Hotel Men Confident That Tide Has Turned In Their Favor.

New York, June 4.-The hotel strike attained its greatest proportions and at the same moment signs appeared which indicate a collapse before the week is ended.

An invasion of the downtown district dragged out the waiters, busses and kitchen help of Mouquin's restaurant, many men at Haan's and the St. Denis. It failed to disturb the old uptown the Marseilles, the New Grand, the Grand Union, for the second time, and the York suffered, all putting more men on the street than there has been at any time so far,

At the same time lack of money in the union treasury, opposition to the Fred Demer of Hallstead, passed action of the union officers, discourage the latter part of the week with ment over the inopportune season for a strike, inspired a breach in the union itself, sent striking waiters and kitchen men back to some of the hotels, looking for their old jobs with the prophecy that about Wednesday will see a big rush for jobs all over the

DANGEROUS HOUSES.

Seven years ago, a family moved into a certain house in Philadelphia. Every member of it was, apparently, in the best of health. Since then, three of the children have tuberculosis. Another is sick of the disease. Investigation shows that a consumptive had lived in the house previously.

Scores of such cases are happenng all the time. Germs from a con-sumptive are scattered through the house until it is filled with the dis-ease. A new family occupies it and stricken with tuberculosis.

Therefore, don't move into a house until you have found out who occupled it before. If a consumptive or any person suffering from a con-taglous disease lived there, have your Board of Health fumigate the Scrub the floors with soap
