-CENT-A-WORD

20.

ship

$38,000.

17th inclusive.

-The Pike County

-A marriage license was granted, Monday, to Anthony Boos and Miss Grace Kellogg, both of Salem town-

-State Highway Commissioner Bigelow has appointed Willis Whited of Pittsburg, engineer of bridges at one was brought down with a single

The boys of Company E

-Mayor Kniffen, of Wilkes-Barre,

-Attention, Veterans! A regular

-The fololwing advertised letters

Donlan, of Dunmore, on Fri-meeting of Capt. James Ham Post, No. 198, G. A. R., will be held on Friday, Nov. 3. Nominations of offi-cers for the coming year, annual in-spection, and camp fire as usual.

mately meet with success.

M. B. Donlan, of day morning last.

will

FOR SALE.

SALE-ON SATURDAY PUBLIC Nov. 4, at one o'clock p. m., two horses, one yearling colt, nine sheep, two cows, one two-year-old, one yearling, farming implements, etc. Terms—All sums of $10 and under security. Mrs. C. H. Smith, Indian Orchard, near Grange Hall.

HOUSE AND LOT AT 1407 MAIN street, Honesdale, for sale. Black walnut bedroom suit also for sale. Inquire of Bentley Bros., opposite postoffice. 87eitf.

 S.600 per year.
 —H. P. Van Auken, of East Stroudsburg, killed five fine black ducks last week near his home. Each PORTABLE BUILDINGS FOR ALL s-bungalows, garages, cot -all ready to set up, for shot. tages, etc.—all ready to set up, for sale by M. F. Dorin, the real estate man, Honesdale. Write for illus-trated catalogue. 1t tages, etc.

FOR SALE-THE LATE MRS. S. M. Decker's dwelling situated at the corner of Court and Eleventh streets Inuire of E. C. Mumford, Honesdale, conduct a series of dances at the armory the week of Teachers' In-stitute. This floor is the finest in this next of the series or W. E. Perham, Pleasant Mount, Pa. this part of the state.

MISCELLANEOUS.

hadn't paid any taxes since 1907 un-til the other day he squared up by paying some $950. Criticism caused him to act it is stated. FARM FOR RENT- LOCATED near Cajaw Pond, 15 acres; house and barn. Inquire on premises or Fred Coyne, Honesdale. 1t

HOUSE FOR RENT ON BELLE-monte Avenue, Hawley. Mrs. 86t2e1 Breithaupt.

OOM remain uncalled for at the Hones-tove-E. Dexter, Andrew Schimmell, Levi Schoonover, William Sherwood, H. J. Stallings. M. B. Allen, Postmas-FOR RENT-TWO FIVE-ROOM tenements with modern improveents on Eleventh street. J. Richmond.

WHEN IN NEED OF CARRIAGES | ter. and sleighs don't forget E. T. --Work is progressing quite rap-smith, 1120 Church street, who has idly at the Hallstead oil well, the the largest assortment in the largest assortment in Wayne county to select from. 75tf HORSE POWER IN GOOD CONDI-tion. Will sell for $25.00 Mur-Wayne

Mur-Will sell for $25.00. tion. ray Co., Honesdale, Pa. 85t2.

ALL REPAIR WORK finished up-todate in all our different branches. Sommer, Jeweler and Optician. 39tf

WANTED- FIRST-CLASS MAN TO take charge of acid room, at once. Keystone Cut Glass Co.

THREE experienced workmen at the bench daily. All repairs finished at the shortest notice. Sommer, Jeweler and Optician. 30tf

FIRST-CLASS SMOOTHERS wanted at the Deemer Bros. cut glass factory at Great Bend, Pa. 85w eoi.

LOCAL NEWS

red brick. —Among those who attended the annual convention of Homeopath's Interstate Medical association in Scranton, last Thursday, was Dr. P. B. Peterson, of this place. —It is reported that some have al-ried off the honors at 109 words a minute net, writing from strange ready been hunting squirrels and partridges, being under the impres-sion that the season began Oct. 15. and making but 72 errors. The law is off only on woodcock at present, it being unlawful to shoot

-Born, a daughter, to Superin-tendent and Mrs. S. A. McMullen, -A postal savings bank will be established at Forest City November Jr., on Sunday. Press printing the ballots for Pike county for $47,50.

