LOCAL NEWS

—Edward Freeman has a fine collection of coins of all denominations on display in Freeman Bros. store.

—Rev. A. L. Whittaker will hold service in the Indian Orchard school house Sunday, Sept. 10, at 2:30 p. m. All are invited.

—Paul McGranaghan has let the contract for the new bridge to remodel the front of his place of business, Main street. Large plate glass will replace the present windows.

—John K. Bunnell has been quite successful in raising alfalfa. He has cut two crops and the third will soon be ready to harvest. It makes excellent food for cattle. Mr. Bunnell recently lost his fine herd of cattle by tuberculosis, but intends restocking this fall.

—The town council is removing all walks on Main street that cross between blocks. The road is being repaired, crushed stone will be placed where needed after which it will be rolled with a ten ton machine. One block will be completed before another will be started so that the entire street will not be torn up at one time.

—A few days ago Isaac B. Sandercock, surveyor, left his automobile stand near the blacksmith shop of Benjamin Garing, Hoadleys, while he boarded the train for a place on that road. Mr. Garing and Mr. Avery, an electrician for the Erie railroad, saw the machine standing near the former's shop and the temptation was too great for them. They cranked the automobile and started to spin around the place. When out a short distance the machine balked and from what can be learned it is claimed that the ride was an expensive one and one which Messrs. Avery and Garing will long remember.

—Mr. and Mrs. John E. Richmond of Honesdale, are here for August and September, and are stopping at Rosemont. They are here to enjoy the beautiful scenery, exhilarating atmosphere, and to profit by the sessions of the Bible Conference. They have their coachman, Charles Knapp, with them, and after the sessions of the conference Mr. Richmond will use his handsome team of horses to explore many of the handsome lakes and other places surrounding Montrose. Mr. Richmond is delighted with Montrose (and Rosemont) and says one thing that attracted him to Montrose was a place giving relief to hay fever patients. [Montrose Democrat.]

—The oyster season opened last Friday. —The Boy Scouts broke camp on Wednesday. —Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shrader, Wednesday, a son. —Oslek Tribe No. 318, I. O. R. M., meets this (Thursday) evening. —Kreitner Bros. are remodeling the O'Neil house on Erie street. —"Let George Do It," a big musical show, is booked for Honesdale. —Joseph Hamm, a well-known printer of Scranton, died Wednesday, aged 52 years. —The conductors of the Delaware & Hudson system will run their excursion to Oneonta, N. Y., September 20. —Grace Episcopal church, Sunday, Sept. 10, services at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sunday school at 12 M. —Miss Edna Oliver, Tyler Hill, and Theron Oliver, Damascus, were granted a license to marry on Wednesday. —A marriage license has been granted to Miss Grace Ribenburg, Carbondale, and Charles Howell, of Waymart. —Dr. E. W. Burns will address the Boy Scouts this (Thursday) evening at the city hall on "First Aid to the Injured." —District Attorney M. E. Simons, Honesdale, and Victor Decker, Hawley, attended the Republican conference at Susquehanna. —Mrs. J. S. Brown entertained the Titus Mission band Thursday afternoon at her home on East street. —Miss Rena Kellom has returned from a visit with relatives in Scranton. —Our esteemed contemporary, The Laceyville Messenger, completed eighteen years of usefulness last week. Here's to its health and its happiness! May it live long and prosper. —While running between Port Jervis and Milford on the way to Scranton Sunday, the touring car owned by Col. R. M. Scranton, caught fire and was destroyed, together with some baggage and clothing carried in the machine. —Democrats who attended the Congressional conference at Tunkhannock from Wayne county were: Hon. C. A. McCarty, County Chairman, W. J. Ferber, J. Samuel Brown, Mayor John Kubbach, Honesdale, and Thomas Gill, White Mills. —In the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning the pastor will speak on "The Faith That Wins" and in the evening at 7:30 read a story that ought to be heard by the Boy Scouts, politicians, office-seekers and people generally. A story for our times. —Miss Claire Vincent, of the Gardner-Vincent company, well-known to Honesdale theatregoers, was taken with appendicitis several days ago at Sunbury and was forced to undergo an operation. Her many friends here hope for her speedy recovery. —The names of Mrs. John J. Brennan and Miss Lucy Joslin, former school teachers of Carbondale, will appear on the Republican ticket of that borough for school board. It is thought from their experience in the school room that they will be qualified to perform the respective duties of the board. —The new school code provides for a payment of $3 per day to teachers attending County Teachers' Institutes, and a forfeit of $3 a day for each day's absence from institute without good excuse, the latter sum to be deducted from the salary of the teacher for the month following the institute. The code makes provision also for the calling of the roll of the institute at least twice a day, in order that absentees may be noted. —Miss Grace Male, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Male, of Hawley, was married to William Cox, Corn-wal-on-the-Hudson, Tuesday afternoon, at the home of the bride's parents, by Rev. B. P. Ripley, of the Methodist Episcopal church. The young couple were motored to Scranton in C. L. Dunning's car that afternoon. From that city Mr. and Mrs. Cox will go to Buffalo on their honeymoon. The bridegroom is a prosperous young merchant in Cornwall, while his bride is a favorite among the young people of Hawley. Her many Honesdale friends wish her a happy wedded life. —The funeral of Miss Mary A. Kallighan was largely attended from St. John's Roman Catholic church Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. Rev. Thomas Hanley celebrated requiem high mass. The bearers were all first cousins of the deceased, except Thomas Bracey. The others were William Kallighan, Michael, Philip and William Coyne, and Thomas McKeon, of Scranton. The flower bearers were Joseph Kallighan and Thomas Butler. Relatives and friends were present from Scranton, Oneonta and Port Jervis, N. Y. A number of Honesdale friends went to Scranton Tuesday and accompanied the remains here on Wednesday. —The Erie railroad will change its time-table on the Honesdale branch of the Wyoming division Sept. 9, at which time the local morning train will return to its former leaving time. There probably will be no change in the operation of other trains on the branch. The main line trains will continue to run between Deposit and Jersey City until September 23. After the change of time-table the extra cars, a milk, postal and baggage, will be discontinued, two at Hawley and one at Honesdale, thus cutting the train down to the former number of cars. This will do away with the extra brakeman that the full crew law provides. Edward Robinson, Honesdale, who has been employed the past few weeks as extra man, will then be removed from the train. The present time table accommodates the New York communicators as well as Honesdale people desiring to get into the metropolis before noon and the change will inconvenience quite a number of people. It seems to be the desire of the traveling public to have the schedule remain as it is, if possible.

