Schenck and Mr. Bullock to call and preside over a meeting for the election of a layman to attend the Wyoming conference, which will be held in Scranton in March of this year.

—Congressman Alney says that he is going to send the usual free seeds direct to the people of the district. It has been the custom to send a big bag of government seeds to this one and that one with the result that the distribution has been anything but equal. Congressman Alney intends that the packages of seeds will go direct to the people, and he is preparing a list of 22,000 names in the district to mail seeds to. This means that a package of government seeds will go into every home in the 14th congressional district.

—The Honesdale Footwear company is working on the largest single order of shoes that ever came into Honesdale. President W. H. Krantz recently received a $12,000 order for 6,000 pairs of ladies' misses' and children's white leather shoes. The order must be completed by February 1st. This factory has been busy through the holiday season, having not shut down for the customary winter vacation. The management is very much gratified with the amount of business done during the past year and the indications are good for an increase in the production of their excellent footwear during the present year.

—John Rickert and Michael Wiest attended the funeral of Jos. West, a relative, in Scranton, on Thursday.

—Trade Moral—Advertising prominence in this paper is to you, Mr. Home Merchant, what steam is to an engine.

—There is always more or less danger in passengers jumping off and on moving trains, especially if the ground is covered with ice, as it is at the Union station. Even the experienced trainmen fall. Last Thursday afternoon Sidney Colwell, formerly of this place, had spent part of the day in town and reached the Delaware and Hudson depot just as the train had started. It was icy where Mr. Colwell attempted to board the train and he missed his footing. He fell to the ground and close to the revolving wheels of the cars. In falling he threw his person away from the track, which, without a doubt, saved his life. The train was stopped and Mr. Colwell was helped aboard. He was a former engineer on the Honesdale branch of the D. & H.

—Father O'Toole, who was transferred from Wellsboro to St. John's Roman Catholic church, Honesdale, by Bishop Hoban, preached his first sermon on Sunday morning. A large congregation greeted the new priest which listened attentively to a scholarly discourse by him upon "The Wise Men." Father O'Toole's delivery is perfect. His remarks are accompanied by gestures of a dramatic nature that make his sermons very forceful and interesting. It may be said that he won the love and respect of his large congregation at the first appearance in his new parish in Honesdale on Sunday. Father O'Toole made an excellent address before the sodality of the church in the evening. The townspeople welcome Father O'Toole to Honesdale and sincerely hope that his relations here will be as pleasant as they were at Wellsboro.

—The old reliable Honesdale National Bank recently passed its three-quarter century mark in the banking business. This institution was incorporated in 1836 and has continued to do business every year since.

—This bank is founded on solid business principles and its growth and progress is receiving recognition by the banking people of Honesdale and Wayne county. Being the oldest banking institution it holds the confidence of the public and is making new friends every day. An innovation of the National Bank is that of its exchange and mail messenger, Henry Wolfrom, being attired in a new blue uniform suit and cap, the latter bearing the words, "Honesdale National Bank" in gold letters. The equipment also includes a large satchel, strapped over the shoulder, in which is carried valuable papers, mail, etc.

—Ambrose A. Whalen and Chas. Bigart, representatives of The Prudential Insurance company, are presenting fine vest pocket diaries to their patrons. The book is neatly bound in red leather and contains considerable matter of valuable information.

—There will be election of Board of Trade officers next Friday evening in the City Hall. The annual report of the secretary will also be read at that meeting. Scout W. W. Wood expects to be present and tell the board members something very interesting. Come and enjoy the feast.

—The funeral of the late Mrs. Peter Bried was held at St. John's Catholic church on Saturday and was attended by many relatives and friends. The children from away who attended were: Walter Bried, of Lestershire, N. Y.; George Bried of Rochester, N. Y.; Frank Bried, of Long Island, N. Y.

—The Honesdale Union Stamp Shoe company, after a week's close down for inventory, resumed work the first of the year with many orders ahead. The business of the company is rapidly increasing which is gratifying news for its stockholders and speaks in words of highest praise for its management. Watch Honesdale grow.

—Owing to a general request, Price & Butler will play a special matinee Thursday at the Lyric theatre at 3 p. m. "Robinson Crusoe" with Mr. Butler in the dramatic role of "Robinson" and Mr. Price as "Crusoe's Man Friday," a great black face part and the entire company in congenial roles. Matinee prices, ten cents to children, twenty cents for adults to all parts of the house.

—The Durland-Weston Shoe company held its annual meeting last Tuesday, which resulted in the election of the same officers for the ensuing year, as follows: John D. Weston, president and treasurer; William L. Lemnitz, vice-president; Thomas M. Fuller, secretary. This establishment is the oldest industry in Honesdale, being founded in 1868. It was incorporated in 1899, and has capital stock issued to the amount of $260,000. The company is doing a good business with prospects bright for a prosperous year in 1912.

