LOCAL NEWS

—Company E will resume drilling Thursday evening, September 7.

—Marriage licenses have been granted to F. J. Foster, Dunmore, and Elizabeth B. Donachy, Hawley.

—The W. C. T. U. County convention will be held in Honesdale about the 21st of September. The place of meeting will be announced later.

—Olin J. Barnes and Miss May Petersen, both of Beachlake, were married at that place Wednesday. The bridegroom is a son of W. J. Barnes.

—All the services in the Presbyterian church will be resumed next Sunday. Morning worship at 10:30. Sunday school at 12 M. C. E. at 6:45 p. m., and evening worship at 7:30.

—An eagle weighing 16 pounds and measuring six feet, two inches from tip to tip of its wings, was killed near Tobyhanna last Monday. The eagle, notwithstanding it being a national bird, was shot because it was hovering over children that were nearby, endangering their lives.

—W. B. Roadknight has received a letter from his sister, Mrs. Calvin Kimble, Gatun, Canal Zone, Panama, in which Mrs. Kimble stated they are comfortably located in a government house. The dwelling, coal and electric light is furnished free. She expresses herself as liking it very much. Mrs. Kimble, daughter Alice and son, William, former residents of Honesdale, removed from Carbondale.

—Rev. W. H. Hiller, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, delivered an excellent sermon last Sunday morning from the text, "Stretch forth thy hand." The theme of the sermon was the palmed hand; the church being palmed as well as the individual. The pastor stated, among a number of other things, in the way of criticism, "THAT NO MAN OR POLITICAL CANDIDATE HAD ANY RIGHT TO SAY ANYTHING ABOUT ANY OTHER PERSON, UNLESS IT BE FOR GOOD." The sermon was a strong one and is considered one of the best the pastor has preached. The singing was especially appropriate for the sermon. Besides an anthem by the choir, Miss Mary Holland sang a beautiful soprano solo. In the evening, Mrs. Charles Penwarden, New York City, pleased the congregation with a sweet solo.

—Next Tuesday, Sept. 5, the attraction at the Lyric will be the dramatization of George Barr McCutcheon's thrilling romance of war, love and laughter, "Beverly." The production comes direct from its long engagement at the Studebaker Theatre, Chicago, and the company which appears in this place is the same one that has made "Beverly" so popular and so well patronized. In every city in which they have appeared they have been greeted with large and enthusiastic audiences and after the first performance "standing room only" has been the sign that has greeted late comers to the theatre. The play has a wonderful appealing power and is enthusiastically received by all classes of theatre patrons. It is a story of war, a story of love and a story of laughter. Plot follows counterplot, amusing situations follow one after the other, and through the whole is running one of the most delightful love stories one ever had the pleasure of witnessing on the stage.

—Services at the First Baptist church as usual on Sunday next, at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Bible school at 11:45 a. m. The Lord's Supper will be celebrated at the close of the morning service.

—The sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered at the Methodist church Sunday morning at 10:30; Love Feast at 9:30. The pastor, Rev. W. H. Hiller, will deliver a sermon on "Labor" in the evening. Special music.

—Mrs. Arthur Hull gave an enjoyable 500 party at the home of her mother, Mrs. Horrey, on North Main street, Wednesday afternoon. There were eight tables. Prizes were won by Mrs. B. H. Witherbee, Miss Swift, and Miss Margaret Mumford.

—H. A. Purple, a well-known undertaker of Carbondale, and who has been in Honesdale on several occasions in a professional capacity, was fatally injured in an attempt to cross a moving train on a crossing. He was removed to Emergency hospital and died shortly afterward.

—James Smith won the $1 cash prize at the Roller Rink, Wednesday evening, offered for the boy, who first "discovered the North Pole." Eight boys participated in the hunt, and their experiences, blindfolded, on roller skates, afforded the onlookers considerable amusement.

—The Erie agents of the Wyoming and Delaware stations met in Hotel Casey, Scranton, on Friday last. D. H. Maloney, Honesdale's aggressive Erie agent, secured the next monthly meeting which will be held at the Allen House Sept. 24. About 30 agents are expected to attend the meeting.

—Walter M. Whitney and Miss Margaret Mason will be married Thursday evening at Westboro, Mass. Among the Honesdale relatives and friends to attend the ceremony were: Mrs. Allis Whitney and Miss Mary Whitney, mother and aunt of the bridegroom, H. R. Menner, Frank Jenkins, R. M. Salmon and Charles Dorfinger.

—St. John's Evangelical Lutheran church at this place will be rededicated Sunday, Sept. 10. Pastor Miller and congregation will observe the occasion by holding services all day, morning, afternoon and evening. During the afternoon the clergy of the town will give addresses. Special singing will be rendered and Sonner's orchestra will furnish instrumental music throughout the day.

