1181

		Ser	ni-V	Veekly	y Four	ided 19	08;	We	ekly F	our	ided 184-	4.	100
P	ubli	shed V	Ved	nesda,	ys and	Fridays	ı by	the	Citizer	P	ublishing	Con	npany.
	E	ntered	8.8	secon	d-class	matter,	at	the	postoff	ice.	Honesda	le, l	28.
E. B. J.	В. Н. М.	WITH	IER	BEE						M	ANAGIN SSOCIAT	GE	DITO
-			-	1	ALLEN	DIRE	CTO1		fur all		INBERGH.		w. we

Our friends who favor us with contributions, and desire wrned, should in every case enclose stamps for that purpose. and desire to have the same re

TERMS

Remit by Express Money Order, Draft, Post Office Order or Registered tter. Address all communications to The Citizen, No. 803 Main street, letter. Honesdale, Pa.

All notices of shows, or other entertainments held for the purpose of making money or any items that contain advertising matter, will only be admitted to this paper on payment of regular advertising rates. Notice of entertainments for the benefit of churches or for charitable purposes where a fee is charged, will be published at half rates. Cards of thanks, 50 cents, memorial poetry and resolutions of respect will be charged for at the rate of a cent a word. Advertising rates on application.

The policy of the The Citizen is to print the local news in an interesting manner, to summarize the news of the world at large, to fight for the right as this paper sees the right, without fear or favor to the end that it may serve the best interests of its readers and the welfare of the county.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 20, 1911.

SOME ACHIEVEMENTS IN IGNORANCE.

Gen. Barry's report concerning the deficient education of many candidates examined for admission to West Point Military Academy is interesting from more than one point of view. These young men were not taken at hazard from the mass of their fellows, nor were they merely young men of average ability. Each of them had been selected and chosen as a nominee for a cadetship. Each of them had presumably prepared for the examination he knew awaited him. Yet many of them disclosed a degree of ignorance concerning history and literature that could hardly be surpassed among illiterates.

One of these aspirants for West Point stated that Lee and Stonewall Jackson had fought at Princeton and Trenton, another that the battle of Waterloo was fought between "Nepolican" and "Wellingford." Of Mason and Dixon's line it was said it "divides Maryland from Georgia. Among the "most important writers of the nineteenth century" were included "Effer Wheeler Wilcox, Elbert Huggard, Jack London and Dorothy Dix."

We believe that any scholar in any advanced grade in any school in Wayne county could have done a great deal better than these young men. Don't you?

THE BEAUTIFUL ISLE OF SOMEWHERE.

It is not surprising to learn that the hymn "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere," although sharply criticised by Governor Woodrow Wilson, is well liked by almost every member of the Tarrytown church which Mr. John D. Rockefeller attends. There is scarcely a human being of any imagination whatever who does not dream at times of some far off country where life is as it ought to be.

The loafer dreams of a land of unlimited drink and no opportunities for work. In the school boy's Beautiful Isle there will be neither teachers nor studies, but in their place perpetual base ball, coasting and swimming. In this land, too, there will be plenty of smaller boys for teasing purposes-" ducking " in the swimming season and snowballing in winter. In the maiden's Beautiful Isle life will be one perpetual matinee, eked out by fine clothes, chocolates, ice cream soda and the agreeable companionship of youth of the other sex.

It would be hard indeed to find outside of the State of New Jersey, which must be a Beautiful Isle itself, any one opposed to the spirit of this delightful hymn.

WHAT EDISON SAW.

Mr. Edison returns delighted to be home again and with the conviction that no foreign land can compare with America. He found several with America. He found several things in Europe better than the corresponding things in this country and is frank to tell us of them. First among the matters of his commendation are the highways of France. "I travelled over more than, 2,000 miles of French roads," said he, "and less than three miles were bad. There was not a rut more than two inches deep." It is doubtful if two increased eep. It is abubtful if he can find three consecutive miles of good road in this country of a mile in this city that has not more than one rut in it two inches deep.

