HAWLEY. (Special to The Citizen.)

Hawley, Pa., Nov. 28. The last Hallowe'en party of the season will come off in 'Squire W. Ammerman's office next Wednesday right in broad daylight when about twenty of our town's young-sters will be brought there for a a hearing. On the night of October 30th when blacksmith Benj. De-Groat locked his shop on Church Groat locked his shop on Church street he supposed that he had every thing in safekeeping, but accidentally left a wagon standing outside. This was too much of a temptation for this bunch of boys so they had their own fun. The next morning Mr. DeGroat found his wagon down by Lackawaxen in a dilapidated ition. Ever since that time he condition. has been doing some detective work and now says that he has the names the culprits and intends to bring them to terms.

Peter Bower's new knitting mill is nearly ready for occupancy. He will move his machinery in this fine building about the middle of next month. Mr. Bower has given his employes permission to have a grand ball in the building just previous to his moving which will go a good ways towards warming things up. Mr. Shultz, owner of the Cherry Ridge cottage near Wilsonville, will not return to the sity this winter ow not return to the city this winter ow-

All are cordially invited to the Thanksgiving supper which will be given on that evening in the basement of St. Philomena church. Price of supper, 35 cents.

The smiling countenance of the genial Reinhard Thielke is receiving a warm welcome in town this week. The Rev. Mr. Hess occupied the pulpit of the Baptist church on Sunday night.

Some fine timber is being cut up the Paupack river. Last week Chas. Afford helped, cut a hickory tree straight as an arrow from which three 16 foot logs were cut. The but log at the tan ond measured 28 butt log at the top end measured 36 inches across.

Mrs. P. R. Cross of Shohola, attended Rose Rebekah Lodge Saturday evening. She remained in town until the following afternoon and was entertained while here by Mrs. Augusta Buck and daughter, Harriet

Dr. M. H. Ely paid a visit to the county seat on Wednesday, being called there by the indisposition of his son, Dr. Harry Ely,

The Ladies Ald of the Presbyter-ian church met with Mrs. E. L. Schlager Thursday. Mrs. Morris Skier has with her as a visitor her sister, a young lady from New York city.

A. Baird of the East Side, called on friends at Bohemia, Pa., the latter part of the week. Miss Edna Lewis, a school teacher

In the state of New Jersey, will spend few Thanksgiving in town at the home Lee. of her brother, Merton.

The grade pupils will give a school entertainment in the school auditorium December 8.

Frank Murphy had the lucky num-r which secured for him the oak rocker given away at Dreamland Friday night. There was a full house and special music.

Mrs. Irvin Daniels, of Wilsonville, has returned from a trip to the Electric City, stopping on the way at Ariel and spending the afternoon with her friend, Mrs. Starbert Tress-

Rev. B. P. Ripley and wife will partake of their Thanksglving dinner the Ripley family reunion to be held in Scranton.

Wall & Murphy have purchased the lumber on a 200-acre lot of S. R. Crane, Uswick. This lies joining the Charles Crane estate. They now have 250 acres of timber in that im-mediate neighborhood. A gang of men are now at work cutting the New York and the solution of the late slowly improving. There were services at Cobl Memorial church on Sunday at p. m. The formers are been public timber. T. J. Burke, Scranton, spent sev-eral days at Hawley last week. with friends at Sc

Quite a large sum of our people's will spend part of the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Many. Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Many and Mr. and Mrs. Judson Noble will eat their Thanksgiving dinner with Mr. Mrs. George Allen of Fallsdale. and Mrs. Harry Smith and two little daughters, Lillian and Violet, spent Sunday at Forest City with Mr. and Mrs. James Hauser and family.

PAUPACK. [Special to The Citizen.]

Paupack, Pa., Nov. 27. F. Kellam is visiting Mr Mrs. B. F. and Mrs. V. G. Bennett, Camden, N.

Mrs. H. Fowler, also W. Vettereen, are entertaining winter boarders.

We are glad to see Mrs. Bennett out after her recent illness. R. G. Phillips moved to Hawley this week Frederick, the one-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Probst, died Sunday last, Nov. 12. The family has the sympathy of the entire com-

Arthur and August Gumble returned home from Wisconsin cently.

Miss Kester, Ida and Blanche Fowler spent Wednesday with Anna Steinman.

We are sorry to see Rev. and Mrs. Purkiss go away. They expect to sail for England on Thursday. We wish them a very pleasant trip.

