

MINERS IN RIOT.

Foreign Element, Mob Mad, Drive Firemen Out.

MORE OUTBREAKS ARE FEARED

Half Dozen Places in Southern Anthracite Field Stirred by Rabid Attacks of Men on Strike—Trolley Cars Held Up—Nonunion Men Roughly Handled.

Mahanoy City, Pa., May 7.—Rioting broke out in a half dozen different places in the southern anthracite field, and the foreign portion of the mine workers, which constitute 70 per cent of the whole, was in a fighting mood. The foreigners held up trolley cars and compelled mine firemen, pumpmen and ashmen, who are allowed to work under the union's order, to get off and return to their homes.

Mobs of foreigners went to the Turkey Run and the Keeley Run collieries of the Reading company and drove the firemen and the pumpmen out of the boiler houses. At the Shenandoan City colliery a mob collected, and the men who are employed fighting a mine fire were stopped and some of them roughly handled.

A detail of sixteen state police was sent to Shenandoan. Arrangements have been made to mobilize the three troops of state police here on short notice.

Mayor Douchney of this city issued a proclamation calling upon all citizens to aid in preserving the peace.

SHOOTS WOMEN, SLAYS SELF.

Ousted Boarder Fatally Wounds Two on Porch of Boarding House.

Washington, Pa., May 7.—With dozens of neighbors looking on from their porches, Joseph Lovejoy, Jr., thirty years old, shot and fatally wounded two women sitting on the porch of their home, and then turning the revolver upon himself fired a bullet through his own heart, dying instantly.

The women shot are Mrs. Anna Welsh, who received a bullet in the forehead, and Mrs. Pearl Ross, who was shot through the body. Both are in a local hospital in a dying condition.

The fabled wrong which it is believed induced Lovejoy to commit the triple crime, had its origin in Lovejoy's dismissal from the Ross home four weeks ago. For several years he had lodged in the house, and it was about the time Mrs. Welsh took lodgings there that Mrs. Ross notified Lovejoy that he must leave.

WILSON TO GET DELEGATES.

Governor Will Get Twelve From State of Pennsylvania.

Harrisburg, Pa., May 7.—Battle lines were sharply drawn for the Democratic state convention here. Each side was confident it would have a majority of the delegates, with consequent control of the convention.

The regulars, headed by James M. Guffey of Pittsburg, national committeeman, and Walter T. Ritter of Williamsport, state chairman, asserted they would have at least 112 delegates, while the "reorganizers" under the leadership of George W. Guthrie, former mayor of Pittsburg and chairman of the "reorganizers" state committee; Representative A. Mitchell Palmer of Stroudsburg and Vance C. McCormick of Harrisburg declared they will have about 127 delegates. There will be only 182 delegates.

Two things have been agreed on. First, that Woodrow Wilson will get the twelve delegates at large, and, second, that William H. Berry of Delaware county, formerly state treasurer and at one time defeated for governor, will be the nominee for state treasurer. The control of the party machinery will be the chief issue.

STEEL TRUST SUIT ON

Trial Starts With Inquiry Into Steel and Wire Pool.

New York, May 7.—The taking of testimony in the government's suit to dissolve the United States Steel corporation was continued today before Henry P. Brown, the master appointed by the United States circuit court in Trenton, where the government filed its bill in equity. The hearing is likely to last two months. Jacob M. Dickinson, former secretary of war, appears in this suit in the role of trust buster, having been appointed special assistant to the attorney general.

Judge Dickinson did all of the questioning at the opening session, with Henry E. Colton acting as his assistant. C. A. Severance, who was Frank B. Kellogg's partner in the government's suit against the Harriman lines, appeared in the suit among the counsel for the defense, the chief of which is Richard V. Lindabury, chief counsel for the steel corporation.

The subject matter taken up for the opening of the suit was the steel and wire pool, to which the American Steel and Wire company, a subsidiary of the steel corporation, was a part and which itself was the subject of government prosecution resulting last fall in the participants, not only corporations, but individuals, being fined after they had put in pleas of nolo contendere.

Wallace Buell, once a sales manager of the American Steel and Wire company, and George H. Horton, president of the Bryden Horse Show company, were examined.

All a girl needs to write a love letter is reams of paper; a man needs a bit of lunacy.

The people who frequently have to resort to expedients are those who can't afford to, but do.

Marriage is a thing to be thought over very carefully beforehand, and that's why everybody does it afterward.

CLARK WINS TENNESSEE.

Will Control State Convention May 15 as Result of Primary.

Nashville, Tenn., May 7.—Speaker Champ Clark for president has swept almost everything in sight in the way of instructed votes in all of the counties reporting so far, and the information from over the three grand divisions of the state indicate that he cannot hardly be kept out of organizing the state convention May 15. In the First district in east Tennessee he carried it by at least two to one.

West Tennessee came up splendidly for Clark, and in all of the counties giving instructions he has the best of it by far, and his managers confidently claim that they have the whole of that section of the state conquered.
