Have YOU thought of the TIRED SHOPGIRLS? As you treat them you are treating Him. Let that sink home. The greatest kindness you can do these girls is to SHOP EARLY.

If the majority of people would do that the girls could enjoy their Christmas, too, for they would not be TIRED TO DEATH by working at a KILLING PACE till midnight on Christmas

Daily Christmas Hint

A Shaving Set is a Gift a Man Will Like

PORECELAIN AND SILVER SHAVING SET. If you are debating what to buy some man of the family the one who shaves will be pleased with this handsome shaving stand, provided he is not already supplied with similar toilet utensils.

This stand is of white porcelain overlaid with silver deposit work. The mirror has a plated silver standard. It is a revolving mirror, one side reflecting the face, as in ordinary sized, and the other side enlarging it. One of the cups is intended for soap, the other for hot water.

Envy, Little Willie—Percy Floot ate so much Christmas candy that he liked to died. Little Bob—Gee, some kids is lucky!

A Home Present That All Can Enjoy

GOthic CHAIR.

Instead of giving some trifling gift that will be forgotten when the holidays are over, the members of the family might unite in purchasing a gift like the one illustrated here. This chair is a comfortable mahogany piece of furniture in Gothic design, the cut-out back giving a delightful appearance of lightness.

Such a gift will keep the memory of Christmas green all the year and may be enjoyed by every one. Grandfather or grandmother or the dear old aunt or uncle who makes your home his or her refuge in the autumn of life will appreciate a chair like this. It should not be forgotten that the old enjoy pretty things quite as much as the young.

Miss Oldgirl—I wonder why that baby always yells whenever it sees me.

Crusty Old Bachelor—Because, madam, babies have the privilege denied to other unfortunate beings of expressing their feelings as they please.

HOW SANTA KEEPS HIS WHISKERS CLEAN

By JAMES A. EDGERTON

SAYS Tiny Joe: "I'd like to know how Santy's whiskers look like in snow. When he comes froo the chimney flue that's full of soot. Now, wouldn't you?"

SAYS Dottie: "My! That's easy as pie. It's magic keeps him clean; that why."

I know, betause There never was No soot 'ud stick to Santy Claus.

Tommy Was Logical. Uncle Bob came home the night before Christmas with a toy acrobat that would turn over and over on the floor after it had been wound up. Tommy was deeply interested in the trinket and he expressed unbounded admiration for it. He did not ask for it outright, but he went so far as to say, "What are you going to do with Uncle Bob?"

The next morning Tommy was delighted to find a toy acrobat in his stocking. He wound it, and it was soon tumbling about on the floor, which Tommy watched it with great joy.

"It is just like the one Uncle Bob had," said his sister.

"Yes," replied Tommy, "and I think it is the same one. Now, if Uncle Bob has his this morning then this one was given to me by Santa Claus. If Uncle Bob hasn't got his then he gave it to me and there is no Santa Claus I am going to find out whether you folks have been fibbing to me or not."

Who Santa Claus is. Jimmy—D'you know who Santa Claus is?

Tommy—Sure I do! He's Pres'den Taft.

"How d'you make that out?"

"'Cause Santa travels everywhere an' so does the president."
