Story of War Prisons,

Captain Hubbell is the author of a well-written story of his experiences in rebel prisons, which has been published in several of the Western Washington newspapers. During his imprisonment he was confined in five Southern prisons—Libby, Macon, Columbia, Charlestown and Charlotte. He escaped twice and the first time was recaptured after 15 days. His final escape was made in Febru-ary, 1865, when he arrived safely within the Union lines without hat, shoes and practically without clothing, most of which had rotted off in Nine years ago Captain Hubbell and his family moved to the Sound, where he entered the employ of the Northern Pacific. Working here in the yards for a time about six years ago, he became impressed with the advantages and beauties of this valley and looked about for an opportunity to use his soldier's homestead right. He finally decided on the land in Wide Hollow.

FARMERS AND MECHANICS BANK HONESDALE, PA.

The bank for all classes ac-cepts small or large accounts. Scrape together one dollar, make your deposit, receive your bank book, and then resolve to deposit a given sum, small though it may be, once a month, or once a week, according to the circumstances. Nobody knows without trying it, how easy a thing it is to save money when an account with a bank has been opened. With an account a person feels a desire to enlarge his deposit. It starts you on the right road with some-thing to rely upon in time of need. Grow with this bank which has reached over the $300,000.00 mark in deposits.

The Farmers and Mechanics Bank was established in 1907. Capital Stock, $75,000.00 It is one of the growing banks of Wayne county and represents the deposits of the people of all vocations of life.
