LOCAL NEWS

Primitives Saturday, September 30, from 2 to 8 p. m.

Rev. A. L. Whittaker will hold service in the White Mills church, Sunday, Oct. 1, at 5:45 p. m.

If you are not a subscriber of The Citizen you can get it three months for a quarter of a dollar.

The W. C. T. U. will hold a meeting the first Tuesday in October at Mrs. Margaret Brown's, High street.

The Nickettes, a moving picture house on Main street, has been leased for an indefinite period by Hawley parties.

"The Girl and the Tramp" will be seen at the Lyric on Friday evening. This is a first-class attraction.

You want The Citizen during the campaign. We will send it to your address from now until the first of the year for only 25 cents.

Grace Episcopal church: Holy Communion and sermon at 10:30 a. m.; evening prayer and special musical service and sermon at 7:30 p. m.; Sunday school at 12 M.

Protection Engine Company No. 3 will hold their annual ball Oct. 20 in the new armory. Committees were appointed Friday evening at a special meeting. It is expected to make this one of the most eventful affairs of the season.

Saturday, September 30, is the last day for paying school taxes in any district of Wayne county, in order to escape the 5 per cent. penalty, which will be added on October 1.

Now that Main street is in good shape it behooves the property owners to take care of it," said Robert Brennehan to a Citizen reporter. "The road should be sprinkled every day, this will preserve it and keep it hard."

The regular annual meeting of the Honesdale Golf club, for the election of officers, followed by a special meeting to vote on the question of changing the date of payment of dues, will be held at the club house, at 7:30 p. m., on October 7, 1911. A large attendance is desired.

There are many Wayne county citizens, irrespective of party affiliations, who feel that Judge Searle's very excellent record made during his brief career on the bench here in his home county and in various parts of the state where he has been called upon to specially preside—entitle him to recognition at the hands of the voters of his home county. In passing it is interesting to note that not in one instance has Judge Searle's rulings been appealed from to a higher court—a signal tribute in itself from the members of the bar of the several counties where he has presided. Judge Searle has for years been one of Honesdale's best known and most representative citizens.—Scranton Truth.

The Knights of St. Paul will have an important meeting Tuesday, Oct. 3, at 7:30 p. m.

Mrs. Howard Sterling and little daughter, Charlotte, returned to their home in New York City, Wednesday after spending three weeks with the former's father, Millard Sherwood.

George W. Nape, Scranton, deputy factory inspector for the Eighteenth Pennsylvania District, comprising Lackawanna, Wayne, Pike and Monroe counties, made a special trip to Honesdale Wednesday when he took the measurements of the Lyric Theatre.

When seen at the Hotel Wayne by a Citizen man, Inspector Nape informed the reporter that his visit was made by order of the Department of Factory Inspection, who have instructed their forty deputies to examine the exits, aisles, and general appointments of all the theatres, nickettes, music halls, etc., in the State.

"The State is taking measurements of all the opera houses and nickettes there are in the state," he said. "We have to examine the fire escapes, exits and things in general. When they have accidents, as they do every now and then, if they have the information on file, they may recommend some changes."

The labor certificates are working fine. They are all issued by the Department of Public Instruction, which is in charge of Dr. N. C. Schaeffer. We only have to examine them. If we find boys at work between fourteen and sixteen, without them, we dismiss them.

Boys from fourteen to sixteen, and girls from fourteen to eighteen, are only allowed to work fifty-eight hours a week. The girls are two years higher than the boys. They take better care of the female employees.

There is very little child labor in Honesdale. The percentage is very small compared with the number of employees," concluded Mr. Nape, who said, that he found things in good shape in the Maple City, where the factory laws are strictly enforced.

Morris F. Hartman, who is serving six months in the county jail for forging a check on Goldsmith Brothers, Scranton, for $25, and having the freight agent at Ariel cash it for him last summer, does not stand commutation between the four walls of a prison very well.

His health, none the best at any time, has been considerably affected since his incarceration there. He has just asked the authorities to be allowed to take outdoor exercise.

His physician, Dr. H. B. Ely, endorses his request, and states that the dope is almost all out of him, and believes that occasional outdoor exercise would be beneficial to him. Deputy Constable Patrick J. Moran has offered to walk Hartman around, and it is understood that Sheriff M. Lee Braman has offered no objection to the plan.

Hartman is a model prisoner. He is considered one of the most gentlemanly inmates that ever spent any time in the county bastille. He has persistently told the same story of how he was led into temptation by the lack of money; of how he saw Goldsmith's large advertisement in the paper, and thought that forging a check on them would be an easy way to raise money.

When brought before Judge Searle for sentence, at September argument court, he admitted his guilt but refused to divulge the name and address of his father whom he alleged, was a man of standing and refinement residing in the metropolis.

Hartman's life is shrouded in mystery. No one knows where he came from, nor whether the name under which he was tried and convicted is his own or not. Of ascetic appearance, with clean-shaven face, and iron-streaked hair, medium in height and erect of stature, he walked into the domains of Wayne unknown to anyone, and there committed the crime to which he was driven by the lack of funds; walked as proudly into the jail to bear his punishment like a man, and doubtless will leave the shire when the first day of January 1, 1912, arrives, without revealing any information as to his antecedents, but with a firm New Year's resolve to lead an honest and upright life, realizing as never before that the way of the transgressor is hard.

Who has been secretary of the Republican County Committee for the past five years and worked hard in the interests of the party? George P. Ross who now asks your support for the office of Prothonotary. Who has been on duty at the Commissioners' office every day to receive candidates' petitions and given personal attention to the preparation of the ballots? George P. Ross, and he now asks you to promote him to the office of Prothonotary.

