—The Wayne County Pigeon and Poultry Association will meet at the Allen House, Friday evening, at 8 o'clock.

—Miss Isabel Hatton, Seelyville, entertained about 20 young people at a Halloween party Monday evening. Dainty refreshments were served.

—A masquerade Halloween party, consisting of about 25 guests, pleasantly enjoyed Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Parsons on Court street.

—A civil service examination for the position of fourth-class postmaster at Bethany will be held Saturday, November 18, at Honesdale. The compensation of the postmaster at this office was $72 for the last fiscal year.

—Silas A. McMullen, Jr., is wearing a broad smile. "It's a girl. Help yourself!" was the way the label on a box of "Stratford" Havanas, in the Exchange club, read Wednesday. The members took the hint, and offered Mr. McMullen the customary congratulations.

—The members of the Alert Hook and Ladder company have fitted the second story room of Alert Fire company's building into quarters for playing basket ball. The company has a number of young members who, by little practice, will develop into fast players.

—Philip Dean, head brakeman on the Honesdale Erie passenger train, is indisposed at his home on Prospect street. During his absence, Edward Robinson, second brakeman, is attending to Mr. Dean's duties. John Lane, of Port Jervis, will be second brakeman until Mr. Dean returns.

—The Needle Work Guild will hold a reception for its contributors in the Presbyterian Chapel on Nov. 3, at 8 p. m., at which time the garments contributed this year will be on exhibition. There will be music and a short address by Miss Bender, the National Secretary. All contributors are urged to attend.

—Pennsylvania Day will be celebrated Friday, November 17, at State College, Pa., when the graduates of Pennsylvania State College will meet together and renew friendships and talk over the good old days, when they were "undergrads." As there are 1700 students at this institution, and as the Governor and other prominent men will be there, everybody who goes is assured of a jolly good time.

—J. B. Robinson and A. T. Bryant, two of Honesdale's prominent citizens, have launched into the poultry business on quite an extensive scale. Having recently purchased the Hughes property, consisting of 13 acres, located in Texas township, they are arranging to raise a big flock of Leghorn chickens. A large pen 14x100 feet has been erected for the birds, with a cooking house 10x14 feet. The firm now have 600 fowls, 206 of which is the Ferris strain. Other strains of the Leghorn are the Wyocoff, Young and Blanchard. It is Messrs. Robinson & Bryant's plan to raise about 1,500 chicks next spring. They are now sending their eggs to New York market, receiving fancy prices for same.

In addition to the poultry end of the farm the new firm expect to set out 1,500 peach trees next spring, besides a young apple orchard. Walter Robinson, son of J. B. Robinson, one of the firm, is a very successful poultry raiser and will devote his entire time to the business.

—Our valuable Hawley letter has been crowded out this week owing to the press of other matter.

—Rev. A. L. Whitaker will hold service at the Indian Orchard school house Sunday, Nov. 5, at 2:30 p. m.

—This issue of The Citizen is delayed owing to the failure of the white paper to arrive at the usual time.

—The annual banquet of the Exchange Club will be held Wednesday evening, November 22, in Lyric Hall.

—There will be a special meeting of the Knights of St. Paul in Grace church Sunday school room, Friday, Nov. 3, at 7:30 p. m.

—Attention Veterans! Captain James Ham Post No. 198, G. A. R., will hold their annual inspection and campfire, Friday night.

—Overseer of the Poor W. A. Gaylord took William Malloy, Texas township, to the Danville Insane Asylum, Tuesday morning.

—Three large loads of Honesdale people attended the benefit supper at Dyberry Wednesday evening of this week. The proceeds went to the support of the Siko church.

—Members of the Wayne County Co-Operative Association held one of their quarterly sessions in St. George's hall last Monday evening. A pleasant evening was enjoyed and refreshments were served.

—The Exchange banquet will be held Wednesday evening, Nov. 22, in Lyric hall. J. Benj. Dimmick and Rev. J. R. Atkinson, of Scranton, and a noted gentleman from New York will be the speakers at the banquet.

—Miss Carrie Smith, Tuesday night, entertained the Daughters of the King, at a masquerade party. The customary Halloween diversions were enjoyed. Prizes were won by Misses Cora Sears and Jennie Haganman. Dainty refreshments were served.

—Mrs. Fred B. Whitney attended a party given by Mrs. J. J. Thompson in Watts' hall, Carbondale, Tuesday evening. According to the Carbondale Leader "not the least attractive feature of the occasion were the gowns worn by the ladies." Mrs. Whitney's dress was a light blue satin veiled with black.

—A number of Halloween pranks were played in Honesdale Tuesday night. On Court street things movable and some things apparently immovable were disturbed from their original resting places. Heavy stones were thrown into the street, sidewalks were dislodged and a wagon was thrown into the Lackawaxen at Court street.

—Mark V. Richards assumed the title of editor of the Port Jervis Gazette, November 1. The Gazette has been purchased by Mr. Cook, a former resident of that city, and will hereafter be run under new management. We welcome Mr. and Mrs. Richards East and what we know of Mr. Richards' qualities and experience on a newspaper know the new Gazette will be a success.

