WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 11, 1911.

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

- Congressman, W. D. B. AINEY.
- President Judge, HON. ALONZO T. SEARLE.
- District Attorney, M. E. SIMONS.
- Prothonotary, WALLACE J. BARNES.
- Register and Recorder, W. B. LESHNER.
- Commissioners, JOHN MALE, EARL ROCKWELL.
- Sheriff, THOMAS Y. BOYD.
- Treasurer, W. W. WOOD.
- For Auditors, W. O. AVERY, LEROY GILPIN.
- For Coroner, P. B. PETERSON.

According to the Wayne County Herald the enthusiasm displayed at the recent meeting of the candidates "showed that the Democratic party is very much alive, and that they will present a united front to the Republicans from now on until the election." Well they ought to. They all live in Honesdale, with one exception, so it ought to be comparatively easy for them to get together with that "solid front" thing. But when it comes to election time, it will be seen whether the county supports a ticket representing Honesdale or a ticket, such as the Republican ticket, which represents the entire county.

FIRST WIRELESS MESSAGE ACROSS THE PACIFIC.

Wireless communication between San Francisco and Japan, a distance of 6000 miles, was established last week. It was the first time that a wireless message has been received across the Pacific Ocean.

When the operator at Hillcrest station caught the signals he made them out to be the call for the Chive Maru, a steamer that was due Friday at Honolulu. He answered the signal and learned that the call came from the Japanese wireless station on Hokuishu Island, in the northern part of the Japanese Archipelago. The operators exchanged messages for some time. And yet they used to say that Marconi was crazy.

PICKPOCKETS AND FAIRS.

A gang of pickpockets reaped a rich harvest last week at the Columbia county fair which was held at Bloomsburg. Reported losses will reach $2000, none of which was recovered. R. M. Lashellee, of Philadelphia, lost $600 in checks and a large amount in cash. A policeman was standing on a principal street when he felt a hand in his pocket. Making a quick grab, he caught the hand. He knocked the man down, but in a rush for a car the crowd separated the officer and the pickpocket, and the latter made his escape. It would seem that the county seat of Columbia might profit by observing how the county seat of Wayne keeps such undesirables away from its fairs.

THE SERIOUS SIDE OF THE HOBBLE SKIRT.

There has been much fun poked at the so-called "hobble skirt" since its advent in the realm of Fashion that any serious remark made concerning it is subject to constant repetition in order to produce effect. That it has become a serious proposition with manufacturers, however, is shown by the fact that the French Chamber of Commerce is being urged by makers of cloth to take some action with a view to having designers make changes in their models. Everyone knows that much less cloth is used in making this peculiar style of dress and the difference is so great that many warehouses in France are piled full of finished material which cannot be sold for the price of the raw stuff. The result is that work has been scarce for spinners and even the dyers are now suffering. Besides all this, undergarments, such as undershirts that can't find room in a hobble, have been discarded. The market for these is also over-stocked. Just what can be done about it is not clear, but the manufacturers seem convinced that some change will have to be made.

PENNSYLVANIANS TO GET SHARE OF $180,000,000 ESTATE

Claiming title to a $180,000,000 estate left by the famous Dutch General, Paul Wertz, who died in Amsterdam in 1732, two hundred descendants of the general residing in the United States met in Illinois for the purpose of devising a plan of presenting their case to the government of the Netherlands. The meeting continued three days. Mrs. Estelle Ryan Snyder, of Chicago, read a paper, entitled "The Wertz Family—Their History as far as known." Mrs. Snyder said:

"We have a most convincing claim to present. I have a plan to propose whereby a working fund will be accumulated to be spent by the eleven lawyers among the heirs in waiting on the Dutch Government and pushing our claim.

"A majority of heirs who are now meeting for the first time come from Pennsylvania, by reason of the fact that Jacob Wertz, son of the rich old general, settled in that State."

Seems to us that $180,000,000 will go quite a ways even when divided among 200 descendants. Let's see—it's only a trifle like $900,000 apiece that the Pennsylvania heirs will bring back with them. Ought to be able to worm along on that for a while, hadn't they?

