WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 31, 1912.

A THOUGHT FOR TO-DAY.

To possess character is to be useful, and to be useful is to be independent, and to be useful and independent is to be happy, even in the midst of sorrow; for sorrow is not necessarily unhappiness.—Ella Wheeler Wilcox.

Pittsburg's club women will engage in a world-wide movement to reduce the cost of living. Good for the women. If talking will bring it to pass victory is inevitable. We resign in their favor, wishing them success.

It seems pretty certain from an informal vote of the New York Fair Commission that there will be no automobile races at the State Fair at Syracuse next fall. The fearful disaster as befell the fair last year was a loud warning. Certainly the attractions of that great gathering should not be so dangerous as automobile racing has proved to be.

We most earnestly exhort the public to attend the benefit entertainment to be given this (Wednesday) evening in Lyric theatre. The proceeds will go to the family of the late George J. Bergmann, who lost his life in the Red Stone front building, January 14. "In as much as ye have done it unto one of the least of these, my brethren, ye have done it unto me."

The political skies are entirely nebulous so far as the sight of presidential candidates is concerned. There are, however, pretty clear indications that Colonel Roosevelt will soon be known, with his open consent, as a candidate. Governor Glasscock, of West Virginia, who visited Colonel Roosevelt on Friday last says it is his opinion that Mr. Roosevelt would accept the nomination if the American people asked him to accept.

HELP JUST A LITTLE.

It is always a pleasure for The Citizen to ask for the co-operation of its valued correspondents and readers in anything that relates to the betterment of this paper. We have made some improvements and added different departments to The Citizen as the result of suggestions made by some of our readers. We take this opportunity of further inviting them to express their preferences regarding some of the different departments listed below, which are now running in the paper. If you, a subscriber or reader, find them helpful, we would ask you to say so; and if the contrary, reply with equal frankness. Our sole object is improvement, on the lines best suited to the needs of our readers and the requirements of a first-class country newspaper. We may add that these views are solicited not for publication, but for our personal information:

REPUBLICAN CALL.

To the Republican Electors of Pennsylvania.

I am directed by the Republican State Committee to announce that the Republicans of Pennsylvania, by their duly chosen representatives, will meet in convention at the Majestic Theatre, in the city of Harrisburg, on Wednesday, May 1, 1912, at 10:30 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of nominating candidates for the following offices, to wit:

- One person for the office of Auditor General.
- One person for the office of State Treasurer.
- Four persons for the office of Congressmen-at-Large.

Thirty-eight persons, six at large, for Presidential electors.

To elect twelve delegates and twelve alternates at large to the Republican National convention, to be held in Chicago, on June 18, 1912; also

For the nomination of a candidate for any other office which is to be filled at the general election in November next, and the transaction of such other business as may be presented.

In accordance with the rules governing the Republican party in Pennsylvania, the representation in the State Convention will be based on the vote polled at the last presidential election; under the rules each legislative district is entitled to one delegate for every two thousand votes cast for the presidential electors in 1908, and an additional delegate for every fraction of two thousand and votes polled in excess of one thousand.

By order of the Republican State Committee,

HENRY F. WALTON, Chairman.

W. HARRY BAKER, Secretary.

To the Republican Electors of the 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th, 6th, 7th, 8th, 9th, 10th, 11th, 12th, 13th, 14th, 15th, 16th, 17th, 18th, 19th, 20th, 21st, 22nd, 23rd, 24th, 25th, 26th, 27th, 28th, 29th, 30th, 31st and 32nd Congressional Districts of Pennsylvania:

"The delegates-at-large and their alternates shall be elected by popular State and Territorial conventions called by the Republican State or Territorial committee, of which at least thirty days' notice shall have been published in some newspaper or newspapers of general circulation in the respective State or Territory.

The Congressional district delegates shall be elected by conventions called by the Republican Congressional committee on each district, of which at least thirty days' notice shall have been published in some newspaper or newspapers of general circulation in the district; provided that in any Congressional district where there is no Republican Congressional committee, the Republican State committee shall be substituted for and represent the Congressional Committee in issuing said call and making said publication; and, provided that delegates or their alternates shall be deemed ineligible to participate in state or district or territorial convention who were elected prior to the date of the adoption of this call; and, provided that delegates and alternates, both from the State at large and from each Congressional district may be elected in conformity with the laws of the state in which the election occurs if the state committee or any such congressional committee so direct; but, provided further that in no State shall an election be so held as to prevent the delegates from any congressional district and their alternates being selected by the Republican electors of that district."