-A marriage license was granted to Harry S. DeReamer and Miss Carolyn Elizabeth Garrett, both of White Mills. -John Weaver is going into the chicken business on quite an exten-sive scale on Grove street.

-About fifteen young friends masqueraded and enjoyed a pleas-ant evening at the home of Ethel Bonear, Monday evening. -A banquet will be given to the bublic under the auspices of the of-ficial board of the M. E. church at Waymart at the Ensign House on Thursday, Nov. 2, at 8 o'clock. -Hotel American, Carbondale, has been sold by J. W. Williams to Mc-Cann & Wellbrook, clothiers, for John Weaver sold his team of tine matched bay horses to Joseph Jacob on Saturday for $450. John E. Richmond purchased one horse from Mr. Jacob and its mate was shipped to Scranton.

-A daughter was recently born to Mr. and Mrs. Louis LaPoint. Rev. James M. Burke returned to Wilkes-Barre Monday after assisting Rev. E. J. Burke at St. John's R. C. church during Rev. T. M. Hanley's absence.

-An aftermath of the great Aus-tin tragedy came to The Citizen office Monday, in the shape of a notice from the postmaster of that city, asking the publishers of the paper to discontinue sending their journal to Mrs. Zaney Perkins, and the reason assigned was-"dead."

-The mapy Wayne county friends of iton. John Kuhbach, who has been very sick, will be elated to learn that his condition is much improved and that he is gaining as rapidly as can be expected. He is under the efficient care of Dr. P. F. Griffin, of this place, and Miss Fowler, a trained nurse, of Scranton.

progressive dinner will be a progressive different will be served this (Tuesday) evening by a number of young people at their different homes and at each home various courses will be served as follows: Margaret Charlesworth, soup; Elsa Jacob, bullion; Helen Burns, meat; Edna Krantz, salad; Louis Bishop, ice cream and cake; Janette Preumers, coffee and almonds.

-Rowland, the eweler, is more than pleased with his first anniversary sale held on Saturday of last week. Many new faces came to the store and many new patrons were procured, several of whom came from great distances. The anniver-sary sale was a great success in

-Rev. T. M. Hanley, Rev. Ed-ward J. Burke, Honesdale; Rev. P. E. LaValley, Rock Lake; Rev. D. W. McCarty, of Pleasant Mt.; Rev. H. P. Burke, of Hawley, all of Wayne county, attended the funeral of Rev. M. B. Dorles of Davesson Prievery particular. Mr. Rowland at-tributes this to advertising, of which he is a firm believer. -Victor Kittner and Miss Phoebe

M. B. Donlan, of Dunmore, on Fri-day morning last. —If has been announced that a rali-road will be constructed from the main line of the Erle and Wyoming valley, near Lake Ariel, to a coal washery at Plane No. 18. It will be used to transport coal taken from the dumps there, which will be work-ed by New York people. —The supper given by the Ladies' Ald society of the Lutheran church last Thursday evening was a great M. B. Donlan, of Dunmore, on Fri-day morning last. —Victor Kittner and Miss Phoebe married Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock at the rectory of St. Mary o'clock at the rectory of St. Mary of the oldest towns in this section of the oldest towns envy, being the place where the first locomotive to turn a wheel on the Western hemis-phine Everling, Honesdale, was the bridesmaid. The bride was becom-ingly gowned in a blue travelling dress. After an extended honey-moon trip they will reside in White last Thursday evening was a great success, nearly $130 having been realized. The supper is an annual affair, and it is democratic in every -riancock is to have a postal savings bank. It will be open for business November 6.

--Cortright & Son, whose barn collapsed last Tuesday evening, will tear down the standing walls of their concrete barn and rebuild with red brick.
--Among those who attended the annual convention of Homeopath's interstate Medical association in Scranton, last Thursday, was production of the standard the stan

PERSONAL

John Kimble returned to his home in Towanda on Sunday. Gustave Smith, Jr., of Scranton, ter on Saturday morning.

