

GROOM DIDN'T SHOW

So Philadelphia Girl's Wedding Was Postponed.

PRESENTS WILL BE RETURNED.

Man in Case, a Bartender, After Futile Effort to Have the Ceremony Delayed, Cautiously Packed His Belongings and Was Not Seen Thereafter.

Philadelphia, April 30.—Miss Mary Ellen Wineberg, twenty-four years old, daughter of John Wineberg, a well known landscape gardener of Haverford, was to marry Edward M. McMalley at 4 o'clock thirty intimate friends of Miss Mary had assembled at her father's home in Bush lane for the wedding. The bride, arrayed in a most elaborate wedding gown, waited in her room for the announcement that the nervous groom had arrived. Four o'clock came, but no groom. Each minute after 4 doubled in length, and still no Mr. McMalley. At 5 o'clock the guests were told to depart and, taking a last look at the $700 worth of wedding presents on display, they departed.

Franklin telephoning revealed no trace of the groom, who up to Saturday was bartender at the Marion Cricket club. The wedding was announced as in definitely postponed by the bride's mother, who said that all the gifts would be returned.

At the Marion Cricket club it was said that the last seen of Mr. McMalley was Saturday at midnight, when he closed the bar. He then went to his room and packed his things. He told no one that he contemplated leaving. Sunday the steward of the club tried to locate McMalley, but to no avail.

It was learned at the home of Miss Wineberg that the prospective groom called by telephone Sunday night, requesting that the wedding be postponed. To this Miss Wineberg objected, and Mr. McMalley said that he was upset on account of the Titanic disaster. Miss Wineberg said that as neither had friends on the Titanic, she saw no cause for postponing the marriage. The groom reluctantly consented to the marriage being held as arranged.

WOMAN LYNNED IN EFFIGY.

Neighborhood Row Ends In Court, but Defendants Are Discharged.

Allentown, Pa., April 30.—Squire John Brophy, who deals out justice in Hanover township, on the outskirts of this city, sustained the right of women to hang a neighbor in effigy.

Following a quarrel in which a number of families were arrayed against Mrs. Mary Brown, the latter was theoretically hung from a tree in a conspicuous place. The stuffed image created a sensation and was permitted to hang nearly a day before it was cut down.

Mrs. Brown said the straw woman did not bear the least resemblance to her, but she wouldn't stand for being lynched, even by proxy, so she had warrants issued for a dozen of her neighbors.

Following a lively hearing, in which the women nearly came to blows, Squire Brophy said he could not find anything in the statutes to prevent lynchings in effigy and not only discharged the defendants, but put the costs on the prosecutrix.

COAL MEN TO CONVENE.

Will Meet in New York Tonight and Consider Wage Increase.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., April 30.—The scale committee which was named at the Pottsville convention to confer with the operators will meet in New York tonight to consider the agreement reached by the subcommittee of the miners in its deliberations with the operators.

Indications are that the general committee of ten will be instructed to accept the agreement of the companies and put the matter up to the miners in convention for acceptance or rejection. Mine leaders, despite the fact that miners are not pleased with the wage increase, declare that the concessions are big ones and that the organization cannot look for any bigger victory at this time.

The tridistrict board will probably spend much time in considering the offer of the compromise, but the feeling prevails that ultimately the offer will be accepted.

T. R. CLAIMS PENNSYLVANIA

Roosevelt Faction Confident of Dominating the State Convention.

Philadelphia, April 30.—On the eve of shifting the scene of political activity from this city to Harrisburg the Roosevelt leaders boast that they will dominate the Republican state convention tomorrow and elect twelve delegates at large to the Republican national convention and name the party candidates for state treasurer, auditor general, congressman at large and the presidential electors.

On the other hand, the Penrose organization contends that the influence of the Filim faction will not carry beyond the election of the delegates at large.

JAMES A. PATTEN.

Whose "Cotton Corner" Case Will Be Reheard by Supreme Court.

Washington, April 30.—The supreme court of the United States ordered a rehearing and reargument on Oct. 15 next of the "cotton corner" case, in which James A. Patten and New York cotton brokers are facing prosecution under the Sherman anti-trust law.

MILLIONS FROM CEMETERIES.

Suit Says Chauncey M. Depew Shared Big Profits of Promoters.

New York, April 30.—The name of former United States Senator Chauncey M. Depew is mentioned in a suit brought by Francis E. Baker, a cemetery promoter, against Reese Carpenter, comptroller of the Kensico Cemetery company, for his share of the profits of cemetery promotions in New York, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania, in which it is alleged that Senator Depew, Carpenter and William H. Lyon, president of the Kensico Cemetery company, have made profits of from $3,000,000 to $4,000,000.

One of the contentions of the plaintiff is that by the use of Senator Depew's name the promotion of cemeteries in various states was made profitable through expediting the sale of stock.

Grant's Widow Gets His Estate.

New York, April 30.—The will of Major General F. D. Grant leaves his entire estate, valued at more than $10,000, to his wife, Ida Honore Grant. The will was executed at Fort Sam Houston, Tex., in 1903.

Considerable excitement was caused here Saturday afternoon by the report that the West End plants had been struck by lightning and were burning. Fortunately it was the Ice Company's barn last of the ice houses. The barn was well stored with hay and oats and with a high wind it was soon burned to the ground. Although a large crowd gathered in an almost incredible time no attempt could be made to save the building. As in case of fire we are entirely unprotected, without hose or any means of fighting it.

CHILDREN "SWAT THE FLY."

Get Busy When Cleveland Offers a Cent for Every Ten.

Cleveland, April 30.—In answer to an offer of the city to pay a reward of a cent for every ten flies delivered dead at the City Hall, school children of Cleveland are "swatting the fly" with vim and vigor. The crusade will continue for two weeks, when the offer expires.

City health authorities believe that every fly killed at this season of the year means the absence, so to speak, of nine flies later. Hence the offer of the reward.

STERLING.

(Special to The Citizen.)

For the past two weeks we have been on the sick list most of the time and can't boast much of feeling well yet.

News appears to be rather scarce and we have but little of public interest to record.

On the 23d Rev. W. E. Webster accompanied his wife and children to New York state where they will stay for a few days and he returned last evening.

For many years Mrs. Herbert Stevens has been quite poorly and a few weeks ago she was taken to the State hospital at Scranton and expects to remain for some time and hopes to receive relief and we sincerely hope she may.

Wouldn't this be a good time to do a little work on the roads?

or shall we wait till they are in better condition?
