Wayne county, I am proud to say, has nothing but thinking people. That's the secret that brought me here, and the fellow I was talking to in town last week. We knew pretty well that we could feel at home here and we didn t have to fer around long to find out that we felt exactly what we wanted to. Any-body who doubts my words is advised to tramp over this county and inves-tigate. If he finds one person who has never sat down I will get Lena to darn him the niftlest socks that ever saw the sun rise in America. It is a straight-away fact that nobody in Wayne county has stood up all of his life, and Government statistics will bear me out on this.

know that this is one of the most prominent sections of the East for stock raising. Close to the markets of New York and Philadelphia, thousands of people raise utility birds for profit as well as fancy birds for prizes. Good stock is the first essential to success, and as the Citizen goes into thousands of homes in Wayne and adjoining counties, it is the quickest and cheapest method of telling these people about the merits of your birds; therefore all poultrymen and breeders.