J. A. Rose, representing Clark & Snover, tabacconists, of Scranton, is placing some fine display cards on the highways and byways.

Michael Cusick and R. E. Lowrle, Scranton, deputy superintendents of the Prudential Insurance company, are spending several days in town. Mrs. W. H. Gibbs of Stroudsburg, returned home Saturday by way of Barryville, N. Y., where she met her husband. They motored to Stroudshusband. They burg on Sunday. Mrs. T. E. Callaway accompanied her son, Superintendent C. R. Calla-way, to New York city on Saturday last. They are spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Schuller at Upper Montclair, N. J.

Lewis A. Howell of the Lackawanna Trust and Safe Deposit Company, Scranton, Pa., has been, appointed cashier of the Honesdale National Bank to succeed Edwin F. Torrey who resigned last June.

ley and Miss Mary Jones attended the annual convention of the Home Missionary Association in Scranton last Thursday.

Edward Deitzer and John Weiser attended a dinner given at the Mc-Laughlin Hotel, Forest City, Sunday. There were about 40 present, most of whom were traveling salesmen. The donesdale visitors report a very pleasant time. pleasant time.

Messre. Summer and Hepster, of Newark, N. J., returned to their home city, Saturday morning after a three days' stay in Honesdale. The visiting gentlemen walked from Port Jervis to Honesdale in three days. They speak very highly of Honesdale, and its hospitable people and were very much pleased with their the average farmer of to-day is that trip.

EVERYONE INTERESTED.

There is not a man, woman or must eith child who is not interested in Hones- not both.

Industrially Honesdale ranks high Industrially Honesdate ranks high in the production of rich cut glass, electric elevators, knit, woolen, and musiin goods, shoes, and other neces-sities of life. Although it is fore-most as a manufacturing center it lacks one thing, and that is a slo-gan. Every town of importance, especially if any progress is manifested along an industrial line, has a slo-gan. Can you guess a suitable slo-gan for Honesdale?

The Greater Honesdale Board of Trade has offered a prize of $5 for an appropriate slogan for Hones dale. The contest is open to any-body, anywhere, anytime before November 10 at 12, noon. The elogan is limited to ten words Ad dress communications containing slogans with your name, the latter, however, will not be published, to Secretary Greater Honesdale Board of Trade, Honesdale, Pa.

ned and carried out the decorations, which everybody voted "just too cute for anything." They are: Misses Harriet Arbold, Helen Charlesworth, Amy Cory, Florence Eldred, Edna Katz, Bessle, Lawyer, Gladys Weav-er, Gertrude Krantz, Etta Fuerth, Stella Levy, Marie Ward, Lucille Rowland, Helen Jacobs, Minnie Schoell, Letitia Greene, Julia Loomis Loomis.

The committee in charge of the affair consisted of Edward D. Katz, Richard J. Bracey and Clarence Greene.

Out-of-town guests included Miss Florence Bried, Hawley; James Rier-don, Carbondale; James Matamore, Scranton; Walter Bortree, Isaac Sandercock, Lake Ariel.

P. S. The organizer of the "D. L. Y. M. girls" fraternity is a Scran-ton young lady who modestly asks that her name be not published.

MODEL ORCHARD PRODUCES BIG FRUIT.

Mrs. Jennie Smith and daughter, Miss Eessie, accompanied by Miss Grace Brown, left Monday for their home in Yankers. They spent the summer with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reury, on Spring street. Mesdames Isaac J. Lobb, M. E. Simons, Charles S. Seward, C. F. Bullock, Eugene Babbitt, T. A. Cross-400 bushels of large apples.

One of the apples, a Spy, weighed 14 ounces and measured 131/2 in-ches in circumference. A King apple measured 121/2 inches around and tipped the scales at 15 ounces. There were larger apples than the above mentioned specimens, but Mr. Baker did not have them at his home where he measured these.

The orchard has a north exposure. On Tt There were very few quarly or wormy apples, which is attributed to sions. often spraying. One thing notice-able about the apple crop is the large number of hushels raised, be-ing larger than former years, not-withstanding the exceedingly poor crop in Wayne county.

he wants to raise apples and grass to the chicken cholera. The birds, on the same piece of ground. He cannot successfully do both. He and die in a few hours' time.—Monmust either raise apples or grass, but roe Record.

dale-their home town. Interested to a degree that they are proud their model orchard are Kings, Baldwins, Spys and Greenings.