But Germany made the deepest impression on his mind and excited his warmest admiration. It is the land where organized enterprise has been carried to its highest excellence. "The whole empire," said he, "is being electrified." He cites the case of one of his former "Newark boys" who has now in Germany charge of 60,000 men. "Germany," he said, " has a million factories and is building more. When a German sells $100 worth of goods they weigh about thirty pounds. When a Frenchman sells $100 worth they weigh 400 pounds. When an Eng-lishmen sells $100 worth they weigh half a ton." That means that the Germans deal largely in chemi-cal products and other highly concentrated values and sell little raw But it must be taken as a material. rhetorical rather than a mathematical statement. The one respect in which we have the industries of Europe outclassed, says Mr. Edison, is machinery. He found the Germans filling their factories with it, but the French neg-ligent and backward. "We are compelled," he said, "to improve our machinery all the time because we are all the time changing." The The high cost of labor, compelling con-stant change, may be in this respect a national advantage .- New York World.

English language in which the great law had been written common not good enough to use in connection with so weak a case, etc., etc. The Scranton humorist evidently forgot that Mr. Greene had the closing ar-But such was the fact, and gument. before that argument was concluded the Honesdale lawyer and poet got back at his adversary in the following fashion:

" My learned friend has seen fit to criticise me for using a French phrase in my paper-book argument. He has evidently forgotten that he fought vigorously in the court be-low, and has fought just as vigorously in this court for what? for a judgment non obstante veredicto. Now if he may go to a dead language for weapons with which to fight his case I certainly may be permitted to go to a very live one." The learned judges of the Court smiled broadly, miss it to such an extent bring about severe mental depresitself a powerful cause of premature old age. Such a person may indulge in a moderate amount of red meat if he will only take care to avoid the rich portions. "For the young, on the other hand, such foods are excelent, as they provide the very important phosphorus, and are much superior to the vegetables supplying albumin, such as spinach and peas. Al-coholic drinks undoubtedly are prejudicial to continued youthfulness, but a mild claret, in moderation, is useful to the middle-aged. The im-moderate use of tobacco is also a cause of degeneration of heart and arteries.

"For many reasons marriage is counseled to those who would live long. To help the skin and kidneys, baths, especially vapor baths, are excellent. Wool is advised for under-wear in winter, a loose mesh cotton for summer. Black bread should for summer. Black bread should replace the fine white bread at the well-to-do, the latter being rather a form of pastry than a real bread. Regular and sufficiently prolonged sleep is a precious aid to longevity.

AN OBJECT LESSON.

In this time of demand for compulsory Sunday observance, an ob-ject lesson may be found in the fact that there are in this country more than one hundred thousand Christions who observe the seventh-day Sabbath, and their number is constantly increasing. They are scatter-ed throughout every state in the union, and live in the cities, in the towns, and in the country districts. The day which they observe as the Sabbath has become the busiest day of the week in the commercial world, and they are surrounded by those pursuing their ordinary that day. When they go to who are work on that day. their places of worship their eyes necessarily behold what they regard as a desecration of a holy day, and their ears are saluted with the hum of secular industry. They would be glad to have all observe the Sabbath "according to the commandment," and thus honor the Creator, but they never have asked, and never will ask, for legislative enactment which would compel those to pay an out-ward regard to this day. They must be fully convinced by their own consciences that they ought to keep it holy. They simply ask to be left free to observe the day of their choice without being fined either di-rictly or indirectly, without being compelled to pay a fine in money into the state treasury or to pay a fine in the way of loss of time by en-forced idleness upon a day which the Scriptures designates as a working day,-and they freely concede to others the civil right to work on the seventh day of the week and to rest on another day if they choose to do so, or to refuse to observe any day as the Sabbath.

Now if such a body of Christian observers of the seventh day of the week can be developed in this coun-try by the power of conscientious conviction alone, in the face of all those circumstances which the advocates of Sunday observance regard as so fatal to their cause, is it not apparent that no Christian institu-tion needs the support of the civil power? We commend this object lesson to the consideration of those who are claiming that what they de-signate as "the Christian Sabbath" will perish from the earth unless they can secure the passage of laws to protect and preserve it.

CANDY WAS ADULTERATED.

