The strike in Lawrence has been very bitter and the strikers have announced that they had gained virtually every concession from the mill owners.

Savannah has just rounded... out a new record of exporting 2,000,000 bales of cotton. Her achievement is partly due to the fact that though in 1910 the South Atlantic states, including Georgia, grew 3,695,000 bales, in 1911 their total growth was 5,048,000 bales, and the increase of 1,353,000 bales enabled the oldest cotton exporting port to achieve the event which has been duly celebrated.

In the Fourteenth Congressional... district, composed of the counties of Bradford, Susquehanna, Wayne and Wyoming, there are named for delegates to the Chicago National convention two most excellent candidates, Homer Greene, Esq., of Honesdale, and John W. Coddling, of Towanda. For alternates, Henry F. Manzer, of Montrose, and D. W. Sturdevant, of Laceyville, Wyoming county. Better men for the positions could not have been put forward.—Nicholson Record.

A lot of people seem to think... that because they feel a little warm that May weather has arrived in March. As a proof of this our doctors say that there are more people sick just now, than all winter, all due to colds and ailments developed therefrom. Our people should take a word of warning and not discard their winter clothing before they should. Women who have worn furs all winter and men who have bundled up in heavy overcoats are far too careless.

Judge Searle, of Wayne county... who has twice been called to the local courts, recently, to pass upon cases of unusual interest, is looked upon as one of the ablest jurists in this state. A close student of the law, his opinions are masterful reviews of the knotty legal problems frequently presented to him. He is a Republican of the old school, but is thoroughly impartial in the discharge of his duties and metes out equal and exact justice to all. Yet a young man, it would surprise no one were he to be called to a higher bench before the end of his present term. Judge Searle is a most pleasant and companionable gentleman, as popular in social circles as in the courts. On a former occasion he was called here to decide whether the sheriff or the prison board should have charge of the jail. His present task here is to settle the dispute between the Lackawanna county court and the county commissioners.—Scranton Truth in Afternoon Echoes.