—Milton Reichenbacher, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reichenbacher, of this place, has built a miniature aeroplane which is now on display in the jewelry store window of H. G. Rowland. It is clever work for a boy his age and well displays his ingenious abilities. The aeroplane attracts considerable attention and has brought forth much comment. The mysterious part of the aeroplane is how the propeller turns.

—The results of the flowers and vegetables grown by the children from weeds sold them by the Women's Improvement association will be exhibited at a flower show in Miss Lee's room in the High school building, Friday, September 8, at 3 p. m. Prizes will be given as follows: One for the most perfect flower; one for the largest variety of flowers grown by one person; one for the most artistic bouquet; one first prize for the best vegetable display; one second prize for the second best vegetable display. The school building will be open at 7:30 that same evening so that any one interested may inspect the flowers and at 8 o'clock a short musical and literary program will be given in the auditorium. Admission free.

—Squire Robert A. Smith is a good weather prognosticator in that he predicted the recent rain five days before it fell. On Friday, Sept. 18, Mr. Smith stated to a friend in the court house that he bet it would rain on Wednesday or Thursday of next week and sure enough it did. Mr. Smith told his friends that the government weather bureau had lost a storm, but he said, "I kept track of it, expecting it to get in the south and it did," which is the storm that passed over this section last week, coming from the southwest. The fellow who took up the 'Squire's bet is one of his opponents in dominoes at the court house. When he arrived Friday morning all he could say was, "Don't mention rain."

—The members of the Honesdale Improvement association met in regular monthly session last Monday evening in the city hall. One member reported having secured ten new members, which is very gratifying. A donation of $10 was received from Richard Bondy of New York City. The association members expressed themselves as being very much elated over the chain of teas which have been held during the summer, the treasury having been enriched several dollars by them. The triangular piece of ground known as the new Torrey park, on Park street, is to be soon placed in condition. The benches in the different parks have been repaired and replaced and it is hoped that they will be given the proper care by the public.

"THE UNIVERSAL COMMON GOOD"

R. L. Kimbrough Has Some Original Ideas on This Vital Subject

CONSOLIDATION OF ALL TRADES, OCCUPATIONS AND BUSINESSES OFFERED AS A PANACEA FOR EXISTING SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC CONDITIONS.

R. L. Kimbrough, of Weakley, Giles county, Tennessee, is working for the advancement of the universal common good. According to Mr. Kimbrough, who is spending the week at the Hotel Wayne, Honesdale, "Now is the opportune time to begin the proper organization of business, so as to put it on a permanent basis of usefulness to the American people, so that it will not be necessary to reform it every generation."

"We are developing plans whereby we can secure the federation of all the farmers, all the working people, all small merchants and all small manufacturers, all the salaried people on three principles, so as to secure in the end the universal common good of all men."

Mr. Kimbrough claims that his theories are the result of his own original study. "I have reserved my readings on economics," he said, "until I have made up my own opinion, so as not to be biased by any one's opinion."

He was raised in Tennessee, fourteen miles from a railroad. I worked my way through Lebanon College and Cumberland University. I taught school five years. I have been tramping for ten years over thirty-eight states studying economic, political and social conditions with a view to finding a solution of our national problems. I am forty-one years old.

"I have taken one year in theology, one year in law, and a regular A. B. course. I am single. I never expect to marry until I get settled down so I can stay home with my wife so as to take care of her."

"I hear a different preacher every Sunday, in order to know what the churches want today. The churches are getting down to certain principles. Every preacher I hear almost comes in on that first principle of mine, viz. 'The principles and teachings of the Kingdom of God as the recognized basis of all business and of all government.' There's a great development in the churches along that line."

"My theory is a combination of religion and business. Its business recognizing religion as its foundation, but in a denunciation of the Kingdom of God."

"We are all working for the same great end. The Presbyterians in their way, the Episcopalians, Baptists, Catholics, in theirs, but it's all on the same great basis, the principles and the teachings of the Kingdom of God."

Mr. Kimbrough's theories on "The Universal Common Good" are substantially as follows:

"It is self-evident that efficient combination, co-operation and co-ordination of all kindred business in the United States under State and Federal regulation will produce the following general benefits:

"First—Decrease the costs of production of all products and thereby decrease the prices of all articles to the consumer.

"Secondly—Increase wages and improve conditions of labor.

"Thirdly—Provide permanent employment to all men, better housing to labor, and better satisfied employees.

"Fourthly—Guarantee stability and profits to all business.

"Fifthly—Expand foreign trade balances.

"Sixthly—Concentrate the necessary capital and discover new ways and means of saving and utilizing waste products which can never be done by individuals or smaller concerns.

"Seventhly—Provide opportunities for all small investors safely to participate in the development of our large business enterprises, and thus distribute such profits more generally among the people.