ORSON.

[Special to The Citizen.] Orson, Pa., Nov. 28. Mrs. S. H. Hine is in Scranton on business The M. E. Aid society will be by Spencer whether Mr. Brussells postponed two weeks and will meet was drunk Wednesday, when he saw with Mrs. John Taylor on December him at the hotel. 14th for dinner. John Rhone, who returned from ly from her recent illness as to be around the house.

Three hundred invitations have been extended to the Hall-Hine wedding on November 28 Ward Hine is visiting in Carbondale. Several people in our vicinity have ecome victims of the grip. Smith Simpson, who has been suf-his parents.

Sara Whipple is in Carbondale for couple of days.

Bessie Wall has returned to her home in Brooklyn, N. Y., after a few days' stay with her father, S. H.

HOLLISTERVILLE.

[Special to The Citizen.] Hollisterville, Pa., Nov. 25. Miss Nellie Hollister, who has been on the sick ist, has greatly improved

Joe Frable and Miss Nellie Brown were visitors last Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Max Swartz of Madisonville.

The Ladies' Aid society of the M. church met at the home of Mrs. Minnie Blesecker last Wednesday evening and had a very social time. Rev. Mr. Cure, pastor of the Baptist church, is on a month's vacation The celebration of the Lord's Supper took place in the M. P. church last Sunday morning.

Mrs. Del. Brown has been on the sick list for the past week, but is

There were services at Cobb's

The farmers are busy putting in

Mrs. Edith Potter was a visitor with friends at Scranton for a few days last week. to Thirteen Dollars in all. Thirteen always was an number, anyhow.

(Continued from Page One.)

What kind of a day was it?"

ney, and cross-examined all the wit-

"When did that team come to your place?" he asked.

r place?" he asked. About 2:30," answered Schim-

Did I misuse the cow?" question-

" She stood there for two or three hours, 'insisted Schimmell. "Mark that down!" cried the cross-examiner, looking over the tato seil him. 'What do you want?' he asked. '$25,' I told him." Mr.

Mr.

FOUND GUILTY

he asked.

Desses

mell.

hours,

ed Brussells.

you went up to Hotel Wayne. I saw the about that. It isn't necessary. Just cow on one knee, under the wagon. fix your road section. It is always It was dark. She was down on one the fellow who does the least who It was dark. She was down on one knee or both. I went home for sup-per. After I came back I saw one cow fighting with another cow and tipping the wagon over. Mr. Brus-rells came out and said, 'I'll give you fifty cents, if you catch the cow,' I tried to lasso the cow. No, the hoises weren't blanketed when I was there, around 5:30." Mr. Brussells cross-examined the witness, and particularly anxious to witness, and particularly anxious to know what he had done with the 50-foot length of new rope he had giv-en him to catch the cow. Mr. Mac-Mullen told him he had it at his office Liveryman Charles Elmendorf, the third witness called, testified to first seeing the team in front of the Hotel Wayne, around 2:30 or 3 p. m. They stood there," he declared, "un-til 6:60. They were not blanketed. Canivan brought the team there bemen were chosen the township bought them each a drag. On one tween 8 and 9 p. m. and told me to take care of them. I fed them and occasion I hitched a drag behind a watered them." Mr. Elmendorf then went on to tell of coming out of the barn early the roads were getting better. In the afternoon and seeing the team We pay 40 cents an hour for dragstanding there. One cow was hitch-ed to the side of the wagon and ging, counting from the time they start to hitch up until the harness is off his horses again. We don't swaying it up and down. Then a runaway demanded his attention. When Brussells came back later, he said, "Somebody stole his team." need to worry about some one beat-ing the township. See what kind of work these men do, and if the work is good pay them well. The average fellow is all right unless he sees you Mr. Elmendorf couldn't say whether Brussells was intoxicated or not when he saw him at the Hotel not

Wayne. Brussells cross-examined Elmendorf, who said he thought the horses stepped on the end of the pole and broke it off. Schimmell was recalled and asked Brussells your own farm.

