

$100 REWARD, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by all Drugists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

ORSON. (Special to The Citizen.) Orson, May 30. Rev. E. V. Young preached a very interesting and appropriate Memorial sermon at the Orson M. B. church on Sunday morning. A good attendance greeted him. E. P. Harlow and family returned on Monday from Washington, D. C., where they have been visiting. Chester Hine, of Syracuse, N. Y., has returned to his home to run the farm for the coming season. Ira Hine and wife have moved to Lestershire, N. Y., where Mr. Hine will engage in farming. Raymond Lewis has taken possession of his new home here and will have it remodeled. Harney Keeney, of Scranton, formerly of Orson, was recently released from quarantine, having suffered the dreaded malady for eight weeks. He has very little use of his hands as a result. Those who attended the funeral of the late Mrs. E. V. Hine, here on May 7, from out of town were the following: Mrs. Laura Moulis, Horace Moulis, Mrs. Lottie Mantle, Miss Gladys Mantle, Honesdale; Amos Ward and wife, Bethany; Walter Moulis, Seelyville; Mrs. Frank Dennis, Seelyville; Delevan Hund, wife and daughter, Antoinette, Carbondale; Mrs. Joe Faatz, Carbondale; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Ludwig and two children, Wallace and Juliet, Giles and Edward Ludwig, Carbondale; Mrs. Harry Evans, Edwardsville; Mrs. Fred Hawkey and daughter, Hazel, Wilkes-Barre; Mrs. Jack Hine, Scranton; Mrs. Frank Hine, Scranton; Eugene M. Hine, Peckville; Mrs. Nellie Keeney, Scranton; Mrs. Josephine Salisbury, Thompson; William Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Wallie Bell, Greenfield; Clayton Decker, Lake Como; Hartley Sanford, Shehawken; Guy Bennett, Lakewood; Glenn Simpson, Lakewood; Arthur Weed, Lakewood; Mr. and Mrs. Otis Ward, Miss Hattie Marvin, Norwich.

HAWLEY.

Death Visits Four Homes—Oil Applied on Street—School Tax 13 Mills—Hawley Has Strong Baseball Team. (Special to The Citizen.)

There were four deaths during the past week that caused much sorrow among the people of our town. On Tuesday, May 21, there passed away one of our oldest and most highly revered citizens, Lewis Phillips, who for the past 53 years has successfully conducted a jeweler business in the Teeter building on the corner of Church street and Main avenue. His death was due to apoplexy, age 76 years. The funeral services were held from his late home Friday at 2 p. m., Rev. D. S. MacKellar officiating. Burial in Walnut Grove cemetery. Gladys, the 13-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Teeter, died of bronchial pneumonia on Wednesday. Funeral Friday morning. The little one's presence in the home was like a ray of sunshine. She was fondly cherished by each member of the family who feel her loss so keenly. George L. Pelton, the well known and obliging cartman, died suddenly at his home at the Eddy Tuesday evening of angina pectoris, aged 49 years. He had been ailing for about a week but his condition was not thought to be serious, therefore his death was a bitter blow to the family especially his invalid wife for whom he so tenderly and faithfully cared. She with one daughter, Mrs. Earl Uban, survive him. The funeral was held from the family residence Saturday at 3 p. m., Rev. C. O. Fuller of the Baptist church, officiating. The deceased was a member of the Swanquam L. O. O. F. Lodge and Heptagon of White Mills. Eighty-six of the latter were present. Interment in Walnut Grove cemetery. Posten R. Cross, superintendent of the Shohola Glen Lumber company, and a director of the Hawley Bank, died at his home at Shohola Thursday, May 23, of peritonitis, having been struck with appendicitis on Sunday. Mr. Cross and family has lived in Hawley previous to their removal to Shohola, a little more than a year ago, and he was well and favorably known here. A special train conveyed the funeral party to this place Sunday morning where at 11 a. m. his funeral services were held in the M. E. church. Rev. D. S. MacKellar officiating. He chose for his text "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord" which was most appropriate as the deceased exemplified the true Christian character in the discharge of his life duties. The minister of the church he attended at Shohola was present and very touchingly sang that beautiful hymn, "The Home of the Soul." He was fraternally associated with several orders who in large numbers came to pay their final tribute to their departed brother. The Masons had charge of the funeral. Burial was made in the family plot in Walnut Grove cemetery. A widow, three sons and one daughter survive him. He was aged 49 years, 10 months and 3 days.