In the absence of congressional district committees, and in compliance with the terms of the call of the Republican National Committee permitting the substitution of the State Committee in lieu thereof, the Republican State Committee directs through its chairman that delegates and alternates to the Republican National convention be elected as provided for by the primary election laws of the state of Pennsylvania.

In accordance with the call of the National Committee 76 delegates, 76 alternates are to be chosen in Pennsylvania, to wit:

Twelve delegates and twelve alternates at large to be elected at the State convention to be held at Harrisburg, Pa., May 1, 1912, and two delegates and two alternates from each of the 32 congressional districts.

Petitions of candidates for delegate and alternate, signed by ten electors as provided by law, must be filed with the Board of County Commissioners not later than Saturday, March 23, 1912, and where a congressional district is composed of more than one county the candidates must file his petition with the Board of county commissioners in each county of the district signed by ten electors residing in the county where the petition is filed.

The Uniform Primaries Act being defective in ways and means regulating the certification of election of national delegates and alternates the following agreement has been reached after consultation with the Attorney-General and the Secretary of the Commonwealth to wit:

"It is agreed that the provision in the Primaries Act relative to the certification of returns of votes cast for the candidates for nomination for members of Congress be followed in tabulating and certifying the vote cast for candidates for Congressional district delegates and alternates to the National Conventions of the several parties; therefore, the County Commissioners will be supplied with blank certificates upon which to make their return of votes cast for National delegates and alternates. They will forward these returns to the Secretary of the Commonwealth when they forward the returns for Congress. The Secretary of the Commonwealth will then compute the number of votes cast in the several counties composing the Congressional district and will certify the consolidated result to the Chairman of the respective state committees, and the State Chairman will certify to their respective National Committees.

The method agreed upon and to which reference is made in the preceding paragraph is in strict accordance with the provisions contained in the call for the National Convention for the election of Delegates-at-Large, District Delegates and Alternates, and each Republican County Chairman in the State and all interested will be so instructed by the state committee at the proper time.

Alternate Delegates to National Conventions.

Alternate Delegates to National Conventions should be placed in nomination, elected and certified in the same manner as delegates to National conventions."

By order of the Republican State Committee.

Euchre and Dance at New Armory.

The euchre and dance to be held at the New Armory on Tuesday evening, February 6, under the auspices of the young people of St. John's R. C. church promises to be one of the most elaborate affairs of this kind ever held in Honesdale. The various committees that have the affair in charge are meeting with great success in the work and nothing is being left undone that will add to the enjoyment of all who will attend on Tuesday evening.

Both euchre and "Five Hundred" will be played and there will be table accommodations for all who wish to play. Careful supervision of the playing will help to get the games started on time and every detail will be carefully attended to that will enable the players to get equal chances as winners.

Ice cream, cake and coffee will be served in the basement of the Armory. To give those who do not play either Five Hundred or euchre a chance to participate in the prize winning several articles have been selected that will be awarded among those who do not play. Among these will be one donated by Tim Hurst, the veteran base ball man, who has many intimate friends in this town.

After the games dancing will be the order until one o'clock. The music for the dancing will be furnished by a selected orchestra under the direction of Jos. A. Bodie, Jr.

Among the many articles that have been donated for this occasion are: G. W. Piel, box of cigars; Percy Cole, bottle of toilet water; H. G. Rowland, selected; The Economy, hair receiver; Kate McKenna, silk hose; A. Barberi, box of candy; M. Igo, china puff box; Mrs. T. Green, picture; F. Schuerholz, pipe; Lighthizer's, slippers; F. Schuller, box of candy; Rickert's, selected; G. P. Sommers, mirror; C. F. Spencer, clock; H. K. B. Store, tobacco jar; Bregstein Bros., umbrella; Menner & Co., white kid gloves; Erk Bros., Aluminum tea pot; A. M. Leine, book; Katz Bros., silk umbrella; J. Loehcher, rocking chair; A. W. Abrams, fruit dish; Mrs. Eldred, center-piece; T. B. PEOPLE'S FORUM.

The Citizen Publishing Company assumes no measure of responsibility for any articles which may appear in this column.

Ordinances Violated.

