—It is an unusual sight to see a deer in Wayne county, especially at this time of the year. Last Saturday morning Anthony Rickert, of Indian Orchard, saw a fine specimen with broad flaring antlers approach his team of horses while he was at work in the field. The deer, according to Mr. Rickert, came to within 100 feet from where he stood. For some time the fleet-footed animal walked along the Erie railroad just below the red rock cut. Mr. Rickert called to the deer and as he did so it ran over the hill in the vicinity of east Cherry Ridge. He says it was a beauty. Another deer or the same one visited the property of Charles Indian Orchard, the same day. The deer went into Mr. Weidner's barn yard.

—The home of Jerome Tonkin was wrecked at Herrick Centre on Friday last by being struck by lightning. A fire was started, but by prompt action the conflagration seemed most phenomenal, as it was of rain fell. It seemed in reality like a "bolt from the blue." The house was insured from loss by lightning.

the order. A splendid sermon was delivered to the Sodalists by Rev.
Dr. J. W. Baile, which was very impressive. Following the sermon was special music for the occasion, and several solos, which were well renday. The number of autos owned in Honesdale proves the town to be prosperous.

continued what is known as its Wayne County department, which coops in various parts of the township.

brim full of news. Read pages 2, 3, 6 and 7. "Mildred's Corner" on page fine location for a Y. M. C. A.

—Marshall W. W. Wood very kindly asked for two Boy Scouts in uniform to act as his mounted aids in the Memorial Day parade. The troop greatly appreciated the thoughtfulness which prompted this selection. The commissioned officers of the troop, however, after due consideration, decided that while the troop is always ready to help with any public enterprise and are especially anxious to honor in every way possible the veterans, it would be best to decline the invitation and permit the boys to take their regular places among the classes of the High school.

—Councilman S. T. Ham has a fine exhibition in the display windows of his harness store, near the State

Among the most historic is a car-officer of the Greeley Relief Expedi-