"Yes," he answered. "I think he had about all he could stand; a good the State Hospital, Scranton, on Nov. 17, is suffering a relapse and is quite ill again at his home. Mrs. Frank Sanford is quite sick again, after having gained sufficient-to for the state of the same question, to which he replied, "I wasn't in long enough to tell." go out doing something. The defendant then stated his ver-behind you.

ine defendant then stated his ver-sion of the case, as follows: "My team," he said, "was fed at Hawley at 11:45 at the Kohlman House. I stopped at Niemyer's, White Mills, and sold them a chunk of beef. I stopped at 2:30 at the Indian Orchard Hotel. I bought the red cow at Mrs. Mang's at 3:30 or 1913 and, if they are passed by that legislature, will be submitted to the I drove to Fletch Bunnell's. Smith Simpson, who has been sui-fering intensely from rheumatism the past few weeks, is some better at the present. Chester Hine has returned to his work at Lestershire, N. Y., after returning from Eden, Delaware, with the present. Under the proposed and bought fifty foot of half-inch rope. The cow had from 10 to 50 feet of slack rope if she wanted it. 1 met Schimmell at the Hotel Wayne, I tied my team in the store it. i met Schimmell at the Hotel Wayne. I tied my team to the stone post. I went into the barn to see a cow. I bought the cow for $24. I to the people.

unhitched my team and the blankets was on them.

I don't need no witnesses," cried Brussells when the 'Squire asked him to produce them. "Well now," finally declared the 'Squire, "I think you are technically ing that the general assembly may authorize the borrowing of $50,000,guilty according to the law of cruelty to animals, and I shall have to fine you $10 and costs. But you have the right to take an appeal." 000 for improvements of public roads. This proposed amendment which is designed to provide the funds for the construction of the State's system of main highway was generally favored in the last legis-

I take an appeal," shouted Brussells. One of the men present advised him to pay the fine and costs. He He was about to do so, when County Detective N. B. Spencer interposed. ing session because of the pronounc-ed sentiment in favor of good roads.

The plaintiff and witnesses then left the office, Detective Spencer and Mr. Brussells remaining with Squire.

Before they left Brussells shouted: Say, what does it cost to lick a man?

Nobody being able to give him the desired information the crowd left, and the episode of the red cow, and the alleged unblanketed horses ling-ers in their memory as a serious but somewhat laughable incident. S .- The reporter learned that

Brussels decided, later, to pay made. Mr. the fine and costs, which amounted Thirteen always was an unlucky are as follows: Permitting special legislation

Federal Food Agents Detailed to the State

WILEY WILL AID IN CRUSADE ON RESINOUS-GLAZED CAN-DIES.

Harrisburg, Pa., Nov. 27.-Since James Foust has been at the head of the Dairy and Food Bureau of the Department of Agriculture in Pennsylvania, he has been confronted by a number of difficult problems, but when these matters of administra-tion lay entirely within the bounds of the Keystone state, there has been but little difficulty in adjustment as farmers and asked who wanted a job We told them what we wanted and asked them if they would be willing to contract with the township to local dealers and manufacturers have always been ready to meet the authorities in a friendly spirit and assist in correcting any existing evil. look after a stretch of road which ran past their own farms. After the

However, there are other forces to be dealt with in some manufacturers be deal. outside the state, who do not to foist upon the trade foodstuffs made from inferior and deleterious materials that enables them to un-dersell local men and deceive the consuming public. Among the most glaring of these at present are the cheap grades of candles covered with a cheap grades of candles covered with varnish and shellac, commonly re-varnish and shellac, commonly re-to a solution of the trouble and draw the germ life from underneath the skin and destroy it. In this way a complete little automobile and showed a farmer how to use it. It did not take the farmers long to see that Commissioner Foust pronounces as destroy it. In this way a complete unsanitary and in violation of the general food act approved May 13, 1903, in that confectionery conted are trying to "skin him," and then he turns around and very likely beats with a resinous glaze affects the quality, strength and purity, also conceals inferiority and is injurious.

