SOME OF THOSE WHO MADE HISTORY AT REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION

A FEW OF THE LEADERS AND DELEGATES AT CHICAGO.

1 and 14, Senator William E. Borah. 2, Arthur I. Vorys. 3, John Hays Hammond. 4, George W. Perkins. 5, William Flinn. 6, Governor Hiram W. Johnson. 7, Mrs. Charles D. Blaney. 8, ex-Senator Chauncey M. Depew. 9, Governor Her bert S. Hadley. 16, Senator Boles Penrose. 11, Governor W. R. Stubbs. 12, James R. Garfield. 13, Michael B. Olbrich

T is not every man that has the opportunity to participate in such a history making conclave as the Republican national convention of 1912. The word "man" is here used in the generic sense of also including woman, who has a voice and a physical presence in this convention, God bless her!

Senator Borah of Idaho was the leader of the Roosevelt forces in the long fight over contests in the nation al committee and one of the progressive leaders in the convention.

Arthur I. Vorys is the former national committeeman from Ohio and the Taft leader in the state. John Hay-Hammond is the particular friend and golf partner of the president and is himself president of the National League of Republican Clubs. George W. Perkins is the former partner of J. Pierpont Morgan and one of the Roosevel lieutenants, aithough not a delegate. William Flinn, another Roosevelt lieutenant, is the new leader of Pennsylvania. Governor Hiram W. Johnson of California is called the "Roosevelt of the Pacific coast." Mrs. Charles D. Blaney also of California, is one of the first women delegates to sit in a Republican national convention and one of the suf frage leaders who helped give women the vote in the Golden State. Ex-Senator Chauncey M. Depew, an interested onlooker, was formerly a central figure. Governor Herbert S. Hadley of Missouri, floor leader of the Roosevelt forces, has been one of the very biggest figures in the struggle from the beginning. Senator Boles Penrose of Pennsylvania is no longer boss of Pennsylvania-Flinn saw to that-but nevertheless has been one of the Taft gen erals in Chicago. Governor Walter Roscoe Stubbs of Kansas has been for Roosevelt and wants everybody to know it. The same is true of James R. Garfield of Ohio, former secretary of the interior. Michael B. Olbrich is the man designated to make the nominating speech for La Follette.

The Taft men at last began to get up and cheer for Watson. The result was that soon after all the delegations were on their feet, the two fac tions cheering the two men who were standing together on the platform.

The Taft men worked hard for awhile on their counter demonstra- Kellam. tion, and there was nothing but noises of all sorts, hoots, whistles, catcalls and cheers. Pretty soon a parade was begun up the alsle by the New Jersey delegation, headed by their standard. Mr. Watson remained standing.

After a few minutes, however, the Roosevelt men fell in behind the New Jersey paraders and the parade of the standards moved more rapidly. North Carolina, Oklahoma, West Virginia. Nebraska, Ohio, Minnesota, California and Kansas fell in behind New Jer sey. The Pennsylvania and South Dakota delegates also joined in.

Taft Men Give Laugh.

The counter demonstration of the Taft men went right along with the Roosevelt parade, but they stopped cheering after awhile and contented themselves with simply watching the parade of the Roosevelt men and laughing at them. After the demonfine, and there are prospects of a large hay crop. The weather is too cold however for the rest of the stration had proceeded for about twenty minutes the Roosevelt men began the regularly repeated cry of "We want Teddy; we want Teddy; we want

This cry was started by the Massachusetts delegates, taken up by Flinn's Pennsylvania delegates, and then W. H. Coleman of McKeesport, Pa., one of Flinn's lieutenants, jumped upon the platform and shouted, "Three held at Cobb's Memorial church at cheers for Governor Hadley, the next 3 p. m. and at West Sterling at 7:45 president of the United States!" There was a renewal of the noise.

Quite a number of the young folks from the M. P. and M. E. churches attended the Sunday school convention held at Maplewood last Then he seized a megaphone previously used by one of the reading secretaries of the convention and shouted three times through it, "Hadley for president." And then Mr. Coleman Thursday.

Rev. Thomas had regular services in the Baptist church Sunday mornwas chased off the platform by one of the sergeant at arms. The noise ing and evening.

Herbert Reichert and Miss Nellie began to die out rapidly until Mrs. Davis, the girl up in the gallery, got busy by standing up in the gallery with the picture of Roosevelt and waving that with one hand.

Girl Checked by Police,

Her voice at times could be heard even above the general uproar. One of the California men seized the big teddy bear pole and quickly ran up into the gallery with it. He stood beside her waving the pole and yelling. Pretty soon she came down on the floor, guarded by the California pole bearer and several of the Oklahoma delegates and alternates. They tried to get her on the platform, but only succeeded in boosting her up among the press seats, waving her Roosevelt picture and yelling for Teddy.

Chief of Police Schuettler finally reached her and told her to come down, The girl made no objection and was quietly lifted down to the floor. She made her way back to her seat in the gallery and again stood up in full view and yelled and bowed. By that time the demonstration had nearly worn itself out. After a few more raps of Senator Root's gavel it was all over.

Convention Fight. Paris, June 20.-The struggle at Chicago is interesting Paris so deeply that the newspapers here devoted many columns to stories of what is happening at the convention. The Matin published a long cable dispatch under the caption "The Taft-Roosevelt Match." The Figure, commenting on the news from Chicago, makes allusion to the desertion of Napoleon's Saxon troops at the battle of Leipsic, and says that a furious political Leipsic is being fought in the convention. "For Saxons read negro delegates," it says, and adds that the last moment may change the issue of the battle.

Excelsior says: "The fight is not between Taft and Roosevelt, but is a fight for or against Roosevelt." The Petit Parisien deduces from the news that the fate of the presidency is in the hands of the negrous
