LOCAL NEWS

—Miss Carrie Peterson left on Sunday for New York city to buy her Xmas goods.

—All of the Honesdale banks will be closed Thursday, November 30, Thanksgiving Day.

—Miles Rowland, treasurer-elect of Pike county, gave an informal dinner to a number of his Honesdale friends last Thursday evening at his home in Kimbles.

—Over 5,000 permits have been issued by the State Forestry department to persons to camp on State forest reserves during the deer season. This is 1,200 more than were issued last year.

—Marriage licenses were issued Thursday, November 23, to Oscar W. Bagley, Pleasant Mount, and Ella L. Baker, Carbondale; also to Charles Robinson and Rachel Van Shick, both of South Canaan; also to John E. Golden, Dunmore, and Rose D. Connolly, Honesdale.

—Union revival services are being held at Calkins under the directions of the three pastors, Moyer, Minch and Spear. They are now in the fourth week with a continued success. Over forty have come out in the meetings up to Sunday night. These meetings will be continued this week with a special rally service on Thanksgiving night. Let everybody come.

—The only honorable and honest way to stop a newspaper, if you do not care to take it longer, is to step into the office (or send by mail) and pay up all arrearages, get a receipt and have your name taken off the list. To fire your paper back at the publisher marked "refused" when you owe six months or a year or two, and never go near the office is not only disreputable, but superlatively dishonest as well.

—Emerson W. Gammell, whose term of Register and Recorder will expire January 1, 1912, has leased the A. A. Grambs' brick building on Main street, opposite the Union station. Mr. Gammell will open a general office and salesroom therein the first of the year. He has the agency in Lackawanna and Wayne counties for the "New-Way" Motor company, manufacturers of gasoline engines, besides representing the John Deere Plow company, the Dean Electric company, the latter manufacturers of an electric light system for homes. In addition to the above well-known and thoroughly tested supplies Mr. Gammell will carry a complete line of automobile accessories. He is one of Wayne county's most popular and highly esteemed citizens and his success in this line of business is a foregone conclusion.

—The LeBrun Grand Opera Quartet have been secured to give a performance at the Lyric under the auspices of the Honesdale Realty Co. on Friday evening, December 8. The Realty company have built the Lyric, thereby giving the people of Honesdale a first-class place of amusement. There is still a floating debt against them and the company expect, with the co-operation of the public, to wipe out this indebtedness by holding a benefit on Dec. 28. "The Le Bruns" are very well spoken of wherever they have appeared. Every member of this company has appeared in grand opera, and three of them in leading roles. Madame La Brun has a repertoire of fifty operas and sings them in four languages, and for three years was prima donna of Henry W. Savage's Grand Opera Co. Over five thousand dollars are invested in scenery and costumes.

—Marriage licenses were issued Saturday, Nov. 25, to Albert E. Box and Clara E. Schmitt, both of White Mills; also to Archibald C. Hine and Grace I. Hall, both of Orson; also to Rufus E. Niles and Ina B. Stanton, both of Lakewood.

—J. C. Ragland, business manager of the "Three Twins" Company, was a pleasant caller at the Citizen office to-day. Mr. Ragland is in the city to complete arrangements for the appearance of his company at the Lyric theatre on Monday, Dec. 4.

—During October six areas were designated by the Secretary of the Interior as suitable for entry under the enlarged homestead act. These include 32,110 acres of land in Idaho and Oregon and make a total of 190,426,957 acres which has been designated by the Secretary of the Interior as enterable in 320-acre homestead units.

—On Wednesday night of this week "His Honor The Mayor" will be seen at the Lyric Theatre and Harry Kelly will be seen in his original role as Deacon Flood, which he has played over two thousand times in all parts of the country. The theatre is likely to be packed, so secure your seats early and avoid the rush. Curtain goes up at 8 p. m.

—The best way to clean a gas mantle, is to remove the globe, get a salt shaker and shake all the salt on it that it will hold, turn on the gaslight, and let it burn until all black is off, turn off the light, replace the globe and light in the usual way, and you will find the light restored to its former brilliancy. Try this if the mantle is black and it burns poorly.

—Alvion D. Van Driesen, who removed from our borough to Wilkes-Barre several months ago, died in that city last Sunday, of paralysis. He was born in northern New York, and was about fifty-three years of age. He came to Honesdale twenty-five years ago, or upward, and followed the occupation of carpenter. He has a sister here, Mrs. Edward Gilon, who lives on Spring street. The remains will be brought here, and the interment will take place on Wednesday.

