LOCAL NEWS

—The Honesdale banks will be closed Thursday, Washington's birthday.

—There were about 25 people from Scranton and Wilkes-Barre here attending the 24-hour race Saturday night.

—Remonstrances have been filed with Prothonotary W. J. Barnes against Charles E. Homan, Sterling, and Michael F. Downs, of Buckingham township. These gentlemen are applying for licenses for the sale of liquor.

—Miss Isabel Harroun is still very dangerously ill of typhoid fever at the home of her mother, Mrs. Grace Harroun, on North Main street. Miss Harroun was recently brought to her home from Philadelphia where she was first taken sick.

—An answer to the challenge of the Co. E Basketball team has been received. The Co. E team challenged any team within a radius of 100 miles; the Rink team is less than one mile away and ready to play as soon as their series with the Alerts is over.

—A great many people are having trouble with frozen water pipes. It is a common thing to see holes in the streets dug for the purpose of thawing them out. The fact that there is no snow on the ground along with the extremely cold weather of late is accountable for this. Most of these pipes are at least four feet underground.

—J. L. Favreau, of the general insurance adjustment bureau, of Scranton, was in Honesdale on Friday last and allowed O. M. Spettigue all the insurance he carried on his store and contents, amounting to $14,050. He carried $9,000 on stock and $5,050 on the building. Mr. Spettigue's actual loss is estimated at about $10,000.

—The town council has three men at their annual job of cutting a channel through the ice in Park Lake between the dam and the bridge. The ice is thicker this year than usual, being 24 inches in some places; in others, where the water is shallow, it is frozen fast to the bottom of the river. If a sudden rain should come it is very probable that there would be another flood.

—Clean up the back yards now. Every time there is the slightest thaw—clean up the back yard. Remove the winter's accumulation of refuse at every opportunity. Do not wait until decay results in foul odors and the breeding of disease germs. Clean up. The emphasis cannot be made too strong. As the spring season approaches the dangers from neglected piles of refuse increase and it is only by vigilance on the part of every household and every citizen that the continued health of the town can be assured.

—The International Sunshine society, a membership corporation incorporated under the laws of the state of New York in 1906, began doing the small things in life with the object simply to incite its members to the performances of kind and helpful deeds. The aim was to "Do the thing that is needed when it is needed." The association is devoting its work to the education of blind children and is doing a good work. The work of the society reaches far and wide. They have offices at 96 Fifth Avenue, New York City.

—Percy L. Cole Offers Popular Medicine at Half-Price. Percy L. Cole, the popular druggist, is making an offer that is just like finding money for he is selling a regular 50 cent bottle of Dr. Howard's celebrated specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia at half price. In addition to this large discount he agrees to return the money to any purchaser whom the specific does not cure. It is quite unusual to be able to buy fifty cent pieces for a quarter, but that is what this offer really means for it is only recently through the solicitation of Druggist Cole that this medicine could be bought for less than fifty cents. Mr. Cole urged the proprietors to allow him to sell it at this reduced price for a little while, agreeing to sell a certain amount. The result has justified his good judgment for the sale has been something remarkable. Anyone who suffers with headache, dyspepsia, dizziness, sour stomach, specks before the eyes, or any liver trouble, should take advantage of this opportunity, for Dr. Howard's specific will cure all these troubles. But if by any chance it should not, Percy L. Cole will return your money.