Four manufacturing firms which sent candy into the State under a guarantee that it complied with the laws were last week forced to withdraw their goods from sale, chem-ists' reports to Dairy and Food Commissioner James Foust having demonstrated that the candy was adulterated

Over 200 samples of candles were taken in various parts of the State this Fall and the chemical tests showed five in all were not up to the In one case a

HAWLEY.

Special to The Citizen.i Hawley, Pa., Oct. 19,

Harry Butler has resigned his position as operator of the moving icture machine at the Hippodrome.

Henry Rose has taken his place. The base ball season has closed with us. The local team this season was one of the best that Hawley has ever had. Then won fourteen games; lost four, and one was a tie. The faculty of the Hawley school report a profitable as well as an en-joyable time at the Wayne County Teachers' association which they at-tended at Newfoundland on October 6 and 7

As has been announced the Rev. E. M. Stephenson, D. D., of Lewis-burg, Pa., will deliver an address on Sunday school work in the Baptist church next Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. He will also speak at 7:30 in the evening. The different congregations will unite to hear the able divine.

Theodore Distler is putting in a steam heating aparatus in the home of Miles Wilds on the hill. The Oschman brothers furnished music for the "Miller-Finkelstein" nuptials which took place at the home of the bride at Lakeville on Tuesday afternoon. Carrie Ketchel, Emma. Collum and many other friends of this place were present. There were 50 invitations sent out. The bride is one of Hawley's very popular young business woman, hav-ing conducted a clothing store on Main avenue for several years. The happy couple left Wednesday morn-hands of the painters. T. F. Wall is having built a garage back of his house on Penn nue. George Tuthill and Grant Williams are doing the work. John Glass is doing some repair-Mark Killaim, Salem, was doing business in town on Tuesday. The funeral of Mrs. Carl Roecker took place on Tuesday afternoon at her home on Church street. Rev. Rudolf Lucas, pastor of the German Lutheran chuch, of which she was a member, was the officiating clergy-man. She belonged to the order of Pocahontas which order had charge of the burial services which took place in Walnut Grove cemetery. The floral tributes were beautiful and many

GOULDSBORO. [Special to The Citizen.]

Gouldsboro, Pa., Oct. 19. Fred Rhodes, Charles Messrs.

Roth, Ralph Adams, Harry and Ira Sebring, James, Edgar and Maurice Dowling, Job Moore, Prof. Siep, David Ellenberger, John Fahey, Wm. possessor of a very faithful watch dog, but he says the dog was certain-Fahey, Wm. Bouie, Philip LaBarre and Arthur Hauck attended the ly bribed one night last week as he chained him up close to the chicken coop door, instructing him before re-tiring to keep both eyes peeled for World's series at Scranton. E. F. Sebring and Richard Heffer-man attended the championship games at Philadelphia and New intruders, but on going out last Thursday morning to feed his poultry six of his choicest Plymouth Rock chicks were gone. He says he knows the dog was bribed with sev-eral pounds of beefsteak as he didn't care to eat the rest of the week. Mr. Rollison is a very good detective and Mrs. S. S. Hager was the guest of her son, Dr. A. Hager, at Taylor on Tuesday.

York Mrs. L. G. Smith, of Easton, is spending some time with her moth-er, Mrs. E. Staples.

says he smelt chicken pie inside of the borough limits the day following Harry A. Morgan, who has been quite sick, was taken to his home in Scranton on Tuesday. the raid on his chicken coop. He awaiting his chance to get even.

Frank Hollenback has purchased through Mr. Tennant's agent, J. E. Haley, the old Perry homestead here at Steene. On Saturday Mr. and Mrs. James Crooks entertained at dinner Misses Florence Keesler, Madge Edwards, Francis Newell and Anna Dowling, Don't forget to give W. W. Wood a lift at the coming election as we the occasion being the fifteenth birthday of their daughter, Helen. M. S. Heller of Binghamton, N. are sure that he knows how to han-dle money and do it honestly. Y., spent the first of the week with his mother, Mrs. Susan Heller. Mr. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chapman, Wilkes-Barre, visited Saturday and Heller expects to leave for Detroit Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. in a few weeks where he will enter business. Short here.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wardell, of Scranton, are the guests of her par-ents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Moore. ed his sister, Mrs. John Short, here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Baker, Mrs. Allce guests of Mrs. G. G. Smith and Mrs. Susan Heller the first of the week. Mr. and Mrs. Benj. Henry spent Saturday and Sunday with Mrs. Foster and mother here. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hambly of spent Sunday w onesda tle.

vice will be "A Square Deal For Every Man." The services will be conducted by the pastor, Rev. S. Tolley. C. E. Woodmansee paid a business visit to North Carolina last week, returning on Saturday.