—John O'Neill, who drives and peddles milk for Charles Webb, Bethany, left the team standing Monday morning while he delivered some milk to one of his customers. The horses started and before he could overtake the team it was under way and going at a pretty lively clip. It turned the corner of Dyberry Place and Thirteenth street, distributing milk cans, bottles and contents of the wagon along the course. The horses freed themselves at Weiss' corner near the armory and was soon caught. The team was uninjured, but the wagon is almost a complete wreck. Two wheels were broken off while the body of the wagon was badly damaged. Mr. O'Neill telephoned to Mr. Webb and a new supply of milk was brought to Honesdale. Securing a sleigh from Liveryman W. L. Burnard Mr. O'Neill finished his milk route, his customers being detained only a little time.

SPORTING NOTES.

The 13th game and Taylor, too, that's enough to beat any team. On Saturday the "Rink Five" played their thirteenth game on their own floor, having won the other twelve, it was expected that they would lose the thirteenth, especially when Taylor was the team they were up against. The Taylor bunch by this way have only been beaten twice this year and came to town just after their thirteenth game on their own floor, having won the other twelve, it was expected that they would lose the thirteenth, especially when Taylor was the team they were up against. The Taylor bunch by this way have only been beaten twice this year and came to town just after their thirteenth game on their own floor, having won the other twelve, it was expected that they would lose the thirteenth, especially when Taylor was the team they were up against. The Taylor bunch by this way have only been beaten twice this year and came to town just after their thirteenth game on their own floor, having won the other twelve, it was expected that they would lose the thirteenth, especially when Taylor was the team they were up against.

It was a warm game, the first half ending in a score of 6 to 4, the defensive work of both teams being excellent. The second half was where the Taylor bunch showed their class in passing and fast offensive work. The home team's weakness seemed to be their inability to pass the ball up the floor any where near their own basket. Final score: 16 to 6. Line-up: Taylor: Forwards, D. Evans, Jordan; center, Sultz; guards, A. Evans, Davis, Honesdale: Forwards, Ross, W. Polt; center, O'Connell; guards, Jacobs, J. Polt. Baskets: D. Evans 4, Sultz 3, A. Evans 1, Ross 1, W. Polt 1, J. Polt 1.

Next Friday night the Wyoming Seminary basketball team will shoot baskets against the Rink Five.

Mrs. Sarah Willsea Dead.

Mrs. Sarah Anna Willsea, widow of the late William Willsea, passed away at her home at 707 Court street at 7 o'clock Sunday morning, after a long illness, death being the result of the infirmities of old age.

Mrs. Willsea, whose maiden name was Sarah Anna Marshall, was born in Wurtsboro, New York, on March 9, 1838. When only six years old her parents moved to Honesdale, and where she has since made her home. In 1858 she was united in marriage to William Willsea. Mrs. Willsea would have been 74 years old in March. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. W. H. Foster and Miss Anna Willsea, both of Honesdale. Mrs. Willsea was a woman of rare refinement and in her earlier years taught in the old Borough school that stood on the property where John Stegner now lives. Many prominent people of Honesdale attended this school under her.

The funeral services were held at the home at 707 Court street on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, conducted by Rev. A. L. Whittaker. Interment at Glen Dyberry cemetery.

William Sutton Dies Suddenly.

William Sutton, a thrifty farmer of Texas township, Wayne county, who lived on the road connecting Seelyville and Bethany, died suddenly Monday morning at the age of seventy-four years, death being caused by heart trouble.

Mr. Sutton ate his breakfast as usual and completed the usual chores around the barn. His death was instantaneous.

Mr. Sutton placed himself in comfortable circumstances by the labor of his hands, and occupies an honorable position among the respected members of his community by his genuine worth.

He is a native of Pennsylvania, having been born in Paupack, Pike county, on February 6, 1837. He spent his early life on his father's farm in Pike county, where he received a common school education, besides being initiated into the mysteries of agriculture. In September, 1862, he enlisted in Company B, 151st P. V. I., under Captain O. H. Mott, of Milford, Pa., and after a year in active service in the Civil war he received an honorable discharge on July 27, 1863. In May of 1863, he came to Wayne county and purchased a farm.

On November 4, 1875, Mr. Sutton was united in marriage with Miss Ceaira D. Gleason.

Mr. Sutton is survived by his aged wife and one son, Oran, of Honesdale.

The funeral will be held at the house on Wednesday at 1:30 p. m., Rev. W. H. Swift officiating. Interment will be made in Riverdale cemetery.