—The check of $445.59 received by the supervisors of Texas township was not an appropriation to apply upon stone road but was the money to apply under the recent act of assembly for taxes collected in cash. The appropriation of $500,000 made by the state to pay 50 per cent. of the amount of money collected in cash was not sufficient and only 12 and a fraction per cent. was paid to Texas township on dirt roads. The stone road completed in 1910 is entitled also to an appropriation which will be received later.

—Thomas Gallagher, the popular and efficient local manager of the Consolidated Telephone company, has been transferred to Pittston, where upon December 1 he will assume the duties of division superintendent in that city. Mr. Gallagher has heretofore refused several good positions out-of-town because he regretted leaving Honesdale. He is a practical telephone man and understands the business in all its different branches. He will be succeeded by Russell Burcher, who for the past three months has been wire chief of the Honesdale division. Mr. Burcher is a graduate of the Electrical Institute of New York City and is well qualified to perform the duties of his new office. While the townspeople regret to have Mr. Gallagher leave Honesdale they will rejoice in learning of his earned advancement. Congratulations are also in order for Mr. Burcher.

—A Wayne County Farmers' Institute will be held under the auspices of the Department of Agriculture, Honesdale, Saturday, Dec. 16, 1911. The exercises are public and free. Everybody is invited. The order of business follows: Selections of subjects will be made from the following program for the three sessions to be held at this place. Saturday morning, Dec. 16, 10:00. Opening exercises; "Some of the Common Causes of Lameness and How They May be Prevented," Dr. M. E. Conrad, Westgrove, Pa.; "Leguminous Crops," H. M. Anderson, New Park, Pa.; question box; music; "Birds and Insects," Dr. J. H. Funk, Boyertown, Pa.; music; "The Farmer as a Citizen," R. P. Kester, Crampton, Pa. Saturday afternoon, Dec. 16, 1:30. Question box; "Feed for the Dairy Cow and Economical Production of Milk," Dr. M. E. Conrad; "Conservation of Soil Moisture," H. M. Anderson; "Essentials of Success With Potatoes," R. P. Kester; music; question box; "Pruning, Fertilizing and Thinning," Dr. J. H. Funk; "Selecting, Feeding and Raising the Calf to Build up the Dairy Herd," Dr. M. E. Conrad; music; "Making the Dairy Pay," R. P. Kester. Saturday evening, Dec. 16, 7:00. music; "Orchard Management," H. M. Anderson; "What Books and Magazines Shall We Read; the Quality and Preparation of Foods"; "Fertility; Regained and Retained," R. P. Kester; music; "How a Tree Grows," Dr. J. H. Funk; adjournment. Following are the members of the local committee: John Male, F. H. Thompson, Frank Mang, C. O. Blake, W. H. Bullock, C. J. Smith, E. W. Ross, George Erk. The foregoing order will be followed as closely as possible, but other exercises will be introduced, if found desirable. Although these institutes are designed and conducted for the education and advantage of farmers, yet all who are interested are invited to attend, and it is hoped that they will show their appreciation, not only by being present at the meetings, but also by taking part in the discussions. A question box will be kept open by the Secretary's desk and all are invited to place therein such questions as they may wish to have discussed during the session. At the proper time, designated by the program, these questions will be referred to some one for answer, or brought up for general discussion. All Granges, Alliances, Agricultural societies and kindred agricultural organizations are especially invited to attend. All meetings open to the public. For further information and for programs, address W. E. Perham, Pleasant Mt., Pa., Chairman of the Board of Institute Managers for Wayne county.

—A meeting of the Hospital Board will be held in the Town Hall Tuesday afternoon at 3 p. m.

—The State Surveyors' Corps are now at Honesdale enroute to Hawley in the interest of the new State highway.

—The Bible class of Rev. W. H. Hiller recently sent two tons of chestnut coal to Miss Jennie Green, Seelyville.

—A number of out-of-town young people are expected to be in attendance at the Amity ball on Thanksgiving eve.

—Owing to press day falling on Thanksgiving the week-end issue of The Citizen will reach its patrons a few hours later than usual.

—There will be a chicken supper at the Rileyville Presbyterian church Thanksgiving evening. Proceeds for the church.

—Owing to the death of his father, Edward Fasshauer has relinquished his position at Hancock, N. Y., and returned to his former home in Honesdale.

—Circulation to the extent of $15,000, is being distributed, in the cashing of checks, etc., to the customers and friends of the Honesdale National Bank.