> STERLING. [Special to The Citizen.]

Sterling, Pa., Oct. 19. We had several bright, fine days at week and a number improved it by threshing buckwheat. Mrs. L. T. Catterson has been quite sick for some time past and last week she left for Burlington, N. J., to see if she could not get some medical help. Mrs. Mary C. Skelton does not improve

On the 11th the Ladies' Aid met at the church for dinner and a few Decant hours were passed. On the evening of the 13th a num-ber of Willard McLain's young friends met to help him celebrate his young birthday and everybody appeared to enjoy the occasion.

not startle the subject, and likew produce a soft, well graduated ne tive. As the Eastman Flash She may be had in three different si

For Amateur Eastman Kodaks 🖁 Filn

Eastman Chemicals

CHARLESWORTH The Photographer Opposite City Hall

Honesdale

SCRANTON LIFE INSURANCE COMPAN James S. McAnulty, Pres' Scranton, Pa., Oct. 3, 1911. Mr. W. W. Wood, Honesdale, Pa.

John My dear Mr. Wood:

It gives me pleasure a gratification to state that in r association with you as Gener Manager of the National E vator and Machine Compar of which Company I was t Treasurer, covering a period intimate business association nearly ten years, I found you be a man of character and tegrity. During that perithere passed through yo hands approximately A MI LION AND A HALF DO LARS, and in the final audit your accounts EVER PENNY WAS PROPERL ACCOUNTED FOR - t books showing an excellent sy tem in the keeping of the counts, thus indicating not on your trustworthiness in handling of the funds of Company, but your ability the supervision of the detail

For some time past Mary Robacker has been living at Bethlehem and tested. she and her sister, Helen, and brother, George, accompanied by Mrs. Viola Smith intended to make a visit at Harton T. Noble's at Elington, Conn., and they all did go except lead all others. Ask or send for free co of the new Kodak catalog and booklets.

The Bodie Studie

Mary, when word was received she was very ill and died suddenly on the 11th and was interred at South Sterling on the 14th. Rev. W. E. Webster officiated at her old home at H. H. Robacker's. The suddenness of her death seems to solve and ditional sorrow to the occasion and of her death seems to add ad-

one can easily secure sufficient for all subjects, and when used the Eastman Flash Sheet Hol they afford the safest and most venient method of flash illuminat

THE AMATEUR PHOTOGRAPHE

There is no end to the possib ties in picture making by flashlig When daylight is employed as means of illumination you must to your light as you find it, and position of your subject is confit units of the second limits.

within certain limits. With flashlight you are subject no such limitations, as an expos may be made at any time, and subject placed wherever you may sire

Flashlight may also be used as adjunct to daylight in illuminat dark corners in any interior wo

The same rules regarding light and posing with daylight h good with flashlight, and any who can produce successful work daylight should succeed equally w with flashlight

Mrs. Victoria Noble of Tracyville, with flashlight. Employ whenever possible Eastman Flash Sheets, as they quire about one second to consur-affording a broad soft light that d is spending a few days with her brother, Albert E. Bortree, and re-newing old acquaintances in town.

Susan Cross is teaching school at Moscow but is now spending a couple of days at home.

Freeman H. Cross removed to Scranton last week, I. G. Simons and C. Skelton each carting over a load all sympathize with the afflicted

STEENE.

[Special to The Citizen]

Louis Rollison of Prompton is the Steene, Pa., Oct. 19.

