

PLAYERS FOUND RUBE MARQUARD AN EASY MARK.

MARQUARD.

Rube Marquard wasn't quite sure he had been bought by the Giants from Indianapolis three years ago until he was on a train bound for New York.

Myers showed Rube a fake telegram from McGraw, asking Myers to report to the Giants at $500 a month.

ENGLISH OPPOSE BIG FIGHT.

Think Johnson-Wells Bout a Slaughter and May Call It Off.

Opposition to the proposed "fight" between Jack Johnson and England's alleged champion, Bombardier Wells, is increasing to such a degree that the promoters may decide to declare it off.

In pointing out reasons why Wells cannot hope to make a respectable showing if Johnson tries, attention is called to the interesting fact that Eddie McGorty of Oshkosh, Wis., a middleweight, outpointed Petty Officer Curran in a twenty round bout in Dublin.

SHERIDAN TRAINING HARD.

Great Athlete Trying to Rid Himself of Some Extra Weight.

For the first time since he last worked to fit himself for the all round championships Martin Sheridan, who is rated as the greatest athlete in the world, is down to real hard training.

BASEBALL POINTERS

Umpire Johnstone says that in the last nine years he has seen only three games in which but one ball was used.

Experts declare that Barry of the Athletics gets in front of batted balls better than any other shortstop. Not only does he get in front of them, but he gets them.

Thus, Philly outfielder, wears a toothpick in his mouth when at bat, and Umpire Johnstone declares if a ball ever hits the ornament he will call a foul strike on the sorrel top.

Frank Bowerman, the veteran catcher, says Larry Cheney, Louisville pitcher, is the best spitball pitcher in the game.

Nick Maddox has been pitching so well for the Kansas City club that the Pirates, who have an option on him, will submit him to the recall.

Ernie Johnson, for many years one of the best players of the Wanderer hockey team of Montreal, has signed a contract to play hockey in Calgary, Canada, next winter at a salary of $2,000.

WORLD'S SERIES BIGGEST EVER

Great Fight in Both Leagues This Season Awakens Interest.

MACK AND M'GRAW MAY CLASH

In 1905 New York Giants' Leader Scored Easily Over the American League Champions, but It Will Be Different Now.

By TOMMY CLARK. One baseball prediction can be safely ventured at this time, and that is the world's series of 1911 will surpass in interest any ever played previously.

With the New York Giants having a splendid chance to win the National league pennant and the Athletics having the American league bunting almost won, the world's series of 1911 may be a repetition of the contests of 1905, when the New Yorkers and Athletics of Philadelphia had it out.

There are many who believe the Athletics would defeat the Giants if they again meet this fall. It seems that John McGraw is in command of a team inferior to the one he owned six years ago.

But few of the men who engaged in the 1905 series would be seen in action this year. None of the Giants, save the pitchers and Arthur Devlin, who is no longer a regular of McGraw's team, are now members of the New York team.

Another Giants-Athletic series would bring together those famous veterans, Christopher Mathewson and Chief Charles Bender. They had it out in the former series, Matty winning 2-0, although Bender had the better of the hit argument, 6-5.

Today McGraw has no man like Roger Bresnahan to do his catching. His outfield will probably hit as hard and is as fast as the old Browne-Mertes-Donlin combination, but the infield is not as air tight.

Bender is probably as good today as he was when he last faced the Giants. Eddie Plank, although a veteran now, still seems to have his old cunning.

For the last two seasons the Athletics have figured as real pennant contenders. They won last season and will probably repeat this year.

While Chief Bender was Mack's main reliance last season, the Indian received valuable aid from John Coombs, the Maine Iron man, but the New Englander has not had such a successful campaign this season.

But when Coombs fell down Eddie Plank came to life again. He did his share of the work last season, but the real work was left to Bender and Coombs.

CURRENT SPORT NOTES

An English curling team will visit Canada this winter.

Eddie Hankon, ex-lightweight pugilist, wants to take up refereeing fights on the Pacific coast. He is twenty-five years old.

Sydney, New South Wales, has forty-four baseball teams, including fifteen school ones, playing the national pastime of the United States.

Tommy Keane, the Syracuse university athletic trainer, believes that Reidpath, his crack quarter miler, is able to outstride any of the college cracks at that distance.

COBB TEACHES JACKSON.

Naps' Outfielder Using Tiger Star's Famous-Fall Away Slide.

They say Ty Cobb is jealous of Joe Jackson, but listen to this: Ty taught Joe his fall away slide and gave him some advice in base running that is said to have improved Joe's work.

JACKSON.

By watching the outfield Joe couldn't quite see how Cobb made his famous slide, so he got up and asked Ty how he did it.

Joe caught on in a second. He hadn't been starting his slide soon enough and didn't get as far to one side of the bag as he should have.

WHY CATCHERS SLOW UP.

Constant Stooping Hardens Muscles of Legs and Interferes With Running.

Why do catchers slow up after several seasons' service in the big league? asks a fan. A logical reason is given. It follows: "Few catchers are fast on their feet after they have been in the game a few years, and this falling is attributed to the fact that the man behind the bat does a lot of stooping and thus hardens the muscles of his legs in such a way as to interfere with his running.

WILDING NOT TO PLAY.

Australia's Tennis Star Will Not Assist in Defending Davis Cup.

A. F. Wilding, who was a member of the Australasian defending team two years ago and who last July retained the British tennis championship title by defeating H. Roper Barrett at Wimbledon, announced recently that he would be unable to return to New Zealand to assist in defending the Davis cup this year.

Wilding is one of the greatest tennis players Australia ever produced. His absence will surely weaken the team.

Brooklyn's Sleep Producing Pitchers.

Now that the Brooklyn club has grabbed "Slow Joe" Doyle, Charley Ebbets will put in Turkish divans at Washington park. If there are two more deliberate pitchers than Doyle and Knetzer their presence hasn't been noted.

Bush Changes Style of Batting.

Shortstop Ownie Bush of the Detroit Tigers always bats right handed against a southpaw and seems able to hit that way much better than from the other side.

Krapp, Naps' Young Pitcher.

Pitcher Krapp of the Cleveland team watches the bases sharply and is quick as a flash at fielding ground balls.
