AGQUIT MRS. PATTERSON.

Woman Whom Husband Sold Held Blameless For His Murder.

Denver, Colo., Nov. 30 .- The jury in the case of Gertrude Gibson Patterson acquitted the woman of the charge of murdering her husband.

Mrs. Patterson, who showed the effect of the hours of suspense, was jub! lant over her acquittal.

The jury upheld the contention of her attorney that she was justified in shooting Patterson because he sold her to Emil Strouss for $1,500.

A tremendous demonstration in fa vor of the defendant-the most remarkable witnessed in a courtroom here in recent years-greeted the reading of the jury's verdict.

SUFFRAGISTS ARE THANKFUL

See In California Victory a Genera Success of Cause.

New York, Nov. 30.-By all odds the most thankful women in New York are the suffragists. They say so themselves. It is California they are most thankful for. Then there is the fact that it has become a national issue. for has not Victor Berger, the Socialist congressman, started a million name petition which is to be presented to congress early in the year as a federal dll asking that to women shall be given the right of suffrage?

Many clergymen of New York have signified their intention of working for vomen's enfranchisement.

The Rev. Anna Howard Shaw, president of the national association, says that as a result of the California victory she has received letters and cable grams from Hungary, Germany, Holand, Russia, England and Sweden, all of which assert that the victory in California is a victory for them. "The next best thing we have to be thankful for," says Dr. Shaw, "is the prospect of at least three other states of the west coming in-Kansas, Oregor and Wisconsin."

The sale was started with 500 live and 150 dressed turkeys, 200 live and 250 dressed chickens, 100 geese and seventy-five ducks, and all were sold in six hours. The mayor attended to the sales in person. and it was only when he offered turkeys at auction that he got the worst of it. One turkey that weighed twentythree pounds was put up and brought only $2.20. Shank thought it weighed only thirteen pounds. "But that turkey weighs twenty-

HANDMADE LACE HANDEBCHIEF

There is nothing new about sending a handkerchief for a Christmas offering, but custom cannot stale the infinite variety of the mouchoir, and, no matter how well the recipient may be provided with these very necessary accessories, one more never comes amiss Almost every needlewoman nowadays makes Battenberg lace, and the handkerchief Illustrated here is a lovely example of this handsome variety. The center is of finest linen, with the lace pattern fitted about it.

Stamped patterns, as every one knows, are to be purchased in lace designs, and all the lacemaker has to do is to stitch the kind of Battenberg braid she elects to use over the stamped design, then fill in the lace stitches with No. 1000 linen thread. A pearled edging finishes the design.

If the recipient's initials are worked in tiny letters in one corner of the handkerchief they give an individual touch that is most attractive and smart looking.