VOTEISMS.

Vote a straight Republican ticket. Wayne county is represented on the Republican ballot. Honesdale on the Democratic.

If you want your party to win, stand by it to a man. Don't give up the fight in the eve of victory.

The Republicans of dear old Wayne stood by their colors at the primary election. If the vote is as solid in November and there is no reason for it not being so, there will be a clean sweep.

"VOTE."

Vote for men who are honest and true. Vote for men who are labeled "true blue"; Men who have tested in sorrow and joy. Whom the lusts of office cannot destroy; Men who will stand by promises made— Men unbiased and never afraid. To raise their voice to the highest note In defence of right—for such men vote.

THE VOTE FOR JUDGE IN BRADFORD.

Five thousand, one hundred and two voters in Bradford county cast a tie vote for the Republican nomination for the office of judge, according to the official canvass of the ballot, completed Friday afternoon. The contestants are William Maxwell and Judge A. C. Fanning, who is at present the county judge.

The first count showed that Maxwell was a winner by nine votes. Then the semi-official returns made from the outside return sheets showed that Fanning had won by five votes. Thursday afternoon it was found that the Troy district has returned officially forty-nine votes for Fanning, while the tally sheets showed that he had actually received only forty-four votes.

The law provides that the two contestants are to cast lots in the presence of the secretary of the Commonwealth.

GAME PLENTIFUL.

All kinds of game, according to State Game Protector Kalbfus, will be more plentiful this year, in Pennsylvania than they have been for years and the hunting season promises to be good.

"Quail," said Dr. Kalbfus, "are very plentiful except in the south-eastern counties, where the close cultivation has driven them out. Pheasants are numerous. In fact, the wardens, berry pickers and others who have been out in the woods in different parts of the State say they are frequently discovered in groups instead of only in pairs as pheasants usually are found.

"Wild turkeys are first rate and deer are in greater number than they have been for many years. Bears are reported to be numerous, also squirrels are fairly plentiful and rabbits seem to be everywhere."

The Game Commission has already experienced some trouble in enforcing the game laws.

ARRIVED LAST WEEK.

A son of Charles Dickens and a godson of Alfred Tennyson, in the person of Alfred Tennyson Dickens, arrived in Boston last week on the steamer Cymric from Liverpool. Mr. Dickens was in America in 1842, and during his tour he found much to criticize directly in his "American Notes" and indirectly in "Martin Chuzzlewit." Like his father, the younger Dickens is here to lecture. There is something in his appearance which will recall the elder, and although he has not the beard nor the flashing eyes, the prominent brow and the strong chin, he has the same simple and unassuming ways of his father. Alfred Dickens has spent most of his life in Australia, going there at the age of 20.

The result of the recent primaries shows that the Republicans of Wayne county are unanimous in wishing to see Judge A. T. Searle elected and we trust the disappointed ones will not on election day put like naughty boys because they didn't get things their way and cast their vote for the opposite party. Judge Searle is the man we want.

George Kimble, Honesdale, and daughter, Mrs. Box, Seelyville, spent Sunday at Marion Brown's. "The Other House," a story of Mormon life, which was in the Sept. and Oct. Delinator, should be read by everyone. It quite dissolves the old theory that innocence is bliss.

DREHER.

(Special to The Citizen.)

DREHER, Pa., Oct. 10.—Out of a possible one hundred and seventy voters in this township there were one hundred and fifty voted at the primary on Saturday. Everybody was peaceably inclined and no occasion to call on a peace officer to keep order. With telephone in connection with the county seat and nearly every section of country, there is no reason why those who failed in being of the chosen few should not know their doom. Blessed are they that mourn, etc.

(Special to The Citizen.)

STERLING, Pa., Oct. 10.—Well, an exciting primary is over and now we will fall to see the many smiling faces in the county papers and the humble smokers will miss the politician's cigars of which there has been a super-abundance. On September 30 was the last day to pay taxes and get a rebate, but we are pleased to say that, notwithstanding they were unusually high, the most of the folks were able to meet them.