Mrs. C. H. Roberts Entertained. Mrs. Fred B. Whitney gave charming dinner party, Friday even-ing at Mrs. William F. Briggs' fashionable boarding house, 108 Tenth street, in compliment of Miss Louise Hardenbergh's guest and friend, Mrs. Charles Roberts, Wynnewood, Mills. —At the masquerade carnival held Monday night in the Skating Rink prizes were won by the following: As the best-dressed mean by the following: As the best-dressed mean by the following: As the best-dressed mean by the following: Monday night in the Skating Rink prizes were won by the following: States. Monday night in the Skating Rink prizes were won by the following: Monday night in the Skating Rink prizes were won by the following: Monday night in the Skating Rink Monday night in the Skating Rink prizes were won by the following: States. Monday night in the Skating Rink The favors were tiny Jack o' lan-terns. The invited guests were: Mrs. Charles H. Roberts, Wynnewood Mrs. Charles Weston, Carbondale;

Mrs. A. T. Searle, Mrs. W. Judson Yerkes, Mrs. Harry A. Oday, Mrs. Fred B. Whitney; Misses Louise Hardenbergh, Florence Wood, Clara Torrey, Caroline L. Peterson, Mary Whitney, C. Lou Hardenbergh, Honesdale, At 9 o'clock, the guests were motored to Mrs, Coe F. Dur-

"The Quality Store" DRUGGIST

See what $1 a week or less Buys in Life Insurance.

For instance, at age 35, 84 cents a week buys $1000 Life Insurance for 20 years,

He apparently healthy, weaken, drop He and die in a few hours' time.--Mon-

108 Tenth

Dr. John Baumann, Jersey City, returned home Tuesday. He was ac-companied by his brother, W. C. Baumann of this place Mrs. Mary A. Denton, who has spent the summer in Honesdale, re-turned to Newark, N. J., for the win-ter on Saturday morning.

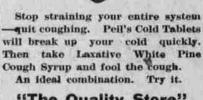

DEATH OF JOHN GERRY. John Gerry, one of Honesdale's oldest and best known residents, died Sunday evening at 7 o'clock at his home on Dyberry Place. Mr.

his home on Dyberry Place. Mr. Gerry has been a patient sufferer for two years from paralysis. He was born in Barnstable, Devonshire, Eng-land, May 28, 1833, and came to America with his parents when B boy. A short time was spent in New York, the family afterwards moving to Oregon township. Wayne county. He was the eldest of a faffimily of fourteen children and was the last to pass away. Mr. Gerry was a pa-perhanger and painter by trade and was considered one of the best in his was considered one of the best in his line. He was twice married, leaving one son, John G., by the first marriage. A daughter, Mayme, now deceased, was the wife G.R. Duave Reed, of this place. Mr. Gerry is also survived by two sons, Chester G., and Charles A., the latter of New York, also his second wife whose maiden name was Louise M. Graze, of Cochecton, N. Y. They were mar-ried in 1888. The funeral will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 from the house, Rev. W. H. Swift from the house, Rev. W. H. Switt officiating. Interment in Glen Dy-berry cemetery. Honesdale Lodge, No. 218, Free and Accepted Masons, of which Mr. eGrry was a member for several years, will attend in a body and conduct the services at the grave.

MRS. W. B. HOLMES HONORED. Mrs. W. B. Holmes, wife of W. B. Holmes, president of the board of directors of the Wayne County Sav-ings Bank of this place, was honored on Tuesday last by being chosen on the advisory Board of Home Mis-

Disease Killing the Pheasants. Reports from hunters who have been through the woods recently are that the pheasants, unusually fat and luscious for this season of the year are dying from an epidemic similar present, it being unlawful to shoot squirrels, partridges and quall until Nov. 1. —The class pins of 1913 have been received by Rowland, the

—The MaeDonald Construction Co. have moved their monster steam shoved to Jermyn, where they have a large contract on the D. & H. The contractors have a large contract in the South and Supt. Taylor expects to leave for the South as soon as their contract is completed between -The MaeDonald Construction to leave for the South as soon as their contract is completed between Hancock and Starlight which will be about Nov. 1. about Nov. 1.

