WEDNESDAY, JUNE 26, 1912.

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

For President, WILLIAM H. TAFT. Vice-President, JAMES S. SHERMAN. State Treasurer, ROBERT K. YOUNG.

THOUGHT FOR TODAY.

Who follows. Who follows where the feet of June. With fragrant roses sandaled, lead through dawning and delightful noon.

OUR TAFT SPECIAL.

The Citizen, in keeping with its other lines of progress, issued a special Taft edition Saturday night, informing the public of the renomination of the President of the United States, which occurred in the National Republican convention in Chicago.

In addition to the story concerning Taft being nominated for President and J. S. Sherman for Vice-President, the Citizen contained an article that interests every taxpayer in the borough of Honesdale—the renting of the City Hall by the Federal Government for a postoffice, in that it will bring in a revenue of $1,200 rent per year as against nothing received from it since it has been built.

We do not write this editorial with the intention of "blowing our horn," but to better bring to the attention of the public what modern journalism is. In subscribing for a paper the subscriber wants the NEWS and he wants it just as soon after it happens as he can get it.

The Citizen stands for progressiveness. If you want a better Honesdale and want to enjoy the privileges that will follow, help support this paper and stand by it. We have been told by our friends that The Citizen is getting better. If you have not already done so are you going to help make it better? You can do so by help supporting this paper.

Improvement, development of our natural resources, the promotion of local enterprises, and making this a better place and county to live in. Are you with us?

THE NATIONAL CONVENTION.

The Republican National Convention at Chicago has concluded its labors, has adopted a platform of principles, and has nominated the Republican candidate for president and vice-president of the United States. From now until the day of the November election it should be the duty and the pleasure of every sincere Republican to do all in his power to promote the fortune of the candidates and the success of the party.

We recognize the differences of opinion that have existed in this state as well as in other states of the Union. But we hold that the time has now come when those differences should not be permitted to interfere with party success. The conservatives have won their battle. They are entitled to the fruits of their victory. They have placed in the field as their candidate for president a man whose record and whose personality need no apology, whose conduct of the great office to which he again aspires, gives abundant promise of a wise and skillful and honorable administration of that office in the future.

As to the bolting element of the party, which has undertaken, in defiance of party rules and of orderly procedure, and of good faith, to set up a political house of its own, we believe that sober second thought will bring the better part of this element back into the ranks of the regulars before the campaign is fairly under way. The grievances are not serious enough, the principles involved are not of sufficient importance to bring any considerable number of Republican voters to the support of the movement. A new party cannot be born and live under such auspices as marked the bolt at Chicago.

In the meantime it is for the great body of Republican voters who have abiding faith in their party and its principles, and who desire to see the processes of government carried on in an orderly, wise and humane manner, to set themselves seriously to the task of healing wounds inadvertently made, of rallying voters to the standard of the greatest party the country has ever known, and of insuring success to the candidates of that party in the coming election.

The tumult and the shouting dies, The captains and the kings depart; Still stands thine ancient sacrifice,— An humble and a contrite heart. Lord God of Hosts, be with us yet, Lest we forget,—lest we forget!

GOULDSBORO.

Mr. and Mrs. Kelley have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Katherine, to Thomas N. Seales, of Binghamton, to take place at St. Catharine church, Moscow, at three o'clock Wednesday afternoon, June 26. Following the ceremony there will be a reception at the home of the bride's parents. They leave Wednesday for a bridal trip and on their return will commence house-keeping in Binghamton in the home that the groom has ready. The bride has spent all her life here. She has a large circle of friends who extend most hearty congratulations and good wishes.

Mrs. Calvin Gress underwent a very critical operation at her home at Sunnyside Wednesday morning. Her friends will be glad to learn that she rallied and is gaining as rapidly as could be expected. Dr. Kerling performed the operation. The Woman's Relief Corps of Moscow held a lawn social at the residence of Benj. Miller, Moscow, last Wednesday.

Mrs. Joseph Mathews and children have returned from a visit to Thornhurst. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Schermerling, accompanied them home.