to health; and, following his ruling All you have to do if your supervisors will not make a move is to do something yourself. Get a drag and on the question made some time ago, he has already entered some fifget to work. If the supervisors will not get you a drag, make one or buy one for a few dollars. In some way teen suits against offenders selling this class of goods, and there will be more to follow. The Commissioner in speaking of get a drag on the road that runs by the matter this morning said that in some samples his agents had collect-ed, he found that the varnish and shellac applied to the confections If you are interested in good roads, don't content yourself with saying: "I favor this measure," but but had rendered them as hard as flint, and the effect on the stomach of the If your neighbors throws some bouquets at you why pick them up and thank him. You can do a whole lot in your community with the Jones law child could not help being injurious, as any layman who uses shellac to cover wood could easily determine for himself without the aid of any expert. The shellac is used simply to cheapen and preserve his product CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS. for the manufacturer, without the slightest reference to the health of Five proposed amendments to the onstitution of Pennsylvania will be the consumer or any other consid-eration except that of pure selfishlaid before the general assembly of ness and commercial profit, But in dealing with the powerful forces in the commercial world who would further their own interests at the expense of the public, every re-source of the Department will have to be marshaled for the fight, and the Commissioner has already arranged with the Federal authorities to secure their hearty and active co-The most important of the amendments and which will probably fig-ure considerably in the campaign of 1912, when half of the members of the Senate and all of the members to secure their hearty and active co-operation. United States District Attorney John H. Jordon, of the Western District of Pennsylvania, will assist in the matter, as will also Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, Chief of the Bureau of Chemistry at Washington, whose experts will be present at the trial of the cases to give testimony. The founging is an extract from a of the next House of Representa-tives will be elected, is that propos-

The following is an extract from a letter received from Dr. Wiley by Commissioner Foust a few days ago:

"In so far as the cases have been put up to me I have never yet had presented to me a glaz-ed sample of confectionery, which in my opinion did not in some matter come within the scope of inhibition of the law. Either the glaze itself contained indigestible material which must of necessity work injury, especially in the child's stomach, or it concealed some of kind inferiority, or it injuriously af-fected the quality and strength of the material, or it permitted unsanitary handling, or per-mitted the goods to be held for a long time and sold with the appearance of freshness.

the money be made available in 1913. No plans, however, have been preparing for the state wide crusade, Commissioner Foust has Governor John K. Tener and Attor-The other proposed amendments his hands, and the state cases will be prosecuted by Attorneys A. H. Woodward, of Clearfield, and Hon. Woodward, of Clearfield, and Hon. Lyman D. Gilbert, of Harrisburg. As has already been intimated, the Commissioner is not trying to make trouble for the honest manufacturer and dealer in Pennsylvania, but said this morning that "he desired that the rotalier should protect himself in his buying and not be caught with a large quantity of the goods of the a large quantity of the goods of the character indicated, as he would not be allowed to sell them to the pub-lic, for every county in the state will be thoroughly canvassed for goods of the kind."

Zemo Makes Astonishing Eczema Cures

"WE PROVE IT."

Every day ZEMO gives relief and cures men, women and children in every city and town in America whose skins are on fire with tortur-ing ECZEMA rashes and other itch-ing, burning, scaly, and crusted skin and scalp humors.

ZEMO and ZEMO (ANTISEPTIC) SOAP, two refined preparations will give you such quick relief that you give you such quick relief that you will feel like a new person. We give you three reasons why we recommend and endorse ZEMO and ZEMO SOAP for all skin and scalp eruptions.

1st. They are clean, scientific preparations that give universal sat-isfaction and are pleasant and agree-by the A. M. Leine drug store.

THE POOR THING.

William H. Harris, a groom of one week, reversed the general order of things in matrimonial squabbles and before his wife could become dissat-isfied and "go back to mother he did it. After a week of housekeep-ing on Wayne avenue, North Scran-ton, he is alleged to have come home only to find that his eighteenyear-old bride had allowed one side of the fire in the kitchen range to of the fire in the kitchen range to go out and he left her, returning to his parents' home. He was held in $500 bail for his appearance in court by Alderman John T. Howe. He is ten years his bride's senior.

C We wish to secure a good correspondent in every town in Wayne county. Don't be afraid to write this office for paper and stamped envelops.

Stop straining your entire system quit coughing. Peil's Cold Tablets will break up your cold quickly. Then take Laxative White Pine Cough Syrup and fool the cough. An ideal combination. Try it.

-FOR-

It is recognized that the bond is-sue will be needed if the state is to get first-class roads on a compre-hensive plan, and as it is the idea to issue the bonds as required f time to time the charges will from distributed over a term of years. When the proposition passes the next general assembly a special elec-tion might be called for the purpose of voting on the amendment and the enabling legislation passed so that lature and it is not believed that it will be seriously opposed in the com-money was invested in the Colum-bia Sterling Magazine Publishing Co., which went into the hands of a receiver lately. Some are bewailing their loss while others consider it worth the amount of their loss to learn their first lesson in finance.

David Spruks and a party of Scranton sportsmen are among the campers in the wilds of Pike coun-ty. They have thus far killed two fine bucks, one tipping the scales at 200 pounds.

