LOCAL NEWS

—Be sure to shop early.

—This will be a happy week for many a child—Christmas Eve.

—We are told by those who drive in from the country districts that the roads were never in a worse condition at this time of year.

—E Teeple returned home from Pike county, bringing a 175-pound buck with him. A picture of it can be seen at J. A. Bodie's studio, Honesdale.

—Charles Ainey, of New Milford, brother of Congressman W. D. B. Ainey, will act as the newly elected Congressman's secretary during the present session.

—We feel extremely grateful to our two local contemporaries for the complimentary (?) notices which they have given to our Christmas edition of The Citizen. These notices (?) stand out in bold contrast to the many kind and complimentary things which a large number of out-of-town contemporaries have said about that issue.

—We have had dramas and musical comedies galore this season, and now, an opportunity is at hand to witness an entertainment by an all-colored negro company, best known as the "Dixie Chorus," at the Lyric on Monday evening (Christmas), December 25. Scenes in this production are "In the Jungle," "In the Cotton Field," "In the Camp Meeting," "In the Cabin," "Under the War Cloud," and "The Service." Popular prices will prevail and the Lyric will no doubt have a capacity house on Christmas night.

—At the last meeting of the Knights of Columbus the following officers were elected: Grand Knight, Philip R. Murray, Jr.; deputy grand knight, Bernard Cavanaugh; financial secretary, George Deltzer; recording secretary, John Rickert; warden, Jacob Demer; treasurer, Edward Deltzer; advocate, C. A. McCarty; chancellor, John Carroll; chaplain, Rev. T. M. Hanley; outside guard, Lawrence Bried; inside guard, George Schilling; trustee, W. T. McConville. The officers will be installed at the January meeting.

—Only three more selling days are left in the Red Cross Seal campaign. Reports from every section of the state show that the sale this year will be larger than ever before. It is hoped that at least 1,200,000 seals will be sold. One school teacher in less than a week sold 2,000 seals. In some of the larger stores throughout the State as many as 50,000 seals have been sold already. One newspaper has disposed of 10,000. In Erie one of the local branches of the Pennsylvania Society for the prevention of Tuberculosis has obtained a vacuum cleaner, which they have offered to the person selling the greatest number of Red Cross Seals.

—Only four more days to shop.

—Judge A. T. Searle is holding court in Milford. Our judge is in great demand, which is evidence of his popularity.

—Mrs. Charles Wood, of Bethany, fell in her home the first of the week and dislocated her right shoulder. Dr. F. W. Powell was called.

—A slight fire in the barn of Fred W. Clauson, Thirteenth street, Friday was extinguished by H. H. Richards, before any serious damage was done to the property.

—Monday was a brisk business day for our merchants. Several people from the rural districts were in town and went home with their arms loaded with Christmas gifts for other members of the family. A few inches of snow would enliven trade throughout the county. Patronize the Citizen's advertisers.

—Dr. Frederick A. Cook has entered suit against the New York Times charging that the paper has libeled him by publishing false and defamatory statements for which he asks $100,000 damages. Three causes of action are named in the complaint, the first being the publication of a report of a lecture at Copenhagen, in which it was said that Dr. Cook stopped his lecture and fled to his hotel by the side streets escorted by police.

—The German Catholic club of St. Mary Magdalen's church elected officers and enjoyed an evening together last Thursday. After election a banquet and smoker was held. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Frank Vetter; vice-president, Joseph Chambers; corresponding secretary, John Stegner; financial secretary, Joseph Hessling; treasurer, Frank Myers, Jr.; orator, Paul Sonner; marshal, Henry Holl.

—Contractor Addison R. Keesler, of Scranton, through his attorneys, Searle and Salmon, instituted suit in the Court of Common Pleas of Wayne county, December 18, against Morrow Brothers, contractors, at present engaged in work upon the State Hospital for Criminal Insane at Fairview, for $187.26, with interest from July 7, 1911. Mr. Keesler alleges that on June 11, 1911, and on divers other occasions from that time until July 7, 1911, he performed for the defendant, and at his request, certain work and labor of the value of $287.71. Most of the items in the bill of extras appended to the statement are for wages due certain of his employees for gouging and drilling holes.

—The new blanks to enable people to apply to the State Department of Fisheries for fish fry have been completed and persons or clubs desiring them may obtain the papers at the office of the department. With the announcement Commissioner N. R. Buller inaugurates a new system of distribution of the output of the State's hatcheries.

—The applications ready to be distributed are for brook trout, sunfish, black bass, yellow perch, catfish, frogs and wall-eyed pike. The commissioner wants people who intend to apply for fry for the same stream to combine and have the application sent in the name of either the club or an individual for each stream. This is to be done to insure the proper distribution and to keep check on the manner in which the cans are handled and the fish are propagated.

—"We will know within the next week or so how many sign posts will be required to properly equip the highways of Pennsylvania," said Highway Commissioner E. M. Bigelow last week. "The engineers of each district have been making lists of places where posts are needed and as soon as we can figure up the number, steps to let contracts will be taken. It is the intention to award contracts as soon as possible and to get the posts erected next spring. The listing of cross roads and places where sign boards are needed has been in the hands of engineers who have been engaged on general surveys for main highways and the data will be the first of the kind ever obtained. Mr. Bigelow saw the lamentable condition prevailing in regard to sign boards last summer in his inspection tours, and determined to correct the difficulty as soon as possible. It proved a big task, but the information is now well in hand."

RINK FIVE 35; SEELYVILLE 17.

Seelyvillers Outclassed Last Friday Night in Opening Game of Inter-Urban Series.

The Rink Five defeated the Seelyville Quintet at the Honesdale Skating Rink last Friday evening by the decisive score of 35-17. The game was fast and furious, and the way the Seelyvillers started in by scoring the two first goals gives the Sounty Seat supporters a touch of chills. But it was only a spurt. There was considerable kicking on some of the referee's decisions. Between the 20-minute halves the rink organ rubbed it in by bellying out the tantalizing strains of "Every Little Movement Has a Meaning All Its Own!"

The second game of the series of seven is scheduled to be played at Seelyville this (Tuesday) evening. The third will be played at the Rink Christmas evening. The delightful details follow: "Rink" Positions. Seelyville. W. Polt.....F.....R. Mackle Ross, L.....F.....H. Polley O'Connell.....C.....Benny Brader.....G.....Mills Bader.....G.....Thayer Summaries—Field goals—Polt 4; Ross 3; O'Connell 4; Bader 1; Brader 3; Mackle 2; Polley 1; Benny 4; Mills 1. Foul goals—Brader 5; Benny 1. Referee, R. J. Bracey; Timekeeper, McGowan.