Miss May Larne of Thornhurst, who has been spending some time in Philadelphia, is now the guest of Mrs. Calvin Gress.

Miss Helen Smith is spending a week with relatives at Newfoundland.

STERLING.

Sterling, June 25. (Special to The Citizen.) The weather has been so dry and cold that crops are not doing first rate.

Albert Bortree has not been very well for some time and last week he had an attack of rheumatism or something of the kind that totally disabled him. His sister, Mrs. O. W. Noble, from Honesdale, is now with him.

Perhaps the oldest barn in town is the one formerly owned by W. E. Hamlin, and Harry Magargie is now giving it a complete overhauling. Harley Ferguson and Samuel Fitz are doing the work.

L. G. Butler got kicked by a horse that laid him out for a few days. Last week the Ladies' Aid met for dinner with Mrs. T. E. Stevens and there was a good turn out and the meeting was a very pleasant one.

Rev. Webster is giving the parsonage a few touches of paint that is much needed and there doesn't seem to be any good stopping place. S. N. Cross spent from Saturday until Tuesday with his daughter, Mrs. W. B. Leshner, in Honesdale last week.

Rev. Webster attended Children's Day at LaAnna last Sunday and so preached here in the evening. Flossie Bortree has returned from the East Stroudsburg State Normal School.

BOARD OF TRADE BULLETIN

No. 2. HONESDALE, PA., JUNE 26, 1912. Vol. 2.

[Published in the interest of Honesdale and vicinity.]

F. W. Kretnier, President. R. J. Murray, 1st Vice-President. S. T. Ham, 2nd Vice-President. Edward Deltzer, Treasurer. E. B. Callaway, Secretary. E. B. Callaway, Editor.

The Chicago News gives this sage advice: "If you can't do anything to benefit your town, move away."

"Make a town attractive to the eye, remove old ramshackle buildings, clean up the debris, and cultivate smooth lawns and decorative flower beds and clumps of greenery, and you will do much to make the young of the town civilized and order-loving, and fill them with a proper civic pride."

Why Merchants Should Advertise. One of the most effective ways for local merchants to oppose encroachments of mail-order houses is to advertise liberally in the home paper. Too many merchants sleep on their oars while the catalog house comes in and takes a large portion of their trade. They demur at undertaking anything like a thorough system of advertising, contending that the drift to the mailorder houses is bound to come; and yet they make free complaint over the inroads of the mailorder houses into their particular trade. The fact of the matter is the trade belongs rightfully to them and would come to them if they were progressive enough to invite it with good, live advertising.

Scranton evidently thinks if Honesdale can obtain a quarter of a million dollar estate house with a small membership she ought to get an equally large one with a membership of nearly one thousand. The Scranton Board of Trade is going to send a committee out to get established to locate in that city. Hope they are successful. Honesdale has been well advertised since the announcement was made concerning the Gurney Electric Elevator company building a new plant here. In fact it has awakened many towns and cities and aroused dormant board of trades to activity. Honesdale is on the map.

For a town its size, Honesdale has more industries than Scranton. If you live out of Honesdale and intend making a change of residence inquire about the industrial advantages here before going elsewhere.

All work for Greater Honesdale. Every man ought to join the Greater Honesdale Board of Trade. Enclose a Board of Trade pamphlet in every letter you send out of Honesdale. Same will be furnished you by the secretary.

The membership committee of the Board of Trade is planning a campaign to secure new members. Now that Honesdale has secured an industry, that other Boards of Trade would like to have landed, it ought to serve as an incentive for every young, middle-aged and elderly man to join the local board and help boost their home town.

A number of new houses will be built in Honesdale and vicinity this summer and fall. It is expected that the heads of nearly 200 families will move into Honesdale within the next year. Options on properties adjacent to and in Honesdale borough have been secured and work on the erection of some houses will begin at once.

It is just as easy to talk in favor of your town as it is against it. Advertisers, attention! The Board of Trade is endeavoring to educate the residents of southern Wayne county to come to Honesdale to do their trading by advertising the Erie's new schedule, which went into effect June 15th last. You can help by inserting a notice in your ads telling your patrons of the change.