How many men do you suppose would have given themselves entirely to their duties and left their campaign entirely to the Republican voters? Is not that the kind of a man you want in office? One who has been tried and has proven worthy? Show your appreciation of his course by giving him a large majority.

FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER.

FRANK D. WALTZ, Newfoundland, Pa.

I have found it impossible to call on all the voters as was intended so I would take this method of soliciting your support. I have been through part of the county; made a clean canvass; have made no deals with other candidates; made no promises, and have been working for Waltz and Waltz only.

I have been in partnership with my brother in general store business for eleven years. Since he retired I have conducted the business successfully for three years. I feel that I am competent to perform the duties of the office to which I aspire.

If I am nominated and elected, the people will have taxes to pay. I cannot promise to relieve them of their obligations to the government. I would be only one of the three commissioners, after all. But I pledge myself to equalize the property valuations and to reduce the taxation as far as I can.

There are thirteen candidates for the office of County Commissioner. As the law requires the names to be arranged on the ballot alphabetically so, I believe, for the Good Book says, "The last shall be first!"

Thanking you for the interest you have shown in my candidacy, and the assurances of support you have given me, I remain, Yours for service, FRANK D. WALTZ.

CHANGE OF TIMETABLE, ERIE RAILROAD.

Will be effective Sunday, Oct. 1, 1911. Train 290 (old Train 30) will leave Honesdale 8:22 a. m.; train 292 (connection of Train 2) will leave Honesdale 2:53 p. m. For further changes procure new folders September 30 from local agents.

Vote For E. C. Mumford FOR NOMINATION FOR THE JUDGESHIP.

The Man Who Has Always Stood For, With and By the People of Wayne County.

In all suits in the courts where the county of Wayne has been defendant or interested, Mr. Mumford has always been for the county and also in all cases of appeals wherein the people of Wayne county were interested he has always been with, defended and won for the taxpayers, all of which are matters of record.

Regarding him the Scranton Tribune-Republican published the following sketch:

When one wanders through Central park at Honesdale the most imposing and impressive object that attracts attention is the Soldiers' monument with its tablets of bronze, perpetuating the names of Wayne county boys who laid down their lives that "government of the people, for the people and by the people should not perish from the earth."

E. C. MUMFORD, Republican Candidate For Judge of Wayne County.

OLIVER—OLIVER WEDDING.

At the hour of nine on the evening of Monday, Sept. 25, Theron Oliver of Damascus, and Edna Oliver of Tyler Hill were united in marriage by Rev. R. D. Minch at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Oliver. Rev. F. E. Moyer, M. E. pastor at Damascus, had been engaged to perform the nuptial ceremonies but, not being acquainted with the windings of the public thoroughfare between the two cities mentioned above, lost his way on the road and finally arrived just in time to see the knot tied by the Baptist minister.

The wedding guests were treated to a bounteous repast served by the bride's mother. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Luther Oliver, parents of the groom; Florence Oliver, a sister of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. John S. Oliver, grandparents of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Buchanan, also grandparents of the bride; Mrs. Richard Oliver, a great-aunt of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Oliver, the bride's parents; Rev. R. D. Minch, officiating clergyman; Rev. and Mrs. F. E. Moyer; Bessie Marks and Laura Pollock, friends of the bride.

The most respected young men, and is employed in the mercantile establishment of A. G. Gregg, Damascus. The bride is a very popular young lady, and for the past two winters has successfully taught the Tammany district school. Both carry with them the best wishes of everyone in both villages. They will reside the coming winter in the home of Mrs. Ella Snyder, which is one of Damascus' many beautiful residences.

KELLAM & BRAMAN.

[Special to The Citizen.] KELLAM & BRAMAN, Pa., Sept. 28.—Everyone is very busy filling their silos. D. M. Stalker has a new harvester which cuts and binds and they all think it will be a great saving of labor.

Miss Emma Woolheater spent Saturday and Sunday with her sister in Union.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Denio, Equinunk, visited at D. M. Stalker's last Saturday.

Mrs. David Stalker, Sr., Mrs. D. M. Stalker, Clyde, Edith and Emma Stalker spent last Sunday at Peckville.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bloom are happy by the arrival of a son, Harold Clinton, on Sept. 7.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Murray visited their sister, Mrs. McCabe, at Long Eddy, last Saturday and Sunday.

Maggie Murray, who has spent some time at her home and with her brother, caring for the sick, returned to Hancock last Sunday.

W. Scott Conklin is the proud owner of an auto.

We were visited by quite a respectable-looking party of gypsies who stayed over night by the Kellam bridge on the New York side. Everyone should be wide awake when they are around wanting to tell fortunes as they succeeded in getting $1.25 from the pocket of one young man while busy talking to him.

Mrs. Frederick Schneider, of Basket, visited her cousin, Mrs. John Bloom, recently.

The Ladies' Aid will meet with Mrs. Lydia Cole, October 5.

TO THE REPUBLICAN VOTERS OF WAYNE COUNTY:

Frank D. Waltz, of Newfoundland, is a candidate for the office of County Commissioner at the primary to be held Saturday, September 30. Mr. Waltz is one of the best-known business men in the southern end of the county. He is not a professional office-seeker, never before asking for, nor holding any county office.

He is well qualified to fill the office for which his friends in both parties urged him to run. He has had considerable experience in building and contracting. The P. O. S. of A. building at Newfoundland, and a number of other structures were erected under his supervision. He is also familiar with bridge construction and cement work.

The Republican voters in casting their votes for Mr. Waltz will make no mistake in so doing, for he is a man of exemplary personal habits and sterling business integrity and ability. A FRIEND.

For Prothonotary, JOHN N. SHARPSTEEN. X