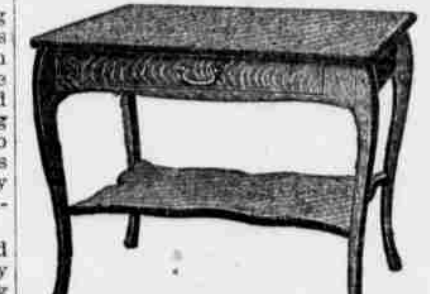

Following this service Rev. D. S. MacKellar preached the union Memorial sermon. Rev. C. O. Fuller read the Scripture lesson and Rev. W. T. Buchanan lead in prayer. A good sized and attentive congregation assembled. There were ten of the G. A. R. men present which shows how rapidly the ranks are thinning out. The Daughters of America served dinner in the I. O. O. F. hall yesterday. James F. Drake, the hustling Church street grocer, has put his dwelling house on corner of Church street and Bishop avenue, in the hands of carpenters and masons and the result will be a fine building with modern improvements into which he and family will move as soon as completed. Heretofore they have lived in the rooms on the second floor over their store. Mr. and Mrs. C. Rause arrived from Buffalo, N. Y., on the Monday afternoon train and are stopping with Mrs. Rause's mother, Mrs. Eckbeck. It is rumored that Mr. Rause, who is a glass cutter by trade, will enter the partnership of Shields & Knapp, who conduct a glass industry on River street. The Rev. W. T. Buchanan and wife announce that Thursday afternoons from 2 until 5 o'clock will be visiting days at the Presbyterian manse. Mrs. Joseph Mohr, of Kane, Pa., and Mrs. Kelley, her daughter, and the latter's husband, of Susquehanna, attended the funeral of the late George L. Pelton Saturday afternoon. Miss Gerry, of Scranton, is visiting her relatives, the Frisbie and Chamberlain families, at Wilsonville. Mrs. Mary Pelton, by trade, will dispose of her household goods at an auction sale in the near future and will make her home with her daughter, Mrs. Earl Uban. Mrs. M. Lassley, Miss Grimes and Mrs. Tracy James of Bohemia, Pa., were recent visitors in Hawley. Mrs. Smith and daughter, who lived in the Drake house on Bishop avenue, are now boarding with Mrs. Smith's daughter, Mrs. S. James. C. S. Houck, cashier of the Hawley Bank, is having extensive improvements and repairs made to his residence on Maple Ave. Mrs. Hannah Layton was home for a few days' visit last week. She will spend the summer with her brother, T. A. Simonson and wife near White Lake in Sullivan county, N. Y. The residents of the lower end of Church street will soon be relieved of the dust nuisance as the first sprinkling of oil was applied last Tuesday. Mrs. Curtis Wilds and Mrs. Seeley decorated the graves of loved ones buried in the Canaan cemetery on Tuesday. Mrs. George Kohlman, Mrs. Geo. Miller and Mrs. R. P. Warg attended the Lutheran festival in Honesdale on Tuesday afternoon. Manager McDonald says that everything is looking very favorable for the best ball team that Hawley has ever had. They are well organized and working in complete harmony. They opened the season on Memorial Day with two games with the Taylor Reds. The lineup was as follows: Clifford, catcher; Jos. McCuskey, pitcher; Brown, third base; Cornell, short stop; Murphy, first base; Gilpin, center field; Rose, left field; Bea, right field. The school board have levied a thirteen mill school tax, the same as last year. Twelve for school purposes and one will be to create a sinking fund. Mrs. Eckbeck visited friends at Adella on Sunday. Elizabeth A. Daniels, one of the local teachers, was elected vice-president of the Wayne County Teachers' Association. Harold A. Wulff, who is representing the Tippecanoe Security Co. of Scranton, was doing business in town on Friday. William Bea is spending a few days with his parents here. George Glass has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Glass, on Penn Avenue. Geo. Murphy, who has just completed a business course at Wyoming Seminary, is now assisting his father in the office at the Keystone Cutting shop. D. J. Branning now holds the ribbons over a fine pair of horses, having lately purchased one of Henry Wickham, Scranton, to mate the one he already had. Miss Anna White started on Wednesday for a four months' stay in Europe.

CANAAN. Hon. C. A. McCarty and sisters, the Misses Mary and Margaret, and Miss Tessie Gerrity, of Honesdale, spent Sunday with friends in this locality. Mrs. Jno. B. Golden, of Scranton, spent a day recently with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Moylan, of this vicinity. Many young people from Canaan attended the social on Friday evening of last week given in Pierson's Hall at Waymart. Miss Marcela White of Simpson returned to her home Sunday after spending several days as the guest of her aunt, Miss Katie Leary. Miss Anna Gannon of Inkerman, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. John Sheehan. Miss Elizabeth Burke returned home from Scranton after spending some time with friends in Scranton. Miss Anna Lynott of Honesdale, spent Sunday with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sheehy.

WHITE MILLS. (Special to The Citizen.) White Mills, May 30. Dr. E. B. Gavitt has laid a cross walk from the drug store leading to Thomas Gill's hotel. Quite an improvement to the town as this is the first cross walk that was ever laid in the town of White Mills. Several property owners are going to take up the same idea in front of their homes. Some of the drivers of automobiles say that it would have been a more complete job had there been crushed stone on the sides of this walk instead of ashes to relieve the shock of their machines. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sonner, of Honesdale, are guests of relatives here. Mrs. Richard Jay, of Uniondale, has arrived to spend the summer with her daughter, Mrs. Jennie Mallett.