"Eighthly—And in the end, will eliminate all child labor, all sweatshops, all strikes and lockouts, all low wages, all business panics and failures and (which is the first cause of all these business and social troubles) all cut-throat competition.

"The only true fundamental, and permanent basis upon which the above developments are working themselves out in our present national and commercial evolution is on the following principles:

"I. The principles and teachings of the Kingdom of God as the recognized basis of all business and of all government.

"II. The permanent employment of all men on the basis of a good income and under good sanitary conditions.

"III. The organization and the re-organization of all corporate enterprises on a righteous, scientific efficiency, and profit-sharing basis, guaranteed under State and Federal regulation, so as to secure for all employees permanent employment and equitable opportunities of safe and profitable investment for their savings.

"The first principle establishes all business on an unselfish and co-operative basis, and will eliminate all self-interest and cut-throat competition.

"The second principle will give all men permanent employment and an increased capacity for buying food, clothing, shelter and recreation; which will force factories to run on full time to meet these increased demands; which, in turn, will guarantee all merchants a profitable business in making the exchanges between producer and consumer, which then will employ all clerks and professional men at good incomes to do the clearinghouse work of all other classes, and then the farmers will be busy raising enough food at good prices to feed the millions of prosperous, happy people of the United States and of the world.

"Having devoted the past ten years of my life to traveling over 38 states, studying conditions at close range among all classes, and endeavoring to find what we American people want and are going to have, I believe I have found the only permanent solution of all our financial, commercial, social and political problems.

"I shall devote the remainder of my life to perfecting plans to secure the co-operation of all corporations and the federation of all farmers, all workmen, all small manufacturers, all small merchants, and all clerks and professional men upon these principles so as to secure the universal common good of all men.

"Ten years of commercial, social and political developments demonstrate that such conditions are fast coming.

"IT IS COMING!"

"It will come naturally if each corporation will get in line and co-operate.

"It will come at an awful cost to all business if each corporation persistently and stubbornly refuses to co-operate voluntarily.

"It is with each corporation to decide whether that corporation will freely and voluntarily hasten the natural business evolution, and thereby reap a rich and profitable business reward; or will stubbornly and persistently refuse to co-operate and thereby precipitate a costly and ruinous revolution of all business.

"I am ready to furnish the Standard Oil Company, the American Tobacco Company, and every other corporation a basis of re-organization in harmony with our national evolution which will continue its unhampered services and development for the good of all the people, and which will be a permanent solution of all our commercial problems, and, in the end, will bring universal and perpetual business prosperity to all men.

"I call upon each corporation to co-operate with me and my assigns, for the next twenty years, to bring about a natural, inexpensive and profitable business evolution, and avoid a costly, destructive and ruinous revolution."

THE APPLE CHOP.

These are the days when those interested in the apple crop begin to sit up and look around. From the forecast issued by the International Apple Shippers' association it appears that the apple crop of 1911 is going to be in the bumper class. The yield in the United States and Canada will exceed that of last year by about thirty-five per cent. or 5,500,000 barrels. Of the four big apple states, New York shows a gain of fifty per cent. over last year, Pennsylvania thirty-five per cent., Michigan 150 per cent. and Virginia fifty-five per cent. Eastern Canada reports an increase of at least 100 per cent. New England, the South and the Pacific coast, show slight decreases. As the fruit is reported to be of good quality the news will be welcome to the lovers of this most useful and best of fruits. It is pleasing to note that Pennsylvania is making some gains, though not in keeping with the increase apparent in other states. All judges of apples know that the fruit raised in Pennsylvania is unequalled anywhere, save perhaps in New York. Pennsylvania should be the great apple growing state of the Union. By the help of the state department of agriculture the fruit raisers of the Keystone state have made remarkable progress in the past few years. But thousands who might reap good profits from apple culture are still neglecting golden opportunities in Pennsylvania.

"DRY FARMING."

"Dry farming" means a method of farming that shall include deep plowing and frequent pulverizing of the top soil out of as well as during the growing season. It is based on the principle that the moisture falling in rain or snow may sink into the earth if the soil be loosened. Then that there shall be kept above that moistened bed a close, fine blanket of dust that shall prevent evaporation. If the furrows be turned at right angles to the prevailing winds of winter, that the snow may be caught, and if the pulverizing harrow be sent over the field after every rain, the seed is certain to receive a maximum amount of sustenance. If it does not get enough in one season it may in two, and a crop every alternate year, if a good one, is ample return on cheap land. Of course, there must be good soil as a basis—only irrigation can conquer sand.

AGUST MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Twenty marriage licenses were granted in August, 1911, as compared with fifteen for the corresponding month last year.

Miss Nellie Ford, Wilkes-Barre, is visiting friends in this place.

DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE FOR SHERIFF.

I respectfully ask the Democratic voters of Wayne county to give me their earnest support at the primary election to be held Saturday Sept. 30, 1911.