Plymouth

He i of furniture. Henry Musgrove's sale was sud-denly called off on the 12th, he hav-ing very unexpectedly sold his farm to William E. Haffer of Jericho. We happy couple left wednesday mori-ing for a bridal trip to Washington, D. C. Congratulations. Wm. Quinney's handsome resi-dence on Church street is in the

our new neighbors and say bless them and all the chickens they can raise! [Chickens, we are informed, is to be one of the principal cropsand all chickens have crops.

friends.

MR. GREENE WON.

Homer Greene, the author of the famous poem, 'What My Lover Said," and other equally charming bits of verse, as well as a half dozen or more volumes of popular fiction, lives in Honesdale, Pa. Besides be-ing a writer of note he is one of the leading lawyers of his section of the state, and, like most aggressive law-yers, is not slow at repartee. He was recently arguing an important case before the Supreme Court of his state at Philadelphia. It was a case in which a judgment non obstante veredicto had been refused in the court below, and his opponent was pressing for a like judgment in the higher court. In his printed argument in the paper-book Mr. Greene had made use of the expression: "The raison d' etra of this entire case," etc. His adversary, a well-known and brillant Scranton lawyer, desiring to poke a little fun at Mr. Greene, called the attention of the Court, somewhat safe castically, to the fact that his learn-ed friend from Honesdale had seen fit to incorporate in his paper-book argument a French phrase, as if the

the company of listening lawyers laughed audibly and the talented lawyer from Scranton began to regret his humorous sally. But Mr. Greene was not yet done. Having plunged his weapon into his adversary's bit of sarcastic humor he proceeded to turn it in this wise: "Moreover, having searched the English language carefully for a phrase which would fittingly describe the conduct of my learned friend's client in this case, and having failed to find one—at least one that I would dare to repeat in the presence would dare to repeat in the presence of this Honorable Court—I was, of necessity, driven to the use of a lan-guage which is both rich and re-spectable in its terms of reproach." A shout of laughter went up from the listening lawyers, the solemn and black-robed judges on the bench chuckled gleefully, and one of them, Mr. Justice Elkin, than whom no one in Pennsylvania better appreci-ates a joke, said: "I suppose you thought it necessary, Mr. Greene, to use a phrase that the Irishman on the bench could readily understand." Mr. Green eventually won his case.

WARDING OFF OLD AGE.

A goodly heritage of health is of high importance to longevity but ob-viously it cannot enter into the pos-sible prescriptions of the physicians. The lucky inheritor of sound organs has little need of doctors and is able to enjoy himself and eat whatever he will, in some measure in de-fiance of all the rules laid down for the benefit of less fortunate mor-tals. But for all those who are anxious to live to a good old age and be reasonably healthy and happy, the New York Medical Journal gives a few rules; which, although some-what technical in some lines, are of considerable value and interest to the general reader:

"In order to ward off old age we should pay particular attention to the healthy work of the glandular system. It is wise, therefore, to cut down the supply of red meat, once a day being often enough to indulge in that food, and to replace it with white meats, especially fish. Eggs milk, cheese and vegetables form the best diet.

standards required. Pennsylvania manufacturer was sued and fined, his wares being taken off the market immediately af-ter, but in the other four instances, all of which occurred in Allegheny county it was found that merchants were selling goods under a guarantee from the makers that it would be in accord with the State laws. merchants were not arrested, but were required to ship all the candy back to the factory. When the makback to the factory. When the mak-ers got wind of the conditions they withdrew the stuff.

UNNATURAL DROWSINESS.

Don't yawn. Next time you feel sleepy open the window. Go into a warm room after a brisk walk in the autumn wind. You feel sleepy. Usually you blame it on the air. You are right. It is the air-but the inside air, not the outside air that is to blame.

Outside air is fresh, and has plenty of oxygen. It makes the heart beat rapidly. The blood rushes through your arteries. You feel through your arteries. You feel wide awake. Inside the windows are closed. Perhaps the fire is burning. This and other people in the room use up the oxygen. You have to breathe stale air. Soon the heart is beating slowly. You become

Is beating slowly. You become drowsy, sleepy, yawny. You feel the beginning of a headache. Then throw open the window and see how soon the fresh air will wake you. Draughts won't hurt you unless you are overheated or rundown. you are overheated or rundown. To have the air blowing about you meants that it is fresh. Pneumonia, consumption and colds breed in un-ventilated rooms. So throw open your windows just as often as pos-sible if you want to keep well and be wide awake. wide awake.

