave Hanley good lecture in that he told that any gentleman would not smoke in a theatre and made it especially strong concerning endangering the lives of hundreds of people by smoking, in that the cigar stub might set fire to the building and cost a number of lives.

Hanley told the mayor that he was sorry that he had to be brought before the court, that this was the second time he had been arrested, the first being at Hazleton.

District Attorney Simons is confident that he has the man that has been disturbing the neighborhood during the past few nights and will in all probability hold Hanley
