

THE RAIN

By ROBERTUS LOVE

OF DOLLS

[Copyright, 1911, by American Po- Ass- ociation.]

YOU'VE heard of it "rain- ing cats and dogs," And certain I am it does rain frogs, Sometimes, and polly- wollies. But come and listen to me, my dear, For I want to ask, Did you ever hear Of a rain of real dollies?

'TIS a wonderful rain I'll tell about, And there isn't the tiniest bit of doubt That it comes in Christmas weather And that all night long the doll drops fall From up in the sky through the chimneys tall With no more noise than a feather.

FROM up in the sky where Santa sails In his airship swift as the sweeping gales The dolls rain down the flue, dear, And if you've been good the whole year through And have done the things that you ought to do They are all sent down for you, dear.

THERE'S the girlie doll with the flaxen hair, And the big, fat, growly Teddy bear That is made for hugs and squeezing, And the dolly boy with the queer little hat, And the doggy doll, and the necktied cat, Which I'm sure is very pleasing.

'TIS a rain, my dear, where you don't get wet And you can't catch cold at all, and yet You'd better not be out in it, But stay asleep in your trundle bed Till the sun in the east is rosy red And then jump up that minute!

YES, jump right up in your nightgown white And see what a rain has fallen at night, And it won't be polly- wollies. But there on the hearth where the doll drops fall You'll find them each and you'll love them all— And such is the rain of the dollies.