TO CLEAN OILCLOTH.

Never use soap on oilcloth. Wash olicloth with a sponge and cold wa-ter and polish with a flannel. To improve the color and repolish when dim, beeswax and turpentine mixed and well rubbed in very sparingly, will be found to greatly improve and restore both the coloring and restore moothness of surface.

We print neat calling cards, We print candidates' cards.

spending some time in Philadelphia as the guests of their daughter, Mrs Herman Hutt.

William Henry recently underwent an operation on his foot at a Scranton hospital and is doing well. Mrs. Henry has returned home.

EQUINUNK.

[Special to The Citizen.]

Equinunk, Pa., Oct. 19. The Citizen is a welcome visitor to many homes in our village. It is newsy and up to date.

The Honorable and venerable W. Nelson passed his 85th birthday M. on Saturday last. He is well pre-served and entertaining in conversation and having reached the over-looking mountain of life's journey can look back over the past with pleasure and across the valley with delightful anticipations of the fut ure.

John Ewens, who has a nice farm on the south branch, is seriously ill at the home of his wife in this vill-age. His present wife was formerly age. His present wife was formerly Mrs. Smith who has been engaged for years in the mercantile business. The Ladies' Aid society will meet with Mrs. Ludwig on Thursday for dinner.

The ladies of the Methodist Episcopal church are busy preparing for their fair which is to be held in the Sunday school room of the church on Wednesday, October 25. The Hon. W. E. Woodmansee, of Lake Como, has been a welcome visitor at the home of his son for sever-al days. The appearance of Mr. Woodmansee on our streets throws the mind back to the time when Wayne county was ably, honestly and intelligently represented in the and intelligently represented in the Senate by the Hon. W. M. Nelson and in the Assembly by Mr. Wood-mansee. The former was a Demo-craf, twice elected Senator in a strong Republican district. Glanville, the little son of Dr. and Mrs. Frisble, who has been very sick, is improving nicely. Mrs. Bedford Binchamton is next

Mrs. Bedford, Binghamton, is pay-ing a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Lloyd. The former is confined to her room by illness.

Sunday next is Rally Day in the M. E. church. Holy Communion will be administered at the morning ser-vice. Subject for the evening ser-

Bobolink and mate

LAKEVILLE.

William Webley of Scranton visit-

Mrs. Ray Foster, of Carbondale,

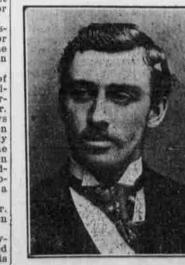

[Special to The Citizen.] Lakeville, Pa., Oct. 19

The Rally Day services at Arling-ton last Sunday was postponed at the last moment by the committee owing to the bad weather. There was a great deal of disappointment in consequence but the committee hope that the friends will rally round them on Sunday next, at Arlington, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon when we hope the weatherman will send us fine weather so that this service may be given. Everybody is most affec-tionately invited. There will be preaching service in the evening at Paupack at 7:30 on Sunday, Oct. 22.

We print letter heads. We print bill heads, We print envelopes, We print circulars.

For County Commissioner

EARL ROCKWELL. ARIEL, PA.

Contractor Cancrete Farmer and Builder.

its affairs. Very truly yours, (Signed)

J. S. McANULTY.

Clean Up You Stomach

And Gas, Sourness, Dizziness, Hea aches and Bad Dreams Will Go.

If you really want a clean, swe pure stomach, free from gas, sou ness and distress, go to G. W. Pel to-day and get a 50-cent box of M O-NA Stomach Tablets.

O-NA Stomach Tablets. Take these little tablets accordi to directions, and if at the end of week you are not brighter, strong and more vigorous, just say so a get your money back. For heaviness after eating, eru tation, hearthurn and that distress tation, heartburn and that distress feeling, MI-O-NA Stomach Table will give relief in five minutes. Large box of MI-O-NA STOMAC TABLETS, 50 cents at G. W. Pei and druggists everywhere.

-The Citizen from now until Ja uary, only 25 cents.