TO UNCOVER FACTS

Federal Dynamiting Probe to Be Thorough.

SAYS GOMPERS IS UNSAFE.

District Attorney Miller, In Charge of Indianapolis Investigation, Says Effort Will Be Made to Bring to Justice All Involved In the "Damnable Conspiracy."

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 5.-District Attorney Miller, who has charge of presenting the dynamiting evidence to the federal grand jury, declares that the investigation will be thorough.

"The investigation now being made by the government," said he, "will be complete, and an earnest effort will be made to bring to justice all the men who are involved in the most damnable conspiracy ever entered into in this country. The people are entitled to know all the facts.

"Such unsafe leaders as Gompers must be retired. Let men like Duffy, who stand honest ground, come to the front. Let men like Keegan, who have no respect for the law, remain silent as to the rights of labor, and let laboring men who stand for law and order present to the public labor's rights. The destruction of life and property must

John J. Keegan, member of the legislature and state organizer for the Machinists' union, declared;

"I am just as proud of the friendship of John J. McNamara today as I was two weeks ago." Keegan says that John J. McNamara pleaded guilty to a crime he did not commit, insisting that by press dis-patches he was informed that McNamara had pleaded guilty to the charge of planting dynamite under the Llewellyn Iron works when, as a matter of fact, the dynamite was put there by another man. Keegan said he knew McNamara was in Cincinnati on the day the iron works was blown up.

Frank M. Ryan, president of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Ironworkers, is "keeping under cover" to avoid newspaper men, according to Leo M. Rappaport, counsel for the union. Herbert S. Hockin. acting secretary-treasurer of the union, says he does not know definitely the present whereabouts of the head of the Rappaport, however, is in touch with Ryan, according to Rappaport's statement.

There is no mystery about the whereabouts of Mr. Ryan," Mr. Rappaport said. "I know where he is, and I will tell you frankly that he is now engaged in dodging newspaper report ers. Mr. Ryan will appear at the headquarters at the proper time. He heard of the confession of the McNamaras after he left Atlanta, and it took him off his feet.

"He has not made any statement in regard to it, and he doesn't intend to make any statement until he has time to collect his wits and get on his feet.'

PASSES LIE TO BURNS.

Gompers Denies That He Knew Mc Namaras Were Guilty.

New York, Dec. 5 .- "In view of the guilt of the McNamaras and the charges of Detective William J. Burns that you knew of their guilt weeks before they pleaded guilty in court, do you intend to remain president of the American Federation of Labor?" was asked of Samuel Gompers at the Victoria hotel.

"I don't fee! called upon to answer that," he said, raising his voice and emphasizing each word. "But I will say this. It was only recently that I was unanimously re-elected president of the American Federation of Labor. These are my credentials and that is my answer."

Mr. Gompers, who had been confer ring with his lawyers over the con tempt proceedings growing out of the Bucks stove and range case, denounce ed Detective Burns

"There is no truth in what he says," declared Gompers. "I understand that he says that Lawyer Clarence Darrow told me at a conference of labor men at Indianapolis June 5 the McNamaras were gullty. That is not so. Every thing that Burns has said about me is false. If Darrow was in Indianapolis at that time I didn't know it. There were about forty labor men there, and they didn't know it."

"How about the telegram that Darrow sent to you at the convention at Atlanta more than two weeks before the McNamaras announced their guilt in court?

"I got that telegram," said Gompers. "Darrow asked that one of certain men whom he named be sent to Los Angeles to confer with him. There was nothing in the telegram to show what Darrow wanted to confer about I can't recall the names of the men mentioned in the telegram now. Yes (this in reply to a suggestion), Edward Nockels, secretary of the Chicago Federation of Labor, was one of the men named in the telegram. I turned to one or two of the men named and asked them if they could go. That's all I know about it."

How about the statement that J. J. McNamara got a monthly fund of E',000 from the Ironworkers union for which he did not have to make an accounting?"

Mr. Gompers would not make a defialte enswer to this specific question.

STILL AT ODDS IN CHINA.

Little Progress Being Made Toward Peace by Contending Parties.

Peking, Dec. 5 .- The efforts to settle the difference between the revolution ists and the government seem to have made no visible progress. One thing which is hampering the new premier is the financial situation, which is still acute. The treasury is practically bankrupt and unless the government can obtain a loan soon they will have to negotiate with the rebels as with an independent power. The armistice at Hankow is still operative, but it is reported that the victorious rebel commander at Nanking has already dispatched a force to re-enforce the revolutionists at Hankow. Ten gunboats have also been sent there by the rebels.

Cardinal Falconio, it is announced, will not take possession of his new · burch until January. His successor will be appointed in about two months.

LONG SESSION.

Congress May Not Adjourn & Memphis (Tonic) District. Until Next Fall.

A BIG LEGISLATIVE PROGRAM

Leaders of Both Parties Have Eyes Focused on Possible Political Advantages to Be Gained Than on President's Tariff and Antitrust Plans.

Washington, Dec. 5 .- The most strik ing feature in connection with the opening of the second session of the Sixty-second congress is the extreme views taken by the leaders of both parties in regard to the probable length of the legislative period.

Leader Underwood declared that the present meeting of congress will be one of the longest on record, notwithstanding the fact that the conventions of both parties will be held early in the summer and everybody will be desirous of getting away to mend political fences.

"It is undoubtedly to be the busiest session in fifty years," said Mr. Underwood. "We will probably be here far into next fall."

Representative Mann, leader of the minority in the house, expressed a similar opinion and other Republicans and Democrats in both the house and senate had equally pessimistic views.

These predictions are of course based on the ambitious program of legislation that the president is said to have in mind, notably tariff revision and legislation supplementing the Sherman anti-trust law.

The opening of the session served only to emphasize the fact that the congress leaders of both parties have already focused their attention upon the political phases of the present session rather than on the probable legislative program.

From the present outlook neither house of congress will settle down to serious legislative work until the national committees have held their meetings in this city and the times and places for the two big conventions have been set.

Two senators, Obadiah Gardner of Maine, who takes the seat so long occupied by Senator Frye, and Hoke Smith of Georgia, attracted considerable attention. It was Hoke Smith's first appearance in Washington official life since he was Cleveland's secre tary of the interior fifteen years ago was cordially greeted by old friends, Both of the new senators were sworn in. On motion of Senator Gallinger, Senator Curtis of Kansas was designated to preside over the senate until Tuesday of next week. the vice president's absence being ne cessitated by the death of his mother in-law in Utica,

The hour of meeting for the senate was temporarily set at 2 o'clock in the afternoon instead of noon.