—Secretary of State Robert T. McAfee has ruled that the justices of the peace elected November 7 will serve for a term of six years and one month instead of the regular term of five years.

—Dr. F. W. Powell has purchased the John Hewitt farm in Cherry Ridge township. The property consists of four acres of land. There is a house and barn thereon. The doctor intends to raise chickens on an extensive scale.

—W. L. Burnard and Edward Hempstead have formed a firm and have purchased the livery business of C. W. Elmendorf conducted in the Hotel Wayne barn. In connection with this the new firm has acquired the bus line operated by Mr. Loomis of the same hotel.

—In the list of school directors who attended the annual convention of the Wayne County School Directors' Association at the Court House, November 17, the name of J. E. Haley, who has been treasurer of the Prompton School Board for three years, was inadvertently omitted.

—The role of Jacqueline in "Madame X," which was so beautifully portrayed here on Monday evening by Miss Adelaide French, was created at the New Amsterdam Theatre, New York, by Miss Dorothy Donnelly who was seen here three seasons ago in "The Lion and the Mouse."

—The sermons by the Missionary Father at St. John's Catholic church during the Forty Hours' Devotion, are masterpieces and are listened to with close attention. The beautiful edifice with its innumerable electric lights and its myriads of candles presents of indelible splendor.

—Emerson W. Gammell, while touring northern Wayne on Monday got "stuck" in snow drifts between Poyntelle and Lakewood. After going five miles, Mr. Gammell was compelled to return and take a different road to come home. He said it is surprising the amount of snow and drifts that are still in that part of the county.

—Miss Grace Hall, formerly of this place, daughter of Mrs. Stanley Hines, of Orson, and Archibald Hines of that place, will be married this (Tuesday) evening at 8 o'clock by Rev. W. H. Swift. Miss Charlotte Bullock will be maid of honor. Others to attend from Honesdale were Mrs. Grant Tallman, daughter, Miss Alice and Miss Laura Bullock.

—The old abandoned pond site on Willow Avenue, south of Albert Hall, and owned by Dexter Lambert & Co., has been mutilated by mischievous boys in hacking the willow trees which make a dense undergrowth. The improvement society should secure the privilege of making a park suitable for rest and private picnic parties, thereby covering expense of park improvement.

—When you hear a man sneering at the local paper because he claims it is not as newsy as the daily papers you can safely bet he does not squander any of his wealth in assisting to make it better and that generally the paper has done more for him than he has for it. The man who cannot see the benefits arising from a local newspaper is about as much value to a town as a delinquent tax list.

—Hancock, West Virginia, contains about 90 square miles with an estimated apple crop of 100,000 barrels for 1911. A sudden drop in the temperature caught many big apple growers with fruit not picked. The apples frozen are the Willow Twig and the variety that brings big spring prices. C. E. Brenneman, uncle of R. B. Brenneman, who visited at Honesdale last fall lost about 1,000 barrels.

—The Electric Light company are placing the lamps for street lighting on Willow Avenue and Tryon street. The oil lamps will be abandoned or used on streets where electric lamps do not reach. Those streets are outside the borough limits and the expense of lighting is maintained by public subscription. Well-lighted streets on public thoroughfares are most necessary and it is hoped that this convenience will elicit generous donations from all residents on said streets.

KISSING SALVE.

Editor Scranton Times—What is Tulp Salve and where could I get some? There is no such remedy as tulp salve. The term is generally used for kissing.

State Pays $5,000,000 to Schools.

The State Treasury has reached the five million dollars mark in the payment of money for school districts, over 2,200 districts having been paid thus far. This money comes from the 1909 appropriation. There are about 2,500 districts in the State, and payments are being made at the rate of a quarter of a million dollars a day.

MY THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION.

I have much to be thankful for this Thanksgiving, 1911. I thank the public whose favors have enabled me to do a highly pleasing jewelry business between two Thanksgiving days since my first opening this store in Honesdale, and I accept this favor as an obligation on me to still further improve my stock and my service in every way possible.

Especially do I thank the many who, after finding my goods, my prices, and my ways satisfactory, have spoken their words of approval to friends and so have increased the number of my customers. I thank you for accepting my intentions as the apology for occasional mistakes; for overlooking this and that; for your confidence in my earnest desire to please you.

Finally, I thank my critics for calling attention to my faults, for now I may mend the worst of them and thus more efficiently serve you. ROWLAND JEWELER 1127 Main
