Moderato

1. O lit - tle town of Beth - le - hem! How still we see thee lie. —
 2. For Christ is born of Ma - ry, And gath - ered all a - bove, —
 3. How si - lent - ly, how si - lent - ly! The wond'rous gift is giv'n! —
 4. O ho - ly Child of Beth - le - hem! De - scend to us, we pray; —

A - bove thy deep and dream - less sleep, The si - lent stars go by; —
 While mor - tals sleep, the an - gels keep Their watch of wond' - ing love; —
 So God im - parts to hu - man hearts The bless - ings of His heav'n —
 Cast out our sin, and en - ter in, Be born in us to - day. —

Yet in thy dark streets shin - eth The ev - er - las - ting light: —
 O morn - ing stars to - geth - er Pro - claim the ho - ly birth: —
 No ear may hear his com - ing, But in this world of sin, —
 We hear the Christ - mas an - gels The great glad tid - ings tell; —

The hopes and fears of all the years. Are met in thee to - night.
 And prais - es sing to God the King And peace to men on earth A - men
 Where meek souls will re - ceive Him still, The dear Christ en - ters in O come to us, a - bide with us, Our Lord E - man - u - el!

Before Purchasing Your

Christmas Presents

Just stop for a minute and give the matter good sensible thought; don't simply buy something to please the eye—something that neither you nor your friends will reap any benefit from—but rather buy something in the line of Pocket Knives, Razors, Scissors, Carvers, Silver Knives and Forks, Tea and Tablespoons, Lamps, Nickel Tea and Coffee Pots, Nickel Trays, Skates, Sleds, or an Oil Heater, a Rochester Radiator or one of the Best Wash Machines on the Market—a White Lily, a White Rose, or White Daisy.
