BLACK FOR SUMMER.

The black toilet is likely to be a favorite for summer. It will be relieved with ecru, white, straw color and biscuit. Each of the latter are tints with some similarity, but they are distinct notes of color. White and black lace will be worn in combination, and the new summer models are already appearing in large numbers. Gowns of black Ninon silk embroidery in black-slightly veined or worked with tinsel threads-are among the latest ideas for summer They are beautiful in all black, the touch of color being obtained by pip-ing the embroideries with bright turquoise, Parma mauve, or orchid pink

Red is to be popular as a trim-ning, as it will be the chief coloring of frock and hat. Red hats and swathed waist belts, collars and cuffs, and even entire costumes, are shown in a delightful shade of light

The Girl and the Gown.

This is the season of the year when mother is thinking hard how to gown the graduate, so that she will look sweeter than the other girls, and at the same time not break dad's back with the bill of the modiste. There is always a flutter and a spluter over the gowns of the graduate ter over the gowns and how she will wear her hair. As this argument and high debate, with its inevitable irritations and acrimonies, breaks out and rages anew very spring, and has done so ever since schools for women were insti-tuted and public graduations were permitted, it would seem by this fabrics can be used, and time there should have been a basis fashioned in a short time. of agreement reached and establishagainst fashion. It is much the same as Queen Mary's fight to shut out hobble skirts from the British court during the coronation. There is no tribunal to which to appeal, and each college and each class has to fight the issue over as if it were brand new

Fortunately the contest is of no great moment, for no matter which side wins, the graduating girls look lovely to all beholders, and some and some deem them the loveliest that ever

Flame. Hollidaysburg, Pa.—While the Rev. Herman J. Keyser, rector of Holy Trinity Episcopal Church, was preaching a Whitsunday sermon last Sunday evening and was telling his hearers how the Holy spirit first descended upon the Apostles in ton-gues of fire, the congregation were startled at the sight of tongues of bright light flashing out from the clergyman's vestments. It was dis-covered later that defective electric light apparatus in the pulpit reading desk has been short circuited, producing the seeming supernatural effect.

Hamburg.—The world's largest ship, the Hamburg-American liner Imperator, ten and a half feet long-than the ill-fated Titanic, was launched on Thursday last by Emperor William, in the presence of the high officials of the German government and a vast throng. James H. Duncan, of this city, who, competing unattached, threw the discus from the 8-foot 2½-inch Olympic circle, a distance of 156 feet 1 inch. This eclipses the great throw of E. Nillson in the try-outs at the Steekholm stadium Saturday. the Stockholm stadium Saturday, by 12 feet 9 inches.

In accordance with the Swedish Olympic rules, Duncan hurled the discus 96 feet 7½ inches, with his left hand, the combined throws be-ing 252 feet 8½ inches.

Rainwater and Buttermilk.

Rainwater and buttermilk are indeed valuable. The woman who lives in the city is quite apt to think that rainwater is quite beyond her reach, but she will send far and wide for something less important. If, however, a rainwater supply is thought impracticable, a good soft-ener may be made at home.

Four ounces of alcohol should be stirred into an ounce of ammonia, and to perfume the whole a dram of oil of geranium should be added. There are many women who wait until the hot days of July before re-sorting to buttermilk as a skin beautifier, but there really is nothing better to counteract the roughening effect of the spring and early summer winds.

If buttermilk cannot be obtained, ordinary curdled milk may be used, but it has not the delicate astringent effect of buttermilk. There are few women who realize the good results of using a generous portion of rain-water and buttermilk on the skin each day, but there should be a reg-ular course of treatments in order to derive the best results.

Fads of the Season.

Waists of real lace, notably those in Venise and Irish, are much seen, and Irish lace coats are being revived. Long handbags of these two materials are much in evidence, being swung from long cords and carried with lingerie dresses.

Nearly all of the latest lingerie dresses are of pure white. That is, they show practically no colored embroidery. The color is usually added in the garniture of girdle, sash, tuncoat or princess slip.