—A party in Lackawaxen recently paid $1.50 for an ounce of rattlesnake grease. Conductor Lord told a Citizen reporter that he knew of an instance where a person killed a rattlesnake, got its fat and left it in a dish over night. The next morning it was noticed that something had been eating the grease and looking on the floor two dead mice were found. It is the supposition that the snake bit itself and the venom went through its system. The finding of the dead mice evidently saved the person's life.

—Elizabeth Stock, wife of Joseph Stegner, of Grove street, died last Tuesday night of lockjaw, caused by an exposed fracture. The death of Mrs. Stegner is a sad one indeed. A month ago she fell and fractured her left wrist and a day before she died symptoms of lockjaw developed. Mrs. Stegner was born in Germany 66 years ago and was a daughter of Peter Stock and Louise Weaver (Stock). The deceased came to this country when a young woman and was married to Joseph Stegner in Honesdale shortly afterwards. The following children, besides her husband, survive: Joseph, of Brooklyn, N. Y.; Mrs. Bart Bates, Margaret, Elizabeth, William and Nicholas, all of Honesdale. The funeral will be held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the deceased's home, and at 2:30 from the church, Rev. C. C. Miller officiating. Interment in the Lutheran cemetery.

—Mrs. Frank Lobb entertained about 30 of her friends at a Halloween party last Tuesday evening. As the guests arrived they were given a most hearty welcome, which was extended to them by a party masqueraded as a ghost. He ushered them in the parlor, which was very prettily decorated for the occasion. Halloween games were played and premiums awarded to the successful contestants. After a pleasant evening of social intercourse the party went to the dining room, where sandwiches, coffee, olives, almonds, ice cream and cake were deftly served. The room was trimmed appropriately for the occasion. White and yellow crepe paper was festooned from the chandelier and the only light in the room was what streaked through the faces of pumpkin lanterns. The trimmings were unique and displayed much skill and ingenuity. During the evening piano and violin music was furnished.

—Ladies take advantage of this opportunity. L. N. Graves' expert sewing machine adjuster is in Honesdale again stopping at Chris Lowe's hotel and is prepared as heretofore to repair all makes, no matter how old or worn. He has new parts and can make old machines as good as new at small cost.

BURGLARS LOOT MT. PLEASANT POSTOFFICE.

The Citizen exclusively told of the burglary of the Pleasant Mount postoffice, which occurred on Monday evening, Oct. 30. Detail particulars were not learned, however, until after going to press, Tuesday.

Stage Driver Eade stated to a Citizen reporter Tuesday afternoon that he heard a noise before going to bed, but thought nothing of it; presumed that it was made by horses in the barn. Said he went to one barn in the interest of his horses and from that barn went across the road to another barn. He stated that he saw some one run around Brain Bros.' store, where the postoffice is located and that a lantern was burning on the front stoop. While in the barn he said he heard glass fall and when he returned from the second barn the light had disappeared from the porch. Shortly afterwards the explosion followed, but Mr. Eade stated it never occurred to him that the place was being burglarized. Tuesday morning the village conversation was postoffice burglary.

Going to Brain Bros.' store, Mr. Eade said the safe door was in ribbons and looked as if it had been cut with a knife, if such were possible. $18 in stamps and little money were secured. A mail bag was missing, but it was presumed that the burglars took the pouch to hide their findings. The money drawer of the store was robbed of a few dollars and a show case was smashed. Nails were strewn over the floor. No clue as yet has been learned as to who the perpetrators might be.

FUNERAL OF HOWARD ERK.

The funeral of Howard J. Erk was largely attended from his late home on Church street Thursday afternoon. The following friends acted as bearers and tenderly carried the remains of their departed loved one to Riverdale cemetery where they now repose: Neal Hiller, Earl Varcoe, Howard Miller, Russell Dennis, Robert Mackle and William Henney. The floral tributes were many and beautiful.

The following individuals and societies contributed floral pieces: Chrysanthemums—Epworth League Methodist church, Ladies' Aid society, Woman's Foreign Missionary society, Whatsoever Circle, Mrs. G. S. Purdy, Store employees, Norman and Raymond Bodie, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tingley, Mr. and Mrs. George Lees, Rev. and Mrs. J. B. Cody and family; roses, C. Coburn, Binghamton, Frank Henry, Edward and Russell Erk, Nettie Ferguson, Florence Benney, Flossie Polley, Frances Purdy, Helene Purdy, Margaret Purdy, Dorothy Delin, Hazel Delin; pillow, Young Men's Bible Class, Methodist Sunday school of which the deceased was a member; Broken Wheel, International Harvesting Company; chrysanthemums bouquet, Mrs. G. S. Purdy; carnations—Ladies' Aid society, Bernice Macintyre, Ralph and Howard Sonn, Antoinette Brown, Norman Macintyre, Emanuel Holl and family, Mrs. Erk and daughter Grace, Mary Reiridon, May O'Neill, Edna and Ethel Hawker.

The flower bearers were Russell Burcher, William Eck, C. R. Callaway and Mr. Parsons.