J. S. Lee, Milford, was a business caller in town on Saturday. A new model steam boiler has been placed in R. Richart's home on the East Side.

A character social for the benefit of the M. E. Sunday school was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Wall on Tuesday night. asked Spencer. I think it was quite a cold day,"

BETHANY.

[Special to The Citizen.] Bethany, Pa., Nov. 28.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Bryant and son, Duane, recently spent Sunday in Car-bondale visiting Mrs. Bryant's broth-

Wesley Paynter and family. Mrs. E. W. Gammell spent Wednesday in Scranton.

Rev. Bierly preached a Thanksglving sermon Sunday morning in the Methodist church.

A Thanksgiving entertainment will be given by Mr. Hoar's scholars in the school house Wednesday. Kenneth Bryant will spend Thanksgiving in Carbondale with Thanksgiving in Carbondale with

(Continued from Page One.)

will then be up to this man to look after every mile of the roads of the schimmell then went on to tell of their haggling over the purchase price of the cow, and of Brussell's finally buying it for $24. The supervisors are empowered to contract with anybody they wish to The supervisors are twith anybody they wish to contract with anybody they wish to work on the roads, assigning to these contractors sections which may be from 1 foot to 10 miles in length. This is the chief advantage of the length is the length is a lengt "Do you know when this team was fed?" asked Spencer. "No," replied Schimmell. Brussells acted as his own attor-

township. On these maps the exact length in feet of every piece of road is clearly shown. The Supervisors can then divide up this road mileage into sections of any length they se-lect, and contract with men to look after each section, just the same as they contract for the erection of a house. This scheme has the advant-age that the work is not all up to that the work is not all up to age that the work is not all up to one man, and, to use a homely ex-pression, no one need "bite off more than he can chew." most important are the dancing regulating labor, amending Article III, section 7.

Regulating expiration of terms of judges, amending Article VIII, section 2

Permitting graded or progressive taxes, amending Article IX, section

1. Providing that obligations made by a county or municipality outside of Philadelphia for various public works shall not be considered within debt limit if self-supporting a new section to be known as No. 15, of Article IX.

THE "THREE TWINS."

The supervisors of each township should obtain a road map of the township. On these maps the exact with its seven ages of cuddling is o much Of

A Thanksgiving entertainment is the school house Wednesday.
Miss the weart the school house Wednesday.
Miss the school house Wedn

CASTORIA For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought Bears the Chart H. Flitchers

NOTICE OF ADMINISTRATION, NOTICE OF ADMINISTRATION ESTATE OF HUGH A. LANCASTER, Late of Dreher Township, All persons indebted to said estate are noti-fied to make immediate payment to the un-dersigned; and those having claims against the said estate are notified to present them duly attested, for settlement. ALONZO T. SEARLE. Executor.

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

We, the undersigned, have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions and financially able to carry out any obligations made by his firm.

Walaing, Kinnan & Marvin, - Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Testimoniais sent free. Price 75 cents per bottle. Sold by all Druggsts.

Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

FARM MARES A SPECIALTY. All horses sold as represented by a reliable TRACT

FIRST CLASS LIVERY,

Coaches for weddings and funerals. BUS CALLS promptly answered-both phones. Farmers always welcome.

Allen House Stable, M. LEE BRAMAN.

NOTICE TO BONDHOLDERS OF THE MILANVILLE BRIDGE CO.

The bondholders of the Milanville The bondholders of the Milanville Bridge Company will take notice that in pursuance of a resolution duly adopted by the Company, and in ac-cordance with the provisions of the mortgage dated January 2, 1905, given by the Milanville Bridge Co. to Homer Greene, trustee, one thous-and dollars of the bonds secured by said mortgage have been drawn for said mortgage have been drawn for redemption. On presentation of said honds to Homer Greene, Trustee, at his office in Honesdale, Pa., they will his office in Honesdale, Pa., they will be paid at their par value, together with interest thereon to January 1, 1912; on and after which date in-terest thereupon will cease. The numbers of the bonds so drawn are as follows: 64, 243, 32, 153, 218, 242, 30, 112, 276, 33, 36, 114, 37, 245, 300, 87, 251, 227, 290, 298, 138, 11, 229, 126, 240, 100, 188, 142, 160, 281, 16, 62, 187, 546, 272, 164, 89, 169, 12, 173. CHAS. E. BEACH, Secretary of the Milanville Bridge Company.

Company. Nov. 14, 1911. 92eo14w