-If you want to see the comet in the Eastern sky you will have to get up between 5 and 5:30 o'clock mornings. It blazes brilliantly at that time. It is much larger than Haley's comet and its tail is more pronounced. It is located a few degrees above the merning star.

---W. H. Lee, referee in bank-ruptcy, has given notice to the cred-itors of Richard E. Humbert, of Mil-contents. -Mrs. Andrew Pink, while de-scending Ridge street Monday noon,

-Miss Pearl Kimble, of Erie street, and Edward Gregor, of East Honesdale, were married in St. Magdalen's church Monday morning at 10 o'clock by Rev. J. W. Balta. The bridal couple were attended by Miss Kate Gregor, sister of the bridegroom and George Holl was best man. Mr. and Mrs. Gregor will make their home at Aldenville where Mr. Gregor is employed cut-ting glass.

-Mrs. Anna Thorpe died after a prolonged illness at her home on

<text><text><text><text><text><text><text>

was a recent caller in Honesdale. Miss Harriet Arnold attended dance in Wilkes-Barre on Friday. Miss Kathryn Deitzer has returned from a short stay in Scranton.

Miss Ruth Lord attended a masquerade ball in Carbondale last evening

Mrs. Daniel Kinsman, of East Cherry Ridge, is quite ill at her home

Miss Margaret Moran spent Sunday with her brother, James, in Scranton.

Miss Alta Spruks, of Scranton, at tended the funeral of Mrs. Anna Thorpe on Tuesday.

Editor F. J. F. Warg, of the Haw-ley Times, was a business caller in Honesdale on Monday. "Honesdale Will Get There Yet."

Alexander Correll attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Horace E. Kipp in Milford on Wednesday last.

Here are a few slogans that have been received since the announce-ment made last week: "Honesdale—Always Humming."

"Honest value goods made here." "Honesdale is the Growing city of Northeastern Pennsylvania."

In memory of Irving's lofty peak. And the Stourbridge Lion's roaring; With visions of Hudson's mighty fleet.

To a Greater Honesdale is growing. "Let Honesdale Do It." "Honesdale Can Do It." "Honesdale Booming and Growing." "Honesdale, the White Man's

"The town that delivers the goods Honesdale."

"If your're "in wrong," right" to Honesdale." "get Since you christened me,

Mr. Hone;

See how industrious I have grown." "Make more room on the map for Honesdale." "We shoot you the breeches bouy, Mr. Manufacturer, if you are sinking in some dead sea." "A safe harbor in a financial gale."

E IT IN

Ambrose A. Whalen, Agent, Honesdale, Pa.

The Prudential Insurance Company of America Incorporated as a Stock Company by the State of New Jersey. JOHN F. DRYDEN President. Home Office, NEWARK, N. J.

To the Farmers of Wayne Co.--We Desire to Have You Patronize the

FARMERS & MECHANICS

BANK

5 per cent. of the stockholders of this Bank are Farmers

Open An Account in the Progressive Bank

Capital Stock $75,000.00

Surplus and Profits $17,000.00

Comparative Growth of Deposits:

e 1st 1907,			$24,398.54
7 1st 1908,			$109,896.20
1st 1909.		1.1	$161,077.58
2nd 1910.			$241,843.67
7 1st 1911.	1.1		$272,500.68

Officers:

M. E. SIMONS, President

June May Maj Maj Maj

C. A. EMERY, Cashier Directors:

f. B. Allen,	W. M. Fowler,	G. W
eorge C. Abraham,	W. B. Guinnip,	M. E
. Sam Brown,	John E. Krantz,	Fred
Scar E. Bunnell,	Fred W. Kreitner,	Geor
Vm. H. Dunn,	John Kuhbach,	J. E.
And I Have a house	John Weaver.

m. Sell, Simons, Stephens, ge W. Tisdell, Tiffany,