—The communication received from Damascus was crowded out of this issue. We regret this, but such things cannot be helped sometimes. —The Wayne County Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance company have over $4,000,000 worth of policies written and notes out over $160,000. During the past fiscal year which ended Sept. 1, 1911, the company gained $150,000 of business. In this period of time there have been 51 losses and damages by fire and lightning as against 26 a year ago. The losses last year amounted to $6,611.26. At the annual meeting of the directors just held an assessment of 6 per cent. was declared on the outstanding notes, which is one per cent. less than last year.

OBITUARY.

[Contributed.] Elmina E. Whipple, wife of S. Henry Lee, passed away at her home in Orson, August 2, 1911, after having been afflicted with paralysis for several years. Deceased was born June 18, 1840, in Greenfield, Pa., and was a daughter of the late Truman and Adaline Whipple, formerly of Massachusetts. On December 30, 1858, she was married to S. Henry Lee, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lee, also of Greenfield, and together with her husband, in 1862, came to this part of Wayne county where they have since resided. The deceased was a woman of exemplary Christian character and a loving friend and mother. In 1886 she united with the Orson Methodist Episcopal church under the pastorate of Rev. Philip Houch, and was always found in her place in the house of worship, even after she was scarcely able to attend on account of ill health. She leaves to mourn her demise, beside her husband, S. Henry Lee, five daughters—Mrs. Theresa Wall, New York City; Mrs. J. E. Temperton, Hatboro, Pa.; Mrs. L. O. Mosser, Garwood, N. J.; Mrs. Fred Soule, Lestershire, N. Y., and Mrs. Clinton Hine, Orson, who so tenderly cared for her mother during her last years of illness; two sons also survive—Irvin H. Lee and John B. Lee, both of Orson. Funeral was held in the Methodist Episcopal church, Aug. 5, 1911, her former pastor, Rev. O. G. Russell, now of Hamlin, officiating, using for his text Luke 8:52—"Weep not; she is not dead but sleepeth." Music was sweetly rendered by a quartette from the church choir. Friends and relatives showed the esteem in which the deceased was held by sending several beautiful floral tributes. Bearers were: Jown Lewis, D. J. Hine, L. D. Wall, S. H. Hine, H. G. Palmer, A. S. Lewis. Interment took place in the family plot in Orson cemetery.

Charles Wesley Sutton, son of Charles Wesley Sutton and Susan Knapp, was born at Stevensville, Sullivan county, N. Y., April 7, 1876, and passed very peacefully away at his home in Bethany, Aug. 26, 1911, about 10 o'clock p. m., aged 35 years, 4 months and 19 days. His boyhood days were spent at Stevensville and for the past twelve years he lived at Hancock, N. Y. June 22, 1907, he married Augusta C. Lavo of Bethany, who with two children, Vincent Keith and Kathleen Augusta, survive him. The other surviving relatives are two sisters, Mrs. Eugene Kinne of Fallburg, N. Y.; Mrs. Howard Beebe, Middletown, N. Y., and two brothers, Melvin, of McClure, N. Y., and Samuel, in the West.

He had been a great sufferer for several months of complications yet bore it with great patience, earnestly desiring that his life might be spared to his wife and children to whom he was greatly devoted, and while the end came peacefully, it was no less a shock to his sorrowing wife who had so lovingly and tenderly cared for him. He was of a bright, cheerful disposition and especially kind and thoughtful of the aged and the many tokens and messages of sympathy received during his illness from friends where the most of his life had been spent, showed the high esteem in which he was held. The funeral services were conducted at the Presbyterian church, Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock by Rev. Dr. Swift. Mrs. Brundage of Scranton, sweetly sang "Sometime We'll Understand." The floral offerings were profuse and beautiful. The remains were laid to rest in the Bethany cemetery. Friends who attended the funeral from a distance were Mrs. Eugene Kinne, Fallburg, N. Y.; Henry Lavo and Miss Edna Lavo, Brooklyn, N. Y.