The out-of-town relatives and friends present were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cowles, of Carbondale; Mrs. Mary Wilder, Raymond Cowles, and Miss Caroline Cody, Scranton; Mrs. Clara Sands, New York City; Albert Butler, Cleveland; Martin Erk, Elmira; William Erk of Troy.

AND STILL THEY COME.

Much interest is being manifested in a slogan for Honesdale. Contestants see that glistening $5 gold piece and from the returns coming in it looks as if the contest would be close as a number of good slogans have been presented. November 10 is the last day which they may be sent. You can send as many as you choose, but try and keep them within ten words.

Send all communications to Secretary Greater Honesdale Board of Trade, Honesdale, Pa.

The following came from White Mills:

"See Honesdale thrive."

"Honesdale, the town that perseveres."

"From Honesdale: 'Let us grow better, bigger and busier.'"

"Better, bigger, busier."

"Industrially, Honesdale leads."

"Where Quality Counts—Honesdale."

"Quality Goods Manufactured Here."

"Make Good in Honesdale."

GOV. TENER COMING HERE NOVEMBER 15.

A meeting of the chairman in charge of the dedicatory exercises of the State armory was held last Tuesday evening. In the absence of Chairman J. D. Weston, Homer Greene presided over the meeting. Others present were Hon. E. B. Hardenbergh, chairman of transportation; R. J. Murray, dinner; William Katz, invitations and programs; C. J. Kelley, parade; Edward Doney, dancing; E. B. Callaway, printing and newspaper.

The minutes of the first meeting of the committee were read and approved.

The price of ticket was fixed at $2.50, which includes price of admission, supper and dance privileges. Extra lady, 50 cents.

The members of Company E desire the patronage of the townspeople and ask the citizens of Honesdale to assist and help make the dedication one of the largest events ever celebrated in Honesdale.

As a special request it is desired that the business places and dwellings decorate and display flags upon November 15, Governor's Day.

The committee adjourned at 9 o'clock to meet Thursday evening in the office of Attorney Homer Greene at 8 o'clock.

To make Governor's Day a success the committee in charge need the undivided help of every resident of Honesdale, and it is hoped that when any person is asked to do anything to help the matter along he will respond cheerfully.

TO THE VOTERS OF WAYNE COUNTY:

I take this method of making myself clear on the following points to such voters that I have been unable to see personally: That I will, if elected to the office of Sheriff, give my whole and undivided attention to the duties of the office, and I will at this time state that all persons that are unfortunate enough to become subject to the mandates of the Sheriff, would receive every consideration possible at my hands. Until three years ago I never came before the public asking for any office whatever, at which time I was defeated at the primaries, and now having received the nomination of the Republican party, it is needless to say that I most sincerely appreciate the support of my friends, that made it possible, and will feel deeply obligated to all voters that will support me at the polls on Tuesday, Nov. 7, and if the verdict of the voters at large is in my favor, I pledge myself to be a Sheriff to the people, of the people, and for the people, doing my duty without fear or favor, regardless of party lines, caste or creed.

CLASSY CHICKENS.

F. B. Lord, of the Allen House, vice-president of the Wayne County Pigeon and Poultry Association, has a pen of Black Langshans on exhibition that make the mouth of the chicken fancier water. If you haven't seen them yet, you don't know what you're missing. They shornly are beauties. More than that they are not only "good lookers," but "good layers" as well. Yes, Mr. Lord will be glad to show them to you.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

The preliminary oratorical contest will be held in the auditorium of the Honesdale High school Friday evening, November 3. Miss Mildred Ward will speak for the girls and Mortimer Stocker for the boys. Subjects—"The Legend Bregenz" and "Work," recited respectively by the above mentioned contestants. The Kid orchestra will furnish music. Admission 10 cents.

Pleasant Mount High school has chosen Harold Wildenstein and Lakewood High school, Miss Lila Hine, to represent their respective schools at the oratorical contest the first evening of the Teachers' Institute.

HUSSARS MAKE A HIT HERE.

Nine rollicking, rolstering, reckless Hussars "took great pleasure" in presenting a concert, college and camp programme at the Lyric theatre, Tuesday night, to the still greater pleasure and greatest applause of an audience numbering between six and seven hundred people.

The musical melange was held under the auspices of the Amity Club, one of the prominent social organizations of the County Seat, and was a rare treat. The music was of such a nature that it could readily be comprehended without the aid of a Russian or Hungarian dictionary. Just to show how much they enjoyed it, the crowd encored every number.

Ford told the story of Gungha Dien, and told it so pathetically that many eyes were wet with tears. And the way the nine sang good old college songs was enough to drive dull care away, for many a day.

Here is What the Clergy of Montrose Say of Mr. Ainey.

In view of the scurrilous political attacks on Captain W. D. B. Ainey in some of the out of the county papers where he is not as well known; and notably in the Canton World, stating that Mr. Ainey "is a temperance man with strong inclinations toward the bar room."

We desire to express our condemnation for such low and unwarranted political methods, and we who know him best desire to express to the public our appreciation of the ability and clear cut Christian character of Mr. Ainey, and that anything that may have been, or will be said, derogatory of him in those respects is untrue and we believe that such attacks will react with boomerang effect on the parties making them.