Mr. Editor: Here is another kick. Certain parties are tacking paper notices to the shade trees along the streets. This not only disfigures the streets, injures the trees, but is forbidden by the borough ordinances. Fine Three dollars. Where are the police? KICKER NO. 2.

Billboard Advertising.

Mr. Editor: I want to suggest that all of the churches, hotels, saloons and various business places of Honesdale procure bill boards about four feet square and place them on the street corners, as the moving picture and skating rink people do. It will add so much to the beauty of the streets and the comfort of pedestrians. They are entitled to this cheap advertising and it would be such a boom for their business. So say we all.

Yours for Business,

A KICKER.

HAWLEY.

[Special to The Citizen.]

Hawley, Pa., Jan. 26.

Dr. R. H. Ely is confined to the house by illness. His son, Dr. Harry Ely, of Honesdale, visited him the latter part of the week.

F. Poeppl, the Church street butcher, made a business trip to Beachlake on Monday. He brought home some fine stock raised on the fertile farm of R. H. Woodley.

Walter Reesler, of Glen Eyre, was in town Monday.

Lulu Cortright, who has been spending a few weeks here, has returned to her home at Uswick.

Theodore, little son of Charles Miller, of the East Side, is very sick.

Lafayette Rollison had the misfortune to lose a horse on Sunday night.

Edward Hardier, who moved from town last fall in with his mother at the homestead farm on Bone Ridge, has decided to move back to Hawley.

Miss Julia Compton, who teaches in the new school house located just across the river in Pike county, is a hustler. She held a box party on Saturday night in the school house which netted her the neat sum of $36.06. The money will be used to purchase a bell for the school.

Norman Vandemart, who has been employed for the last seven years as chief rougher in the Keystone Cutting shop, started on Monday to join his family who moved last week to Hoboken, N. J. On his way Mr. Vandemart will visit his father at Milford, Pike county.

Homer Bigart, a representative of the Singer Sewing company of Binghamton, N. Y., spent Sunday with his father, James E. Bigart.

Arthur S. Pierson has purchased of Frank J. Denison his saw and planing mills located at Hancock, N. Y. The amount paid has not yet been made public. Mr. Pierson will take immediate possession and will start the mills running as soon as a sufficient amount of lumber can be hauled to the mill. He will move to that place in the near future.

Ice is now being harvested from ponds at Fourteen and other ponds but the finest and most crystal-like ice comes from the old Paupack river at Wilsonville.

Charles Thornton of the Eddy, is now employed at the Keystone as head rougher.

Frederick Ames, son of G. W. Ames, returned to his home on Tuesday after visiting his father here. He is a member of the state constabulary.

The Tribune-Republican says that a wire message was received on Jan. 29 from Queenstown, Ireland, that H. T. Perkiss was stranded there, having been obliged to land from the liner Philadelphia, on account of losing his ticket. Mr. Perkiss, when the vessel was a few hours out from Southampton, reported the disappearance of his valise containing his ticket and some money. The valise was found subsequently in the steerage.

DANDRUFF AND ITCHING SCALP YIELD TO ZEMO TREATMENT.

Why should you continue to experiment with salves, greasy lotions and fancy hair dressings trying to rid your scalp of germ life. They can't do it because they cannot penetrate to the seat of the trouble and draw the germ life to the surface of the scalp and destroy it.

Why not try a PROVEN REMEDY? One that will do this. We have a remedy that will rid the scalp of germ life and in this way will cure DANDRUFF and ITCHING SCALP.

This remedy is ZEMO, a clean, refined, penetrating scalp tonic that goes right to the seat of the trouble and drives the germ life to the surface and destroys it.

A shampoo with ZEMO (ANTI-SEPTIC) SOAP and one application of ZEMO will entirely rid the scalp of dandruff and scurf. Do not hesitate, but get a bottle of ZEMO today. It acts on a new principle and will do exactly what we claim for it. Sold and endorsed by the A. M. Leine's Drug Store.

but there were no ticket or valuable in it. H. T. Purkiss is the pastor of Lakeville charge and left that place on November 23 last to visit his home in England. The members of the church made up a purse to provide funds to defray the expenses of the trip. Since this dispatch at agents of the American line have investigated the matter and have found the Mr. Purkiss had not purchased any ticket and that his passage was not booked. The American line agents are very indignant about his allegations of robbery as might mar the good name of the Philadelphia. The Lakeville people say that they will send no money to him to return.
