FIRST WIFE GAUSES TROUBLE.

Twenty-four Years Ago William Bowman Was In Court Charged With Nonsupport-When He Failed to Pay Wife He Was Sent to Jail, but Obtained Release.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Jan. 23.-William Bowman, a veteran of the civil war will have to serve a jail sentence here according to the terms of a sentence imposed in the county court May 17. 1888. This decision was reached, and Bowman will start at once to serve the Twenty-four years ago Bowman was up before the local court on a charge of nonsupport brought by his wife. He was ordered to pay her $12, and when he failed to do so he was sent to jail. Seventeen days later he was liberated under the insolvency act.

The wife of Bowman returned here and learned of his whereabouts. The defendant was brought into court, and it was shown he was a prisoner of the United States and that the government required him to pay a portion of his pension money to his wife. It was then learned that he had married a second time, although his first wife was living and not divorced.

Counsel for the real Mrs. Bowman made the claim that Bowman should be held by the sentence of May 17, 1888, and Judge Garman, who heard the case, decided that the sentence was still in force and that Bowman should British Boy Scouts, who will arrive in be held:

BISHOP SCORES MINISTERS.

Methodist Clergymen Called Slaves to Salary.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Jan. 23.-Methodist ministers were scored by Bishop Earl Cranston of Washington in an address before Methodist clergymen here when he said:

"When the form of support was changed to that of salary the minister gave up his apostolic freedom and placed himself in the hands of laymen who might have other motives than to serve God. The method of arranging America and more than 6,000 scout the salaries for the Methodist clergymen of today and sending them to charges they desire is nothing more than a preconference contract."

with the days when ministers "rode" the circuit and traveled over different Supreme Court Rules Against Contenroads each year. He declared the old circuit riders suffered all sorts of hardship in answering the call. "Their support," he said, "though humble, was provided by the laity. The true calling at the time was spiritual and not monetary."

A hearing was held, Saturday morning, in the matter of the application of a guardian for Mrs. garet Markey, an alleged feeble-minded person. The witnesses were interrogated by District Attorney M. E. Simons.

Charles Markey was the first witness called. He testified that he was a son of Margaret Markey. His mother is 82 years old, and lives at Prompton with Frank Adams, her son-in-law. According to Mr. Markey his mother his very weak-minded, and her memory very poor, so that she can hardly remember anything from one hour to another. She owns two places at Seelyville, one at Gurdon, and has money in the bank. She is not capable of taking care of her property. Anybody could get it away from her. She is unable to be present at the hearing.

Mrs. Mary Adams testified that her mother lives with her. Her mind is gone, she said. She will be 85 years old this coming May 1.

Frank Adams, a son-in-law of Mrs. Markel, testified that she owned two places in Seelyville, one of which would rent for $10 a month, and the other for $50 a year. She also owns with a rental value of $30, and has
